PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

WESTERN CUTTERS

All of the clubs seem to be in the holiday mood now, with Christmas and New Year's parties planned. The Association last year voted to dispense with the 5th Saturday dance in December as it always falls on or close to New Year's Eve, and give individual clubs the opportunity of New Year's Eve parties. In the Jacksonville area Friendly Frolics are again planning an open dance with dinner at midnight at the Annie Lytle School on Monday, December 31, starting at 8:00. Gainesville's New Year's Eve dance is closed this year due to the large number of Gainesville dancers and the new dancers from the classes of Gainesville and Trenton whom they have invited. I am sure you will have a ball if you attend one of these dances.

We have the Association membership cards now and are passing them out to the club secretaries to be filled out. Each member is to receive only one card. If you belong to more than one club and have received a card from one club, let the secretary of the other club know that you have received it. The name of your club will not appear on the card, so it will not matter which club you receive it from.

Some of the callers have classes graduating or about ready to graduate. Herschell Lee, Walter Knight, Harold Pillmore, and Floyd Hazen of Jacksonville, Joe Smith of Jacksonville Beach, and Bart Bartley and Bob Waites from Gainesville have classes completing their courses now or in the near future. These callers have all worked hard teaching these new dancers. It is now up to the dancers to welcome these new people into your clubs. Be friendly; make them want to be a member of your club. They may have some trouble for a while, but remember how you goofed every one up when you were getting started. Let's see if we can keep them dancing.

The next Association dance will be March 30. The place will be announced later.

Paul Lane, President

The Bill Stevenson dance was a big success, with at least eight squares dancing. It was a real pleasure dancing to Bill; he definitely has a style of his own. I'm sure everyone considers himself a better dancer after mastering his call of "The Blue-tail Fly."

We had another rare pleasure at that dance, dancing with several members of the Jubileers. As their regular club dances are on the same night ours are, we don't get to dance with them as often as we would like. We certainly enjoyed having you; do come back again.

We'd also like to send a special "Thank you, Paxon," for supporting our dances, especially when we have an out-of-town caller. You're a wonderful group, and we always enjoy dancing with you.

Was real nice having a group from the Orange Park Promenaders. We hope you'll come again soon.

Our last regular dance was also election night. Before I give you the names of our new officers, we'd like to say to the retiring ones that the past year has been a good year and a fun year; and, although it never seems quite enough, "Thank you." Congratulations to our new officers. They are:

- President - Bob and Ellen Brandon
- Vice President - Bill and Mary Leggett
- Secretary - Tommy and Ramona Mulford
- Treasurer - Paul and Jean Tate
- Board of Directors - Leon and Bea Smith and Earle and Ruth Pierce.

ORANGE PARK
PROMENADERS

The PROMENADERS held a party for the Tuesday class, and we had a ball, or should I say a lesson in history? A group of PROMENADERS put on a skit on the history of square dancing under the direction of Elmer and Margaret Hilbrant.

The history began from the time of Adam and Eve (portrayed by Ray and Maxine Delp, fig leaves and all) to the two cats (Louise and Harry Horton) who jumped from Noah's Ark in time to join in a dance to the red-hot fiddling of Nero and his gal (Norris and Rena Runkles). While Rome burned, Cleopatra and Anthony waltzed on stage to the tune "Stripper." Jean and Sherman Nolan gave Liz and Richard Burton a race for the box office, or so the sidelines thought; they were really good.

Dancing was progressing, and no group is complete without a touch of Shakespeare, so in came Romeo and Juliet (Libby and Lloyd Jordon), but, alas, poor Juliet drank poison, and Romeo had to join her.

Time marches on, and now we have Columbus and Isabelle (Jake and Louise Smith), and this was the beginning of round dancing because Columbus thought only in circles. Dancing had smooth sailing until Columbus lands in the new world and tries to teach the Indians' "Big Chief" Jim Carroll and "Starlight" Kaye Carroll how to square up. Everyone that has ever seen Indians knows that they only dance in round dances. Daniel Boone and his wife (Randy and Bernice Church) just don't like Indians, so the men began walking a square protecting the women in the block house. From the block house we begin the square. The alle-mande left and do si do follow the pioneers into the wilderness to the tune of fiddles and a background of wagon wheels. Our performance must have been OK because they let us stay for the rest of the party.

We enjoyed slides shown by Floyd of the Idiot dance and his trip up north to some Yankee square dances.

We also enjoyed some visitors. Friendly Frolics came out with a real nice crowd, and we sure had fun. The girls were sporting some very pretty white dresses trimmed in black. We are looking forward to dancing with them on New Year's Eve.

Twelve couples of PROMENADERS held a surprise midnight wienie roast at the new home of Capt. Rock. I hear it was lots of fun until the food was missing, and Walt Radloff confessed to pulling his old tricks. We also had a few dancers that made "Kangaroo." I hear Bea Nix is still jumping up and down like a "Kangaroo" yelling, "I get the message," but she really hasn't gotten the message yet.

I'll leave the GRAPEVINE for now and see all of you New Year's Eve.

FRIENDLY FROLICS

'Twas the week before Christmas, and all through the hall,
Dancers gaily made ready for Lee's "Cannonball,"
When up at the mike there arose such a chatter
I sprang from my square to check up on the matter!

In the midst of it all, scurried Clements 'n' Crout,
And Rosa Lee too, jostling Herschell about.
Then Virgie and Ruth out of nowhere appeared,
Dragging Santa along by the end of his beard!

With notebook in tow and quite sure of a "Skoop,"
I listened intently for word from the group.
When, hark! -- to my wonderment, what did I hear,
But -- "Merry Christmas, y'all, and a Happy New Year!"

From the officers and members of FRIENDLY FROLICS to all our GRAPEVINE readers.

want to get off to a happy start in '63? Then be sure to join us in '62 -- on New Year's Eve, Monday, December 31, for FRIENDLY FROLICS' gala Dance, Feast and Fun celebration! We'll be making merry at Annie Lytle School from 8:00 P.M. 'til 1:00 A.M., so grab a hat 'n' a horn or two and sound off with the gang at FRIENDLY FROLICS! We'll be looking for you!

Holiday spirits were soaring when, on December 15, a host of club members and visitors gathered at Annie Lytle for FRIENDLY FROLICS' annual Christmas dance. A beautifully decorated tree (Frank 'n' Aggie's handiwork) graced the stage, while our refreshment table, provided by Ellen Johnson and her committee, was very festively inviting. The singing of gay Christmas carols during intermission provided the perfect setting for our jolly Santa's sudden arrival. You were marvelous, Pete, and thanks (I think) for your little "gifts"!! Things got a bit sticky there for a while when we attempted a right 'n' left grand while clutching a lollypop in our grubby li'l' hands! In fact, the fella in the bright red vest had a real messy time of it! (The Christmas outfits worn by several members added a very bright touch to the occasion.)

Thanks a heap to all the gals who helped me with our "White Elephant" table, and a great big "Thank you" from the club to Martha Hamilton for that wonderful seven-pound fruit cake she baked. Myra and Shellie Faircloth (lucky winners, you) must have blessed Martha with each delicious slice of that cake!

In addition to Herschell's fine calling, we enjoyed dancing a tip called by Joe Smith of "Seaside Squares," and one by our old friend, Myron Samson. It was indeed good seeing Joe and Margaret, and Myron and Barbara. Come back real soon, y'all!

Herschell and Rosa Lee were pleasantly surprised upon being presented with a gift from the members of FRIENDLY FROLICS, along with our warmest good wishes for a Merry Christmas and a very bright New Year.

Speaking of the New Year, for all you club members who would like to get together more often in '63, President Doug Crout received a unanimous vote of "yes" in connection with dancing at Englewood on our "off" Saturday nights. Therefore, beginning in January, in addition to our regular first and third Saturday dances at Annie Lytle with caller Herschell Lee, we will dance to tapes and records at Englewood on the second and fourth Saturdays! A real "jam session" to look forward to, so, y'all join us!

Saturday, November 17, found FRIENDLY FROLICKERS dancing in a rather strange manner. Just for kicks, we had two exhibition squares of all men - all gals. As Doug put it, "The gals are prettier, but you can see who keeps the square from breaking down." Yep, the gals!

We were happy to have a number of Merry Mixers visiting us that evening, and Paul and Mary Lane have victoriously recaptured their club flag! In spite of a slight mishap (Virginia Tresca sat on Barney Davis' cigar, and it was hot), a nice time was had by all!

Approximately four squares of FRIENDLY FROLICKERS had an enjoyable time visiting the Orange Park Promenaders on Friday, December 7. Dancing to caller Floyd Hazen is always a pleasure, and we had the added treat of Marge Hazen's dynamic rendition of "Bill Bailey." Our own Herschell called a tip, much to our delight, and we want to thank club president Larry Crutchfield and his gang for their hospitality -- it was fun being with the Promenaders.

A few valiant souls braved the cold on Saturday, December 8, to visit the Star Lite Shufflers at the home of caller Walt Knight, thus enabling FRIENDLY FROLICS to recapture our club flag! So, let's pin a medal on Eddie and Willie Grey, Rocky and Martha, Arthur and Betty, and Doug and Helen! No medal for "Snewpy 'n' Spouse," but we learned that the gang enjoyed a great evening of dancing and the fine hospitality of a gracious, friendly bunch -- the Shufflers!

Sure hope old Santa fills your stockings to the brim, and, looking forward to seeing all of you at FRIENDLY FROLICS on New Year's Eve,

Yours for a Happy Holiday,

Lois Stanton, Reporter

MERRY STEPPERS
(Gainesville)

Everyone is in the holiday rush here with their last-minute shopping, just as they are everywhere else.

The Gainesville beginners class will be joined by the Trenton beginners class on December 17 in Gainesville. After the dance is finished they are all going to the Bartleys for an open house. Then the following night the MERRY STEPPERS are invited to enjoy more of the goodies Ruth and Bart cook-up after the regular dance session. Can't imagine how Ruth can ever get all the baking done; she's really a whiz.

MERRYSTEPPERS (Continued)

On November 20 the MERRYSTEPPERS were treated to the calling of Jack Livingston from Indianapolis, Indiana. Jack did some real fine calling, and it was a most enjoyable evening for all of us.

We seem to have had a few casualties among our members recently. Last summer Tom McRorie slipped and fell while round dancing and broke his arm. Then, at the recent Les Gotcher dance in High Springs he slipped down again and broke the other arm. Does anyone happen to know of an insurance company specializing in square-dancing casualties? Seems we could use their services. Seriously, we're all very sorry it happened to such an ardent square dancer, and wish him a speedy recovery.

It will soon be time for our annual New Year's Eve dance and covered-dish supper. The beginners classes of Gainesville and Trenton are invited to join us for this festive occasion. Because of the size of the crowd expected, we have had to limit it to the local clubs. Our hall is large, but it doesn't have expandable walls. We will dance from 9:00 until midnight, and then have a king-size covered-dish supper followed by more dancing until ??????????

We wish to take this opportunity to wish everyone Season Greetings, and hope to see many of you in Gainesville in the coming year.

The MERRYSTEPPERS meet every Tuesday at the Recreation Center at 8:00 P.M. with Bart Bartley calling. Intermediate dancing, air conditioned, and visitors are invited.

Edna and Tom Hutson

STAR LITE SHUFFLERS

Jingle bell, jingle bell, jingle bell rock, it's the Christmas season and everything is so gay. All you children better be good, 'cause Santa Claus is watching you.

On November 24 the STAR LITE SHUFFLERS were honored to have Len and Frieda Saraga and Anne and Herb Lawhorne visit with us.

Ever hear of a Grandmother Shower? We had one for Angie, our new grandmother, on December 1. It was quite a sight to see Oren Hayes, Jack Cannon and Kemp compete in the Baby-Bottle Contest. Charlie won because he was smart enough to bite the end off the nipple.

On December 7 a group of STAR LITE SHUFFLERS visited Orange Park and had a wonderful time. Herschell Lee, Jack Griffiths and Margie and Floyd Hazen did the calling. In addition to having a lovely hall to dance in, you can see we had a good group of callers.

One square from Friendly Frolics came calling, on December 8, to reclaim their banner. They sure are a lively bunch; we sure did enjoy their visit and look forward to having them come again. Ruth and Bill Fleshman also visited and gave us quite a round-dance demonstration. Y'all come again; it was really fun.

It is now appropriate to change "Hully Gully" Ross's name to "Salty Dog" Ross.

There was a workshop at the Knight's home, preparing for graduation, on December 16. Our class graduated on December 19; full details will follow in the "Grapevine" next month.

We are looking forward to the New Year's Eve dance at Friendly Frolics.

After the work session on December 16, most of the group moved on to visit with Margie and Bob Ross, where they enjoyed a lovely evening. Margie cooked for everyone, on the grill, and it was decided that she can really cook. After eating, everyone squared up, and Bob took movies of the action. During the evening Bob even showed us movies which he had taken while in Hawaii. We are looking forward to the movies of the dancing now, Bob. While at the Ross's trailer the group earned their "MOBILEBUG" and "BUG-IN-A-RUG" badges.

We have quite a sick list for the past month. Angie Hayes has been sick for almost three weeks, Martha Hamilton has been sick this past week, Hugh Patterson has been very ill and has been in the hospital, and the Yonques have been missing dancing due to their children being quite ill. GET WELL SOON EVERYONE!

We missed the Addingtons while they were in Tennessee during Thanksgiving. We understand they had such a wonderful trip that they are going again Christmas.

Who was the fellow who kept changing his shirt at the club dance on December 15, Kemp?

May you have the gladness of Christmas which is HOPE, the spirit of Christmas which is PEACE, the heart of Christmas which is LOVE, and may the PEACE of Christmas bring happiness to you all through the coming year.

Betty Tool, Mrs. Secretary

MERRY MIXERS

Though we didn't have a club dance on Thanksgiving, four squares of MERRY MIXERS celebrated Herschell's birthday November 20 at the Fun and Frolic dance which was held at the Annie R. Morgan School. Bettie Osborn and T. W. Cordray were all dressed up again in their junior juvenile costumes to present Herschell with an electric shoe-shine kit, the MERRY MIXERS' gift to their caller. Charlie Head acted as M.C. for the birthday ceremony during which Herschell also received a surprise birthday cake and a gift from the Seaside Squares. Poor fellow didn't know all of this had been planned in advance, and he spent the rest of the evening apologizing for taking up so much of the dance time. We had a real good time, thanks to the hospitality of Fun and Frolics. During the evening we devoured Herschell's cake and other tasty refreshments and coffee provided by our hosts.

Taw Bettie and I missed our club dance of November 29 due to her illness with pneumonia and pleurisy which has kept her out of dancing activities most of the last month. I attended our December 6 dance solo and had a good time though. We learned a new routine that night, "square thru 4 hand around - minus one." This maneuver is infrequently experienced when a certain high-level caller finds it necessary to extricate us from an otherwise unworkable position. President Lane announced plans to hold our Christmas dance at the Terry Parker High School cafeterium in order to accomodate Herschell's class who will be among our guests that night.

The cold weather nearly froze out our dance of December 13, but the small group who braved the elements enjoyed themselves. We had an early touch of Christmas atmosphere with Jingle Bell Rock and Here Comes Santa Claus. Herschell also coached the more awkward of us through Alley Cat, and we reviewed the Grand Square and Grand Prowl. Develle Cordray provided a tasty tray of tempting and decorative Christmas cookies for our refreshments.

Thursday, December 27 -- a date to mark on your calendar right now and to plan on being with us at the Terry Parker cafeterium that night for a special treat. The MERRY MIXERS will proudly present their own sterling caller sharing honors with that eminent Tarheel tobacco chanter, Tan "Tobacco" Lee. Tan was bitten by the square-dance bug as a result of visiting our club several summers ago, then became the third of the Lee brothers to take up the art of calling. Herschell and Rosie danced with Tan's club while back home this past summer and report that he's developed into a real fine caller. From our previous acquaintance I can recommend him as a barrel of fun, even before he became a square-dance enthusiast. Plan now to liven up those dragging after-Christmas spirits by having fun with us, and, to borrow Tan's favorite phrase, "Keep smoking, son."

Club members are reminded that the first Thursday night of January is election night. A slate of candidates will be presented, and additional nominations may be presented by any member. Dancing will be the main theme of the evening, and we'll try to make the election as quick and painless as possible -- but it is important to you as a club member. We'll be back at our regular hall and regular schedule in January, including the second Thursday buffet supper.

A happy Holiday to all.

FUN AND FROLIC

Four forward two-steps; grapevine to the side, brush; grapevine together, touch. These, along with many others, are the instructions Jack Griffiths has been trying to drum into the hard heads of the many enthusiasts who have been gulping their supper on Tuesday nights in order to get to the round-dance lessons. Thanks to Jack, many Jacksonville dancers will be on the floor instead of on the sidelines at all the big dances when our usual between-tips rounds are being played. The attendance has been good at these lessons, but we have room for many more. So y'all come: 7:30 P.M. every Tuesday night at Woodstock Community Center, Beaver and St. Clair. Stay for the evening of square dancing which follows at 8:00.

The month of December has seen many visitors attending our dances in spite of all the hustle and bustle of the coming holidays. They are always welcome, and we want to see many more.

Our annual Christmas party was held December 18 in our hall, which was beautifully decorated by the hand of our own Edith Ford. The covered-dish supper which preceded the dance was as usual delightful, and many a groan was heard from those who could not resist going back for seconds. After supper, door prizes made and donated by Edith Ford were won by Nancy Martin, daughter of Walter and Pansy Martin, and by Shelley Register, daughter of yours truly and Reggie Register. During the evening the ladies donated their services for a wrapping session for gifts purchased for less fortunate children. FUN AND FROLIC presented Jack and his lovely wife with a gift of linen and a ceramic ash-tray as a small token of our appreciation for his wonderful calling all year. Jack, it was also to thank you for putting up with all of our antics during this last year.

With the advent of the holiday season, we at FUN AND FROLIC want to wish all the square dancers in the Northeast Florida area a very merry Christmas and a healthy and prosperous New Year full of our favorite pastime.

PAXON PRANCERS

This has been an active and most enjoyable month for our club. We visited Wesconnett to hear Bill Stevenson, and we visited Palm Valley one Saturday night. By the way, Larry, how did your car get around the side of the building? It's amazing how these little sports cars can get around without a driver.

On November 29 we held our Beatnik Party. We were well entertained during the night. Most everyone came in costume, and we had live music. Real live! There were a couple of guitars and bongo drums. If you've never danced to bongo drums, try it sometime. It's even more interesting if the bongo player is sitting in the middle of the square. The first tip was called by our caller, Elwood, lying on his "pad." He found out through experience that it's much easier to call in an upright position. A prize was awarded for the best costumes and was won by Bob and Gail Park, two of our new graduates. The hall was decorated in real Beatnik style with all chairs removed and pads substituted. Our decorating committee went all out to give us "atmosphere."

On December 3 several of our group danced again at the Duval Medical Center with caller Elwood Sexton. On December 16 we went to the All Saints Home for the Aged. These elderly people seemed to really enjoy the dancing. One lady who said she was 90 years young informed us that she used to square dance many years ago in France. Seems like square dancing is nothing new anywhere.

Paxon is having its Christmas Party December 20. We understand Santa Claus is going to be there in person. It is going to be a combination Graduation-Christmas party. We certainly have a nice group of graduating dancers. We're very proud of them and hope to see many of them join us every Thursday night.

Paxon is going to have a Valentine Dance on February 14 with guest caller John Calhoun of Birmingham, Alabama. Admission will be $1.00 per person. All of our square-dancing friends are invited.

We'd like to wish a happy birthday to Pam Kieffer, Al Pierce, and all those who had birthdays this month.

Come see us. We like people, especially those who square dance.
