PRESIDENTS MESSAGE
KEN & SUE BROWN

On behalf of the West Coast Square Dance Community we wish to express our sincere condolences to Sandy Brasfield in the loss of her Mother – Kathleen "Kewpie" Williams and to the family of Chuck Leamon.

Our hats off to Jim and Jan McConnaha, their 45th State Convention Executive Board, and members of Central Florida Square and Round Dancers Association for a fantastic job in the organization, orchestration, and production of "Mardi Gras Time In '99". You truly outdid yourself and the results spoke well of your labors. Again we wish to Thank You as our hosts. (and hostesses as well) A Special Thank You to Zurhn and Shirley for manning the Showcase Of Ideas during the West Coast time slot.

We have recently returned from the 48th National Square Dance Convention, where we were literally "Back Home In Indiana". It is always pleasant to return and renew friendships. The entire event was great, but we wish to pay special tribute to the members of a seminar panel entitled "Willing to Try Anything" or "Keep It Alive". Representing "Legacy", Citrus County Representatives Bob and Maria Spence did an outstanding job informing as well as involving the audience with methods which have been successful in the Recruitment and Retention of Square Dancers. Once again, those West Coast Angels; Charlie and Gladys Phillips, Dick and Betty Stevens, Ogie and Barbie Ellis, Wiley and Edna Hazel, and new kids on the block Don and Vi Ziepfel staffed the Showcase of Ideas, greeting visitors with Orange Slices and Hugs. Our sincere appreciation for your help and support.

Following is an E-mail communication which may have some merit. We ask that you share it with others in the activity and hope it will attract some new blood.

Subject: Promote square dancing

Hi, Susan Elaine!

It was great seeing you and your mom in Indy. It was a great convention and we certainly learned a lot from the Callerlab sessions, as well as dancing to some fine callers.

Here's something we're sending to as many Florida callers and dancers as we can: Tim Tharp and I are suggesting an idea we think will promote square dancing: "Wear Your Clothes to Work Day" on August 11, 1999.

California is promoting this idea for September 14 as part of National Square Dancing Month.

We discussed this idea with our caller, Whit Brown, and he suggested that an August date would be better because it would allow interested persons to have time to adjust their schedules to make room for square dance lessons.

We would like your support for this effort and hope you will carry the idea to your club and get the members enthused about it. Be sure they have materials available to give out to interested individuals. (cards, flyers, free lesson cards--all with appropriate club and class information)

Another valuable item to have available as a hand out to prospective "new dancers" is a brochure called "A New Song & Dance Routine." This brochure is available from The CALLERLAB Foundation, 829 - 3rd Avenue S.E., Suite 285, Rochester, MN 55904-7313 for $10.00 per hundred.

Let's get folks involved this fall in one of the greatest activities we know about! SQUARE DANCING!!!

Join us in promoting Square Dancing on August 11.

Thanks, Sheila Cootes and Tim Tharp

To borrow the title for the Legacy Seminar, "Willing to Try Anything".

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTE'S PINELLAS PARK

The B 'N' B's are doing fine under the new leadership of Grace Allen as President and Julie Morris as Vice-President. The club is Banner Raiding as is the custom in the summer months. Rainbow Ramblers greeted the raiders and a great evening was had by all who attended. We look forward to their retrieval in the near future. The last raid was to Joe Fioretti's J & B Club with a motor home trip supplied by Carma Dix. The members met at Danceland and were chauffeured by Norman Burget and a jovial group of ten members and guests had a great time. Jerri Mattson a Past President of our club from Spring Hill joined the group for the evening and it was a rousing success. More trips are planned for the future. Our meeting night has been changed from Monday night to Thursday and we will meet at Shady Lane Village at 6:00 PM on July 8th. A Special Dance was held July 19th which was Shorts Night. Come be cool and dance with our guest Callers and Cuers at Danceland. We are pleased to have had several new members joining our club. Welcome to one and all Square and Round Dancers.

Grace Allen

BAY AREA TWIRLERS - TAMPA

HERE WE GO AGAIN.....we sure are having fun at the BATS dances. The Load the Boat Dance on a new ship was a great success, planning another one real soon. We followed that with our annual Ship Wreck dance, come as you were when the ship went down. Prize winners were Shirley Cook dressed as the beauty salon customer and Maurice Reynolds as the Ship Captain (he looked as good as the captain on the Titanic!).

Come and see what you have been missing at the BAT dances, August 14, 21 (Mexican Fiesta), Sept 11 & 25. Our lessons start all over again on September 16, bring those who want to learn at 7 PM, Carl rod will take care of their learning experience.

One of those Batty Bats

BUTTONS & BOWS - MULBERRY

We observed the 47th anniversary of our club in June. At that age, we have lost many dancers from various associated problems thru the years, but we were happy to welcome many of those we could reach to help us celebrate. Someone brought a couple of our Club Dresses from years ago - how trends change! Gene Curry, chairman of Special Occasions, presented a Parade of Presidents, in which we all came forward to applause, and after 47 years there are a bunch of us! In honor of each past president who is deceased, Gene placed a rose in a vase as the name was called. Then we enjoyed a couple of acres of decorated cake with punch and coffee. Art Springer called, Charlie Lovelace cued, and we especially appreciated the presence of their sweet wives, Martha and Leona. The crowd was summer-size (less than jammed) but we all had a wonderful time and were reminded again how much our special group of friends means to us. To those who missed it, we are looking forward to seeing you soon. We dance all summer!

LEFT ALLAMANDERS – LARGO

After our students graduated in May, fellowship with miniature golf was enjoyed and them all went out to dinner.

Summer dance fun still continues and we have Gary Brown as our regular caller with some guest callers from time to time – (see our calendar of events).

It is nearing back to school time – so come dance and pretend with us and enjoy our "BACK TO SCHOOL DANCE" or "REMEMBERING WHEN IT WAS BACK TO SCHOOL". We may have an ink well to dip your best girl's pigtails in.

Banner Raiders and Knot Heads always welcome. Give us a call ahead of time so we will have plenty of Our Club's "FAMOUS FOR ALL FINGER FOOD".

May the spirit and excitement of new dancers remain with us no matter how many years we dance.

Get out your cowboy or cowgirl boots and hat and head on over to our "Dude Ranch Dance Hall" for a stomping and howling good time at our Western Night Dance. (see our calendar of events)

"Hay" - "Corral" all your friends and come on over. It will be a "Mooving" experience and something to "Whinny" about.

Plans for square dance lessons have not been completed at this writing – Please call Bob and Jennie Courter for more up-dated information at (727) 595-5494.

Emory and Joyce Johnson

PROMENADE SQUARES – PINELLAS PARK

Our once-per-month special dances are working very well. We have both square and round dancing at our special dances, with Van Coble calling the squares, and Jimmy and Carol Griffin cueing the rounds. There is usually a raider or two on these nights, and attendance has been good. The special dance on July 8th was called "Take Me Out To the Ball Game!", with hot dogs, popcorn and soft drinks, and one on August 12th will be "Party Time!". We will serve ice cream sundaes on that evening.

Our summer agenda for regular Thursday night weekly dances will include a Plus Workshop from 7 until 8, and then Mainstream dancing from 8 until 10:00. Participation by members and guests has been good.

And, we are still going on raids all summer long. We had four raids set up for July, but the August raid schedule is not set yet. On July 5 we raided the Bachelors and Bachelorettes, the Temple Twirlers on July 12th, the Sterling Stars on July 18th, and the Sun City Swingers on July 23rd. Then the Bay Area Twirlers raided us on July 8th. There will be other clubs raiding us all summer as well.

Happy Dancing – Jean

SUN CITY CENTER SWINGERS – SUN CITY CENTER

The Sun City Center Square Dance Club has had a very active and productive Winter and Spring schedule. The club participated in numerous banner raid and banner retrieval trips. We in turn were raided on several occasions. These functions are not only fun but they promote comradery amongst the dancers and clubs.

In February we celebrated Valentines Day with gala dances for both our mainstream and Plus groups. Cake and punch was served. The club en-masse attended the Square Dance held at the Florida State Fair.

An Ice Cream Social was held in March to help celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Wearin' of the Green was the "uniform of the day". The club also held their annual "nearly new" Square Dance Clothing sale in March. A profit of $200.00 was realized - this in turn was donated to the Sun City Center Friends of the Hospice Auxiliary. Twelve couples from the club also participated in Bob Barnes Square Dance Cruise on the "Tropical" to Key West and Cozumel. A great time was had by all.

In April the club held its Mainstream Graduation Ceremony. George Varney presided. Thirty dancers received a "Certificate of Achievement" from George. Cake and punch was served. Also held was a general meeting and installation of officers.

Even though the summer brings on "quiet time" for most clubs - with snowbirds heading north and people going on vacation - the swingers plan several trips and banner raids.

REMEMBER: THE SWINGERS DANCE ALL SUMMER

TWILIGHT TWIRLERS - BONITA SPRINGS

Twilight Twirlers held their last dance of the season on June 21st with a "make your own sundae" party. We'll start anew on September 13th at the Community Center in Bonita Springs. Plus workshop starts at 7:00 PM - Dance at 7:30 PM with Howard Cole, caller and wife Becky with both Rounds and Lines.

On September 20th we will forgo the 7:00 workshop in pursuit of four "Fun Badges". We'll dance in shorts, barefoot at the beach and in the water. ### IN MEMORY OF CHUCK LEAMON

Once Charles "Chuck" Lowell Leamon Jr. discovered the joy of square dancing, he was hooked into this leisure activity for more than 30 years and made a profession out of it.

Chuck and wife, Carole, started square dancing in 1962 while living in Pompano Beach. Chuck continuously refused his friends' invitation to go dancing but through a lot of begging, Carole finally succeeded in getting him to try it. After 45 minutes into his first beginners class he turned to Carole and said, "Why didn't we do this sooner". After only one lesson Chuck realized he had found his calling, a Square Dance Caller. He immediately began teaching his three children and others how to dance.

Chuck was born February 12, 1938 in Birmingham, AL to Charles Sr. and Eva Leamon. He and Carole met on a blind date in 1955. After his graduation from Phillips High School They were married November 25, 1955 and moved to Pompano Beach. Chuck was a manager for Gulfstream Lumber for seven years and later worked for two years at Deerfield Builders Supply. He then became self employed.

Chuck was a 13 year veteran of the Florida National Guard and the Army Reserve. He served as an officer of the Pompano Highlands Fire Department, Broward County paramedic, as well as the Everglades Fire Control Commission. He was a deputy Fire Control Commission member and a deputy Tax Assessor for Broward County. He held offices in the Deerfield Beach Jaycees, Highlands Homeowners Association, Rotary Club of Highlands County, Southeast Florida Callers Association, and Florida Callers Association of which he was a member for over 25 years. He was one of the first invitees into The International Association of Square Dance Callers "Callerslab."

Chuck was club caller for Pistols and Petticoats of Pompano Beach, Ridge Rollaways of Sebring (9 1/2 years), Flying Squares from Homestead Air Force Base (15 years), and Harmony Hoedowners of Sebring (8 years).

Chuck succumbed to his valiant battle against Cancer June 10, 1999. Carole commented, "Heaven's got a gorgeous voice tonight!"

PRESS RELEASE

49th NATIONAL
SQUARE DANCE CONVENTION
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND
JUNE 21 - 24, 2000

JUST SIGN ON THE DOTTED LINE - FOR BALTIMORE 2000

If you do we'll guarantee you a good time! Registration forms are available on our web site (members.aol.com/balt2000/balt2000.html) or by writing us at 49th NSDC - P.O. Box 300, Greenbelt, MD 20770-0300. The Housing & Registration Office has a fax number you can use to request a registration form and housing information. It's 301-262-0764. Request a tour brochure also.

Imagine a convention center with lots of space for all levels of dancing, glass windows providing beautiful views of the city, places to sit down to rest, and of course, food vendors on site. Then see yourself strolling the two blocks to the famous Inner Harbor complex via a skywalk right from the convention center.

You'll take in the harbor view - - sailboats, paddleboats, visiting tall ships and the historic U.S.S. Constellation (which you can tour). Then it's time for a snack or even a full meal at one of the many restaurants in the harbor pavilions, and then shopping for some Baltimore souvenirs.

Before heading back for more dancing, you'll take a ride around the harbor via water taxi. If you purchase a "Letter of Marque", it entitles you to ride all day, getting on and off to visit tourist attractions.

Sounds nice doesn't it? That's just the beginning. You can be part of the excitement. BUT FIRST YOU HAVE TO REGISTER. Check the web site, write to the address above or fax the Housing office. Do it today so you're not left on the dock as we set sail June 21 - 24, 2000 for the 49th National Square Dance Convention.
