FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Northwest Florida square and round dancers were saddened by the loss of Kay Chapman in Tallahassee on December 25, 1983. She was a member of the Capital Squares, Whirlaways and Merry Mates clubs of Tallahassee. Kay was a much loved and very enthusiastic dancer who introduced many to the wonderful world of square and round dancing.

In Kay's memory I am asking each and every square and round dancer in the Northwest to contact an inactive dancer...invite them to accompany you to a dance during the month of Love, February.

Hope to see you all at the next meeting of the Northwest Florida Square and Round Dance Association in Panama City on January 28th, 1984 immediately following the workshop.

Happy New Year to one and all !

-Jane Janinda-

CLUB NEWS

CHIPOLA GRAND SQUARES;Marianna,FL

We have been doing a lot of traveling during the latter part of 1983 and have great plans for 1984. We visited Altha, FL in Oct. for their Halloween Dance, Waterworld in Dothan, AL, Lakepoint Fun Fest, AL, Swinging Pairs & Squares in Ponifay, FL, and the Panhandle Promenaders Christmas Party in Chipley Florida. Then with all this going on we managed to hold two very special dances at our own club; the Annual Thanksgiving Dinner Dance and the Annual New Years Eve Dance, both of which were well attended. Good food and excellent friendships not to mention dancing were enjoyed by all.

We will be starting classes on Jan. 5 with three open houses being offered. Classes will start 1/2 hour before the regular dance.

We dance at the Chipola Student Center, Chipola Jr. College, in Marianna every Thursday at 7:30 pm with Horace Newberry as the Caller-Instructor. VISITORS ALWAYS WELCOME.

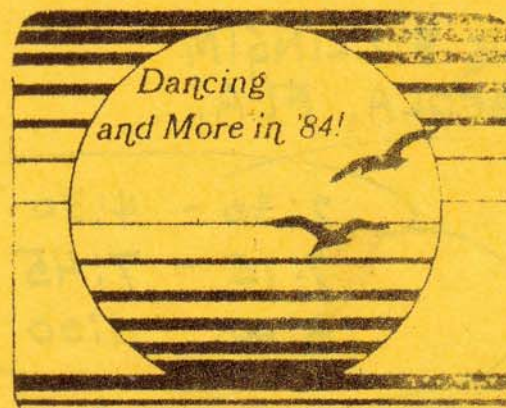

-Anneita Gilbourn-

In December Frances and I attended the Beginners Hoedown at the Jacksonville Civic Auditorium. There were 16 Callers from Florida and the South Georgia areas. NOW GET THIS ! There were 88 squares of dancers with at least 60 squares of these as beginner dancers. I hope all other areas in the State have as large a class as we do in Northeast Florida. I am thinking how now it would be to have these new dancers come to Lakeland in May and let us, the present dancers really welcome them into the Square Dance World. I invite all dancers to visit as many of the classes as you can to dance and talk to these people between now and their graduation in April and May. Let's really make an effort to gain their interest and keep this large group active in square dancing.

The program for 1984 is completed and ready to go to the printer. We are anxious for you to see it and find out all of the great State Callers and Cuers who will be there for your enjoyment.

We look forward to seeing many of you in Lakeland at The Sunshine Festival. We also plan to be in other areas of the state in the next few months to visit and dance with as many of our friends as we can.

NEW RELEASE— ALL PUBLICATIONS
For Immediate Release
From: American Squaredance Magazine

One of the two national/international monthly square dance magazines on the North American continent, American Squaredance, has reached another milestone. With its January issue, ASD celebrates thirty-nine (39) years of publication. It is the oldest continuous magazine of its kind.

Stan and Cathie Burdick, editors/publishers from Huron, Ohio, state that ASD was originated in 1945 by Charles Thomas in Woodbury, New Jersey. From that point to the present, it has had five editors, and has moved from New Jersey to Moline, to Chicago and to Huron. The Burdicks have been editors for 15 years.

The magazine also has undergone four name changes: American Squares to Square Dance, to the New Square Dance to American Squaredance (with a small "d"). Many dancers still refer to it as American Squares.

Since its first issue the magazine has increased to 100 times its original volume (1 page vs. an average of 100 pages); 40 times its original circulation of readers (less than 1,000 vs. over 40,000); 60 times its original coverage (one to three states vs. all 50 states, all Canadian provinces and ten countries), and only nine times its original price ($1. per year vs. $9. per year).

Some of the outstanding features each month include leadership tips, "Meandering with Stan," "Dancing Tips," "Calling Tips," "Challenge Charter," news, Pulse Polls (2), caller profile, cuer profile, dancer profile, book review, R-O-M, choreography, outstanding club activities, cartoon, puzzle, and much more.

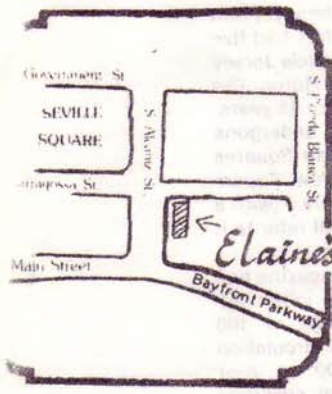

In appreciation for the magazine's success, the Burdicks have offered a $1.00 reduction to any new subscriber reading this announcement. Mention this magazine and send $8. (instead of the cover price of $9.) to ASD, P.O. Box 488, Huron OH 44839. Sample copies are free for the asking, singly or in quantity (as supplies last) for distribution.
