OF THE

WEST COAST SQUARE & ROUND DANCE ASSOCIATION

It certainly is looking a lot like spring with the birds singing and the azaleas and dogwoods in bloom. It should make us all feel great to be alive.

We want to wish everyone a very happy Easter and hope that you will remember our membership dance at Foxwood Lake Estates in Lakeland on April 10th. It is usually a very good dance and we hope to see you all there.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank Lefty and Georgia Tidd for our very successful dance at Sebring on February 28th. They really did a wonderful job. With 7 callers and 4 cuers the hall was full at all times.

The State Convention will be held on May 27, 28, & 29th at the Expo Center in Orlando. Sounds like it will be a great convention, so we hope to see many of you there.

We are going to have many new dancers graduating very soon now and we hope that you will help and support them so they will enjoy many years of happy square dancing.

Sincerely yours,

Len & Jean Ector

Report for WCSRDB Blood Bank

Donations for the month of February included:

Thomas Cave
Bob Wade

Frank DuBois
Phyllis Wade

If you look back over the previous Blood Bank reports, you'll see many of the same names appearing every two months. These nice, caring people faithfully give of themselves (their blood, time and effort) to go as often as is allowed (every 8 weeks), and they deserve special thanks.

At a special meeting at Strawberry Square recently all those who donated through the mobile unit were presented with their "Blood Bank Dangle" to attach to their West Coast badge. The mobile unit called again during February and many more donated. I don't have the list of names yet but they will appear next month. Thanks, you'all!

SHOOTIN' STARS

St. Petersburg...We've had such fun with our friends celebrating February's great dances of Valentine and our bakers' challenge, Cherry-Pie-Ala-Mode Dance. Such luscious creativity! We'll be having another great time on March 21st when we become 14 years old!

Be se6in' ya!

Well this is just a bunch of meanderings. Had a nother very sucessful membership dance at Sebring on February 28th, 1988. It was a full house but still plenty of room to dance. Lefty and Georgia Tidd had all of Sebrings finest Callers and Cuers. And all wore their badges, which in one way made me feel good for that is one of my Pet Peeves, that is the Callers who do not wear their badge. Nuff for now. Had several enquiries about our Blood Bank. Many asked how can they donate and if necessary receive this Gift of Life. During one of the times of making announcements Georgia Tidd told just how easy it and if anyone felt like donating, she, Georgia would hold their hand. Mrs Tidd told that she had just donated and so she received a "I Gave" Dangle. Hope you read the mini article about Handicapable Dancing. I did not realise how much of this activity is being done in Florida. Did you notice thr article in the March issue by Marge Lundberg about the Yellow Rock. How do you feel about this Friendly Movement. I do know several dancers(ladies) that have been hurt by an over aggressive Yellow Rocker. I like it but there are some that do not realize that our ladies hould be handled with great care. I know that we have equality with them, however I believe that our ladies are sweet and delicate creatures and must be handled as such. Many dancers have asked us why we do not get more square dancing in the media. We try, it is not easy, some of the newspapers do not realise just how big square daning is and how it effects the economy. However in Polk County we have a Vacation Guide that is called Here-Abouts. The Editor is Jane Marable and is printed in Winter-Haven. List all the Square Dancing in Polk County and during the season we receive many calls. It is distributed to Hotels, Motels and other places of business. We appreciate what Here-Abouts does for us and they appreciate what we do. This is not an advertisement but it shows what can be done in other counties. Try it, it will work and does not coast us a dime.

Well see you next month and if any mistakes in the Calendars, please let some one know. We will print all the dancing in the June, July and August issee this year. Happy Dancing.

CDN & T.Nissen.

EDITORIAL

Where is the time flying to? Here ir is, March, and many square dance classes are well past the mid-point.

By now, students are seeing how much fun Square Dancing really is. If your club, or caller, is sponsoring or running a class, it is time to consider getting a "Knothead" trip going. It is a terrific way to show the new dancer one of the many fun activities we have in our movement. It is also a great way for students to get to know each other better, while on a bus trip. Let's do it! Get them on a Knothead trip to dance to another caller. The experience of dancing with other dancers is also good for them. They will have fond memories of being initiated, and of thier first fun activity in the movement in a group.

Our account in Lakeland is growing. We have over 60 units. At our March dance at Foxwood Lake Estates we gave "I GAVE" Dangles were presented to Tom and Mary Mullens for they are getting to be regular donnors. As, Eunice Lusk says, (Our Blood Chairman) "Please continue to share your good health through regular blood donation. Your donation helps insure that blood will be available for the next person who needs it." And, it is a good felling. One of the Benifits you have when you are a West Coast member.....Bob Richards. 665-7120.

HANDICAPABLE DANCING

Faith Hennessey who is a Square Dancer and also a member of the Polk County Schoolboard was at the 1987 State Convention and saw the Pensacola Special Steppers in action and was very impressed. Faith works with the Handicapped children and adults and is hoping that a similar program can be organized in the Polk School system. MS Hennessey has contacted others in Florida that have these programs and there are more than she realised. So, if there are any Callers who have had experienced with the handicapped and would be willing to help out, please let me know and I will pass the word to Faith Hennessey. In the March issue of Bow and Swing there was quite an article on the Handicapable Dancers. Cris Nissen-813-665-9528- THANKS. CDN.

FOXWOOD SQUARES-LAKELAND: Having a great time this season. Although some of our visitors are are getting to say their farewells. Seemed they just got here. Surprising the number of couple that are from other States. Must make a record of where they are from. We are all missing Dee Barnes. Why ?. Because Dee fell and brok her leg. Is still in a cast and if it were not for her Africian Violets she whould be plum unhappy. Dee will be back shortly. We Hope. Remembers, we dañce all summer. Rounds at seven and Squares at seven-thirty. Every Tuesday. See you and be sure to pick up all the Flyers. Lots of Info. Cris and Trudie.

Our club is back to the normal schedual of dances on the first three Fridays of the month. A special effort is being made to arrange for the best possible quest callers for the nights when our regular caller, Ron Schnieder, is not available. For example, we have arranged for Tom Perry to call for the club on the 8th of April.

IN MEMORIAM

Sorry to report the passing of Leon Bauernfeind last February. Leon had been sick for quite a while. Leon and Frances were great boosters of the West Coast Association and for a while were the County V.P.'s for Highland County. They use to come to Tampa for the Association meeting and helped collate the Dancer. They had the record for continuous dancing, 77 Days and this record has only just been beaten. Always helped the new dancers. Were very active in the Vagabonds Camping Club. Leon and Frances were regular donors to the Blood Bank. All of us extend our sympathies to Frances and the rest of the family.....

There were approximately 2,200 dancers representing many states of the Union enjoying the outstanding calling and cueing at the 13th Annual Florida Sunshine Festival.

This year's Fashion Show theme was a Kaleidoscope of Florida. Interesting bits of information about each city were given by Betty Mitchell, the MC, while the models paraded around the arena. There were many lucky door prize winners, but the flat of delicious strawberries donated by Strawberry Square was the most coveted prize. Jack & Libby Thompson were the lucky couple who will be enjoying them.

We would like to thank Russ & Judy Tremblay and Wayne & Barbara Blackford, our talented round dance staff for their outstanding performance. Next year Mike & Marsha Burkhardt will join our permanent round dance guest staff, the Blackfords, as our round dance guest staff.

By popular demand next year's Festival will include C-1 Dancing on the program. We're looking forward to seeing you again on February 2,3,4, 1989.

LIMONADERS-NSDCA #139-Lakeland. Our weekend on March 4-6 was another good one with 34 Rigs checking in and 14 visiting couples. Some were the officers of the Fla NSDCA. Our Friday night Wine and Cheese Party was well attended. Our Saturday Night first traditional "Mad Hatters Ball" went over real good, and we had some real Millinery Extravaganzas. Come and join us at Southernair R.V.Park. We will be with #153. Thanks to the Mouldin for their Masterful job of Wagonmastering during the rain and the limited number of sites. Made all happy. We monitor CB Channel One and will be looking for you. Date is June 10-12th. 1988.

Bill Ludlum for Joyce Angrist.

SPINNING WHEELS: Our members were saddened by the loss of Leo White one of our dearest Charter members. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to his wife, Marie and family. We were happy to hear that another member, Dale Bellairs, is home recuperating from his surgery. We wish him a speedy recovery. On April 8th we're looking forward to having Jay Medlock of Alabama as our guest caller. We would like to invite everyone to come and help us to celebrate our 18th Anniversary on May 6. We've been so happy lately to have so many visitors, some from as far away as California. Happy Easter!

Swinging Grandma

CITRUS WOODS SQUARES-LAKELAND: It won't be long now until we have our last dance of the season. It is the 17th of April and we will have our Traditional Finger Foods. Thanks to all those dancers who have made this a fun filled Sunday Afternoon Dance. Ken and Jean Anderson on squares thank you and also Bill and Marion Winkler, on rounds also thank you, and we the Citrus Couple thank you. See you next season and around the squares. Jay and Rosina.

BAY AREA TWIRLERS -Tampa: One of the new innovations to come from our new Presidents (Dick & Betty Stevens) was the organization and assignment of duties of the members. All members were divided into 4 groups. Each group was assigned to 3 months (one annual quarter) with one person in charge. During their three months they will take care of Food Night(refreshments) Hosting and one special dance, i.e. Valentine Ball, Luau, Pie nite, Christmas Dance, but the Anniversary will be shared by all. More on this later. Come and dance with us. We're known as the Friendly Club.

Ed Correia.

HAPPY EASTER from the DRIFT AROUNDS of Brookridge. Our Feb. and Mar. dances, the Valentine and St. Pat's dances were successful with many dancers, door prizes, and delectable food. Thanks Sam and George for interesting dance manoeuvring. Come join us Apr. 7th, 14th, 21st and 28th for a most entertaining and enjoyable evening of dancing.

APR 8 GANDY DANCERS....TAMPA....If you have not attended a "Pig" Dance, why not try this one on for size, April 18th. You can pig-out on some Bar-B-Q pork and delicious Pig Pickin' Cake.

Our thanks to our members and guest for making our Sweet-heart Dance a huge success. Our club is always open to guest, so try to visit us whenever possible. We will be visiting different clubs soon, as we are out to steal your banner. What a better way to put fun in your life, meet new and interesting people by square dancing. Keep dancin' and smiling;

BUTTONS AND BOWS-MULBERRY/LAKELAND celebrated everyones birthday at an ice cream party with Ted and Angie as chairmen. Amazing! Not one person looked older. And imagine our surprise when we were crowned King and Queen of the Valentine Dance. Visitors and members alike enjoyed the pageantry of the dance while King Carl spent most of the dance selecting his hanem.

Bill Jones is home after his recent heart attack. We are hoping for a quick recovery and back to dancing. Our picnic is planned for April with Calvin and Pauline as chairmen. Looking forward to this event.

During the April showers, don't worry - our dances will be high and dry with lots of fun, so join us soon.

Carl and Hazel Smith
