

WE WILL BE LOOKING
FOR YOU IN '82

THROUGH THE HOLIDAY SEASON WE GO,
DANCING UNDER THE MISTLETOE.
HAPPY MOMENTS TO BE HAD,
BY EVERY LASSIE AND LAD,
regardless of age
or marital status--
NO MATTER WHERE OR IN WHAT CLIME,
EVERY ONE WILL HAVE A GREAT TIME!

PREZ SAYS — —

Not that we are bragging but Trudie and I were "Angels" for a class last year and we have noticed that the "Graduates" are dancing, travelling around, joining clubs and getting involved. I know that the 81 Fall Fun Fest is ancient news, now working on F.F.F. 82, but after the dance Trudie wrote Thank You notes and we were amazed just how many people were involved in the F.F.F. That is why we were so pleased that they were getting involved.

So join clubs, support the clubs, the West Coast Association and your Callers for without them we would not have a place to dance. It is quite an education getting involved, pleasant I admit, will open up a whole new world. So see you around and ask us to square up with you, in the meantime, have a Happy, Safe and a Merry Christmas.

Cris & Trudie Nissen, President.

INTRODUCING YOUR OFFICERS

On Sunday Sept. 27 new officers were elected to serve the West Coast Association for the ensuing year. This may help you to know them better.

PRESIDENTS CRIS & TRUDI NISSEN come from Cleveland, Ohio where they were active in the Cleveland Federation of Square and Round Dance Clubs, as well as officers of several clubs. They have danced in Hawaii, England and Canada as well as attending several national conventions. Cris retired from the Ohio Bell Tel. Co. and Trudi retired from S.C.M. (Glidden Paint). Their hobbies are golf and camping when they can find time. Although they have served in other capacities, this is their first experience as president of the Association, so they ask "Please be kind, this is our first affair".

VICE PRESIDENTS MURL & SALLY HERBERT have been dancing for seven years and before becoming active in the West Coast Association served as president of the Flamingos Club of Pinellas County. They were Vice Presidents for Pinellas County for two years before entering the officer's line of the association. Murl and Sally have 5 children and two grandchildren and have had a wedding a year for the past several years. Murl is employed as regional underwriting manager for the Michigan Mutual Liability Co. He and Sally are from the Kalamazoo Michigan area and now reside in Seminole.

SECRETARY CARL & HAZEL SMITH entered the wonderful world of square dancing in 1975 and have been members of Brandon Squares since that time. They have served as both sec.-tres. and president of their club. They also belong to Strawberry Square. Carl and Hazel became members of the West Coast Association in 1976 and have served as V.P. for Hillsborough County before joining the officer's line. Carl is employed by Reynolds, Smith & Hills Arch. & Eng. firm and Hazel works for Ciba-Geigy Corp. They have been married long enough to be the dancing grandparents of eight grandchildren.

TREASURER STEVE & EVON DODD are comparative newcomers to their favorite hobby. Steve started square dancing three years ago, three months after he met Evon. She had graduated from basic class the previous spring and went back thru basics with him as his personal angel. They were married in the spring of 1979 to coincide with his graduation. (Evon: "No square dance diploma, no marriage!"). They now dance at the advanced level and began basic rounds this past October. Steve originally is from Virginia and is retired from military service. Evon is from Michigan. They are members of the Left Allamanders where they are serving a second term as treasurer.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

SEASONS GREETINGS

The staff of the West Coast Dancer and the officers of the West Coast Association take this opportunity to wish everyone a merry holiday season and happy dancing throughout 1982.

MENDING

We are happy to report that Jan Newton (Jan's Square Dance Shop) is recuperating satisfactorily from heart surgery-involving 5 by-passes.

MITCHELLS HONORED

Singin' Sam and Betty Mitchell have been honored by being included in the first issue of Who's Who in Square Dancing, published in Topeka, Kansas. They have received a certificate and a copy of the first edition. Congratulations, Betty and Sam, from all of us!

Blood Bank

Unlike Dallas' J. R., our J. R. is a good guy. JOE R. KEENAN, a member of "Galaxies" has donated TWO GALLONS of blood to The Bank. Joe moved here from Flint, Michigan where he donated many gallons of blood to help others. He has been a donor for a long time. Is this why he is always smiling? Thanks, Joe!

One of WCA's members sustained serious injuries in an automobile accident in September. He has received forty units of blood from The Bank and is recovering slowly. Donors can be gratified that they helped save a life.

...SHARE LIFE - GIVE BLOOD...

Recent Donees: Patricia Cameron, Clarence Cripps, Edward Crompton, Jack Dobracki, Fred Eisele, Marguerite Fuller, Edward Gearhart, Helen Gordon, Janice Newton, Margaret Olree, Jean Starner and Ernest Weitzel.

Dancers may join WCA or renew membership for 1982 now. You must be a member to be eligible for The Bank benefits.

Calling all callers and club reporters!! Please don't blame us for Sundays, holidays and slow mail service. We must have your schedules and news no later than the 10th of each month. There is no way we can handle all the detail involved in printing your information if it arrives later than the 10th. Thank you for your co-operation and understanding.

IN MEMORIAM

Condolences are offered to Oral & Freda Highfield upon the demise of Oral's sister.

We extend sincere sympathy to Howard Barrett whose wife Pauling passed away in September.

Ken Ford was elected president of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers at their meeting Nov. 22 at Orlando. Ken represents the West Coast Association on the executive board of the federation. He and Mae have been active in the square dance movement since graduating from basic class some 10 years ago. They are presently Vice President of the Left Allamanders club of Pinellas County and dance four or five times a week. They are also general vice chairman of the 1982 Florida State Square and Round Dance Convention, and are traveling throughout the state promoting that event.

Ken & Mae served as President of the West Coast Association in 1976 - 1977. They are also schedule editors for this magazine and it is to them that we owe the excellence and accuracy of our listings.

The West Coast Association and the Florida Federation are indeed fortunate to have two such dedicated people in their midst.
Hugh & Jean Fultz, Editors

ASSOCIATION DANCES

County V.P.s. Gayle Baldwin and Jack Pierson with the indispensable assistance of George and Marge Jabbusch arranged a stellar association dance on Sunday Nov. 8 at Tideview Estates. Over 30 squares enjoyed dancing to Jabbusch, Buell, Ford, Norton, Cucore, Pahl and Slipman each calling a square. Round leadership was provided by: Burkhart, Copeland, R. Cucore, Neitzel and Ratts. The Association is deeply grateful to these fine people for their efforts on our behalf. Such dedication is what makes square dancing so successful in our area.

The next Association dance will be at Strawberry Square on November 29 at 1:30 with Bob Barnes and Marty Martin.

SATURDAY

SATURDAY continued on inside of back cover

BAY AREA TWIRLERS.... 'Tis the season to be jolly! Come deck our halls with boughs of friendship and fun - catch the yuletide spirit dancing to favorite holiday tunes at our Christmas dance December 12. We'll enjoy our BAT annual Christmas dinner meeting (election of officers) at Holiday Inn Central. We're a club of many talents; let's all be thinking about our contribution to our club. Let's let our lights shine in 1982! Merry Christmas.

Lenora Perez

BONITA SPRINGS SQUARES on Friday night is a dance you really don't want to miss. It's a great dance, but Bill will catch you if you anticipate! Round dancing led by the Kastners is at its best. All the dancers have beautiful styling. It's a pleasure to watch, but more fun to do. You'll find the dances in our area friendly and the most fun. Good dancing and Merry Christmas to all.

Irene McKown

BRANDON SQUARES.... Our newly elected officers have taken over with lots of enthusiasm. They are Dot & Bob Farrell, Fran & Mac McLeod, Pat & Bradt Cameron. They are planning a great Christmas dance December 11. Doc Gray will call. That is our only December dance. We change to the 1st & 3rd Fridays beginning 1982 with our new full time caller, Doc Gray, and cuer, Karl Curewitz. No dance January 1.

Sally Miller

B SHARPES are looking forward to Johnny Walter's new winter schedule and the 4th annual Advance-O-Rama with Johnny and Art Springer. Our area is gaining more higher level dancers each year. Our A-2 dance at Tice keeps us on our toes and we are all assured of our fair share of dancing. November 12 was a red letter day for the B Sharpes at Tice. We celebrated our second birthday with cake and coffee. We were sorry to lose Vern Boger. Our hearts go out to his wife Nancy and their family.

Dottie Fry

BUTTONS AND BOWS of Englewood will dance at Lemon Bay High School December 19. Dances on Dec. 5 12 and 26 will be at Lemon Bay-Holiday Recreation Hall. Our president, Chester Swanson, has returned home following surgery for a brain tumor. He is presently receiving treatment daily in Venice. Vice president, Carl Hansen, is doing well at home following surgery. Best wishes to both.

C. Barbre

BUTTONS AND BOWS of Mulberry look toward another year with eagerness and anticipation under the leadership of new officers Jack & Liz Warren, Ed & Bev Germain, Pauline & Calvin Whittaker and Don & Lillian Albert. We're sure every dance and special event will be a treat. We were visited by the 1981 State Convention committee. They were a lovely sight to behold in their colorful outfits. Also, the Temple Twirlers were at our Hobo Dance. Keep smiling.

Carmel B. Ruckman

CHARLOTTE PROMENADERS wish each and every one of you a Merry Christmas and a wonderful New Year. Our Thanksgiving night dance was a huge success. If you haven't made your reservations for our New Years Eve dance you had better act fast. Those who went last year are still talking about the wonderful time they had. Lots of food and things that make a New Years Eve dance a success. Reservations must be made in advance due to the size of our hall.

Alberta & Morton Stow

CITRUS SPRINGS SQUARES had a very nice masquerade dance on the 29th. Most of the dancers were in costume. Vern & Ollie Parker won first prize as pirates and really looked the part. Paul Greer's calling was excellent and everybody enjoyed the cider and doughnuts.

Art & Helen Larimer

CITRUS WOODS had our 3rd anniversary dance with cake and all the trimmings. As per tradition, we gave citrus fruit. We must admit that it was not the most attractive citrus, but when one starts a tradition one has to go along with it. It was a happy dance and all had a good time. Come dance with us the 1st and 3rd Sundays. See you in a square.

Cris Nissen

COUNTRY CUZZINS of Clearwater had a really fun Halloween dance with the Steeple Stompers as guests and Don Furnish and Tom Dowell as callers. We're now planning our 4th anniversary dance for February 6, 1982 with Jack Lasry of Miami calling.

Don & Peg Wright

CRYSTAL TWIRLERS are glad to see the Snowbirds returning, and hope to see y'all at our dances for lots of fun and fine refreshments. Our annual Appreciation Day dance was November 22 with Jack Hatfield calling and Bob & Ginny Walther cueing the rounds. We're looking forward to the New Year's Eve dance too.

Oral & Freda Highfield

DIAMOND SQUARES are all delighted to welcome back our "snowbird" friends and all vacationers. Many are being initiated as Rovers. Our banner was retrieved November 4 at Beacon Squares. The club plans a finger food party to celebrate Christmas and the birthday of our "smooth as silk" caller, Chuck Kessler, on December 20. Come join us. A gala New Year's Eve party is also planned.

Bobbi & Ralph Eddy

DIXIE LOOPERS of New Port Richey continue to have the most happy dances in this area and, from the wonderful attendance, super dances. They also continue to collect aluminum for the Retarded Children's Program and make substantial donations to this worthy cause. We still alternate with our excellent callers and enjoyable rounds by our faithful callers. Have a Blessed Christmas and Happy New Year.

Maggie Jacoby

FEATHEROCKERS of Valrico are making plans for the holidays. December 10 is the night to bring a toy for a lonely child. December 17 is our Christmas dance and to start 1982 off right, a New Year's Eve party in the "Barn." Please make reservations thru the club for the New Year's dance. Happy holidays to all our dancing friends.

Lexie Anderson

FLAMINGO SQUARES worked hard preparing for a most successful anniversary dance November 8. This is a nice time of year because we begin to see so many familiar faces returning to dancing, with vacations coming to an end. Happy holidays to all.

Bob & Margaret Woods

FLUTTERWHEELS of Clearwater want to wish all our square and round dance friends a Happy and Blessed Holiday Season. We have a Christmas Cookie dance planned for December 12 and an after Christmas dance on December 26. Our New Year's Eve dance tickets are going fast, so get yours NOW. Our Crystal Ball will be held at the Kapok Tree Inn January 23. Tickets are available from Bob or members. See Bob for information on the Nassau cruise April 30.

Bob & Gail Trowell

FOREST HILLS SQUARES have welcomed back many members who went north for the summer. Also, we have had quite a few visitors. Under the leadership of caller Jack Evans and taw Helene, we have had some hilarious times. Thanksgiving fell on dance night, so instead of dancing every-body filled up on the usual goodies.

Marge Jancila

FRIENDSHIP SQUARES of Clearwater Beach had guests from England, Chicago and New York. More members are returning from the north every week. Will be starting a new class in January, followed by our regular dance. Happy Holidays.

Fran

FUN TYME SQUARES of Tampa...Our club name is new and so is our caller to this area. Our caller, Don Furnish, previously had several clubs in the Carolinas. He's young, enthusiastic, energetic and just enjoys calling a fun dance. Our beginner square dance which began Nov. 5 is going great. Join us December 17 for our Christmas dance.

Janet M. Roberts

GANDY DANCERS of Tampa have plans underway for our Christmas dance and party. We extend an invitation to you all and hope many of you will attend. Many thanks to so many of you for making our Thanksgiving dance a huge success. We will not have a potluck dinner in December, but will have finger food at our Christmas party. Merry Christmas to you all.

Paul & Fran Mobley

GRAND SQUARES had a real fun time at the Halloween party. Costumes kept us guessing and laughing all evening. The Thanksgiving turkey dinner with all the trimmings was an occasion to remember. Thank you Carol, and all those who helped. In December we are moving our monthly potluck meal to December 16 and it will be the Christmas celebration also. Come and enjoy the fun!

Ruth Bregenzer

HOLIDAY SQUARES of Englewood are prancing and dancing every Sunday in the Lemon Bay Isles Rec Hall starting at 7:30 P.M. Workshops in Holiday Estates Rec Hall on Wednesdays at 8 P.M. Beginners at Holiday Estates on Wednesdays at 6 P.M. and at Lemon Bay Isles on Fridays at 10:30 A.M. Come on out and see old friends and make new ones. Y'all come.

Gene Campbell

KRISS KROSS SQUARES are looking forward to a wonderful holiday of dancing with Christmas parties and wonderful friendship and a time to stop and count our many blessings. When we have health we have wealth. Want to thank our President Mike Lorie and his lovely wife Lois and their loyal staff for a great year - one of the best. Thanks to all of you! We'll be looking for you.

Irene McKown

LEFT ALLAMANDERS are proud of our own Leo Fiyalko who so willingly calls for our appearances at charitable functions, and of Pat Fiyalko who fills whatever gap as required, cueing or dancing. Big plans are unfolding for the Snowbird Dance with Tony Oxendine on January 22. In the meantime, we welcome all who enjoy a fun-filled evening to join us at the Ox-Bow the first three Fridays.

Jean Fultz

LEHIGH SWINGERS on Wednesday nights at the Community Building have a good evening of dancing with workshop at 6:30 giving you a chance to review, and a half hour of rounds preceding the dance, cued by Alene Foreman. Our square dance at 8 is one of the best, called by Harold Sauls. Every week new experimentals are added. If you want to be a good dancer and have fun, come join us.

Irene McKown

MAINLANDS PROMENADERS will have only three dances on Thursday evenings this month, with Christmas and New Years taking the 24th and 31st. We take this opportunity to wish everyone a very happy Holiday Season.

Millie & Forrie Freeman

MERRY-MIXERS of Lake Wales are off and dancing again, a full house on our first Saturday, and we'll dance every Saturday night at 7 with PDR, A-1 workshop, plus 2 dance with rounds. Bob & Dee Barnes present an excellent program. We really appreciate our visiting dancers and hope they continue coming. We need to keep the square dance movement alive in Lake Wales. We are dancing at the Women's Club on E. Park Avenue.

Red & Rita Wilsbach

MERRYMAKERS of Clearwater.... 'Tis the season to be a Merry-maker! Jolly old John Hart, our caller, will be doing his bit every Wednesday during December. A potluck on the first Wed., our Christmas party on Dec. 16 and a big "Farewell to '81" on the 30th. Spread a little cheer this jolly season and join us as we round and square out the good old year. Also, a big thank you to all our faithful helpers for another Merry 1981. Happy Holidays!

Don & Dot Criss

PALM CITY SQUARES of Ft. Myers regret to announce that our happy caller, Maurice Williams, has had to take a little more time out from his calling to recover from his throat operation. He is getting better, but needs more therapy. Fortunately, Harold Sauls has been keeping up our workshop dance, and Bob Walker our rounds. Keep coming - we need you. Say a little prayer for Nancy, Maurice's taw, who fell Halloween night and landed on crutches.

Irene McKown

RIDGE SQUARES wish to welcome all our new class members to the club. We know you will all enjoy learning with us. Our Halloween dance was held at the roller rink and prizes were given for the funniest and most original costumes. The fish fry in October was enjoyed by all.

Ginny Knitter

SHOOTIN' STARS....If you missed our Halloween party you missed a lot of good dancing, cakes, punch, costumes and prizes. Jim Ford calls such a good fun dance and Ruth Marsh does a fine job with the rounds. Our vacationing friends and members are returning and with the holidays coming up, we have a lot to look forward to. So come to the Shootin' Stars on Monday night. We would love to have you.

Nina Murillo

SPARES 'N' PAIRS....Our Christmas party will be December 18 with exchange gifts, man for man, lady for lady. There will be no dance the 25th. Watch for our very special dance in January. Our Pumpkin Pie Evening was very successful. Thanks to all! Oh, how everyone is joining in our fun. It's great to see so many new and old faces. We wish all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Esther Mumma

SWINGERS of Ft. Myers pack the house for advanced class at 6 and our club dance at 8. Drop by - it's right on your way on 41 - by the hospital. For years we have been swinging there to Harold Sauls and have many fond memories. It's holiday time that brings back those memories you never forget. Remember the good old black eyed peas for luck. Thanks to all of you who have helped us have good years of dancing. Joy to the world!

Irene McKown

TEMPLE TWIRLERS of Tampa surprised our caller Sharon Short with a large cake and gift on her birthday. The November 22 Turkey Trot will be remembered by all for a long time. I'm sure everyone enjoyed the dance and dinner that followed. We thank all of you who attended and helped make it a fun day. We are starting early to plan the program for our annual benefit dance Feb. 7. Mark your calendars and party with us.

Don & Bonnie Witt

TRI-COUNTY SQUARES of Inglis-Yankeetown offer a shimmering holiday special for December! Get out your gold and silver trimmings and plan to celebrate with us on the first and third Saturdays. Santa Joe Prystupa will be there with dolls and toys for good little girls and boys, so don't miss the fun! See you across the square.

Tom & Charlotte Rice

VALLEY SWINGERS of Wauchula were entertained by Haneys at their hayloft with a Halloween costume party. Little Bo Peep (Evelyn Gray) and a washing machine (Jim Farmer, Jr.) won judges' acclaim, while Al won another kind of acclaim with a wig and balloons. Janey presided over the soup pot - delicious. The moon and stars and black velvet night are the real magic of Halloween.

Virginia Metheny

VILLA CURLI Q'S of Tampa....With Thanksgiving behind us we now concentrate on Christmas. Our Christmas dance is December 19 - fellowship, delicious food, fun dancing and prizes! Don't forget to join us. We welcome back all our northern friends and look forward to dancing with you again.
