EDITORIAL COMMENT

Time for my annual psychic review. This year it comes much earlier than other years; that, of course, is because we had our Florida State Square and Round Dance Convention in February. A special thanks to Linda and Lewis for their outstanding work in giving us a special and fun time in Daytona Beach. Linda and Lewis attended many dances and clubs. Sent numerous emails, wrote several articles and helped plan the dangle dances and other events. I would say my hat is off to them, but, alas, I don't wear a hat.

If you missed the convention, we will be in Daytona next February. Invite all your fellow dancers, friends, register and make sure you come and we will all have another great time. Oh and by the way, if you did not already register while attending this year, an application is in this month's issue.

As April showers bring May flowers, make sure you bring a renewed energy to your own Square Dance Club. Smile, laugh and make people around do the same. Never, I repeat, never, worry about mistakes. Laugh about them. If your club is laughing, smiling, joking and having fun all night, great! Square Dancing is a recreation. I recall dancing at an advanced club that encouraged fun and humor and our guest caller was shocked. He was also pleased. He kept calling, increasing the difficulty, and still everyone smiled. Later when he commented about the fun he had calling and the high spirits of the club, we explained, We all dance for fun. At conventions, JoAnn and I are usually found on the Mainstream floor. We encourage laughter and fun especially among new dancers. Next festival, next convention, next time you dance, smile, have fun and encourage others to do the same.

Next Convention for us is in June, our National Square Dance Convention in Kansas City. I know that we will see many of you there, but make sure that you do not miss our Florida State Square and Round Dance Convention next February in Daytona Beach.

Bill Boyd

President's Message

Florida Callers Association

Hello Fellow Callers, Cuers and Dancers.

I hope that everyone is happy and healthy and getting lots of dancing in around the state. We continue to send prayers and well wishes to all of the dancers, callers and cuers that have had their various health issues and those battling this long flu season. We also want to send a special shout out and well wishes to Jack Lewis one of our Florida Callers, for a speedy recovery so he can get back to his love of square dance calling.

I had the honor of calling with Keith Stevens on January 13th for the Florida Federation of Square Dancers Working Weekend Benefit Dance at Whirl & Twirl. The benefit dance was for the kick-off of the 2019 65th Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention.

The dance was a success and Keith and I had a great time calling together for the first time, as the dancers whirled and twirled to our calling and to the cuing by Earle and Carol Collins throughout the night.

Keith Stevens and I will have the wonderful honor of being the 65th FSSRDC Co-Caller Chairmen for the 2019 State Convention. I know that Ed Drexel and Terry Wetherby, the Convention General Chairman and Cheryl Miller, Ways & Means Coordinator have already revved up their engines for the "Green Flag Dancing at Daytona" set for February 22-23, 2019.

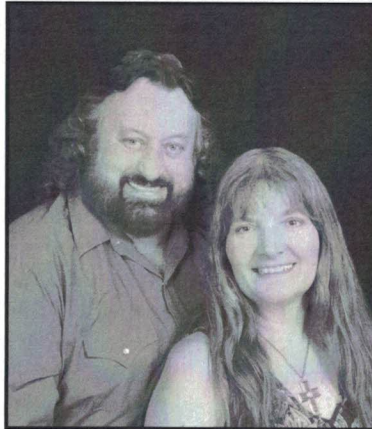

Word has it that all the dancers that flocked to Daytona this year had a wonderful time of dancing, visiting with old friends and making new friends.

They started the weekend of dancing at the Trail End Dance in Ormond Beach on Thursday with Bill Chesnut calling and Susan Snider cuing. The dance was a great warm up for the 64th FSSRDC Convention in Daytona.

The 64th FSSRDC Convention was a magical time as everyone danced the weekend away at Daytona. I want to say thank you to everyone for all their hard work throughout the year for such a great convention. More details about the 64th FSSRDC Convention next time!

Until next time.

FLORIDA FEDERATION OF SQUARE DANCERS PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As we write this article on February 6, we are looking forward with excited anticipation to the 64th Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention! However, as you read this, it will be over, and we will already be looking forward to the 65th convention! One month in time can certainly bring about many changes.

We hope most of you attended the 64th convention and had a wonderful time at the new location in Daytona. We know that Wizards Lewis and Linda and their committees worked hard to bring you a wonderful weekend. However, now it is time to turn our attention to Ed Drexel and Terry Wetherby, General Chairmen of the 65th Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention. They have now "started their engines," and plan to bring you an outstanding convention next year.

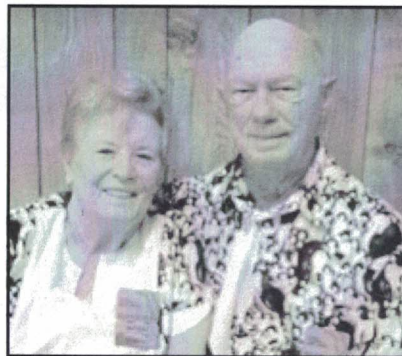

Because of the change in the convention date, it brought about another change. The Federation will have the working weekend in May so that the Federation meetings will be more evenly scheduled throughout the year. Our next working weekend will be May 19 and 20 at the Swan Hotel in Lakeland. There will be a dance at Strawberry Square the evening of the 19th. This will be a benefit dance supporting the 66th Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention. Please make plans to attend the meeting and dance. Visitors are always welcome at the Federation meetings.

See you in a square!

Ray and Elsa Huddleston, Presidents

NORTHWEST FLORIDA SQUARE & ROUND DANCE ASSOCIATION

The Sweetheart Swing February 17th at PASARDA Hall in Ft. Walton Beach was a great success. Our local callers did a great job keeping us all dancing! TNT Rounds 10th Anniversary Dance was February 11th at Ragon Hall and we will try to get pictures next month. Grand Square Hall in Panama City has square and round dancing activities. Swinging Squares will celebrate their 46th Anniversary dance April 7th. Ragon Hall in Pensacola has a monthly calendar for Round and Square dancing, you can find it on the Federation website.

By now the Florida State Square Dance Convention will be over and we hope you enjoyed the Magic of Dance theme. There were over 481 registered at the end of January so I hope we made the magic mark of 500. I know we had a few Snow Birds attend.

I guess we should all start thinking of the National square dance convention in June and hope you have your plans made. Have a great month of fun and dance.

We send our continued thoughts and prayers to Jack and Ilene Lewis as Jack continues on the road to recovery from a serious heart attack. We hope Jack reaches a state of good health and becomes able to resume his usual activities, including cueing and calling.

The Snowflake Frolic was held Saturday, January 27, in the Briny Auditorium. Everyone danced up a storm sans snow. Thanks to Marlene and Scotty Sharrer, Zail Greenbain, and Chris Phillips for their calling and cueing as well as their help and support. Thanks to all who made this dance a successful fundraiser!

The next dance was the February 11th "It's Almost Valentine's Day" extravaganza.

ganza. Scotty Sharrer called as the dancers whirled and twirled. The festive dress of the dancers added to the Valentine's Day atmosphere; the hall was a sea of many colors.

The next SEA Dance will be "Spring Is Here" on Sunday, April 9. Early Rounds will begin at 1:30pm, and Squares will commence at 2:00pm, with the expert calling of Chris Phillips. Zail Greenbain will be the host cuer.

Once again, thanks to Barbara and John LeGrow, Presidents of the Briny Breezes Square Dance Club. The Briny Club hosts the SEA dances, which are held in the Auditorium at Briny. Additionally, Barbara and John help us with setting up the hall in preparation for the dances as well as putting everything back together afterwards. We also appreciate the extra post-dance help we have from many of the dancers.

February is here. As I write this, Terry and I are in Titusville for the Space Coast Winter Fiesta featuring Tony Oxendine and Jack Pladdys. It's a great dance. Yes, the event is a fun time, but this great dance weekend started in the West Coast. For the second year in a row, the Trail End dance to this event was hosted by the Shufflin Squares in Lake Ashton. We had 11 squares of eager dancers to dance to Tony and Jack. With about 1 minute between tips, it was a fun dance and everyone left tired and happy.

Winter is in full force. The snowbirds are here, but this year attendance seems to be down across the board. It's times like these that make you appreciate this great activity and also make you wonder what can be done to build more interest. Clubs and venues need to adjust by being creative. An example of this is the Winter Fiesta. You may be hearing more in the very near future, but the smart money is this event will end up back in the West Coast where it originated.

Winter also brings callers from colder climates to the West Coast. January saw Betsy Gotta and Todd Felegy, while February has Ed Foote, Bob Asp and Curt Braffert visiting clubs in the West Coast. Don't miss your chance to dance to these excellent callers.

As we move into February, the 2018 Florida State Convention is fast approaching. This is a great opportunity to dance to many of the great West Coast callers. Don't miss this chance. As the 2018 Convention comes and goes, the next Convention in line is the 2019 FSSRDC "Green Flag Dancing from Daytona". Yes, you'll get a chance to experience the thrills and excitement of Daytona, up close and personal. This Convention will have a distinct West Coast flair as Terry and I are the General Chairman.

Yes, the West Coast continues to perform in these trying times for square dancing. I ask everyone to do whatever they can to encourage their friends to give square dancing a try. Once they give it a shot, they will be hooked, just as I was. When they do give it a try, remember to send them West. The West Coast is the premier region to square dance in the state of Florida. We continue to offer the best halls, the best callers and have the best dancers.

For Square Dancing in Florida, you got to go West!!!

SQUARE DANCE CLUB

Briny Breezes...The Briny club hosted the Southeast's annual fundraiser, the Snowflake Frolic, in late January. Donations this year went to the 2018 Florida State Convention, instead of the Southeast Association. We also hosted another Southeast dance in February and will be hosting the final Southeast dance of the season the afternoon of April 8th. Chris Phillips will be the host caller for the April dance and Zail Greenbain the host cuer.

We are all thrilled that Jack Lewis is making a fine recovery from the heart attack that he had in mid-January. Scotty Sharrer filled in for Jack during his absence. Rather than our regular Wednesday night, we have been dancing on Sunday afternoons as Scotty was not available Wednesdays.

The Briny Club will have a "70th Anniversary" celebration at one of our dances in March. We'll be sure to get the word out in plenty of time for you to make plans to join us! We dance in the Briny Breezes Auditorium, which is located behind the Briny offices in Briny Breezes. Come join us for some delightful dancing. If you would like to be added to the weekly email that lists all dances in the Southeast or if you have any questions, send me an email: steve.adler35@yahoo.com.

CANAVERAL SQUARE

Rockledge...Not much in the way of news this month. As I sit here on Groundhog Day with the sun shining brightly, I think how lucky I am to still be dancing at the age of almost 85. So many of my friends have passed into that big dance hall in the sky in the past 20 years. Still, those of us who knew years of crowded floors dance on as much as we are able.

Canaveral Squares made it through another month as a teaching club. We still have fun helping newer dancers and retreads get through mainstream and on to plus. Some of our new dancers are interested in going to state convention later this month. We have assured them that they will be welcome in the mainstream halls and no one will get mad if the square breaks down. We are all there to have fun and meet old and new friends. If you can't have fun dancing it isn't really worth while.

So I hope you all had a great time at the convention and that it will be the start of a long happy life of dances.

CRYSTAL LAKE SQUARES

Crystal Lake Village...This is a "Shout Out" to the Pine Ridge Promenaders who raided Crystal Lake Squares in Wauchula last January and added much joy and energy to our "Sports" theme dance. We were just short two dancers of four squares and a good time was had by all. We look forward to retrieving our banner soon! After our "short" month of one dance in February, we are looking forward to an afternoon of demonstration dancing at the "Pioneer Days Festival" in Zolfo Springs on the afternoon of March 2. In the meantime we continue to offer classes once a week in interest of the future of square and round dancing. Two dances will close out our season in March. Please join us and check out our caller/cuer, Mike Gormley's web page.

DANCIN' DIAMONDS

Melbourne... Dancin' Diamonds. Yes, that is the official spelling on our bright new shiny club name tags.

It has been a rough month for people with health issues. Flu, operations, knee replacements, minor(?) strokes, you name it. Everything seemed to come at once.

Still we keep on trucking along with John Swindle keeping us on the ball with unexpected DBD calls in the middle of a tip. Now how do I do that from this position? I know it can be done, but oops, we are into the next move and I'm out of position. Oh well, laugh it off, allemande Z and square your set. Repair and repent, we still have fun.

We are still dancing at the Melbourne Community Center at Wickham Park every Sunday afternoon, including Super Bowl Sunday. A change of venue may be in the works, but not right now.

We hope that the next month finds us all healthy, happy and dancing to the beat.

Hope you all had a great time at convention and are inspired to go on to National Convention.

GRANADA SQUARES DENIM & LACE

Ormond Beach...To say that we enjoyed the Florida State Square and Round Dance Convention would be an understatement. We're counting the days until the next convention. Thanks to the many people who made this year such a great success.

We have about twenty dancers in our new beginner's class. Our angels are out in force helping them to progress. What fun!

March 13 is our St. Patrick's Day Dance. Green, of course, is the color of the day. Also, we host the 5th Saturday Dance on March 31, and everyone is invited!

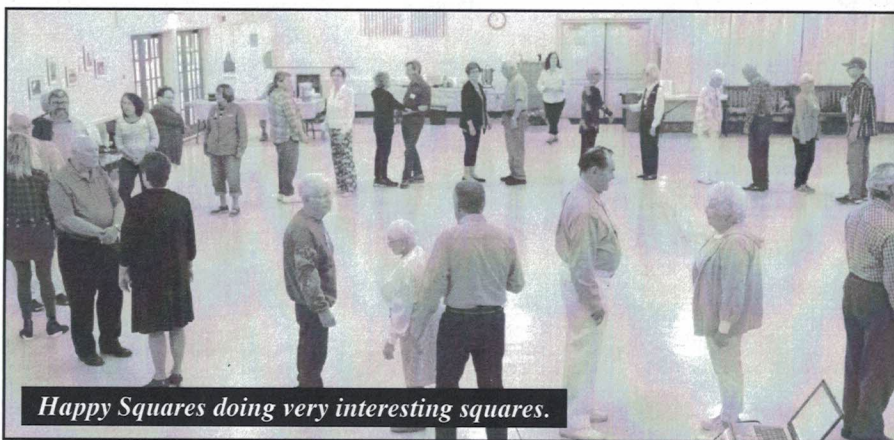

Our caller is Rod Barngrover. Rod is also the current President of the Florida Callers Association. Between tips we offer rounds and lines. Our round dance cuer is Don Brown, and our line dance leader is Jerry Baron. You may wish to check our website at www.granadasquaresdenimandlace.com for current information and updates from our club.

Last month we had a guest, a former member of our club, who was one hundred years old. She was in great physical and mental condition. She quit dancing at the young age of eighty-nine. So, get happy! Get healthy! Get Square Dancing!

The Magic of Dance Will Enchant You!

CLUB NEWS

off to a great start. Besides learning to square dance, those who wish to update their dancing skills are afforded the opportunity to brush up on calls they have forgotten, or perhaps never learned in the first place. The most basic calls are presented in an easy-to-understand manner, even for those of us with two left feet. Besides being instantly able to perform preliminary dance steps, new or returning dance club members have a chance to make new friends, one of the foremost advantages of square dancing. That's why the following information is offered.

Mary Brenan and Sally Galik were recently hospitalized for gall bladder surgery and kidney stone problems, respectively. Both are doing well and are back on the dance floor.

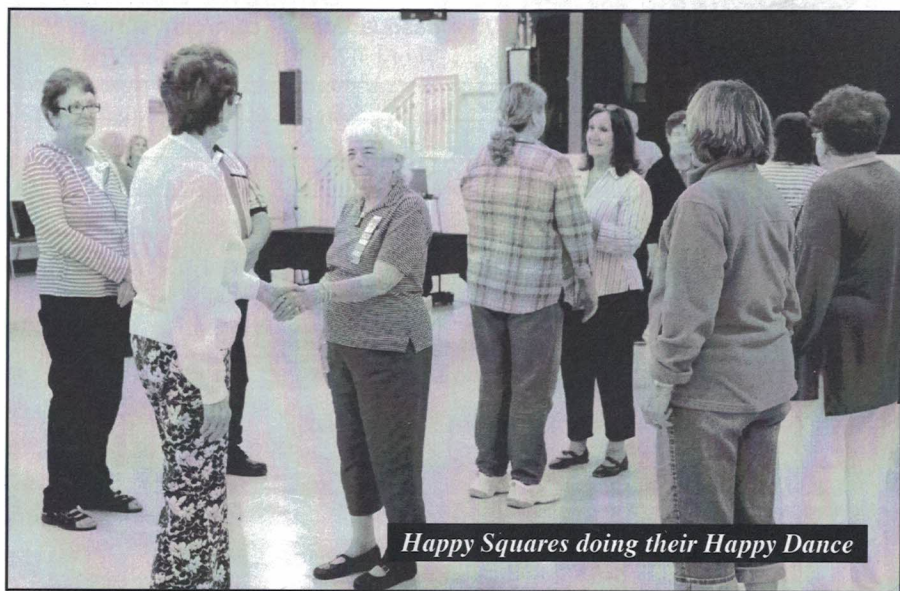

Ernie Blinco injured his ankle at Imperial Point Hospital, where he works as a volunteer. When his pain didn't subside and his primary doctor didn't seem to have answers, he consulted an orthopedic specialist who diagnosed a damaged deltoid. After having been treated with crutches, a cast and then a brace, he is following up with rehab sessions. We hope he will be able to resume dancing soon.

Cal and Ann Maki's grandson, Erik, who was only 16, was in a recent automobile accident and unfortunately did not survive. We send our sincere sympathy to the Maki family and ask for your prayers.

Bob Dodes' clown group was erroneously identified as Focal Point Clowns on Call. They are actually called Boca Point Clowns on call. (Editing Note: Those of us who are hard of hearing often get the sound, but not the exact word right. Sorry.) The clowns were busy again this time performing for another charity event at the Ebenezer Baptist Church, blowing up balloons, painting faces, juggling, and other clown activities.

We congratulate our recent "Plus" graduates. They are: Doris Borakove, Mary Brenan, Sheila Calandrillo, Carrie Ellis, Matt Ellis, Debbie Johnson, Stan Krafick, Mariza Lara, Cecil Polin, Gail Polin, Diana Tedtmann and Ed Tedtmann. While we're always happy to acknowledge our returning snowbirds, we were especially happy to note that two of them returned with an announcement: Joan Ingraham and Joe Nagler got married since we last saw them. We congratulate them and wish them a long and happy life, including square dancing together. That's how they met. That's a great advertisement for our tagline: "Square Dancing is Friendship Set to Music." Congratulations to Bob Riley on his 95th birthday; he's still going strong. Welcome back to returning dancers: Ed and Kathy Shorr, Harley and Theresa Summach, Joanne Bradshaw, Gary and Pat Bowen, Judy Nasby, Reggie Enright, Sonia Barzen, Concetta Williams, Carol Swart, and Dick and Lucille Dion. Welcome also to returning dancers from Sailfish Squares in Stuart: Dave Dennison and Mary Baldwin. It's great to see your smiling faces again. Happy Squares extends a hearty welcome to newcomers: Erik Aiken and Andrea Tait, Cyla Hys, Debra Mesloh, Della and Len Langino, Susan Killingsworth, Cindy Conroy; and two sisters of Carrie Ellis: Priscilla Frappiere and Debbie Henderson. We look forward to watching you all learn and grow as your proficiency expands. As promised, here are two more square dance commandments. Numbers 3 and 4 are: "You shall be exuberant, but shall act your age. Do not offend others by your high flung legs, out flared skirts, or by over zealous endeavors to help others who may hesitate by pulling, grabbing or pushing upon them or speaking loudly to them;" and "You shall go abroad and dance to other callers so that your opinions expressed as to the merit of this one and that one are based on fact." Continue to watch this space for additional Commandments. Ken and Joanne Helton continue to offer round dance lessons on Tuesday afternoons. Flyers for both square and round dancing schedules along with information about dances are available at each lesson. For more information, contact Scotty and Marlene Sharrer.

Rollaways Chili Cook Off

CLUB NEWS

McCullough continued to introduce calls to the class members while Jerry led the line dances between tips.

The club welcomed Earle Collins as our guest cuer. Hopefully he and his lovely wife Carol, will be visiting the Hoedowners often in the future.

President Jerry Baron always begins announcements by recognizing the dedicated workers, including Michael Craft who takes such beautiful photos. Visit our website at www.hoedowners.net. Our president also welcomed our January visitors: first-time guests Tom and Sally Carroll (Wisconsin); our friends from Garden Patch Squares, Richard and Barbara Roney, Dora Cloud, Ron Renwick, Virginia Barnes, Erv and Pat Naber, and Paul and Sandy Hale.

At this writing some exciting dances are coming up: February 4th - our annual Mardi Gras dance, so wear your colorful clothes (or club colors clothes if you choose). If you don't have Mardi Gras beads to wear around your neck, you'll find plenty at the hall when you arrive! Join us for the second line dance in addition to our squares, rounds, and lines!

Our Valentine's Day dance is scheduled for February 11th. Don't forget about the Florida State Square Convention that is to be held in Daytona Beach on February 23rd and 24th. Check the front desk for more information.

We have a busy schedule lined up for 2018, many special dances and events, so mark your calendars and make plans to visit us. Singles and/or couples are always welcome! See you Sunday!

ORANGE BLOSSOM SQUARES

The Villages...March 4th we will kick-off with Kip Moulton calling our "50th Anniversary Dance". That's the night we celebrate all the couples who have been married 50 years and are still dancing with us! Loretta Hanhurst will be cueing. Come join us for some cake and dancing. On the 11th Jack O'Leary (from Iowa) will be calling. The Cuers will be Lloyd and Ruth McKendrick. March 18th Don Hanhurst will call for our "St. Patrick's Day Dance". Loretta Hanhurst will be cueing and we will be "Wearing of the Green". Curt Braffet (from Illinois) will call our "Easter Bonnet" dance on the 25th. We encourage all that want to wear some kind of bonnet to do so, which makes for some funny looks. Lloyd and Ruth McKendrick will be cueing.

CLUB NEWS

Although April has five Sundays, there will only be four dances. The first Sunday is Easter and there will be no Dance. The 8th of the month will feature Henry Ferree as the caller.

Bob and Pat Swartz, Media/Publicity

PALM BAY PROMENADERS

Melbourne...Last month I bragged about dancing every Thursday evening. Should have kept my mouth shut. The first dance of the Month had to be canceled. Flu and other health problems forced us to cancel. Pacemakers, injuries, etc.

Things over which we have no control. Not everyone is still capable of dancing every tip, so we need more that just one full square. I'm sure other clubs have had the same problems. Not a good month, but we will carry on as long as our caller, Dale McClary is able to call and we have people who want to dance. At some future time I hope to see all the local clubs combine and dance more than one night a week. At present we have two clubs dancing on the same night and that does lead to problems. No answer is readily evident so we will press on.

Our cuer, Scott Vallee keeps on improving as he moves toward full cuer status. The club has agreed to fund his dues and keep him going strong.

That is all the news from here for this month. Keep smiling and keep dancing.

TEMPLE TWIRLERS

Tampa...Yellow Rocks from all of us at the Temple Twirlers in Tampa - dancing every Monday night in Tampa!

Though multitudes have been afflicted with that nasty bug that was going around, we're fortunate that many were able to join us for Monday night dancing in the New Year. The club welcomed more than five squares for international caller, Betsy Gotta, with the eminent Charlie Lovelace cueing on January 15th. A great time was had by all! On January 29th, the club hosted a raid by Strawberry Squares who showed up 18 members strong to haul our banner back to Plant City. Banner Bandits, Dave and Holly Murphy, already have plans in the works for a recovery mission!

On February 12th, we'll be hosting our Valentine's dance with Robert Arias calling and Charlie Lovelace cueing. Grab your sweetheart and join us! For your dancing pleasure, February callers will include our wonderful Club Caller, Ron Reardon, and Marty Vanwart, with Charlie Lovelace spinning all the rounds.

March is a big month at Temple Twirlers with our St. Patrick's Day dance on March 12th, followed by our 38th Anniversary dance on March 19th! We hope you'll come out to join us for the 'wearing of the green' as well as a celebration of 38 years of Temple Twirlers dancing. March callers will include: Ron Reardon, Marty Vanwart and Robert Arias, with Charlie Lovelace cueing.

In April, put on your prettiest bonnet and hop on over for our Easter dance on April 2nd! April callers will be Ron Reardon and Allen Snell, with Charlie Lovelace on rounds.

You can find us dancing every Monday night at Oak Grove United Methodist Church in Tampa with early rounds followed by alternating mainstream and plus tips - visit us on the web at www.templetwirlers.com for more information. New dancers and veterans alike are always welcome!

Hope to see you in a square!

CLUB NEWS

most of the evening in their western duds after enjoying great food.

The first of two free introduction to square dancing evenings were held on the 9th and 16th and we are hoping a new class will be participating with us.

Due to Dick Nordene's medical problems, we now have a new cuer, Earle and Carol Collins. They are a great addition to our club and started the year off with a big bang. They held a New Years Day dance on the 1st with an easy work shop dance in the afternoon, a break for a great soup dinner and evening rounds for the balance of the day. We invite any and all round dancers to join them on Monday evenings for teaches and dancing and of course on Friday evening, early rounds before our Plus dance called by Whit Brown with rounds between tips. Wednesday evenings continues to be well attended with line dancing between mainstream squares.

Yellow Rocks and Valentine greetings to all.

YELLOW ROCK SQUARES

Daytona Beach...The Yellow Rock Squares is one of two Handicapable Clubs in Florida. The other is in the Miami area. We like to Thank all the regular clubs for their support. This month we want to thank Granada Squares Denim & Lace for their support. Its what makes us able to continue dancing. Angels are very important to us too. Come join us any Sunday afternoon.

Especially the 2nd Sunday of the month. Call Rick or Marilyn for direction, and to make sure we are dancing that Sunday.

Our New Year was off to a great start, with one new member joining us. She is learning fast, keeping us all on our toes. We are looking forward to July, and the 16th Handicapable Convention in Jacksonville, FL. More on that later.

Keep on dancing, and come join us,
 Jean
