IF THE SHOE FITS

Tonight's the night; I can hardly wait!

It's square dance time when the clock strikes eight.

I'll choose my dress, his shirt and pants;

We'll grab my shoes and get ready to dance.

If I'm not careful and watch what I do

I'll always seem to grab the wrong shoe.

My old clod hoppers are used with a plow,

So I must be careful – not dance like a cow.

So push a plow, but not this girl.

And watch it buddy, give a gentle twirl.

Now track shoes are fine when you're running the mile:

But take shorter steps and I'm sure to smile.

Have you ever heard of an old horse shoe?

They help pull a wagon and it takes more than two.

But we're not horses so watch what you do:

If you give a pull, then I'm all through,

Now no one ever learned to dance by force,

By pulling, shoving and acting like a horse.

So smile at me if I seem new.

And PLEASE JUST WEAR

A SQUARE DANCE SHOE!
