THE PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

This will be our final column as our year as your President ends. We wish to state that we have enjoyed the privilege of serving in this office. Some very difficult decisions had to be made. I hope the path we took will lead to a bigger and better West Coast Square & Round Dancers Association. There are so many to thank for all the help they gave us. Just too many to name, like the line officers, past presidents, county vice presidents, club representatives, dancer editors, callers, cuers, blood bank chairpersons, and our great blood donors, but most of all we wish to thank the great dancers who are members of the West Coast Assn.

You make it all possible.

We feel we should have done more, however I know the new slate of officers will do a great job. Give them your full support and the West Coast Association will continue to grow. Our membership stands at an all time high, which leads me to believe we had a good year. But we can not rest on our laurels. We have to forge ahead and make 1980 the greatest year yet.

Our Fall Fun Fest will be here soon. If you haven't registered, PLEASE do so. A big turn out at Lakeland on the 19th & 20th of October would make our year complete.

See you around the squares,
George & Dena Burcham.

THE BLOOD BANK

In recent weeks, more and more danglers with a drop of blood are showing up on badges. There are six first-time donors added to the HONOR ROLL this month plus a greater than average number of units given by previous donors.

Joe Keenan is our fifth member to join that very select group of donors who has donated one gallon or more to the "Bank".

The Association wishes to acknowledge the donors who take the time, make the effort and above all, have the compassion to help others. Thank you!

IN A NUTSHELL

- As of 8/29/79 the West Coast Association membership stands at 1246.
- On Nov. 8-9-10 your Association will participate in the Lakeland Stampede.
- On Nov. 25 Singing Sam Mitchell & Elmer Hicks will preside at a West Coast membership dance at Gulfport Auditorium.
- Ray and Ann Clay of Yankeetown were voted V.P. at large of the Association.

LEGACY REPORT

Walter and I set out for the 1979 meeting of Legacy Trustees with a feeling of excitement, pride, anticipation and apprehension. (Apprehension on my part that is.) I hate meetings! But I loved Legacy! Why? Well, as Stan Burdick said, "It was a corker of a conclave". It was attended by a group of people who were there at their own expense to exchange thoughts and ideas and to get new information, and the ideas really flew! Everyone had a chance to talk and ask questions,-----even me!

On Sunday morning all these ideas and thoughts jelled into resolutions. Legacy does not dictate policies. Legacy, through resolutions, suggests methods that may be used to benefit the areas and clubs and enable them to better meet the obligations of their organizations.

One of the resolutions states that Legacy trustees should become involved in conducting mini-Legacies in their own areas for those people who are -- or are interested in becoming -- leaders in the local area. Plans have been made to have such a mini-Legacy to be held in the West Coast area some time in the spring. The other Legacy members from the West Coast -- Chet and Julie Vetter, and Mori and Phyllis Sogolow -- will be panel members as well as other West Coast leaders. This meeting will be open to ALL interested persons and especially West Coast members. We hope this leadership training session will benefit directly or indirectly all who take part in the square dance activity. Watch for further announcements as to time and place.

Esther Stoltz

LAKELAND STAMPEDE

Again this year your Association has undertaken the task of providing dancing for the Lakeland Stampede which is to be held at the Lakeland Civic Center complex on November 8-9 & 10. Exhibition dancing will be scheduled from 6:00 to 7:30 each of the above dates. This effort will help get square dancing before the public and at the same time help your association financially. It is hoped that there will be at least six squares each evening. 40 rodeo tickets will be available each night for the dancers who take part in the exhibition.

Walter Stoltz is in charge of this event and will coordinate the dancing. Anyone interested in taking part in this endeavor will please contact Walter Stoltz, 2405 East Highway Sixty, Lot 52, Bartow Fl. 33830. Tel. 813-533-2721.

NECROLOGY

John 'Fitz' Fitzgerald of Clearwater died Sept 7th. We extend sincerest sympathy to his wife Jean.

We extend belated sympathy to Shirley Hulse whose husband Silas passed away in March.

Belated sympathy also goes to Peg Mulroy, Round dance leader in the Naples area, whose husband Frank died earlier this year.

THE BROWN AND ORANGE

The numerous dancers who wore the FALL FUN FEST brown and orange at the Knothead Konvention made a beautiful showing. Let's all wear the outfits Friday night at the Fun Fest.

For $1.50 per person you get:

1. At least 2 free dances per year. (1978-79 has provided 6 in various sections of our area.)
2. Free membership for you and your family in our very active and substantial blood bank..
3. Free copies of the WEST COAST DANCER available at dances. (We do not have personnel or money to mail them to individuals.)
4. One dollar reduction in Fall Fun Fest registration.

All the above "bargains" are provided for West Coast Association members by a group of dedicated dancers who work endless hours at their own expense. NOT ONE IS PAID A CENT.

The West Coast Dancer magazine is provided as a service to furnish dancing information. There are NO PAID ADS and therefore our sole revenue is from your memberships and the Fall Fun Fest.

We believe that anyone in the square and round dance movement in the West Coast area who does not belong to the Association is not only missing a bet in his own behalf, but by inference is demeaning or belittling the efforts of those volunteers who donate so much time and energy.

ARE YOU GUILTY?

KNOTHEAD KONVENTION

The Knothead Korporation is to be congratulated once again for their efforts in putting together a winning kombination for the benifit of dancers throughout Florida. The 23rd annual Knothead Konvention, over the Labor Day weekend, was an unquillified success. Over 2200 dancers shared in the festivi-ties at Curtis Hixon Hall in Tampa. Presently this is the largest gathering of dancers in Florida.

FESTIVAL CAMPERS

It has been mentioned to members of the FALL FUN FEST committee that some camper-dancer groups are planning to have their campouts at the FALL FUN FEST. Wouldn't that be a grand way to combine two fun-filled events into one?

COTTAGE CHEESE PANCAKES

From Fern Murphy

4 eggs
2 cup flour

1 cup cottage cheese
1/2 teas. salt

Beat eggs and cheese until smooth. Beat in flour and salt till smooth. Drop by tablespoons onto a hot griddle sprayed with non-stick coating. Bake until bottoms are golden brown. Serve hot with sliced orange. Makes 16-20.

ARCADIA SQUARES have had such a nice summer program with a successful workshop and super dances. Now to greet the snowbirds as they return. We had a great time at the Knothead Konvention and were well represented with 14 couples of Arcadians in attendance. Don't forget to plan for the Hobo Dance October 25. There will be prizes for costumes. Plans are now in progress for the Fall Fun Fest in Lakeland. See you there.

George & Betty Tuttle

BERRY PICKERS of Strawberry Square will begin their season October 15 and every Monday. The old Straw Boss, Singin' Sam, will call a plus one and plus 2 level dance with Marty Martin in Oct. and Jim Runnels in Nov. on rounds. Dance time 8 to 10:30; pre-rounds 7:30 P.M. You all come!!

Betty Mitchell

BRANDON SQUARES appreciate all the visitors at our club this past summer and look forward to dancing with our northern visitors down for the winter. Big plans are under way for our special Halloween dance. Plan to join us with your imaginative costume. Those lively Love Bugs stole our banner, so we look forward to retrieving it. The Knothead Konvention was great and we are already excited about Fall Fun Fest. We expect an excellent dance, as usual.

Carl & Hazel

BUTTONS AND BOWS of Plant City...Our members enjoyed our social this month, tubing down the Weeki-Wachee River. Thanks to Bob & Doris Rochester for making all the arrangements. What a fun day for all. Mark your calendar for October 27 for our annual Hobo Dance with Art Springer calling. Get your costume ready and join us for loads of fun. See you in a square somewhere.

Martha & Larry Bradford

CAPE CORAL SQUARES of Cape Coral continue to enjoy dancing every Monday to Johnny Walter and the Kastners. We are happy to see Louise Walter looking well again in our midst after her hospital stay. The number of club members in the Davidson family has recently risen to six -- spanning three generations. All six are happily enthusiastic, and the club is in turn delighted. Do come and enjoy the Monday dances. You'll notice a great improvement in the acoustics.

Edith T. Juhel

CHARLOTTE PROMENADERS of Port Charlotte are eager to begin the 1979-80 square dance season. We trust everyone had a safe and enjoyable summer and will be ready for some great dancing. We are proud of the super list of callers we have for your dancing pleasure - Schneider, Chapman, Yates and Prior, to name a few. We also will be sponsoring a beginner class starting October 16 with Ron Schneider teaching. See schedule for dates, time and place.

Howard & Margaret Nesenberg

CITRUS WOODS...After our summer doldrums and no dancing in August, we at Citrus Woods are now back in the GROVE. A slight addition to our format - we now dance twice a month, the 1st and 3rd Sunday afternoons from 2 until 5 with Chuck Dillenbeck and Jim Runnels. So, for a relaxing, interesting dance in pleasant surroundings visit us at 1610 Reynolds Road, Lakeland. See the sign.

Cris Nissen

CRYSTAL TWIRLERS danced on Labor Day for Muscular Dystrophy Telethon at the Teens Disco in Crystal River. The three squares included Inglis-Tri-County Squares and Inverness Squares with Jack Hatfield calling. Best wishes to Bill Ripple for speedy recovery from recent illness. Thanks to Mary & Al Hahling for obtaining the facilities and supplying posters for the square dance lessons. Thanks also to Barb & Bob Rotiwell for the flyers.

H. H. Ervien

DADE CITY SQUARE HOPPERS had a super dance in August with Fred Koning calling. We all had a rewarding time with old friends, many new friends, excellent refreshments and foot stomping music. Many of our group squared up at the Knothead Konvention and will be at the Fall Fun Fest in Lakeland. We hope to see you there, as well as in Dade City. Happy dancing!!

DANCEMBLERS

Our unsung heroes again devoted an evening to collating the September DANCER in speedy fashion despite the extra insert. Those who contributed their time were:

Darwin & Lil Budnick
 Al & Ethel Iannucci
 George & Dena Burcham
 Glen & Lorraine Morse
 Al & Lola Le Blond
 Frank & Nina Murillo
 Earle & Betty Williams
 Jack Pierson

Joe & Ruth Estes
 Val & Mary Faller
 Al & Red Smith
 Ken & Mae Ford
 Hugh & Jean Fultz
 Murl & Sally Herbert
 Eric Myers
 Roy & Ruth Pringle

Thanks to all. Without your help and that of many others throughout the year several thousand dancers would not receive the DANCER.

DIAMOND SQUARES of Dunedin now have over 400 happy dancers and we're still growing. We will have a Fall Welcome Back party and dance October 7 from 7 to 9:30, so come on out and enjoy yourself. Both our Presidents, Dorothy & Lew Hall, and our Vice Presidents, Gertrude & Seth Walworth, celebrated their 45th wedding anniversaries on the same day, September 1. Is that a Square Dance Club first??

Gertrude & Seth Walworth

DIXIE LOOPERS of New Port Richey...It is good to have both of our callers back from vacation. We appreciate the calls of Joe Prystupa and Doc Gray at our weekly dances. October and November are the months of the pumpkin, witches and goblins. Hope you are making plans for costumes for our Halloween dance. Costumes or not, we hope you will join us for this annual fun dance. Thanks to the square that retrieved our banner from the Friendly Squares.

Ginny Burke

FEATHEROCKERS of Valrico would like to inform all of our square dancing friends that we are dancing every Thursday night from 8 to 10:30. The time is later because we are having a class for beginners from 7 to 8 P.M. Many of our club members enjoyed the opportunity to dance at the Knothead Konvention. Bill & Sybil Williams will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary this month. Send them a card.

Edna & Allan Wolfe

FLAMINGO SQUARES of St. Petersburg beat the heat in August with a Bird Leg Dance. The men wore shorts and prizes were awarded to Rich Anderson and Kenry Homer for their outstanding legs. Mark your calendars for our super anniversary dance October 7 and our annual Halloween dance October 28. There's lots of fun coming up. Our pre-dance workshop has been discontinued. See you at 7:30 from now on.

Maureen Anderson

FLORIDA ASSOCIATION OF SINGLE SQUARE & ROUND DANCERS (FASSRD) memberships are still being submitted. Two months into our second year we are 50% larger than at the close of the 1st year. Plans have been completed for the First Singles Convention October 26-27 in Orlando. For further information about membership or the convention contact Ross Alexander, P.O.Box 10293, St. Petersburg, Florida 33733.

Ross Alexander

FLUTTERWHEELS are dancing the 2nd and 4th Saturdays at the YWCA in Clearwater and invite you to join us for some lively dancing. We've recently enjoyed "raids" from Pairs and Spares, Left Allamanders and Steeple Stompers. We'll celebrate Halloween October 27 with a costume dance. We'll have prizes, cider and doughnuts. Come dance with us!!

Pat Faw

GAMBLERS, a new club starting Wednesday, October 10 at the Oxbow Hall 7:30 to 10:30. Level will be plus one and plus two by that "Gamblin' Man" Singin' Sam, with pre-rounds by Don Rand. Take a chance and come on out to "Shuffle the Deck" and "Acey Deucey" and see why we named this club "The Gamblers." It's going to be fun!!

B. Mitchell

GANDY DANCERS of Tampa are happy to welcome the following new members: Colie & Willena Gruber, Pete & Betty Sue Lanford, Lester & Patsy Patrick, Joe & Sylvia Villareal and Lisle & Troy Harre. See you at Fall Fun Fest - then join us October 29 for a Halloween potluck and square dance party - eat at 7 P.M., dance at 8. Come in costume (optional) - many do and sometimes it is hard to recognize your best friend's disguise. Prizes given.

Joyce & Emory Johnson

GATOR 8's dance every Saturday at Dunedin's Stirling Hall 8 to 10:30, pre-rounds at 7:30 by Don Rand, and Singin' Sam on squares. We dance plus one and plus two level. We limit the hall to 25 squares for your dancing comfort, so come early. Welcome Snowbirds - you'll love our Gator 8's.

B. Mitchell

HILLBILLIES of Zephyrhills welcome new members Herb and Helen Fields to our club. Our members are busy getting club outfits ready for the new Fall-A-Rama, which is under the direction of our caller, Bob Barnes. We were honored to have Bob & Pat Faw calling for us while Bob & Dee Barnes were on vacation. If you missed the beginning of our square dance class, here's good news - another class starts the first Saturday in November at 12 noon. Our Wednesday night dance is super--come on over. See you all at the Fall Fun Fest.

Edna Bahr & Doris Ancomb

KATYDIDS of Tampa join the many friends of Kate Taylor in wishing her much happiness in the retirement she so deserves. Her great contribution to the recreation program in Tampa will not be forgotten. There's still time for your friends who want to learn to square dance to join Coy & Wini Cowan's class at Kate Jackson Rec. Center on Thursday nights beginning Oct. 18 from 8 to 10 P.M., so pass the word along. Join us for our party on Halloween night.

E. Cline

KRISS KROSS SQUARES of Ft. Myers had fun helping with the pre-promotion of the Fall Fun Fest. This is one of the greatest events of the year and so much good comes out of it, including our FREE Dancer magazine. Thanks to the nice article in "Sets in Order" we are nationally known, and maybe in another year there will be Standing Room Only. Welcome back Joe & Becky. Our faithful president, John Ross and his lovely wife, Evelyn, travel over 50 miles to be here rain or shine. I'm hanging around. You all come and hang in too.

Irene McKown

LEFT ALLAMANDERS of St. Petersburg extend many thanks to those who helped celebrate our 13th anniversary, and congratulations, Flamingoes, on your 3rd one! Lots of good dances are scheduled in the area for this Fall, but most important now is the sponsoring of new dancers. We have Ron Schneider and Ken Cuore standing by. Tony Oxendine called and said he's looking forward to calling our Snowbird Dance for us again. Get well wishes for Fred Leach, one of our favorite round dance cuers. See you dancing.

Pat Fiyalko

LOVE BUGS of Tampa elected new officers: Pres. Karl Curewitz, V. Pres. Elizabeth, Treas. Brenda Smith and Sec. Dorothy Delgado. Had a fabulous anniversary dance with the Y-Knots. Some BUGS shingled a roof, visited the Jacksonville singles club, stole a few banners and retrieved ours. Wedding bells for four more...Larry Jones & Shirley Cripe will have a square dance wedding Oct. 18, and Tom Owings & Brenda Smith will tie the knot in December. Single? We need you! See you at the Fall Fun Fest.

Dorothy Delgado

MERRI-MIXERS, Chuck Dillenbeck's new club, successfully started with a cookout at Lake Kissimmee State Park. Clubs attending were Ridge Squares, SanLan Squares, Swingin' Yell-O-Rockers, Ridge Rollaways and Citrus Woods. Chuck & Eileen even saw a couple from Mars!! Captain Dave and the Rangers were instrumental in our enjoying delicious food, fun and fellowship. Happy, Jenks and Osie werē there - we have missed them. We look forward to another cookout soon.

Ann McElroy

PALM CITY SQUARES of Ft. Myers have been workshopping very hard so that they might attend the Fall Fun Fest in a group. A great treat is in store for them. We've had a little spectator who has been coming every Sunday night to observe while waiting for our class to start Oct. 7. I dance with her when an extra couple is needed, and she is a natural. Basics will be easy for her. I've danced many years and still get a lot out of classes.

Irene McKown

RIDGE ROLLAWAYS danced twice during National Square Dance Week to promote and acquaint the public with this great recreation - once in the downtown area and again on the parking lot of the Southgate Shopping Center. Several attended the Knothead Konvention and the Vagabond Rollaways camps and dancers were at River Ranch the following week-end. See you at Fall Fun Fest.

Georgia Tidd

SANLAN SQUARES were glad to have Fred Koning calling for us while Bob and Dee Barnes were on vacation. In spite of warm weather and rain we have enjoyed good crowds of enthusiastic and friendly couples. We are glad to hear that Jay Boone is out of the hospital and doing well. We wish for him and others that may be sick a speedy recovery. We also wish much happiness for all those having anniversaries and birthdays. Happy dancing to all, and come dance with us any Tuesday night.

Mary Jo McHenry

SEA SHELL SQUARES....How wonderful it was dancing back with Bill and Joyce. The dancers showed their gratitude by turning out in spite of threats of hurricanes. Bill and Joyce will be calling for the First Singles Convention Oct. 26-28 in Orlando. You don't have to be single or a club member to attend. For more information call Joyce 481-0625. Fall is in the air. We will be seeing you everywhere!

Irene McKown

SPARES 'N' PAIRS of St. Petersburg...If your club meets within a reasonable distance of ours, watch for our banner bandit, Eric Benson, and his marauding gang of bandits. The club's current project is recycling aluminum cans. Come dance with us Oct. 26 at our masked Halloween dance. No tricks, just treats are awaiting you. Welcome Snowbirds and vacationers. Spend part of your leisure time with us for relaxed dancing.

Ross Alexanier

SPINNING WHEELS of Tampa have been enjoying vacation and getting to dance with other clubs outside of Florida. Another successful Knothead Konvention is over, and wasn't it great to dance with our friends from all over our state? We are hosting another beginners class with Art Springer teaching at Grant Park Civic Center beginning Sept. 24. The first 2 nites are free. Our second dance in October will be cancelled for the Fall Fun Fest.

Joyce Todd

SOURCLES...That's what you get when you cross a square and a circle. We dance every Tuesday at Stirling Hall in Dunedin. Pre-rounds by Don Rand 7:30 to 8:00; square dance workshop 8 to 8:30. Club level is plus one and two. Squares by Singin' Sam. Come early, as we limit the hall to 25 squares for your dancing comfort.

B. Mitchell

STRAWBERRY STROLLERS of Plant City have good dancing for all every Tuesday night from 8 to 10:30. We had a nice crowd at our ice cream party in August. We retrieved our banner from the Gandy Dancers and the Sweetheart Swingers. Come dressed in your Halloween costume for our party Oct. 30. There will be a prize for the best costume. Also door prizes and plenty of good refreshments. You all come.

Carol Alderman

SUN COUNTRY SWINGERS were visited by Lucille & John Kelley, a real example of the saying, "The Dancers are the nicest people." The way they are working for the Fall Fun Fest, it should be the best yet. Fred Koning called while Bob & Dee were away, and we really enjoyed him. It was good to see Irene Koning back on her feet. Our friends from up north will be coming back soon, to find we are now dancing at Plus 2 level. See you soon. Happy dancing.

Dottie Merrill

SUNSHINE SHUFFLERS of Naples celebrated National Square Dance Week with the history of the square dance and danced for students at Avalon School. On October 6 a party to honor H. S. Resolution #69 making the square dance the National Folk Dance of the United States, with Jim Baker calling. The Bill Maxwells will also be honored for their 50th wedding anniversary. Our deepest sympathy goes out to Peg Mulroy with the passing of her husband, Frank. Come dance with us at Naples High School every Saturday night, beginning at 7 P.M. with early rounds.

Rosemary Joseph

SWINGERS of Ft. Myers had the delight of celebrating the 30th anniversary of their caller Harold Sauls and his wife, Joyce. They were surprised when we sang the anniversary song to them. The next week Alice and Mace served punch and cake to the club to celebrate their anniversary. The cake was beautiful with a dancing couple, saying "We are Swingers!" and they really are. That's what square dancing is all about - making friends and becoming a part of celebrating many happy occasions.

Irene McKown

SWINGIN' YELL-O-ROCKERS of Tampa welcome new members Mary Cronier and Pat Kennedy. Thanks, Toni Overstreet, for your West Coast Dancers Bloodbank donation. Our 4th anniversary dance on September 15 was fantastic and our friends are invited back anytime. Members are requested to bring a covered dish to our September 30 fishfry at Grace Arnold's lakeplace; wear comfortable clothes. Our new class is underway at Oak Park Recreation Center, instructed by Walt Hurs, assisted by our beautiful "angels."

Sadie Lee Nardelli

TEACUPPERS of Odessa have a new class at Keystone Park with Phil Phillips teaching. Phil's taw, Ruth, is in the hospital, and we wish her a speedy recovery. Our own Cliff Earle filled in for Phil while he was away. Cliff has just returned from Hot Springs, Arkansas where he graduated from Cal Golden's college for callers. Teacuppers attended the Knothead Konvention and are looking forward to the Fall Fun Fest.

Granny

THUNDERBIRDS of Pinellas Park are moving from Wednesday night to Wednesday afternoon beginning October 10, from 1 to 3:30 P.M. This is an Advanced 1 and 2 club with Singin' Sam on squares and Don Rand on rounds. We welcome all you advanced dancers and hope you'll like the novelty of an afternoon club at the Oxbow hall.

B. Mitchell

TIDEVUE ESTATES in Ellenton opens their fall season Wednesday morning October 17 with George Jabbusch conducting an experimental workshop with the basics including MS +1 & +2. He will review difficult patterns for the benefit of those who may not have danced all summer. Thursday night October 18 Ron Schneider will call our first dance of the season. Rounds will start at 7:30 and squares at 8 until 10:30. Come and bring a friend. Everyone welcome.

Gayle Baldwin

TRI-COUNTY SQUARES have survived the long, hot summer, danced all summer in air conditioned comfort and are looking forward to an exciting fall season. The most frequently asked question we hear from callers and dancers alike is, "Inglis - Yankeetown, where's that?" We are very much on the map, where Hwy. 19 and Hwy 40 come together, east of Ocala. Come see us. We are proud of our NEIGHBORLY, small town club.

Charlotte & Tom Rice

UNITED DANCERS of Tampa will be dancing every Wednesday night at North Blvd. Rec. Center with Ron Schneider calling. Our pre-dance workshop begins at 7:30 and will include calls that will be used later in the evening. We are mighty lucky to have Frank Dubois cueing rounds. This season we have changed the name of the club to the United Dancers. So let's all unite. Join us - we would love to have you.

Claudette Bickford

VALLEY SWINGERS of Wauchula - The Merchants' Association Wauchula Plaza enjoyed our square dancing last May and want to have us back again for an evening of dancing in the parking lot. This may be one way to celebrate National Square Dance Week and build up our fall classes--two birds with one stone! We need a banner. Ideas for a banner design for this new club may be mailed to P.O.Box 1124, Wauchula, Fl. 33873, or, better yet, come bring them to our dance.

Virginia Metheny

WELCOME SQUARES of Holiday Lake Estates...Our 1980 dance schedule is looking good. In August Ken Cucore, Sam Mitchell, Chuck Kessler and Doc Gray kept us swinging, and the Hulins have kept our round dancers happy, teaching a new dance each week and cueing both old and new favorites. Our weekly free dance winners are Bud & Dot Post, Al & Jean Nagy, Doc & Hilda McSweyn and Esadale & Herman Geering. Come join us - you could be a winner too.

Ethel Iannucci

We have had many requests for more A1, A2 and C1 dancing in our area of Sarasota and Bradenton, so have decided to start a club of this level at the Potter Bldg., 2900 Ringling Blvd. in Sarasota, Saturday Oct. 13. George Jabbusch will be calling. We welcome all who have danced these levels, but would like for you to be an active member in some workshop equal to the level which the dance will be. The dances will be on the 2nd and 4th Saturday of each month from 7:30 to 10:00. We will use computer squares for 4 tips and the last tip will be a star tip, as they do at most of the workshops. If you have any questions, please call us at 755-7529.

Marge Jabbusch

TREAT YOUR CALLER

Would you like for your caller and his law to have a short vacation? Then plan to bring them to the FALL FUN FEST. Enjoy the fellowship and camaraderie within the square without your caller having to work. More square dancing, more round dancing, truly the "Dance of Distinction". Plan to attend on October 19 and 20 in Lakeland, at the Civic Center.
