On Friday evening join us for a Murder Mystery Dinner and Show, and help to solve the mystery of Who Dun-it? Saturday morning, we will have several Breakout Sessions to learn more about the convention plans.

Saturday, March 10th, is the 68th National Square Dance Convention® Kick-Off Dance. We have a fantastic dance planned with Tony Oxendine and Jack Pladdys calling and Tim Eum on Rounds. THE 2018
WCSRDA
PRESIDENT
ED DREXEL

Here we are halfway thru March. Winter is winding down. Snow birds are planning the exit from Florida.

Recently, Suncoast Squares hosted their annual 'fly in', Flip the Flamingo! Breaking news, attendance was up over last year as they hosted over 125 dancers from around the world. It is a fun weekend of Mainstream/Plus in one hall and Advanced/Challenge in the other. Chris Phillips and Bill Eyler (from California) did a great job. If you get a chance, this is a fun weekend to attend! On the same night, Curt Braffert called at Strawberry Square with 5 squares.

The West Coast also hosted their February Association dance at Strawberry Square with Alan Snell and Bob Ormsbee calling and Carl Rod cueing. We had about 7 squares for a fun Sunday afternoon. On a Monday evening in February, Sam Dunn and Dave Mueller participated in a Square Dance in Avon Park with a live band joining in the fun.

Although the Ghost Riders do not need to

"COME DANCE AND EXPLORE GEORGIA"

The "Peach Pits" (Convention committee volunteers) want you to know that all things are moving forward and going well for the National convention in Atlanta. We are so excited we've lined up all types of entertainment for your enjoyment in 2019.

The opening performance on Wednesday night will be by the famous singer, song writer John Berry. John has too many hits to list but you can go to his website johnberry.com and check him out. Listen this Holiday season for his "O Holy Night" performance it's a treasured classic!

Registration count is 1500+. If you haven't pre-registered you need to do it now, the long forms will be issued in January and that gets you into the pre-convention festivities on March 8th of 2018.

"Money Saving" idea you need to know, the cost goes up the closer to the convention we get. Don't miss the current $50 rate for 4 days of dancing. Say "Yes" because we are making History and you should worry at the moment, this was a really fun time! The proceeds went 100 % to the Church. They figured capacity would be 6 squares. They sold 7 + squares and could have sold much more. This dance was different and people wanted to be there.

I mention that because this has been a tough year in the West Coast. Attendance is down across the board and clubs that seemed to the benchmarks of success suddenly are in jeopardy. Sadly, we have a West Coast club that will close at the end of the year with others scrambling to make changes.

Attendance is even down dramatically at some of our premier halls in the region. Dances that routinely drew 12 + squares are now drawing 3 - 4 squares. Remember, this is happening in January and February, not June and July.

There is no need to feel sorry for us. We're a tough breed in the West Coast. Nothing worthwhile is ever easy. Clubs and facilities are looking at their options and planning accordingly. Changes are being made short term and plans for next year are already in progress.

We'll be back!! The callers, facilities and dancers make the West Coast what it is today and we're not going without a fight!! For Square Dancing in Florida, you gotta go West!!

Sincerely,
Ed Drexel, President, WCSRDA
