The membership dance at Ft. Myers was a huge success and Sally and I wish to express our thanks to all the hard working people responsible for it's success. A special thanks to Irene McGown, Jack & Alice Newsom, Bill & Joyce Shell, Bill & Jean Filbert and Earle & Lee Kastner. we appreciate their continuing support.

May is the month of the "New Dancer". Fresh out of class they are looking for the promised fun and enjoyment of Square Dancing with your club. This is your opportunity to help and assist the new dancer to become a part of your club and take his place in the activities of your club and be a meaningful part of this enjoyable activity of Square Dancing. Smile, be friendly, guide them, laugh with them, encourage them and make their first venture into club dancing an enjoyable one. Because this is the time of year the new dancer is first picking up this magazine, it is appropriate to take a few lines and review the importance of the West Coast Square and Round Dance Association.

Simply stated the West Coast Square and Round Dance Assn. is for the benefit and enjoyment of the Square Dancer, The Caller and The Round Dance Leader in the West Coast area of Florida. This magazine is free to anyone, the Blood Bank is free to members, the membership dances are free to members and all members receive a discount at the Fall Fun Fest. The initial cost is $3.50 per person which includes a West Coast Assn. badge and year bar as well as the above benefits. Renewals are $2.00 per person. Only through membership renewals can this association fund this magazine and the other benefits. As a new dancer won't you join your fellow dancer as a member of the West Coast Square and Round Dance Assn. An application is on the front cover of this magazine. Thank You

Sincerely

Mari & Sally Herbert

NATIONAL CONVENTION UPDATE

As of February 28th there were 19,058 registrations from all 50 states, the District of Columbia and eight foreign countries for the 32nd National Square Dance Convention to be held in Louisville, Kentucky, June 23, 24, 25, 1983. Some 40,000 dancers are expected. If you have never attended a National Convention, give it some thought this year. Plans sound fantastic - it's going to be something very special. The Parade of States on Saturday evening should be spectacular.

Spinning Wheels We are looking forward to seeing you at our Anniversary Dance on May 6th. This month we would like to recognize all of our decorations at special dances, all of the couples that make coffee and punch to help our thirsty throats, and our greeters at the door. Thanks to all of you!!

Betty Haigler

The Diamond Squares; Celebrated their Fifth Anniversary on April 17th. with a gala reunion of many charter members. It was wonderful to see so many beautifully dressed dancers "Squaring Up" to the "Smooth as Silk" calls of Chuck Kessler at Stirling Hall, Ice Cream, Cake & Punch were served by a competent committee headed by Doris La Pierre. Come join us for Fun Nite! Grace & Bill Ford

Well here we are again, The May issue which is CONVENTION TIME, be sure to attend. THE NEXT ISSUE WILL BE OUR JUNE JULY & AUGUST ISSUE. Don't forget, after our next issue we will not have a magazine till Sept. and the deadline for the Sept Issue is August 1st. Again let me thank all my staff for a great job. without you Newsfeature Editors this job would be a chore. The people who come to North Blvd are very important to the operation of this magazine. Gadabouts, Fort Myers. We have just graduated 16 squares at the Advance level. Congratulations to all those dancers. The Advance level will be dancing all summer at the Lions Park Rec. Ctr on Cleveland Ave. There will also be a Plus Dance with rounds, before the Advance level, starting at 6:30. Join us on Friday nights and dance to Don Hanhurst.

Gadabouts, Venice. This new group formed last fall to learn the Advance level. They have now graduated and will be dancing all summer from 8:30 to 10:30. There will be a Plus level dance from 6:30 to 8:30 at the Venice Community Center so please join us this summer and dance to Don Hanhurst.

Sir-Q-Lators, Punta Gorda. We thank all the guests and members for supporting us this season. Sir-Q-Lators dance through the summer on every Tuesday, except the 2nd Tuesday of each month. Please join us for a fun time at the Plus level. Don Hanhurst starts at 7:30 with a half hour work shop and then the regular dance starts at 8:00, with rounds by Loretta.

Star Promenaders, Lehigh Acres. This club is one of the few Mainstream clubs on the west coast. We welcome dancers who have just graduated and know they will enjoy dancing to Don Hanhurst from 3:00 to 5:00 every Saturday afternoon. For dancers who have gone through the 48 basics, there is a dance for you from 1:00 to 3:00. All visitors are welcome.

On Sunday afternoon, April 10th, Fort Myers had their first annual Kidney Foundation Benefit Dance. We felt the dance was a success and we want to thank everyone who supported the dance. We had 4 area callers and 3 round dance leaders who donated their time, namely: Don Hanhurst, Ray Quade, Harold Sauls, Bill Shell, on the squares; and Bill Filbert, Loretta Hanhurst, and Earle Kastner on the rounds. Thanks to each and everyone for their great efforts in raising money for this very worthy cause.

EIGHT(8)WHEELERS: Our Graduates are now dancing with us. George Jowdy is very proud of them and all of us are having the PLUS workshop with them. Visit us and help our new dancers, we do always need them. Remember when you were one. We dance every Sunday at the Spring Hill Comm.Center. Looking for you
Elvira Smith

Grand Squares News: Come swing into Spring with us. We APPRECIATE meeting New Friends. Don't overlook our covered dish supper! See Ya'

BLOOD BANK

Here's a tip of the hat to...

...EARLE WILLIAMS, a member of "Left Allamanders." Earle has donated TEN GALLONS of blood to The Bank. When he gives by the Pheresis process, he spends almost two hours on the cell separator. His frequent donations have taken a lot of time and demonstrate his sincere interest in community welfare. Betty, his wife, has donated more than one gallon to The Bank. They have served dancers in this area as WCA presidents, WCA county vice-presidents and club presidents.

We extend a big THANK YOU to..."The Williams."

MERIT AWARD—An engraved bar for WCA's permanent plaque and representing 184 pints of blood donated by dancers in 1982, was presented to the West Coast Association at the Community Blood Bank's Annual Organizational Luncheon, March 17. Seventy units of this blood were used by WCA members in 1982.

The reward for a thing well done is to have done it.—Ralph Waldo Emerson

GANDY DANCERS' out-going officers want to thank all for their support and trust. With the installation of new officers this month we ask that you continue your support and appreciation. Our very special dance this month is the 9th Anniversary Dance. You are invited to attend and help us celebrate this event on May 9th. We are not dancing May 30.

SPARES 'N' PAIRS of St. Petersburg...Did you hear about our St. Patty's Dance surprise...an exotic belly dancer...Hope our bkfst/lunch picnic Apr 17th was not rained out...rememoer the old-fashioned ice cream socials?...we're having one may 20th-come join us...NO DANCE May 27th-see you in Lakeland...Lucy Brewer still on sick list...Doris Fallon

FOXWOOD SQS: Anyone who might have stopped by one certain evening may have wondered what was the reason the dancers were dressed in their very elegant finery. The reason: they were on Television. Two hours, no hysteria, no flubbed lines, of course no rehearsal. All were full of confidence. Squelching a rumor, the Great Flag at the entrance was not blown out to sea during the Big Wind, just damaged, is now back. Come and look but drive slowly, please. Cris Nissen.

MY PET PEEVE DEPARTMENT--Cris Nissen

Not all these Pet Peeves are personal Pet Peeves but I do agree with most of them, this is to protect myself from attack. Now that call "Head Ladies to the Right" which some of the Callers seem to take a fiendish delight in calling, causes more anguish than any other call. Of course does keep all alert. Now, to some of these Hi-Level dancers, do not look so "Dad-Bobbit-Bored" if the level should get a little Mainstreamish. Smile, affects the whole Square

Rosemary says: "I wondered why somebody didn't do something ---Then I realized that I am that somebody." Rosemary concludes with: "Do what you can--where you are -- with what you have -- BUT DO SOMETHING!"

One of the Trail-In dances to be held just before the National Convention in Louisville, Kentucky on Wednesday, June 22, will be sponsored by American Squareance magazine and feature magazine staff callers/cuers, including John Swindle, Ed Fraidenburg, Gene Trimmer, Howie Shirley, Bob Howell, Orphie Easson, Stan Burdick, Dave Fleck, and Frank and Phyl Lehnert. The dance is free, and will be held at the ballroom of the Holiday Inn Southwest.

Rainbow Ramblers: We hope you saw our float in the parade in your town! Look for it in the future parades. Our dancers also danced at Florida State Fair. We're alternating tips, now. We have 12 new members since Feb. 11th!

DOUBLE "L" SQUARES: If you have not attended one of our dinner dances this should be it. May 17th International Dinner Dance, eating promptly at 7:00p.m. We will all bring our favorite foreign dish and a prize will be awarded for the most exotic dish. Plan on tickling your pallet and tapping your toes.

Happy Dancing.
Mary and Harold Lindsley

Villa Curli Q's: Thanks to all of our friends for making the Spring Dance a big success. The food was great! Here is some good news. Mark your calendars May 7th - 6:45 p.m. - N. Blvd. Rec. Center - a Pot Luck Supper. Everyone is welcome. Come and bring a pot of your special food. Then square dance with our wonderful caller, David Wilson, and Wayne Lundberg on rounds. Emma Ketchum

Punta Gerda, March was an exciting month for us. We had a busload of dancers from Naples join us on March 17, and on March 24 we were invaded by a group of hillbillies who may have set square dancing back ten years. The dance was in honor of our Snowbirds who flapped their wings preparing to take off for the north as the hillbillies sang, "Farewell Snowbirds". Besides finger feeds, the dance was FREE!
Howard & Margaret Wesenberg

GULFSIDE SQUARES-Venice: Since our beloved Joe Prystupa and Singing Sam will be away in May we will enjoy Singing Sam's protege from Michigan as Guest Caller part of the month. Happy Hal Neitzel is looking forward to meeting him too, for he is ever faithful and will be us the entire month. Have you noticed the influx of round dancers this year? Sometimes we have had to have three circles on the floor.

Elsa & Connie Chedister

RIDGE SQUARES: Our 7th Anniversary was well attended with dancers. The tables were decorated with beautiful floral arrangements. The ladies have been busy sewing the new brown plus brown checked club dresses. Our large mainstream class will be graduating April 23rd with a potluck dinner dance. We will not be dancing June, July and August at Lake Wales. Dances will continue at Haines City and Lake Region.

Della Maier

BAY AREA TWIRLERS had a tough time picking the best at our MAY 83 costume dance. Karen and Tom Cave won best couple and Lenore Perez best individual costume. Had a good turnout at our club meeting and picnic. (Thanks, Nancy Sparrow!) TWIRLERS dance only once during May. See you all May 14th. Will not dance on 28th due to State Convention. We love visitors - you all come and have a good time with us!

E LUCK

MERRI-MIXERS- ATTENTION- Starting this month and until further notice we will be dancing twice a month, 1st & 3rd. Most of our Northern friends have flown the coop so now is the time to get re-acquainted with our year round dancing friends throughout the area. Come and enjoy with us.

Emma & Erich

FUNTYME SQUARES - TAMPA. We had a terrific turn out for our St. Patrick's Day Dance. Our thanks go to everyone who made this dance a big success. Our Banner Bandits are very active, so be on the look out for them. If you have not danced to our new caller, then make it a must to attend one of our dances. See you soon. Betty.

TEMPLE TWIRLERS-TAMPA: Our ST. Patrick's Day dance was a huge success and a good time was had by all who attended. May 16th is covered dish night. Bring your favorite food item in a covered dish and join us for an evening of good food and fun dancing!

Joe & Mary Ann Yusas

Forest Hills Squares are truly a Love Thy Neighbor group. Since most of us are golden agers, we have learned that a smile is always becoming but a frown is attractive to no one. Paddy's Day found the blarney flowing like wine and leprechauns popping up everywhere. Come join us soon. Pat Roder

Betty says: "Some folk think they hurt their organization, their church, or their activity when they get mad and quit, but they are wrong about that. It never hurts the tree when the dried-up apples fall off."

Betty concludes with: "LOVE THINE ENEMIES -- It drives them crazy!"

Dixie Looper Square Dance club is enjoying it's Tuesday dances at hallendale-Glengarry hall to the calls of Doc Gray and Joe Prystupa. The early rounds are called by Bob & Ginny Walther. Our Tenth anniversary dance was celebrated by honoring our Past Presidents, food and fun were enjoyed by all that attended. V. Burke

PAIR-A-DICE SQUARES of Dunedin enjoy having so many guests at the Saturday evening A1 & A2 fun dance in Stirling Hall and hope that they will visit us often. Recently, John DuBois, a reporter for the Sun Coast News interviewed our caller, Chuck Kessler, and photographed the dancers. The article he wrote was most interesting. Come join us. We cannot promise that your picture will be published, but can promise that you will have a good time.

CLOVERLEAF DANCERS of St. Petersburg...hope you were there to enjoy our "PIE NIGHT". NO DANCE may 29th...see you in Lakeland in our new green/white club outfits...Ray Bushey home after a long illness...Sympathy to Barb on the death of her mother...Several members ill-miss you...Thanks to our visitors for joining us on Sun. nights. Doris Tallon

Ridge Rollaways of Sebring - Seven couples of campers who went in a caravan to Mexico have returned and report a fantastic time.

The annual "winter picnic" was held, lots of good food and "no ants". Thirty-one visiting dancing couples came from as far as South Dakota, Canada and New Hampshire. The Club is sorry to lose by death, a charter member, Charles Vignere. Sympathy to his family. Fran Williams

NEW BADGE BOARD

Thanks to the expertise of George Burcham, the Florida Federation of Square Dancers has a new badge board to display at the Florida Showcase of Ideas. George has truly outdone himself and we hope all dancers in Florida will soon have an opportunity to see it at the State Convention and again at the National. Our appreciation is also extended to Bill and Alma Fairchild for their cooperation in furnishing the new Federation badge and three of the association badges. Hugh & Jean Fultz
Parliamentarian Fla. Fed.

Tampa--There is a new "A" Club in Tampa. The Orange Rockers meeting at Webb Jr. High School Weds. 7:30-10p.m. All you A dancers feel free to come and dance with us, we are a fun loving friendly group of dancers. Our caller is Don Furnish. Watch for announcement of new A 1 workshop.
The Original Orange Rockers

SUNCOAST STAR ROUNDERS - St. Petersburg--Winners of the Crazy Hat Party were Lucille Gurley, B. J. Ceman, and Felix Potapa. Our quarterly round dance was a fun Sunday at Sebring. Really great!! We are sorry to lose Karl and Barbaras' cueing on Wednesday nights. Hope Barbara is well soon. Chuck Orr and his wife are presently doing the honors. Betty and Carl Ceman

Brandon Sq. members enjoyed a covered dish supper before the dance on March 18. And what a wonderful turn-out of pies (and friends to help eat them) we saw on the 4th! It's great to have so many good cooks in one club! We will dance on May 6 and 20 at Riverview Civic Center and guests are -as always- most welcome!
Kate Graves

Buttons & Bows of Englewood- dancing at Lemon Bay high school are bursting their buttons with pride. We have reached 100 in our membership. Saturday Mar.19 th. was the happy occasion. We are looking foreward to many more happy dancers joining our delightful club. We also anticipate a goodly number to dance with us all through the summer months

Ethel Eshelman

Sheeting Stars:
St. Petersburg

We want to thank all those who helped make our anniversary dinner dance a success. A special thanks to our guest caller Chuck Kessler and our own Ruth Marsh cueing the rounds. Joe Kawalski out did himself with his delicious beef dinner. Thank you Joe. Happy to have Jim Ford and Nita back with us.

Virginia Thomas

VENICE STARS: Spence Yates, our beloved caller will graduate twelve squares. Let us all give them a warm welcome as they join our club. Many of our club will advance to the "Snapperoo's" our plus club, altho some prefer the comfortable level and do not care to climb the pyramid of square dancing. Whatever your choice - keep having fun. It is better to enjoy it than be frustrated. You will know it when your are ready to advance.

"Pard" & Tom McDonald

BUTTONS & BOWS, your friendly Mulberry club, extends Happy Easter wishes to you all, Don't-Forget-Us and Come-Again wishes to all those Northerners who leave us for other places around this time of year, and Happy Spring wishes to you regular dancers who grace our Civic Center continually all year. We members are lucky to enjoy a Main Event Mystery Trip this month (don't ask the bus driver where we are going!) COME DANCE WITH OUR "FUN BUNCH". Ed & Bev Germain

LEFT ALLAMANDERS of St. Petersburg - Now that Spring has really arrived maybe we'll have seen the last of those nasty flu bugs that have laid some of our club members low. Frank Whitcher and Jim Larkin have been hospitalized, too. Come on guys, we miss your smiling faces at our dances. Our callers for May are, 6th Don Furnish, 13th Doc Gray, 20th Dave Wilson. Come dance with us to these great callers. Then don't forget the State Convention in Lakeland--hope to see you there!

Betty Williams

"HA-LO" GONDOLIERS-Venice: Hal and Lou Neitzel promote new dance routines, the rounds of the month, old classics and old favorites by popular request. We have met many charming dancers from out-of-state this season and look forward to their return next Winter. Many have decided to make Venice their retirement home because of the availability of round and square dancing and good fellowship here. What a wonderful compliment!

Elsa & Connie Chadister

Dear West Coast Dancers:

I am deeply grateful for your prayers, your gift of blood and your "get well" cards. I will always remember and cherish your thoughtfulness.

Cy Reed

ATTENTION CLUB OFFICERS, CALLERS AND CUERS

Well this is my First Schedule, please be kind. It should be fairly accurate. It might not all be in pure alphabetical order but I do not think any dancer will be confused. Most of the dancing information I have received has been very easy to understand, I had to read in between the lines a couple of times but a phone call cleared up what little confusion I did have. Ken Ford had mentioned that I should not have any trouble as he had trained me. The only complaint was from the disstaff side was, that I talked to my self to much. Cris Nissen

CITRUS WOODS. We had to cancel our April 3rd (Easter Sunday) dance as Ken Anderson's Mother suddenly passed away. We tried to get the message to all the dancers who normally attend our dances. Our sympathy to Ken, he will be back, so come and dance with us, Ken on Squares and the Runnels on Rounds. Our Blossoms are gone but our Citrus is coming. 1st and 3rd Sundays. Cris Nissen

SNAPPEROO'S OF VENICE with Spence Yates and Ken Katts have had a wonderful time eating our Snowbird visitors this season and we hate to see them leave. However they will return. Those of us who traveled to Sun City in March had a wonderful time. We must do it again soon. So many of the Sun City dancers come down to Venice to dance with us. We look forward to each visit.

"Pard" & Tom McDonald

INVERNESS SQUARE DANCE CLUB. We all enjoyed our callers for the month of March, Johnny Walter and Marvin Boatwright. We are happy to see Bruce and Nancy Rumph back on the floor with their usual friendliness. Our new students will be graduating this month and we look forward to dancing with them. See you at the State Convention, I hope!

Jean B.

THE AZALEA SQUARES are going forward. So much fun and friendship and dancing. Some of our sick folks are back and glad to have them. For a night of fun, dancing and eating this is the place. The St. Patty dance was great.
