2005 - 2006 PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

PENNY GREEN

Things are pretty slow on the west coast of Florida right now, as most of our clubs are shut down for the summer. The clubs that are open are averaging three to six squares.

Our sincere sympathy to Rachel Johnson and her family on the loss of Ernie on Friday, June 23. Ernie was a caller from Ohio who wintered in Bradenton. He had been battling cancer for two and a half months.

Our next Association Dance will be the VIP Dance at Strawberry Square in Plant City on Sunday, August 20th. This is the kick-off for our Fall Fun Fest and we will also be recognizing all our volunteers who help keep our square dance activity going. Early rounds start at 1:30 p.m. and we alternate mainstream/plus from 2:00 - 4:00 p.m. FREE to all dancers. Keith Stevens will be calling and Dick Chase will be cueing.

It's not too early to start "recruiting" people for the classes that will be starting in the Fall. Check my weekly email for classes that have been scheduled so far.

Penny Green,
President

FLORIDA ASSOCIATION OF SINGLE SQUARE & ROUND DANCERS

Labor Day weekend will find many solo dancers converging on Rochester, NY for the 36th Annual SSDUSA Dance-A-Rama. Callers will be Mike Callahan (NY), Tim Crawford (Canada), Jim Lee (Canada), Tom Miller (PA) and Art Tangen (KS). Cuers will be Wayne & Barbara Blackford (FL & AZ), Mike & Linda Liberti (AZ), Pete & Mary McGee (PA) and Mark & Marlene Thone (NY). This is always a fun weekend of dancing, renewing friendships and making new friends, and of course, of eating and shopping!

We're starting to receive registrations for our 27th Annual Single Rama which will be held on October 20 & 21 at the historic Kenilworth Lodge in Sebring. Sam Dunn will be calling and Phyllis Williams will be cueing. John Dean and Anne Oliver will be with us again to DJ our after parties on Friday and Saturday nights, and Sandy's Boutique will be the vendor for the weekend. Cost is $25 per person. Please bring snacks for the refreshment tables. Our annual meeting will also be held on Saturday morning where we will be electing a new slate of officers.

For more information on these dances and other singles dances, please contact me at 863-967-5004 or at pgreen@squaredancing.org.

Penny Green,
President

CLUB NEWS

BAY AREA TWIRLERS - BRANDON

The Bay Area Twirlers are having a great summer. We had lots of folks at our Firefly dance as we lit up the floor. It's great fun since most of us remember lightening bugs but now that we are in Florida we don't have the opportunity to chase them anymore. Of course Art Springer and Jimmy Griffin made it an even more special night.

Mike Cox made it a fun evening as we chowed down with watermelon at our Watermelon Stomp Dance on July 8. We have more of our fun nights coming up with our Tacky Tourist Dance on August 19 - note this dance is not on our regular second Saturday. It will be well worth the wait with a new guest caller - Gary Murphy along with our great Charlie Lovelace cueing. Make sure you join us for Sundaes on Saturday on August 26 with Gary Brown and Charlie again.

We will begin the fall with a Country Hoe Down on September 9 with Allen Snell calling and cueing. Our regular dance will follow on September 23 with Carl Rod calling and the Griffins cueing. We are going to miss Claudia and Wes Cole who acted as Presidents until Claudia was transferred to Virginia. So Chet and I are Presidents again for the fourth time. We've got to get it right eventually. We suspended our lessons and workshops for the summer and started up again in September. We used the summer off to visit other clubs and had great fun. With the summer off we also have a great class started and will soon have our workshops going again. Hope to see all of you at our dances. Jan Beemer, President

BUTTONS & BOWS - LAKELAND

Our dances have been well attended considering the season of travel and family obligations. Hope you were among those present in Red, White and Blue to enjoy the patriotic decorations and the all-american hotdogs.

We want everybody to keep in mind that we dance right thru the summer, each second and fourth Tuesday night, for when your regular dance is closed, and maybe even for an extra outing. No such thing as too much dancing! L&D for B&B

Then on Sept 14th we'll show off our prairie skirts & cowboy hats when we dance at our "Prairie Days" theme dance. And---if you have a pair of boots, wear them too !!

Promenade Squares is a Mainstream Club with occasional rounds. Our Square Dance caller is Dick DeMerritt. Jimmy & Carol Griffin cue our rounds for us. We dance every Thursday evening from 7:30-9:45 PM at the Pinellas Park Senior Center located at 7625 59th St.N. SPINNING WHEELS - TAMPA

Our Banner Raiders enjoyed visiting the Bay Area Twirlers to steal their banner, and they shortly came to our dance to retrieve it. Then we were raided by the Temple Twirlers who came to retrieve their banner. These banner raids really help to improve attendance at the dances during these slow summer months.

We are sorry to report that Al Swann has been in the hospital for a month. Our prayers are with him that he will soon be recuperating.

Art will be starting a beginner class on September 25, so spread the word.

We're happy to see our members who attended the National Convention back with us. We'll have a Welcome Fall Dance on September 22, so wear your fall colors that night. Hope you had a good summer, and we'll be looking forward to being in your square soon.

Swinging Grandma

STRAWBERRY SQUARE - PLANT CITY

Check our website: www.floridadanceweb.com/strawberry, or call the office: 813-752-0491 for schedule of dances.

We look forward to seeing old and new friends. Barb

We had a booth for recruiting new dancers at our St. Pete Pride Promenade on Saturday June 24th. We recruited 85 names and e-mail addresses and passed out 175 fliers. Michael Cox was with us and we did a demo dance on stage and danced in front of our booth during the day. It was a good day for us.

SUNSHINE STATE PIONEERS – CAMPER #018

Greetings! This is just a reminder that Camping is a real part of the Square Dance world. We, of Chapter 018, Square Dance Campers have just completed another fun campout. We had the honor of hosting the reps from the State camporee, John and Mary Burzo. Although the 39th anniversary turn out was light, we had a wonderful time at Encore R.V. Park near Sarasota Fla. a wonderful facility.

Under the expert calling and cueing of Allen Snell we practiced some position dancing and enjoyed the company of Rosie and their pet as well.

It was a great joy to have Bob Switzer and Helen back after his injury and recovery, they were greatly missed. Following the Dancing, and fellowship, all enjoyed Anniversary Cake and Ice Cream. My Thanks to those that were able to join in the fun, and we'll look forward to seeing you all next time, Sept. 15-17 at campers Holiday Park in Brooksville.

Our wish for a safe and Happy return; Clayton, Kathy, & Family.

TEMPLE TWIRLERS – TAMPA

Temple Twirlers exchanged banners with several clubs during May and June and enjoyed guest callers Robert Arias, Keith Stevens and Burt Lally. Club president Flo Byington and members Larry Tate, Martha Bird and Russ Williams were honored with Circle of Service awards presented to them by Clayton and Kathy Allen.

Bad weather canceled one dance in June but we're looking forward to summertime dancing with casual wear, our Red Hat dance with finger food July 3rd and July 4th demos. Van Coble will call our dances in July and August with Susan Packer as our guest caller on Aug 28th. Charlie Lovelace cues the rounds.

Our School Days dance on Aug 14th will be a reminder of autumn leaves, school days and season changes. George Varney will be our guest caller on Sep 11th for the Remembrance dance. We will enjoy finger food at both special dances. We'll welcome Gary Murphy as our guest caller on Sep 25th.

Summertime is a slow time for most clubs – we need to get out to dance everywhere we can, support each other as much as possible. Come dance with us, we'll come dance with you. Happy dancing! The Twirler

What a great time we all had at the 52nd Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention. IN MEMORY — ERNIE JOHNSON

Our sincere sympathy to Rachel Johnson and her family on the loss of Ernie on Friday, June 23. Ernie was a caller from Ohio who wintered in Bradenton. He had been battling cancer for two and a half months.

Following is the email Rachel sent regarding her loss.

Dear Friends and Family,

This is the hardest mail I've had to write yet. I lost my best friend last evening. However, I know the pain and suffering is over and he is in a beautiful paradise with our Father in heaven.

Calling hours will be Sunday from 3:00 to 8:00 at the Hopkins Lawler Funeral Home, 547 Canton Road, Akron, Ohio 44312. Funeral services will be at The Chapel, 135 Fir Hill, Akron, Ohio 44304 at 11:00 AM.

Thank you all for your prayers and support during the last 2-1/2 months. Just know how much we both love you all. He loved life, his family and his numerous friends from all over the map. He loved his passion of calling a square dance and really hated not to be able to fulfill his obligations. I'm so sorry he had to leave us.

Please continue to keep me and his family in your prayers. I love you all, Rachel

ARTS TRAVEL WEB SITE

ARTS has partnered with YTB International, Inc, a publicly traded travel management company. ARTS has a personalized travel web site with the same features and prices as other online booking agents such as Priceline, Expedia, and Travelocity.

YTB created, secured and maintains the web site at no cost to ARTS. ARTS role is to publicize the site to members and supporters. You do not have to be an ARTS member to participate. The more people who know about the web site, the more traffic it will get, eventually generating funds 24/7.

Here's how it works; supporters of ARTS go online @ www.arts-dancetravel.com to book their personal, dance, and business travel at competitive online rates. ARTS receives 40% of the generated commission in return. This means you support ARTS in a very meaningful way each time you book airfare, cruises, auto rental, and hotel stays.

Travel is the largest industry in the world. Our dancer surveys have shown that dancers are great travelers. Give it a try! It costs nothing to check it out and see the same low rates as other providers offer. This plan can help ARTS accumulate the money required for the nationwide promotion of our wonderful activity. Links to the travel web site are also at www.arts-dance.com.

IN MEMORY — GEORGE BURCHAM

George Burcham, Past President of the West Coast Association
George was 93 years old and was born in New Mexico. George & Dena came to St. Petersburg in 1966. He was the first president of the Shooting Stars of which he helped form. He was also a member of Rainbow Squares & Sunshine State Pioneers 018 camping group.

George was known for his wood crafting. The association plaques in Strawberry Square were made by him. George also used the scraps from the plaques to make the picture of square dancers also in Strawberry Square. He was a pipe fitter for 20 years and a commercial fisherman.

He is survived by his wife Dena and son Mac. The West Coast Square and Round Dancers have lost a great supporter. Much love goes out from the square dancers to Dena and family.
