

Reprint

Ten Commandments for Square Dancers

Author Unknown

1. Square dance mainly for the fun of it.
2. Remember you were once a beginner.
3. Be exuberant, but do not offend others.
4. Don't be a snob. The gods of retribution may visit their mischief on you and you will goof up the square.
5. Dance with many different callers so you can base your opinions on better comparisons.
6. Don't scent the air with garlic or alcohol.
7. Bathe diligently so the sweet aroma of soap is shared, not earthy smells of the barnyard.
8. Honor your club and give it your loyalty.
9. Avoid bickering and fault-finding. Acceptance is a wonderful thing.
10. Don't let a stranger be one. Speak and draw him in to the friendly and fun Square Dance experience.

Reprint from Buttons & Bows of Lakeland Yellowrock News – December 2008