EDITOR'S DESK

Independence Day, also referred to as the Fourth of July or July Fourth, is a federal holiday in the United States commemorating the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. Independence Day is commonly associated with fireworks, parades, barbecues, carnivals, fairs, picnics, concerts, baseball games, family reunions, and political speeches and ceremonies, in addition to various other public and private events celebrating the history, government, and traditions of the United States. We add one additional event special to all of us, Square and Round Dancing.

Many of us are back from Kansas City where we had a fantastic time at the National Square & Round Dance Convention. Also many of us signed up to attend our next great Convention in Atlanta, Georgia.

Many of us are getting ready to start classes and want to attract new dancers. Once you have them enter the hall, there are several important things to accomplish – first and foremost get them dancing. Some callers have them dancing a singing call the first tip. Some the second, whichever you do, do not wait any longer. Remember we are square DANCE – not square, listen to the drill instructor. At the very beginning, have them listen and dance to the music. Be enthusiastic and keep it fun and exciting. Make sure that they know and understand this is a recreation and they are there to have fun. After all, we are a recreation and Square Dancing is FUN.

Daytona Beach is just around the corner with our Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention. Are you registered? I realize that you can register at the door, but why wait? Register now, get your hotel room, or plan on commuting. However you get there, be there. We are counting on dancing with you.

President's Message

Florida Callers Association

Hey All Fellow Callers and Dancers,

Happy Birthday America for this July 4th birthday of our nation at 242 years young. We have so much to be thankful for in this beautiful country and square dancing is one of them!

Summer is now in full swing here in Florida and even though it is hot outside I hope that all the local dancers throughout Florida are supporting the local clubs during the summer months. I am sure everyone is having fun with the summer workshops.

As I write this letter many of us are planning the exciting trip to the National Square Dance Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. I know we have a large group of Floridians who will be attending and I hope everyone has a great time and safe travels.

Word has it that the "Pit Crews" for the upcoming 65th Florida State Convention in February 2019 are hard at work with all the planning for a high energy convention. If you have not purchased your ribbons yet, please go ahead and get your ribbons early. You don't want to miss this exciting convention.

Also, don't forget to help the pit crews with their on-going fund raising efforts that will be on-going through the summer and fall. Let's get our dancing engines rev'd up for an exciting, high energy convention.

I want to send our condolences from the Florida Callers Association to Duane Rodgers and his family with the sudden loss of his son Dean Rodgers at the young age of 53 in early June.

As always I ask that everyone keep all the dancers and callers in their prayers for those who are ill or recovering from surgeries, including Whit Brown who is recovering from heart surgery that was performed in June.

Wishing everyone a safe summer. Happy Dancing wherever you are dancing, drink lots of ice tea and lemonade...it's summer time. Always remember to have fun with all your fellow dancers!

Until next time, "Be Square" and hoping for more exciting news in August.

FLORIDA FEDERATION OF SQUARE DANCERS PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi Dancers,

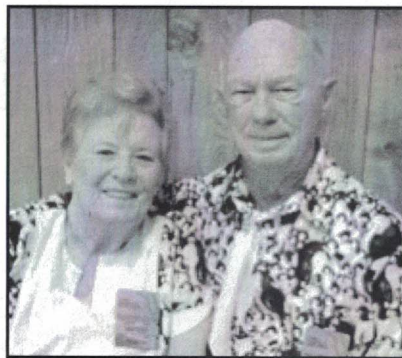

We hope you are enjoying your summer and continue to dance and support your clubs. We know the callers are very appreciative of you being there.

We know those of you who went to the National State Square Dance Convention in Kansas City had a great time and will come back telling us all what we missed! If you are attending the 2019 Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention, now is the time to make your hotel reservation and register for your dance ribbons. The hotels are filling up fast. Chairmen Ed Drexel and Terry Wetherby are working hard to bring you a fun-filled convention in Daytona Beach on February 22 and 23, 2019. Now is also the time to start thinking about the 2019 National Square Dance Convention in our neighboring state of Georgia.

Talk to your friends and neighbors about square dancing. Tell them how much fun you have and what great people you have met! It's a time of fun dancing and socializing! Get them thinking about the classes that will be starting in the Fall.

See ya'll in a square soon!

ASSOCIATION NEWS

CENTRAL FLORIDA SQUARE & ROUND DANCE ASSOCIATION

Summertime, and the livin' is easy... fish are jumpin' and the cotton is high...

Well, I'm not sure I've seen cotton in Florida, but I have seen some jumpin' fish! And the summer is definitely here!

CFA's next 5th Saturday Dance is on September 29 and is our President's Ball, which is when all the new officers get installed for the new year, which begins on October 1. And, by the way, that means that everyone's dues will also be due...so come to the 5th Saturday dance and renew there! Or mail it in using the renewal membership form found in this publication! Watch the website for details as to the location for this dance.

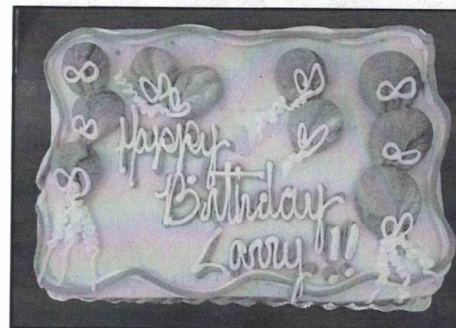

Speaking of the 5th Saturday Dance location...as President of CFA, it's my responsibility to find locations for us to hold our dances. Usually, I contact club presidents and/or callers and ask for some help. We try to dance all over the Central area, but it's getting harder and harder to find a place to hold our dances that don't cost an arm and a leg! (It'd be really hard to dance without an arm and a leg!!!)

It's not physically difficult nor does it cost the club anything. All we ask is to be put in contact with the PTB (Powers That Be) so we can make arrangements to rent the dance location. Depending on your club's location, it is sometimes necessary for someone in the club to make the arrangements for us, especially in gated or restricted communities where you must be a resident in order to rent the location. Sometimes the club offers to provide refreshments (coffee, water and finger foods), but not always. And the club NEVER has to pay for the dance hall... CFA pays for that! And we can also provide our own refreshments, if need be!

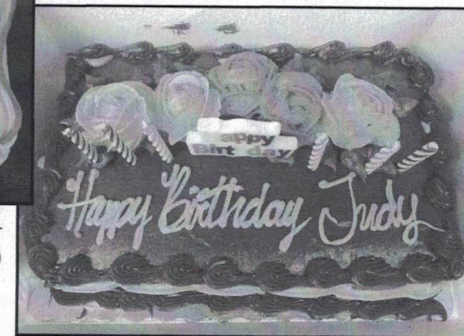

So, please talk with your club officers and see if your club could help us with finding a location for our 5th Saturday dances. It would be GREATLY appreciated! (By the way, did you notice that we don't have a location for the September dance yet? Anyone care to volunteer to host? Please?)

shop (with dancers encouraged to request the workshopping of particular calls), followed by one hour of Plus squares – with no rounds. The Scotty Squares will be dancing at the Boynton Beach Senior Center until the renovations at the old Boynton Beach High School are finished.

As of this writing, the temporary location for Jack Lewis' Monday afternoon A-Jacks and Friday evening Castoffs will also be the Boynton Beach Senior Center, since the Boynton Beach Civic Center is being demolished this summer. There will also be one addition at the Castoffs, an Advanced tip at the end of the dance.

All 2018-19 SEA dances will once again be held at Briny Breezes, hosted by the Briny Breezes Square Dance Club. Looking forward to next season, SEA's first dance will be its Membership Dance and Ice Cream Social on Sunday afternoon, September 23, at Briny Breezes. Early Rounds begin at 1:30pm; Squares at 2:00pm. Squares will alternate Mainstream and Plus; new graduates are welcome! The best way to improve one's dancing is to dance, dance, dance!

We hope that everyone enjoys a pleasant summer.

WEST COAST FLORIDA SQUARE & ROUND DANCE ASSOCIATION

June is here and so is the rain! Schools out. Schools are empty and so are most of our dance floors. Not to worry, we have clubs all over the West Coast that dance all year. From Shufflin Squares in Lake Wales, Buttons & Bows in Lakeland, to Strawberry Square in Plant City, Suncoast Squares in St. Petersburg, to Arcadia and more. There are many clubs that dance year round. Be sure to check FloridaSquareDance.com and click West Coast for a club near you. Strawberry Square will also have Round Dancing all summer, as well as Advanced dancing every Friday! This is a great time to try out a new club and meet a few new friends! Strawberry Square in Plant City has even started social dancing on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays of the month. There's always something going on when you head West!

This year has been tough in the West Coast as it has in Square Dancing in general. Our dance population is aging and there are not a lot of new dancers to take up the slack. If you enjoy this great activity, bring a few friends to a club near you for new dancer lessons. We all need to do anything we can to keep this fun activity going!

Remember the 2019 FSSRDC, "Green Flag Dancing from Daytona" is around the corner. Yes, you'll get a chance to experience the thrills and excitement of Daytona, up close and personal. This Convention will have a distinct West Coast flair as Terry and I are the General Chairman. Make sure to get your ribbon and book your hotel early. This absolutely is the State Convention you don't want to miss. It's going to be loud, fast and most importantly, FUN!

Have a happy and safe summer! Enjoy the sun and fun, and remember for Square Dancing in Florida, you've got to go West!!!

Ormond Beach...We had an Independence Day Dance on July 3. There was lots of red, white and blue along with great square dancing.

I found a quote from an eighteen-year-old girl who wrote a friend in 1782, "I don't think I ever laugh't so much in my life as I did last night.... I wish you could see him. It is really the most ludicrous thing I ever saw; and what makes it more so is, he thinks he dances a most delightful one..." I'm glad she wasn't writing about me, although sometimes the shoe fits.

Dancing the minuet in 1776 was quite a bit more complicated than square dancing and being a good dancer could buoy one's social standing. I'm grateful that we can celebrate Independence Day with a square dance.

Our club dances are on Tuesdays. We dance Mainstream and Plus interspersed with lines and rounds. Our caller, Rod Barngrover, also provides Mainstream review and instruction from 6:00 till 7:00 each Tuesday.

SCOTTY DOG SQUARES

Boynton Beach...Happy Squares has been retired. We are now the Scotty Dog Squares, with other exciting changes to tell you about. On June 4th we began dancing in a new location. The Boynton Beach Civic Center is being torn down to make way for new construction. Until that is completed, hopefully sometime in the Fall or beginning of next year, dancers from Scotty Dog Squares can be found at the Boynton Beach Senior Center located at 1021 S. Federal Highway, Boynton Beach, FL 33435. This building is approximately one mile from our former location at the Civic center. Our summer schedule continues on Monday evening from 7:00-9:00pm. From 7:00-8:00pm Scotty has been calling at floor level leading a workshop consisting of mixed mainstream and plus dances and inviting dancer requests per sign-up list provided. At 8:00-9:00pm he has been calling plus dances and encouraging all dancers to participate.

Dancers who are interested in adding to their square dancing wardrobe had a chance to choose outfits that have been given to us by former dancers. Thanks to Steve Adler and Sally Galik, the clothing is frequently displayed at club dances and are offered FREE OF CHARGE to any and all takers. It's a wonderful opportunity to enhance your private collection without depleting your bank account. Many outfits, from the looks of them, must have been fairly expensive. I have one outfit in royal blue satin with beaded embroidery that makes me feel like Cinderella going to the ball. If you missed the last display, let Steve or Sally know you're interested and you may be able to coax them to show the wares again sometime in the near future.

We were delighted to have Doris Ho, a friend of some of our dancers, visit from California. We hope she will drop in the next time she's on this coast.

On occasion we like to highlight the outside activities of our talented dancers and showcase what they do when they're not dancing. Susan Killingsworth, one of our new dancers this year, has two large (probably 4 feet tall) dollhouses, all electrified and fully furnished with drapes and bedspreads in the bedrooms, china on the dining table, crystal chandeliers, swimming pools, iron gates, etc. She also has a collection of hand-worked hooked rugs and tapestries on the walls of her home. Her efforts are truly a beautiful sight to behold and must have taken many years and countless hours to complete.

To finish our offering of the Ten Commandments of square dancing, here are the last two. 9. You shall not kill your club by bickering and fault finding, or by pointing fingers of blame for errors in dancing or club operation, at any member or fellow dancer, for in so doing, such a finger may thus be due in your direction. 10. You shall never forget that you were once a beginner and that others helped you to become a good dancer by tolerating your mistakes. You shall always remember that if you are able to continue in square dancing for a long time there must always be beginners and new dancers joining our hobby, and they need our patience and assistance.

We look forward to seeing new and experienced dancers at our new location. For further information or answers to any dancing questions you may have, feel free to contact Scotty and Marlene Sharrer.

Orlando...A great ice cream social followed the installation of our new board on Friday, June 1st. The new board is planning big things for the coming year starting with the Friday evening dance, normally plus, but this was main stream with announced plus squares so the entire club was able to dance.

We are all looking forward to our newly graduated dancers joining us on our Wednesday evenings. With line dances between tips we always have a great time and look forward to visitors joining us soon and often. With the change in our by-laws, singles are now welcome and while we do not promise partners all evening, there are usually extras of both gender available so check us out. Earle and Carol Collins are still having their Monday evening round dance classes and on Friday evening they start our dances off with a full half hour of rounds and more between plus tips.

GOOD THINGS ABOUT SQUARE DANCING

How can we encourage new dancers to join?

Speech given by Betsy Gotta

We are involved in a great activity – Square Dancing! We must be involved, or you would not be here listening to this speech and I would not be making the speech. Our question is how can we involve others?

Each of us needs to be an ambassador for our activity. Now some of you are becoming uncomfortable, thinking, “I am not good at talking to strangers,” or “I am not good at selling things or convincing people to try things.” I am not talking about knocking on doors like a religious group, I am talking about just being aware of opportunities to talk about our activities. We all have square dance tee or polo shirts, but where do we wear them? Do we wear our square dance tee shirts to a dance event or do we wear them to a baseball game?

If we wear our square dance tee shirt to a ball game or a movie, we are publicizing our activity, just by having a visible mention of square dancing. It also can help members of the public to understand that people who square dance are “regular” people, not a category.

One of the barriers to convincing people to try square dancing is their preconceptions about the activity. They know that we always dance to country music, we have to wear those funny outfits, and we are all from rural areas in the West or Midwest. You and I know that square dancers are regular people who have held a variety of jobs, have different levels of education and enjoy other “normal” pastimes in addition to square dancing. Recently, clubs have relaxed the dress codes and different callers use a variety of music. The public has not yet modified their preconceptions. For example, a few years ago, I was hired to call a beginner square dance party for a group of college students from overseas. Since I was working with younger people, I picked a variety of music, using some rock, some modern pop, some country etc. At the end of the dance, the group leader told me that for future bookings, I needed to use more country music to give the students a “real” square dance experience. He disregarded my explanations that real squares dancers dance to a variety of music.

Some years ago, a member of an Northern New Jersey Square Dance Association club wrote a human interest story about square dancing. He quoted square dancers about how they much they enjoyed square dancing. Each quote included the dancers name, age and occupation. There was a good cross-section of dancers quoted. That fall several clubs in the Northern New Jersey area had more people come to classes to try the square dancing activity than in past years. I believe that the article changed the perceptions of square dancers from a bunch of like-minded blue collar people pretending to be hillbillies to a varied group of individuals enjoying a stimulating hobby. These new dancers found someone that seemed like them who square danced, so they felt that they might enjoy square dancing.

We may not be able to change the public's perceptions about square dancing immediately, but we can try. When we talk about our activity we can emphasize how well square dancing meets many human needs.

The other night on the news there was a story about how many people today feel lonely and isolated even though they stay connected on Social Networks.

Square dancing fills the need for face to face social connection. We need to meet together to enjoy the dancing.

This news story prompted me to check online for what people needed to have good health. One website listed the following basic human needs: Need to give and receive attention; Need to heed the mind/body connection; Need for purpose and goals; Need for community and making a contribution; Need for challenge and creativity; Need for a sense of intimacy; Need for a sense of control; and a Need for status. Let's consider how square dancing meets many of those needs.

Since dancers function on groups of 8, people can give and receive attention and feel like they have a sense of community. Since many clubs often donate to charity, the need to make a contribution is satisfied. Learning the calls involved in the programs can satisfy the need for purpose and goals. Unfortunately, many dancers have attached status to what Program/Level they have achieved instead of how well they execute the calls.

Square dancing also provides mild aerobic exercise – music plays at 124 to 126 beats per minute which means the dancers who walk with the beats can be walking 2.5 miles per hour. Have you checked your fit-bit before and after a dance? Those of us who dance on a regular basis are fitter than when we started due to the regular walking. New class members are often tired before the angels, because the new class members are not yet used to all of the walking that takes place during a dance.

Square dancing, and the learning of calls provides mental stimulation and uses the puzzle solving functions of the brain. One of the things that people find when they are square dancing is that they must concentrate and focus on the caller's commands. This means that for the length of the tip, the dancers can forget the other problems and concerns that are in their life. I do not mean to say that all tension is relieved, because many new dancers can stress about remembering the calls and how to do them. However, the regular tensions of their lives are forgotten for a while.

If you post on social media, do you mention how much fun you had at the square dance you attended last night? If you have non-square dancing Facebook friends, they will hear about your activity. Mention that the caller used music by Bruno Mars (if you know about such music) or the pirate themed decorations and/or clothing worn by the dancers. Such a post may help change the stereotypical expectations of non-square dancing friends. At the very least, you are communicating to others about how you love this activity (and you didn't have to knock on a strangers' door).

Now, if you talk about all the information about square dancing that I have mentioned in this speech, you will either bore potential dancers to death or make them run screaming from the conversation. The strategy is that if you happen to mention that you square dance and a person responds with mild interest, make one point about how square dancing fills a need in your life. Later this afternoon, Roy and Mike will have a whole session about how to talk up square dancing. My point is that we need to let the general public know what square dancing is today and how much we enjoy the people and the activity. If nobody talks about square dancing, nobody will change their minds about trying square dancing.

U. S. HANDICAPABLE SQUARE DANCE ASSOCIATION CONVENTIONS

The first U.S. Handicapable Square Dance convention was held in 1988 in Chickasaw, Alabama (a suburb of Mobile). The Convention was started by Dean and Kitty Emery to bring Handicapable Square Dance Clubs together for a convention planned exclusively for the special dancers and their families.

The majority of our dancers consist of adults with developmental disabilities who range in age from adults to senior citizens. We also have clubs whose members dance in wheelchairs and do not have developmental disabilities. Anyone who enjoys square dancing and having a good time is welcome to our clubs and to our conventions! Friends, families, volunteers, and other interested people provide support and participate in our activities.

The Conventions are held every other year to allow our clubs sufficient time to raise funds to travel to the Conventions. The U.S.H. Convention is most commonly held on the fourth weekend of July (in even numbered years), except when we have to move the convention date in order to get facilities. Jerry and Pam Yerby helped establish the first Western Handicapable Convention in 2001 which meets in odd-number years.

Our Conventions are family affairs. Entire families come with their special dancers. Group homes and Arc groups furnish buses for their dancers. Some clubs have even flown from their home area. Everyone looks forward to the Convention as one of the highlights in their lives. We choose hotels that can accommodate our entire convention, including rooms and dance area. This makes it easier on our dancers and their caregivers. We also choose sites that will make outstanding vacations for all of the attendees. We hope that you will attend a Handicapable Convention and have a great time with all of your friends, and feel joy in your heart for this beautiful time square dancing together!

The 2018 U.S. Handicapable convention will be held at the Hilton Omni Hotel in beautiful Jacksonville, Florida, starting on Thursday evening July 26th with a banquet followed by entertainment by the Rambling Rose Trio. The square dance will begin Friday morning, July 27th, and will end on Saturday, July 28th. Friday afternoon will have open dancing for everyone and then we will start the club demos and you will not want to miss these great performances. The evening session we will continue with the club demos and finish the evening with open dancing for everyone.

Saturday morning has been set aside for sightseeing for all of the clubs. Saturday afternoon is devoted to the dangle dances for everyone, followed by a workshop to review and teach a new step. Angels are most welcome to attend the afternoon session and assist our dancers expand their horizons.

Saturday evening is our BIG dance for everyone. With the completion of all of the club demos the dancers really get into the open dancing with all of their friends – long time and new as well. Last but not the least, we end the convention with the BIG CIRCLE DANCE. Circle Left then Circle Right and form a conga line, winding in tighter and tighter, then unwinding back into the BIG CIRCLE again. Next is the group huddle and ending prayer of good health and safe travels until we meet again. You will never find more LOVE in any other place in the world! Please come and join us for this special fun!
