FLORIDA FEDERATION of SQUARE DANCERS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As this message is being written, our term of office is drawing to a close. We believe it has been a good year for the Federation, characterized by a high degree of cooperation by all the officers and members of the Board of Delegates as well as by many other people with whom we have been associated.

We will cherish many beautiful memories. One of the highlights was the Working Weekend when we chose Alma Scott's design for the state outfit. From that point, we went on to make the plan for the outfit a reality, assisted by George and Rita Deschambeau, editors of this magazine, who gave us such fine publicity, and all Association presidents who worked long and hard to encourage their members to make and wear the outfits.

Who could forget "Dancing and More in '84" — that wonderful state convention so ably chaired by Frank and Frances Smith of the Northeast?

The Showcase of Ideas Leo and Mary Richardson put together was an outstanding part of the National Convention in Baltimore as was the sea of beautiful yellow and green outfits worn by our dancers in the Parade of States.

Though the Congress failed to pass the bill to make Square Dancing the permanent National Folk Dance at this session, the effort by dancers was tremendous and our Frank and Nan Habersberger deserve a great bouquet for their tireless efforts on behalf of the bill.

The Federation has moved ahead in encouraging its members to become organ donors. A long-standing boundary dispute has been settled. We are finally squared away as far as the IRS is concerned. Our new dancer brochures have been updated. Other projects are being considered.

Now it's time to think ahead and make plans for next year. And your new Executive Board will soon be hard at work doing just that.

For our part, we wish to say a heartfelt thank you to all you wonderful dancers who did so much to help us in 1984. We wish we could name you all, but there is just not room to do so.

Merry Christmas

NORTHWEST

One of the largest crowds of dancers in Northwest Association history attended the Annual Roundup in Chipley's National Guard Armory recently. Dancers enjoyed the calling of Elmer Sheffield and Darryl McMillan. Kit & Hoss Waldorf were there to cue the rounds.

Introduced at the Saturday night dance were Clarence & Catherine South, Assistant General Chairman of the National Convention for 1985 which will be held in Birmingham, Alabama. Also introduced were the Association's officers for 1985: President, Ron & Cupidine Knowlton; 1st Vice President, Grady & Janette Rea; 2nd Vice President, Marvin & Olena Taylor; Treasurer, Betty & Frank McCallister; Recording Secretary, Anneita Gilbourn; and Corresponding Secretary, Conrad & Belle Bishop. Joy Vaccari will continue to edit the Panhandle Press.

At the meeting held in conjunction with the Roundup, Frank McCallister, 1986 State Convention Chairman, and some of his committee chairmen, briefed the delegates on plans for the Kickoff to be held at the State Convention in 1985.

Organ donor information flyers and cards were made available to delegates and dancers. Delegates were encouraged to make their clubs aware of this worthwhile program.

Anneita Gilbourn reported that the Membership Dance in Blountstown was successful and a number of new members and renewals were signed up.

Next meeting will be at the Panama City Festival, January 26, 1985.

SOUTHEAST

Congratulations to the Swingin' Singles for their well planned Harvest Moon dance September 29th at which Jack Lasry made his debut after convalescing from a kidney transplant. The consensus was that the Singles reached a new pinnacle of success in presenting square dancers with an evening filled with food, fun, and fellowship. Thanks, Swingin' Singles, you did it again!

We are most thankful that our prayers were answered and Jack Lasry is gradually returning to good health and a full calling schedule.

Our sincere thanks to The Castoffs of Boynton Beach who were hosts to the Southeast Association's annual Presidents Dance October 14th. Past Presidents of the Association were honored, of which 17 were present. As usual, the Castoffs graciously provided a huge table filled with an elaborate array of goodies. Harry Taylor, Clyde Kirk, and guest callers provided for our dancing pleasure.

Our S.O.S. (Southeast October Spectacular) was held October 20th, featuring Joe Patti of Hammond, Louisiana on squares, and Fred & Louise Hornung of Ft. Lauderdale on rounds. We broke for dinner at 5 PM and returned at 7:00 to be entertained by an Oriental teaching skit by the Hornungs, two lovely songs by talented Angela Bomford, and several other hilarious skits, one of which was by the Swingin' Singles who presented a square dance tip where the ladies danced the men's part and the men donned petticoats and danced as ladies. To top off the evening, Fred Hornung, wearing exaggerated ladies' apparel, and Al Tenczar danced to the tune "Feelings" . . . and were they ever!

During the course of the afternoon and evening, over 35 prizes donated by area square dance shops and individuals were given out.

We congratulate Jim & Rosemary Davis, Chairpersons, for this most enjoyable and successful dance. Assisting them were Gunther & Marilyn Walther, Co-Chairpersons; Bobbie Stewart, Registrations; Harry & Liz Workman, Refreshments; and George & Boots Oglesby, Door Prizes.

WEST COAST

The West Coast Dancer has been renamed the Florida West Coast Dancer to minimize any confusion with that other "West Coast".

The Fall Fun Fest was all that its name implies—Fun and Festivities, with the very best callers, cuers and dancers.

Kudos to all you out there who helped make the FFF so successful —

- to the hard working committee chairmen and their advisors: the Johnsons, Herberts, Aults, Veters, Nissens, Burchams, Smiths, Peardons, Grosses, Jack Pierson, and Allen Snell;

- to all those who helped to advertise the dance and sold ribbons; for example, Elvin & Dolores Mahan, our new, dedicated treasurers, who took flyers with them on their vacation and left them at Gulf Port,

Mississippi; Tucson and Tempe, Arizona; Albuquerque, Amarillo, Oklahoma City, and cities in Tennessee. Carl & Hazel Smith, our immediate past presidents, left a trail of FFF flyers throughout the Carolinas;

- to George & Dena Burcham, Past Presidents, who used their talents to make the wonderful directional signs;

- to the wonderful dancers who came from far and wide;

- and, of course, to our great callers and cuers. Muchisimas gracias!

A Joyous Holiday Season to all you square and round dancers and to the wonderful callers and cuers who make it all possible.

It has truly been a GREAT year - let us be thankful!

Anne & Ed Ellis

YELLOW ROCKERS

MELBOURNE . . . In the spring we moved to the K of C Hall with good acoustics and great air conditioning, and dance attendance grew. Tho sno-birds went north and members took vacations, we averaged 8 squares which we thought was super for summer time. We have 6 squares in our beginner class, all enthusiastic about learning to square dance.

Most everyone came in costume to greet the "goblins" at our Hallowe'en Dance. We're now planning a Christmas dinner party for members and our new class on a non-dancing night. We look forward to our Northern friends dancing with us again this winter - and - we now have Round Dancing between tips. Join us.

Bill & Velma

NORTH OF THE BORDER

. . . Belles and Beaux and Thunderbird Square Dance Clubs have been having a ball during the summer months dancing and traveling around visiting with different groups of square dancers. We enjoy doing this and enjoy other clubs visiting with us.

Note: During November and December the Thunderbird Squares will be dancing on Tuesday nights at the Recreation Department's Craig Center, 1104 W. Gordon Street, due to building renovation.

Both clubs enjoyed an evening out with Friends, the Plains and Smiths, at Lee Florida with a wonderful fish supper. There was plenty of food and sweets. Lots of fellowship was had by all.

We will hold our combined Annual Christmas Party on December 8th at the Garden Center. Everyone is welcome to come and enjoy the fun. We will not hold our annual New Years Eve Dance since neither the Craig Center nor the Mathis City Auditorium is available.

'85 STATE CONVENTION

MAY 24, 25, 26, 1985

Hosted by Southeast Florida
Square & Round Dance Association

The countdown is heard! Only 28 days to shop for Christmas. The Convention Committee also has some countdowns. Only 180 days until the '85 convention. Only 151 days to register by mail for the convention. You alone can fill in the following: Only _____ days until I decide to make plans to join my friends in the fun at the 1985 convention. Make it soon. Also make your reservations for accommodations in Lakeland early.

The committee members who made visitations to other areas this past month report that they had a great time with the Strawberry Squares and enjoyed the Hall of Fame Dance too. They also had fun with the dancers at the Fall Fun Fest. We are all looking forward to visiting more of you after the holidays. Southeast area Square and Round Dance Clubs will be visited by committee members early in the new year. At that time Marilyn and Gunther Walther will be scheduling volunteers for their Hospitality committee.

Boots & George Oglesby, Vendor Chairman, report that vendor space reservations from Florida vendors have been coming in very slowly. The deadline is in January. Space will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Please ask the vendors in your area if they have made their space reservation for the 1985 convention and encourage them to do it soon if they haven't already done it.

The 1985 Florida Square and Round Dance Convention Committee hopes that all of you have a very Merry Christmas and that this holiday season will be a joyful one.

ROUND DANCE COUNCIL TO CELEBRATE !!

The Round Dance Council of Florida is having a 25th Birthday! It will be celebrated on December 8, 1984 at Strawberry Square, Plant City. The celebration will be combined with the 4th Annual Round Dance Seminar and Grand Ball for teachers, prospective teachers, and interested dancers.

History of the Council

Back in 1959, the very first Fall Festival of Rounds was partially underwritten by the Florida Knothead organization consisting of Ed & Kay Mack, Bill & Ruthe Muench, Jim & Helen Galloway, and Mac & Pat McClumpha. An announcement appeared in the December, 1959 BOW & SWING — "Holiday for Rounds" opens in Clearwater Friday, December 11, 1959 with Jim & Noriene Pearson coordinating the event.

Round dance leaders from throughout the state were encouraged to attend and participate in a meeting at the Fort Harrison Hotel on December 13th to discuss plans for formation of a much needed organization designed to serve as a clearing house for round dance information which would systematically extend the enjoyment of American round dancing to the general public as well as the square dancing community. It was stressed that memberships would be extended only to those who were teachers of round dancing or were active in the establishment of round dance instruction groups.

Records showed a total registration of 97 dancers and teachers at the First Fall Festival of Rounds. From this group, 23 people formed the nucleus which became the Round Dance Council of Florida on December 13, 1959.

The organization grew in size and maturity until in 1961 Jay Fenimore asked the Council to handle rounds for the 9th Annual Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention in Miami. This was the first time our State Convention had a separate program for rounds prepared by the Round Dance Council of Florida. It included a complete workshop program in two halls, mornings and afternoons, both Friday and Saturday.

Education Important

Education has been the main emphasis of the Council's activities from its inception, and still is today.

In August, 1966, round dance position charts and abbreviations were printed in BOW & SWING, followed by the selection of a "Round Dancers Round of the Month" and a "Square Dancers Round of the Month".

In December, 1981, Chris Brissette Keiser and Barbara Blackford saw the culmination of a lot of work and planning when the first Educational Seminar became a reality. More recently, another facet of the Council's Education program was formed—Mini Clinics for Council teachers. These clinics are requested by a Council member who sets a date, arranges for a hall, and asks the Council for a Clinician who is proficient in a chosen level and style of dance. These clinics are designed to be as close to a one-on-one basis as possible. To date, 6 of these Mini Clinics have been held in all parts of the state, and will be an on-going project.

The Round Dance Council of Florida now has an active membership of 95 couples and 21 individuals and continually adds new members. With the emphasis on education, the goal is to have the best trained teachers possible.

New Feature

In your BOW & SWING magazine, you will no longer find a "Round of the Month" every month. These will be chosen every other month, and on the alternate months, a new column will appear, "Charlie's Round Dance Corner". The author will be Charlie & Madeline Lovelace of Tampa. The Lovelaces are Past President of the Council and are well known as teachers all over the United States and Canada, with credentials too long to list.

As in all things, continuing education is what keeps an activity alive and well.

Celebrating 25 years of growth is a fitting way to salute the efforts of all the wonderful people who made this day possible.

TIPS FOR NEWER CALLERS

Les Gotcher

TRADE BY - Have fun with it.

If you have Heads/Sides Square Thru four hands, as we have said many times before, we have everyone facing their original Corner Lady, IN Sequence, ready for a Left Allemande. This sets up a real good place to practice Trade By.

For instance, have them Pass Thru, Trade By - then another Pass Thru, Trade By and we have exactly the same thing again except they are straight across from where they were before. Of course you can move them back across to where they started by the above once more. Here's a for instance:

Heads Square Thru 4 Hands

Pass Thru - Trade By -

Pass Thru - Trade By - (facing corner, across from start)

Pass Thru - Trade By -

Pass Thru - Trade By - back to starting position now)

As I said, this is something you can play with and have fun doing it. So will the dancer have fun with it. You can use instead of Pass Thru — Trade By, Square Thru  $\frac{3}{4}$ 's, and then Trade By. Like so:

Heads Square Thru 4 Hands

Square Thru  $\frac{3}{4}$ 's -

Trade By - Square Thru  $\frac{3}{4}$ 's

Trade By, Left Allemande.

While playing around with different setups, I came up with one that is very effective, and it works real smooth:

Heads Square Thru 4 Hands

Split the Outside - Separate

Around one and make a line -

Star Thru and - Trade By -

Square Thru  $\frac{3}{4}$ 's - Trade By -

Left Alle.

You can get just about anything you want by working on get-ins and get-outs. Always be sure they are set up right before you try anything too complicated. You'd better take a board and check 'em out:

Heads Right, Circle to a Line

Pass Thru and Wheel & Deal

Double Pass Thru - Centers In

Cast Off  $\frac{3}{4}$ 's Round - Now Just the ends

Pass Thru and do a U Turn Back -

All Star Thru - Trade By -

There's Corner, Left Allemande.

You can go on and on because there is absolutely no limit to what you can do with it. Try one like this:

Heads Right, Circle to a Line

Pass the Ocean and - Recycle -

Square Thru  $\frac{3}{4}$ 's - Trade By -

Square Thru  $\frac{3}{4}$ 's - Trade By -

Pass the Ocean and - Recycle -

Cross-Trail Thru, Left Allemande.

I was having fun with this so I kept trying other setups and there seemed to be no end to what it would work with so I kept on and got really wild with this:

1 & 3 Cross-Trail Thru -

Lady go around 1 - Gent around 2

Lines of 4 go forward and back

Now just the ends Pass Thru -

Do a "U" Turn Back - All Star Thru

And Trade By - Then Pass Thru -

And Trade By, Left Allemande.

I could go further but you have enough to hold you through '84 and on into '85. Since it's December it's not very long till 1985. Take it easy, have fun, and 'keep smilin'.

Les

FLORIDA CALLERS ASSOCIATION NEWS

Fall Clinic

If your caller is sounding better lately, it's because of the valuable and intense education squeezed into the Florida Callers Association Clinic Weekend October 19th and 20th at the Islander Beach Motel in New Smyrna Beach.

It was conducted by Arden Hopkin, Ph.D., Professor of Voice at Texas Christian University. Many of the callers present were critiqued and coached on a one-on-one basis, and all present benefitted from the various problem area that were explored.

The callers learned about such things as metering, tonic and dominant pitches, and Agogic accents. These high-flown words, however, are not as important as the overall effect the educational weekend will have had on those who attended.

In Florida we have already been blessed with some of the country's best callers, and with this additional polishing, together with the springboard provided by Professor Hopkin for continuing improvement, the dancers will be the beneficiaries of added enjoyment in their dancing. They will be enjoying callers with voices more resonant, full, mellow, and melodious. The callers were in agreement that Arden Hopkin be invited for a return engagement.

New Officers Elected

At the Annual Meeting, by a unanimous vote, Earl Steele was elected President; Lon Ligon - Vice President; Harry Taylor - Secretary; and Jim Duncan - Treasurer.

Outgoing President

Bob Bland was presented with a plaque of Appreciation which included both his and Ethel's contribution of their time, talent and efforts for the Florida Callers Association. Bob also presented Ethel with a plaque showing his appreciation of her devotion and patience.

Frank Habersberger, Chairman of the 1985 Florida State Convention, gave the Callers a status report on the upcoming convention.

New full members, critiqued during the Clinic, (white badge) were announced: Norma Glover, Marguerite Bryan, Bobbie Daniels, and Henri Arsenault. Also admitted to the Association as full members are Don Whitaker and Larry Patten. New Associate Members include David Van Ness, P.J. Van Ness, Jim Louder, Mark Lipscomb, W. C. Stringer, Sam Salter, and Michael Cox.

10TH ANNIVERSARY CAMP-O-REE A ROUSING SUCCESS

A record attendance was posted for the 10th Anniversary Camp-O-Ree of the Florida Association of National Square Dance Campers with 309 rigs registered at Eustis Park, the last weekend of October. Dancing was called and cued by the Chapter callers and cuers, with workshops in the morning and afternoon, and dances in the evening.

Ghosts, goblins, cats, clowns, ghouls, crayons, a bull, and many other creatures participated in the first masquerade party with prizes going to several of the group. Cider and doughnuts were served and group skits were enjoyed by all.

The fashion show by Barbara Holt featured some of the outfits from the first style show 10 years ago and then many new fashions for dancing and relaxing delighted the eye while the spectators enjoyed a bag lunch.

Without a hitch, the wagon master, Dell Miller, and his crew of Chapter 018 parked everyone without long waiting lines and this time by chapter. Del said they were practicing for '86 when International is parked by state and chapter.

When it comes to serving a complete chicken dinner, including dessert, to over 625 people in 22 minutes, just ask Tom & Barbara Doughman and their committee, Chapter 082. They did it!

Camp-O-Ree Chairman, Bill & Dot Storey, planned a special program for the 10th anniversary and presented a plaque to each of the past presidents.

Ray & Jean Williams were elected president at the General Meeting on Sunday morning. Also elected were Andy & Audrey Ziegler, vice president; Don & Ann Roe, secretary; Bill & Dot Storey, treasurer.

Camp-O-Ree chairman for '85 is Rod & Dot Freeman, and co-chairman is Ben & Lili Risinger.

International '86 General Chairman, Ray & Jean Williams, introduced each of the Chairmen for '86 and presented them with their bars. An International meeting was held and all committee chairman have been appointed with all of the Florida chapters participating. Now the push is on to go to Colorado in '85.

The next meeting of the Florida Association will be at the Sunshine Festival in Lakeland, on Saturday, February 2nd at 4:00 PM.

TWIRL-A-WAYS

TITUSVILLE . . . On October 13th, we hosted a dance to celebrate caller Skip Smith's 5th anniversary with the club. Frank Bedell was there to share the night's calling with Skip. After the dance, club members shared some nostalgia with Skip. Past and present presidents were introduced, along with class members from each of the 5 years, whose reminiscences of past occasions led to repeat performances of skits and dances. Skip also endured a few good-natured roasts, but thoroughly enjoyed the "yellow rocks" and kisses given to him by many of the ladies. A plaque commemorating his 5 years with the Twirl-A-Ways was presented by current presidents, Ted & Liz Beck.

on the beautiful Ship "CONSTITUTION" in the HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

APRIL 24 - MAY 4, 1985

You will be greeted at the airport with a lovely flower lei and taken to a luxury hotel in Waikiki Beach for 4 days and 3 nights before you sail where you can rest and relax, see the sights, until Saturday evening when the magic moment arrives, when, with a lei around your shoulders, your beautiful ship leaves Honolulu's Aloha Tower with you on board. Red, white and blue streamers sail into the tropical night. You are carried away on a 7-day adventure through the legendary islands of King Kamehameha and Captain Cook. Aboard the only luxury line that cruises the "Islands of Hawaii". You will only unpack once as you visit 4 islands and 5 fascinating Ports of Call: Oahu, Maui, Kauai, Hilo and Kona—for one unforgettable 11-day vacation.

Your cost, including complete round trip airfare from Tampa is (per person):

ALL ACTIVE MEMBERS OF THE FLORIDA ROUND DANCE COUNCIL ARE INVITED TO BE OUR GUESTS

INVERNESS SQUARES

... We demonstrated the fun of square dancing October 5th in both shopping centers in Inverness. Flyers were handed out promoting our basic lessons. As a result, we have a good class going, so look for some new faces in 1985. I'm sure they will love square dancing as much as we all do!

Anonymous

DIXIE SQUARES

DAYTONA BEACH... We were busy in September and October promoting new classes. Besides participating with the rest of Central Florida in Mall dances, we have had 3 exhibitions of our own—at a square dance in the park September 22nd for the Downtown Businessmen; at the Ormond Beach Rotary Club Picnic September 23rd; and at the Daytona Beach K-Mart parking lot on October 14th.

95 dinner guests attended our September 27th Luau. Hula lessons were given by Delores Johns to those brave enough to don a grass skirt in front of the rest of us. Hurricane Isadore put a damper on the evening as most of us were thoroughly soaked on our way to the car by his gale force winds... A Silent Auction will be held November 15th—a wonderful chance to pick up someone else's needlework, baked goods, crafts, or white elephants.

Mary Jane

DIXIE LOOPERS

... We will be dancing in our new location as of November 6th at the Rascals Disco, 6814 Ridgeway Plaza on Ridge Road. Come dance with us and enjoy the warmth and friendship. Merry Christmas everyone. May this be the merriest ever with good health and happiness. Santa will be coming soon to bring gifts to good girls and boys who dance regularly... Come see us soon in our new hall.

Ceal Gaouette

FLAGLER OCEAN WAVES

PALM COAST... Headed by John & Chris Loughridge, Vice Presidents, we have enjoyed recent banner-retrieval visits to neighboring clubs. One group braved the winds and rain of a tropical storm to visit the New Smyrna Beach Drifters; in contrast to the poor traveling conditions, the dancing was most enjoyable... A larger contingent journeyed to Georgetown's Bass Capital Squares, where the pot-luck supper, the friendly atmosphere, and the good dancing were really appreciated.

Our annual Christmas dinner dance will be December 7th. Members are looking forward to this gala event, with many visitors joining in the festivities.

Charles & Helen Carmine

CLOVER LEAF LEPRECHAUNS

BROOKSVILLE... We are well into the swing of things now that our dance schedule is under way and all our members and friends are back. Our Christmas dance is December 23rd. No dance on December 30th. If you are in our area, come join us for a good Sunday afternoon of dancing.

Airy Jenkins

CHARLOTTE PROMENADERS

PORT CHARLOTTE... It is again time to wish all of you "Happy Holidays" and a New Year filled with the fun of Square Dancing and the joy of friends. Check our ad in Bow & Swing for tickets only New Years Eve Dance and remember our Christmas Dance December 13th. Coming Demo dances are November 10th at the Englewood radio station and December 17th at Punta Gorda Civic Center. To the officers, committees, and participants, - "Thank you."

Wayne & Eddie Tennant

VILLAGE SQUARES

LONGWOOD... We've just had elections, and with our new officers, everyone is ready for a new season of dancing. We had a great square dance Camp-out weekend at Camptown October 20th... Everyone is very busy here getting ready for our Benefit Dance, Harvest Twirl, November 17th... Visitors are very welcome to join us every Tuesday night and 2nd Saturday night where we are always - Dancing For Fun!

Sandy Spain

DANCING NOTES

NEW ADVANCED CALLERLAB QUARTERLY SELECTION

For the Quarter beginning December 1, 1984, the Advanced Quarterly Selection Committee has selected Harmonize as written by dancer George Amos.

The definition is as follows: - From parallel lines or waves with centers in a mini-wave - centers  $\frac{1}{2}$  Circulate as the ends Flip to the nearest center, Triple Trade, very centers and lonesome ends move up as in an Hourglass Circulate. Timing 10 beats.

As a result of the Keep/Drop Ballot, all calls currently on the Advanced Quarterly Selection List will remain as Quarterly Selections for the next 6 months. Current AQS are: Change Lanes, Harmonize, Linear Action, Mini Busy, and Zing.

HOLIDAY GREETINGS FROM THE SUNSHINE FESTIVAL STAFF

Hope you will have the merriest Christmas, and a very healthy and prosperous New Year filled with fun, fellowship and happy dancing.

We're so excited about our 10th Anniversary which we will celebrate at this year's festival January 31 and February 1 & 2. As part of the festivities, 4 dance packages and prizes galore will be given away to some lucky dancers.

We're happy to announce that the new Econo-lodge and Scottish Inn will open in Lakeland in time for our festival.

More good news is that Jack Lasry, one of our staff, has had such a great recovery after his kidney transplant, and will be sharing the microphone with Frank, Roger, John, Sam and Art. We're glad to have the Blackfords back with us on our guest round dance staff.

If any Florida Square or Round Dance Association or organizations are planning meetings during our '85 festival, they should please contact a member of the Sunshine staff so that we can assist in directing people to the right meeting.

We look forward to having you with us to celebrate our 10th Anniversary.

HOLIDAY MESSAGE FROM THE OTHER SIDE OF THE WORLD

Gordon & Gwen Nuttall, Editors of CATHEDRAL CHIMES, Christchurch, New Zealand, extend holiday greetings to BOW & SWING and all its readers from themselves and all their dancers.

LEGACY QUESTIONNAIRE

Included as a tear-out centerfold in this issue is a copy of the LEGACY Dancer Survey form. By including it in this magazine, more people will be afforded an opportunity to voice their opinions and reflect their attitudes on many aspects of square dancing.

This is the 4th biennial survey conducted by LEGACY. As before, the results will be compiled and distributed to publications, associations, clubs, callers and dancers.

Last date for mailing the forms back is March 1, 1985 and complete results will be available after the LEGACY meeting in May.

All costs and labor for the survey, as before, come from individual contributions (most often in the form of postage), LEGACY funds (membership fees and personal donations) and volunteers for the preparation, distribution, collection, computer entry, data analysis and distribution of information.

Your help in filling out the survey form and mailing it to LEGACY will provide valuable assistance to improve the quality of square dancing.

TRAIL BLAZERS

ORLANDO . . . October kicked off new classes with a great group of new folks. We had an Octoberfest-Halloween combination party with a pot-luck dinner. The class was invited to stay and join us. Tiffany Squares were there to steal our banner so we fed them and put them to work as costume judges. Frank Smith and Dot Lucy won best costume prizes from the club, and there was a 3-way tie for best costumes from the class. Naturally we had too much to eat of the German pot-luck food and a lot of crazy fun.

Our Christmas Party will be December 18th, with a canned good collection for the needy.

FOUR TOWNE SQUARES

DELTONA . . . We had our very successful 2nd Annual Oktoberfest October 26th. The knockwurst, sauerkraut, German potato salad, red cabbage salad and special German desserts completed a delicious meal enjoyed by all. The schlanze tanz (snake dance) and chicken dance, along with polka, waltzes, and of course, square dancing, made a full evening of activity for all to enjoy.

We will be looking for a full house at our 5th annual Bow & Swing Subscription Dance at the Deltona Community Center on December 1st. Come out and get your subscription renewed and bring your friends who need a new subscription.

We now look forward to our New Years Eve Dance.

Pat Square

PAIR-A-DICE SQUARES

DUNEDIN . . . We have planned a great New Year's A-1 Dance Party. . . It sure is fun dancing with our Northern friends again.

Helen & Wilkes Gibson

HIALEAH COUNTRY CORNERS

. . . Now that we are back into our garden party weather, we had a very productive business meeting at the Weatherfords, after which we enjoyed dining in their tropical garden dining room and getting updated on the latest in native Florida plants. Some people are born with a green thumb!

We recently inducted 3 new member couples, and a special new member, Vince Cipullo. By special, we mean that his wife, Eleanor, has been a mainstay of the group for several years while he worked out his last years for retirement from Pan Am in New York. He visited but didn't dance with us on his weekends home. Retiring last year, he immediately entered the beginners class and is now happily united with Eleanor as a dancing couple. (Of course all the single men will miss having Eleanor available at the dances.)

Mildred Sinquefield

TIFFANY SQUARES

ORLANDO . . . With the enthusiasm being shown for our upcoming Thanksgiving dinner, our holiday season is certainly off to a grand start. We are looking forward to our Christmas dance and are busily planning for our first New Year's Eve dance party. Come and join us—You'll find that we are a fun group.

Babs & Millie

KRISS KROSS SQUARES

FT. MYERS . . . We had the pleasure of having our first Square Dance Wedding! It was held October 1st and was beautiful! Frances Masurat and Jack Hackett were married by a very dear friend of the couple, Vonita Klassen, a Notary Public and also a square dancer. Matron of Honor and Best Man were Fran & John DiFabio.

The bride was lovely in her dress of white eyelet trimmed in brown, designed by Fran DiFabio of the Scoot Back Shop. The groom wore a brown western shirt with white trousers. At the lovely reception, out of town guests were the bride's father and mother of Pottstown, PA, and her aunt.

All those who have celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversaries will be honored in November. . . We are so glad to hear that Bernadine Leake is recovering after a very serious heart attack.

It's time to say Merry Christmas and God Bless.

CASTOFFS

BOYNTON BEACH... To you all from all the Castoffs, a very Merry Holiday season and a Happy & Healthy New Year.

Another notch in our lapels; we performed before throngs at the Town Center in Boca Raton on October 16th to celebrate their Fun, Fantasy, and Fashion Anniversary. The delighted shoppers literally were 'stomping at the mall'.

We hosted the Southeast Assn. Clinic October 14th and the attendance bulged the walls of our Civic Center. Several guest callers had the happy dancers squaring and rounding till we had to close the doors at 4 PM but not until they had feasted from our buffet table. Thanks to our members who participated in helping and providing the delectables. We know the SEA appreciates our efforts and we welcome them back every year same time same place.

Come join us for our December 30th End of the Year Bash. See our ad for details.

Herb Langmeyer

BAY AREA TWIRLERS

TAMPA... Christmas is a joyous season for us and one of the joys is that of greeting friends. Our Christmas Party will be early this year (Dec. 8th). Why not start the joyous season greeting friends at our special dance. The eating is sure to be good. Since this will be our only dance (the Rec. Center is closed on the 22nd for Christmas weekend), to ALL our friends we extend Seasons Greetings... See you dancing.

Norm & Carolyn Fowles

FLORIDA WHEELERS

#143 NSDCA... We had a great turnout at our Camporee at Camp Lemora on October 20th with about 25 rigs. We camp the 3rd weekend of even numbered months and shall be happy to have any NSDCA Members or their guests attend. Our next Camporee will be Dec. 18-19 at Turtle Creek Campground in Homosassa.

N. Rumph

COCONUT SQUARES

COCONUT CREEK... We look forward to our Anniversary Dance and another big season of dancing and fun. Our Halloween Party was enjoyed by all the ghosts and goblins in the orange and black decorated hall. The orange punch and decorated cupcakes added to the decor. Prizes were awarded for the prettiest, scariest, funniest and most original costumes.

We have a new traveling banner and are waiting for some plus clubs to come and steal it. . . We thank the Southeast Dancers Assn. for their visitation. Always enjoy having them. . . We wish all square dancers Happy Holidays.

The Original Coconut

ARCADIA SQUARES

ARCADIA... The enthusiastic "welcome back" we received as snowbirds made us realize what a friendly group square dancers are. Now each week our group gets larger, and it's so good to be together again. Sorry our caller's taw, Grace Livingston, has not been feeling quite up to par. We miss her friendly greetings each Thursday. Our quarterly meeting was held at the country home of our president, Wilson Mathis, and from all reports, he and Joanna put on a super party. Best of all, they have promised us a repeat in January. Come join us on Thursdays at the lovely new Palace Square Dance Hall.

Rachel & Dayton Messerschmidt

SPACE TRACKERS

ROCKLEDGE... Our fall class has started out really super, with 7 squares of beginners. We look forward to their graduation and joining the club. . . Our Winter Whirl special dance is coming up January 20th. . . We plan a chartered bus trip to the National Convention next June. A rummage sale and Tupperware Party have been held with proceeds going to help finance the trip. Members are also saving aluminum cans for the same reason. . . We look forward to a great dance season with many of our winter visitors returning daily.

Bill Deason

MELODY SQUARES

BRANDON... Well the summer is over and we are back to dancing Mainstream with a plus workshop the 2nd & 4th Saturdays at the Rec. Center. Good time to catch up if you haven't danced this summer.

BIG POTATO SQUARES

APOPKA . . . Our 2nd Annual Pig Roast hosted by President Rod & Ferne Garland (super gracious hosts) certainly cannot be beat. We disposed of 300 lbs. of roast pig which Rod and other members tended in the barbecue pit the whole night before, besides many other goodies. Rod & Ferne provided many things, among which were a caterer who cooked up some special french fried mushrooms, and even a pony for the guest children to enjoy riding.

We said a sad Farewell to charter member Jim Taylor, who passed away after a long illness. Sincere sympathy to Mary and their children.

Our annual Christmas Cookie Exchange will be December 19th. A happy holiday season to you all.

The Little Potato

TEMPLE TWIRLERS

TAMPA . . . Prizes were awarded at our Halloween Dance for the best dressed couple (two clowns) as well as the best dressed lady (a bumblebee) and best dressed man (a devil).

All dancers are welcome to our annual Christmas party December 17th. We ask only that you bring an inexpensive gift (not to exceed $2.00) and mark it for a lady or a gent. Also, please bring some of your favorite Holiday goodies to share with the group.

Our prayers go out to Clyde Fronk, Jim Hudson, and Sam Prentice for rapid returns to good health following surgery.

Joe & Mary Ann Yusas

SWINGIN' SINGLES

. . . Our September 29th Harvest Moon Dance was a smashing success. The hall was decorated with a big yellow moon, various harvest season decorations, complete with two life-sized scarecrows, and lots of yellow ribbons welcoming our caller, Jack Lasry. This was his first calling event since receiving a kidney transplant and he was given a rousing welcome by everyone. As he entered the room, two cheer leaders yelled out: "Give me a "J", "A", "C", "K", "L", "A", "S", "R", "Y" which was roared back by those present as singles carrying cards with these letters burst forth. Jack was astonished by such a welcome but rose to the occasion by thanking everyone for their cards, letters, phone messages, and prayers and said how much courage and strength he derived from knowing so many people cared. He then proceeded to call a super dance. The goodies on 3 refreshment tables included a cake decorated in red and white (singles colors) with "Welcome Home, Jack."

During the refreshment break a song written by Sarah Gibel was sung by her, and accompanied by Ellen Bailus, Jerri Wallace, Cele Adams, and Millie Griffin. A big thanks goes to the Shirley Bonvisuto and Clara Nell Hurst, in charge of Activities, as well as all the Singles who cooperated so willingly to make this a memorable occasion for Jack & Carolyn Lasry, their guests, and the club.

Sarah Gibel

AZALEA SQUARES

. . . We're having a great time. So glad to see our winter folks coming back. November 8th will be pie night.

Granny is sad over the loss of her son-in-law October 14th. He and his wife Nancy, son Cliff, and daughter Lorry are all known in the Square Dance World.

Granny

BUTTONS & BOWS

MULBERRY . . . Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! We hope you have marvelous holidays and that you come dance with us and share some holiday refreshments that our good cooks prepare.

Thanks to Martha & Lloyd Sheffield for the fine food and fun at the November picnic. We have enjoyed all the "Special Events" they and their committee have planned this year.

We appreciated all those "good looking" Hobos from Orlando, Brandon and Tampa that came and danced with us and ate our stew at the Hobo Dance. Come see us.

Kathy & Lynn Harrison

VILLA CURLI Q's

... Could you believe that it's Christmas time again—On December 15th we will have our Christmas Dance with good food, door prizes, and good dancing. We want to share our great new caller, Freeman Pettus with all of our friends. We are always so happy when our good friends come down from the north and dance with us. We have so much fun.

Emma Ketchum

WESTERNAIRES

NORTH MIAMI ... At least 13 couples from our club attended the annual Southeast October Spectacular in Davie. Jim Davis did a marvelous job as M.C. Caller Joe Patti, and wife, Elizabeth, of Hammond, LA, were houseguests of Wally & Margaret Peco during their stay here. Though Joe was having throat problems, it didn't slow him down any. The two-part event, afternoon and evening, with a supper break, included several skits, and songs by our own Angela Bomford.

Our annual picnic was well attended, with outstanding food, in the great setting of Robert King High Park. Attending as guests were the Pattis, still in town from the SOS dance. Another surprise was Bob Cook, the original caller for Westernaires! Someone produced a TV set the better to watch a Dolphins game, only to be torn away when the games, planned by President Dee Nickerson, got up steam. No prize was given for bare stomachs, but some of our group were real "standouts!"

J. Barth

MERRY MAVERICKS

JACKSONVILLE ... On October 21st we had another successful picnic and general club meeting. Ken & Vi Tapley hosted the outing at their lakeside home on Swan Lake in Keystone Heights. There was plenty to eat; steaks, hot dogs, salads, casseroles and yummy desserts. A great big yellow rock to Ken & Vi.

J BEE ROUNDS

NEW SMYRNA BEACH . . . We would like to introduce ourselves. We are a new Round Dance Club, just formed, in New Smyrna Beach. All 19 couples of us are beginners. Janet Briar and hubby John are doing a very good job of training us in the skills of Round Dancing. The class is now closed to beginners but couples with prior training are eligible to dance with us at the Coronado Civic Center the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Mondays of every month.

GOLD TRIANGLE SQUARES

EUSTIS . . . We are busy getting ready for holiday festivities. December is the ideal month for dancing in Florida and we always have plenty of fun-loving people in attendance. New members are always welcome and we like it when they come forward with new ideas. Our suggestion box is on the table and it is appreciated when you take time to drop a note with your comments. They are carefully considered by the Board. . . Happy Dancing.

Bob & Lillian Sheehan

OKEE-SWINGERS

. . . We had an exciting October. The Village Green rescued their banner with 9 couples. We had a fun-filled evening and enough finger food to satisfy the biggest appetite. On the 30th we had an after-the-dance Halloween party, prizes were awarded to best costumes, a few jokes were told, and a melodrama was put on by a group organized by Ardis Brooks. Vern Johnson certainly kept us in "stitches" as well as in squares. . . We are happy to see our winter friends coming back. We missed them all.

A Swinger

FELLOWSHIP SQUARES

PORT ORANGE . . . Every week we say "welcome back" to more dancers we haven't seen since last spring. It will be great to have the hall filled once again. . . Instead of our usual Christmas Dinner and Dance this year we are planning something aimed at spreading a little Christmas Cheer. Early in December we will have a Snack Party and Dance, where the admission charge will be the donation of one child's toy per person.

The toys will be turned over to a charitable organization for distribution. . . Just a small way to say Merry Christmas to someone.

squarefellow

GANDY DANCERS

TAMPA . . . We invite all our friends to join us for the 3 dances we will have this busy and joyous month. We especially hope you will come to our Christmas dance December 17th. Our hall will be closed on the 24th and 31st for the holidays. We hope all of you have a Safe and Happy Holiday Season. We look forward to the New Year with you and lots of good dancing and fellowship.

Willena & Colie Gruber

RIDGE ROLLAWAYS

SEBRING . . . 42 couples have joined our Beginner Class on Tuesday before the Mainstream dance. A plus workshop for Mainstream dancers will begin November 5th. . . A well attended "Thank You" party was given by Chuck & Carole Leamon September 30th at the Lorida Community Center for all dancers who danced with them during the year. . . Returning members and winter visitors continue to swell our ranks and contribute to the fine dancing. Carma Heuring, our round dance cuer, has returned and our round dancers are enjoying good dancing.

Boots Flood

MELON SQUARES

WILDWOOD . . . October was another good month for us. Our membership has more than doubled since our first meeting and dance attendance is growing. We are happily welcoming back our 'snow birds', as well as meeting some delightful new friends. Special kudos are offered to the dancers who drove several miles around Sumter and Lake counties to find us last Saturday night when we had to switch our dance to the Lady Lake Mobile Home Park club house.

We have an exciting event in store November 14th. Some of us will dance at Sumterville as a warm-up for the "Hee Haw" show they are presenting there. We are also busily planning our New Year's Eve (tickets only) party at the Wildwood Community Center.

GOLD COAST SWINGERS

DEERFIELD BEACH . . . We are really swinging now that our winter residents are back from Canada, Michigan and other northern climes. The Halloween dance with special decorations, cider and donuts was well attended and enjoyed. Visitors are very welcome to join our fun-filled plus dance.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all.

M. Reynolds

GRAND SQUARES

GAINESVILLE . . . Early in October we held our 2nd Annual Bowling Night, which gave our recent graduates a chance to earn their "Spares and Pairs" badges. After the bowling and dancing, we replenished our calorie supply with pizza! . . . We have some great photos of club members at the Knothead Initiation las month to add to our club album. . . Shutter bugs were busy at our Halloween dance too. We had some very creative costumes. There was no doubt as to the sweetest couple present—the "bag of M & M's" and the "bag of jelly beans!"

Diane

KISS-A-ME SQUARES

KISSIMMEE . . . Our chicken barbeque was not only "finger lickin' good" but was so well attended with the influx of our northern members that we almost had to push back the walls. The Harclerodes and Marx's did themselves proud in the cooking department. President Dick Hartman announced plans for the upcoming Christmas party and dance. He also asked everyone to mark February 9, 1985 on their calendars for the upcoming Rodeo Dance at Bahia Temple.

Grace & Sam Lite

GROVELAND SQUARES

GROVELAND . . . We are proud to have celebrated our first anniversary of club activities on October 9th. Many guests from other area clubs were present to share in this special occasion. It has been a successful year, with membership gaining, summer attendance holding up well, and a new beginner class started this fall. Ron &

Marge Tatman chaired this special dance. They assembled pictures from all our special occasions. Club members were presented with white corsages and boutonnieres. Individual anniversary cakes were served (cupcakes) each with a candle. After the candles were lit and the lights turned out, we sang the anniversary song. A memorable evening for all.

We plan a "Gobbler Stomp" for Thanksgiving and working on the float for the Christmas Parade in early December.

Marge & Harry England

DRIFTERS

. . . This month John Briar called 3 nights for John Saunders who was vacationing in California. We understand he had a fabulous time. . . Four Towne Squares retrieved their banner and we had a very enjoyable dance with them. We ended the month with a Halloween Party—costumes were tremendous—and finished the program with cider and doughnuts. We are having a New Years Eve Party—tickets only.

LEFT ALLAMANDERS

ST. PETERSBURG . . . Among the increasing number of happy faces we are seeing, we especially welcome Earle & Betty Williams back. Our club is canceling the scheduled dance to attend the Fall Fun Fest in Lakeland. Many of our members were in attendance at the NSDCA State Camporee at Eustis. It was good to see and dance with them.

Our new officers are making plans for activities to keep our club growing and moving forward. See our ad in this issue for the December dance schedule.

Ralph & Jean Hinkle

STARLIGHT PROMENADERS

DEBARY . . . Would you believe, Vivian Wilson, Vice President of the Central Florida Dancers Assn. is dancing again? She has overcome many obstacles after her operation, always maintaining a smile.

We are having a pie night November 28th, a pot luck December 12th (with $2.00 Christmas present grab bag) and a reservations only New Years Eve dance.

Emily & Bill Henry

WAGON WHEEL SQUARES

ST. CLOUD . . . Our semi-annual meeting was held October 16th with a catered meal and election of officers. New officers are: President - Phil & Beth McRae; Vice President - Georgia & Jesse Blackburn; Secretary - Joyce & John Lange; Treasurer - David & Dorothea Milbourn.

Banner raiders from both Longwood Village Squares and Firehouse Squares visited us in October. We, however, did retrieve our banner from Kiss-A-Mee Squares. . . A couple of brooms showed up at our Halloween Dance and danced in several squares. . . We celebrated our 15th Anniversary with a special cake served by Carolyn McClary.

Bev Whitney

SPARES 'N' PAIRS (Bachelor 'n' Bachelorettes Chapter)

ST. PETERSBURG . . . It was fun and interesting trying to guess whose familiar face was behind the unfamiliar mask at our Halloween Dance. We enjoyed doughnuts, cider and yummy candies made by Marie Hicks. Our annual hobo (Lou Tuma) was missed and we hope he will be back in the swing of things shortly.

Hope you join us December 21st at our Christmas Party and dance with Santa. Let's all wear reds and greens and get in the holiday spirit. Then start the new year sharing our fun, food and good dancing on January 3rd. . . Happy Holidays.

Doris Tallon

SHIPMATES

EDGEWATER . . . Gentleman John and Mo Barrett, along with all the Shipmates wish everyone a Merry Christmas.

CIRCLE WEAVERS

LEESBURG . . . It is with great pleasure we greet the return of many snowbird members and friends . . . Our pickle-up-a-doodle dance was a great success. An unusual pattern of dancing the basics was called. Never knew basics could be so complicated and so much fun at the same time. . . Had a great time when Al Savary brought a group of campers to dance with us. Had a full house and great fun. Can't beat campers for friend liness and fun.

Prayers and get well wishes are sent to Allie Dorman and Pauline Proud, both suffering from extended illnesses. We all miss you.

Evelyn Blank

LAKE COUNTY TWIRLERS

EUSTIS . . . How many have thought about Christmas with hot weather? But the thought of what Christmas means should be our guide no matter what the climate. Our Christmas Party will be December 19th with all members bringing finger food. Visitors are welcome. See "Where to Dance" Central for time and place. We are also having a New Years Eve Party (by reservation only) with hats noise makers and a catered dinner, with fun for everyone.

Marie L. Carter

BAREFOOT BAY TWIRLERS

. . . We will sponsor a "Toys for Tots" Square Dance for the 12th consecutive year on December 9th at 7:30 pm. Callers Dale McClary, Colin Walton, Larry Patten and Cuers Dewey Guy, Vince Furtado, Phyllis Williams and Judy Trembley will donate their time. This event is held annually and the price of admission is one new unwrapped toy which will be distributed to needy children. Y'all come and make it a happier Christmas for needy boys and girls.

Our Christmas Dance is December 10.

Mary M. Ellis

SANDY SHOE STEPPERS

FORT PIERCE . . . Our first Mystery Trip brought a busload of 5 squares to Titusville where we experienced their fine hospitality and brought back their banner. . . On Amateur Night, October 27th, we danced to the melodious singing calls of Worley Carrier, Ken Thompson, Ray Sexton, Val Wilson and Harold Masters. Didn't realize we had so much talent among us. . . As the Yule season approaches, we look forward to our Christmas Dinner Dance (tickets only) on December 22nd and then a big wing-ding New Years Eve Party.

A big Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from all 250 of us.

Jessie Brooks

FREE MINI LEGACY SEMINAR

Just got word (a little too late to get into "Dancing Notes") that a Mini Legacy Seminar will be presented at the home of Bill & Beattie, 2110 E. Dale Circle, Deland, Florida, on Saturday, December 8th. It will start at 10:30 AM and will break at noon for a pot luck lunch, and continue at 1:30.

The subject is Dance Dialogue for the Betterment of the Square and Round Dance Activity. Everyone is welcome - callers, cuers, and dancers. For information please call 904/736-8129.

DRIFT AROUND SQUARES

... Isidore was doing unbelievable damage, but believe it or not it did rain all day Friday of our September campout in most of Northeast Florida, but not so for St. Augustine. The weather may have been a major factor for the low turnout. In fact your reporters could not get their rig out of their yard due to the wetness of the ground. We had a super attendance Saturday night with a great covered dish dinner. We will have NO campout in December.

1985 officers elected are: President, Ken Rock; Vice President, Dick Farr; Secretary/Treasurer, Isabell Buie.

Wally & Jean Miller

SHOOTIN' STARS

... December presents grand finale '84. It's difficult to identify wether bleat, or roar.

Shootin' Stars say, "Thanks, you-all."
You surely brightened up our hall!

Come steal our banner, and enjoy our "love tunnel!"

Rose Krause

DOUBLE "L" SQUARES

LUTZ... We are kicking up our heels again with 4 to 5 squares on a lower level but it just gives us more time for fun and frolic. . . Our Halloween dance, Taco Tuesday and "Left Overs" night were a huge success.

We plan a Christmas dance December 18th and a gala New Years Dance with favors, snacks, rounds and fun! Come join us - you will begin to live.

Mary Linsey & Harold

SUMMER SQUARES

WEST PALM BEACH... Our big season is upon us and our hall is jumping. . . We are planning a big New Years Eve Square Dance Party. Our club is looking forward to a big year. . . Our Halloween Party was a great success with Jeff & Carol & Kurt & Zee looking good in costume.

Burt

SUN DANCERS

TITUSVILLE... An added pleasure is watching our class grow smoother and more confident each session.

The club and class members enjoyed our annual Hobo Day. Some of the costumes were very creative, hilarious and wild! The bean soup and corn bread added a touch of authenticity to the whole affair.

Plans are being made for Thanksgiving and Christmas dances. Come dance with us.

Best wishes to all for the holidays.

Patricia Deitz

SOUTHERN STARS

BONITA SPRINGS... Our Thanksgiving dance is November 16th. Each dance night we greet more of our returning dancers. It's good to see all these folks again. . . We are real proud of the beginner class. They are working very hard and from all appearances, they are, at the same time, enjoying this new learning and dancing experience.

We would love to have you dance with us.

Irene Bartsch

CLUB REPORTERS

Some reporters this month failed to include the name of the city where the club dances, some did not identify themselves, even with a nom de plume, and — would you believe — one did not give the club name!

Please follow the format shown in all the club news: First give the name of your club, then the city or town where you dance. After your club news text, please give some sort of name. If using a nom de plume, include your own name. Your name will not be printed if you use a nom de plume. But we must have identification of the person reporting.
