2006 – 2007 WEST COAST SQUARE
& ROUND DANCER ASSOCIATION
PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Well, I am just starting out as President of West Coast and I am really enjoying it. Our Holiday Ball in Bonita Springs was a real success. Howard Cole did a great job as MC as did all the callers & cuers. Of course the food was excellent as well.

It is great to see so many square dancers gathered together doing what we really enjoy. We have to say a great big thank you to the callers & cuers who give of their time to make our dances a success also.

Nothing is achieved by just a few people. It takes many people working together to make square dancing a success. Take a few minutes at each dance to meet someone new and to renew old acquaintances that you haven't see for a while.

I truly believe if we all work together, square dancing will grow again in numbers. It just takes a little work and effort to get the ball rolling. Grab some of the square dance cards on the table at each dance, and just leave one where ever you go. You never know who you might encourage to come out and take lessons. God bless each and every one of you.

Respectfully Submitted,
Shirley Pfeffer, President

BUTTONS & BOWS – LAKELAND

Our Hobo Dance for Halloween was fantastic, about five squares mostly in costume, and the creativity gets better every year! Among those specially recognized with prizes were Bev Germain as a Black Eyed Pea (what?), Pauline Whitaker's escort (Jake) as a Bleeding Black Ghoul, and regular visitor John Scott as the grungiest Bum we've ever welcomed in all these years.

We have new Officers to announce for the coming year: Zurn and Shirley Walker will be our President; Bev Germain, with lots of help from Ed, Vice President; Garth and June Bell will be Treasurer; and Dagmar Newman our Secretary. Dagmar's husband Roy can really lay it on the line as spokesman for the Banner Raiders. The battle for the other Committee chairmanships should be over in time for the next issue.

Can't believe it is time, but Happy Holidays to you all from all of us at Buttons & Bows. See you soon! L&D for B&B

HAMPTON PROMENADERS – AUBURNDALE

Hello everybody. We are glad to be back dancing after a long and uneventful summer, weather wise. Our first dance started with a banner raid from Whirl and Twirl so we are up and running.

The Fall Fun Fest was an enjoyable event with plenty of people attending and the Bartow Civic center is a great place for dancing.

We look forward to seeing you all at our dances. Carol and

Mike Adkins

On Dec 28th we will have our New Years Eve dance. We will be "Dancing With the Stars" that evening. We will even have our own star dancers--Jimmy & Carol Griffin. If you've never seen them dance--join us. You will be in for a real treat !!

Looking forward to 2007--we welcome the new year with a "Biker's Bash" dance on Jan. 11th. So dig out those old leathers and join us for a great evening of square dancing and fellowship.

SPARES "N" PAIRS - PINELLAS PARK

Hi everybody. The Spares and Pairs started dancing again in Oct. We are trying to keep our club going and we do need all the help we can get from the square dance clubs. It is good to see that some of our snowbird friends are coming back from the cold north. They are really missed in the summer.

Hope all had a happy and safe Halloween. We dance at the senior center in Pinellas Park on Tuesday night. So please come and have some fun with us. Square Dance Granny

SUN-N-FUN - SARASOTA

The winter season began November 13th with Burl Lally calling and Pat Hagan cueing with great anticipation of a great year. Sun-N-Fun Park Management has refinished the floor and it looks great but much more importantly, the Park has agreed to double the floor size in early January so we no longer will have to dance on the trim edge. We hope if this is the reason we haven't seen you lately, you will come back and join us. There will now be ample room for 10 squares.

Sun-N-Fun is a mainstream/plus club with pre-rounds starting at 7:00 and plus dancing with rounds from 7:30 to 9:30 every Monday except December 18 and 25 and January 1. Light refreshments are available all evening. We dance at Woodland Hall in Sun-N-Fun RV Park, 7125 Fruitville Road, Sarasota, about 1 mile east of I-75 (exit 210).

We are sad to report that Ernie Johnson passed on this summer and will only be with us in spirit but Burl will fill his dates and Dick Duckham will be visiting on three occasions, the first being January 8th. I will be cueing that night and every other Monday alternating with Pat.

For more information please call me at 440-526-7258 until the end of the year or 941-343-9720 after the 1st or E-Mail me at MidgeWebb@cs.com.

Suncoast Squares is a Square Dance group that caters to the GLBT community. However, all are welcome. We continue with a strong new student class and average 3-4 squares each week for mainstream lessons and plus workshop on Tuesdays in St. Petersburg. Our pot luck dinners are also a big hit on the last Tuesday of the month. We are eager for the fall schedules so we can attempt to raid on a regular basis.

Remember Suncoast Squares has moved to the Metro Center at 3170 3rd Ave North St. Petersburg. Classes are on Tuesday at 7:30 to 9 pm for students or brushing up your mainstream skills and a plus workshop from 9-10 pm.

FLORIDA STATE SQUARE &
ROUND DANCE CONVENTION
LAKELAND, FLORIDA

The committee for the 53rd Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention has been working hard on Ways & Means. We've had a Caller walk the plank at the Bowlegs dance; and we sponsored a recycling sale that was great – the money for the clothes went into the Convention treasury as many dancers were glad to clean out their closets and add some new things to their wardrobe. We've also made a trip to the Alabama State Convention and spread the news about our Great Convention coming up. Our next big push will be to visit all the Association Dances so please have a table set up for us. If ribbons are purchased at any dance having a 2007 FSSRDC table set up, we will offer a $2.00 discount off the price of the ribbon. Associations, please send us information on your special dances – email Paul Miller at pe\_miller@bellsouth.net or Tim Wilaby at timwilaby@cox.net. ## HENRY FORD AND SQUARE DANCING

At the September 2006 WCA meeting, caller/cuer Bob Barnes recalled how Henry Ford encouraged all his employees and their families to learn Square Dancing. Mr. Ford felt it was a great way to establish a fellowship among all levels of employees. Following is one of several articles describing his endeavor to promote dancing.

Henry Ford (1863-1947), who once worked for the Edison Illuminating Company (1891), in 1903 started the Ford Motor Company. Henry Ford and his wife Clara Bryant loved to dance. Henry Ford began his search for someone to teach square dancing. In 1923, Mr. Ford purchased the Wayside Inn because of its beautiful ballroom. Shortly after purchasing the Wayside Inn, Mr. Ford found Benjamin Lovett (1876-1952) and his wife Charlotte L. Cooke. Henry Ford felt Benjamin Lovett to be the perfect teacher of "old fashion" dances, and in 1924 Benjamin Lovett began teaching classes for Mr. Ford, something that lasted over 20 years.

Mr. Ford decided he wanted a place to dance near his home, so in 1937 Lovett Hall was built as part of a building at the Edison Institute. The floor was made of Burmese teakwood with a spring board floor designed specifically for dancing, along with English Colonial furnishings and chandeliers. Square dancing, along with quadrilles, two-steps, waltzes, and other old fashion dances, became a part of life for Ford employees and school children across the United States. Ford and Lovett believed square dancing taught social training, courtesy, good citizenship, along with rhythm. They felt it should be a part of every school's teaching of physical education.

Around 1928, Boards of Education all over the United States endorsed their square dancing program. Almost half the public schools in America began teaching square dancing and other old fashion dancing. Not only was this great exercise, but Ford and Lovett felt square dancing corrected the missing fun and teamwork that one-on-one dance lacked. Ford and Lovett felt that having square dancing in schools would help train children in manners, courtesy, and social training, a quality Henry Ford wanted to see excel in people. Ford and Lovett also brought square dancing to the handicapped (blind, deaf, those with artificial legs, etc). They felt the dancing had great balancing exercises, and taught rhythm, manners, poise, and grace, along with giving self-confidence, over coming timidity, and appreciation of good music.

On January 25, 1982 the 97th Congress unanimously passed a Joint Resolution designating square dancing as the national folk dance of the United States and on June 1, 1982 President Reagan signed it. This Resolution was a temporary action which would expire in two years. To make the national recognition permanent the Congress requested that the proponents return to the States for individual state endorsement and when two-thirds of the states complied, reconsideration by Congress would be automatic.

56th National Square Dance Convention
 Charlotte, North Carolina
 June 27 – 30, 2007

“LET’S EAT”

There are twelve (12) restaurants within one-half block of the Charlotte Convention Center and this does not include the Convention Center’s food courts, stands, Starbuck’s, Ice Cream stands and the Food Heaven which will be placed under an air conditioned tent for your eating pleasure. We have it all, there will be restaurants serving full course meals, pizza, sandwiches, Tex Mex BBQ, grilled food, buffet style and let’s not forget Matt’s Chicago Dog’s place. Oh, you must stop by “LOLA’S” as well.

DANCE HALLS

There will be 7 square dance halls and 3 round dance halls. In addition there will be halls for Contra, Clogging, Country & Western, Lines and a great Youth Program.

THE YOUTH HALL

The Youth Committee for the 56th NSDC has been hard at work to provide a fun filled exciting convention for youth dancers. The main objective for the Youth Hall is to keep the young dancers happy and keep something going on all the time to keep their interest. There are a lot of activities planned: day time dancing promises to bring loads of fun as well as special “siren” tips, dangles to earn and door prizes. The Youth Hall is for kids 18 and under. The daily schedule is from 10-12 am for workshops, lunch break from 12-1, afternoon dancing from 1-5, dinner break 5-7, then dancing 7-10. Each of the youth after parties will have a theme from 10-12 midnight.

On Wednesday night (Trail End Dance) the families of youth will be able to join them in dancing.
