PRESIDENT

PGL/88

OF THE

WEST COAST SQUARE & ROUND DANCE ASSOCIATION

It has been a long hot summer for everyone, even for our northern friends. It won't be long until they will be joining us again. I wonder if they miss us as much as we miss them.

The state convention in Orlando was a huge success and most everyone was pleased with the sound, thanks to Bob Barnes and Carl Rod and the convention center was great.

We are sorry that we did not make the National Convention in Anaheim, but it conflicted with our grandson's graduation, and I'm sure some of you know how that is. However, we understand it was a great success.

On September 25th we have the President's ball at North Blvd, Tampa. Please come and meet your newly elected officers for '88 and '89. Labor Day weekend will be the Knothead Convention which usually turns out to be lots of fun for all who attend. Let's not forget the Fall Fun Fest on November 11th & 12th at the Lakeland Civic Center. We hope to see you all there. The proceeds from this Festival are used to defray the expenses of the West Coast Dancer Magazine, so we welcome your support.

we wish to thank all who attended our appreciation dance at Strawberry Square on August 21st. It was a great way to honor all those fine people who have supported Square Dancing over the years, especially those who gave of their time and energy to serve on committees and other duties that contribute to our national hobby.

Don't forget beginner classes will be starting real soon, and if each of us could bring a new couple we would certainly be doing a lot to promote square dancing.

SHOOTIN STARS

ST. PETERSBURG...Our vacation time is now behind us and we're taking count of, and are grateful for each returnee. Mario Gatto is recuperating from surgery, and he and Lena are sorely missed by us all! We had to return the "petti-pants" to the flock of Left Allemanders who came for their unique banner -they're fun to have around! Some of our "never too old" group have signed up at the Red Carpet Inn for Nov. 11 & 12, F-F-F (we'll compare the pictures of 13 years ago.) One of our members complained that "flat beer" was a more apt phrase than "fine old wine." We've got guest callers while Michael Cox is away and the Griffins are cueing.
;Bienvenidos!

EDITORIAL FROM EDITOR SOUTH

NEEDLESS TO SAY ALL ITEMS THRU THE BOOK INDICATE THE SUMMER IS COMING TO THE END AND IT IS MY PERSONAL HOPE THAT ALL HAD AS GOOD OF TIME AS WE DID.

I DO HAVE SOME BAD NEWS AS I WILL BE LOOSING ONE OF MY CAPABLE HELPERS, HAZEL SMITH WHO HAD DONE ALL THE COMPUTER WORK ON THE WORKSHOP HAS REQUESTED TO BE RELIEVED OF THESE DUTIES. I TOLD HER ON THE PHONE AND WILL REPEAT, I REALLY APPRECIATE THE FINE HELP SHE HAS BEEN.

I HAVE TO ADMIT THAT WHEN I WENT TO THE CONVENTION IN ORLANDO I FELT THEY DID NOT HAVE ENOUGH ROOM - I WAS WRONG - I NOW BELIEVE WE HAVE 2 PLACES TO HAVE A CONVENTION BOTH ORLANDO AND LAKE LAND. BE IT NOTED I AM NOT RULING OUT A FUTURE CONVENTION IN TAMPA AS IT HAS THE FACILITIES. I DO ADMIT THE DIVISION OF ROOMS IN ORLANDO GAVE A LOT MORE OF VARIETY FOR THE DANCER. IN A WAY IT SORT OF REMINDED ME OF KNOTHEAD WHEN IT WAS IN CLEARWATER, I'M SKEAKING OF THE WALKS BETWEEN EACH DANCE - IT WAS FUN. SO THANKS TO HI & VEE WILSON FOR AN EXCELLENT CONVENTION.

AS YOU KNOW THIS MONTH HAS SQUARE DANCE WEEK AND A COUPLE OF DANCES ARE NOTED AND OF COURSE AN UPSURGE OF CLASSES ALREADY APPEARED. GOVERNOR MARTINEZ HAS SIGNED A PROCLAMATION.

FOR SOME REASON I HAVE NO RECORD OF OUR DANCEMLERS BUT I WISH TO THANK THEM FOR THEIR TREMENDOUS WORK. IF ALL DID NOT KNOW WE LOST GLENN MORSE AND HE WILL SURELY BE MISSED.

NOW LETS GET ON WITH THE NEXT SEASON, LETS US ALL PLAN TO ATTEND THE FALL FUN FEST WITH BOB NEWMAN AND ROGER CHAPMAN THIS PROMISES TO BE THE BEST

FESTIVAL EVER. EMORY JOHNSON AND HIS STAFF HAVE REALLY WORKED HARD. REMEMBER BESIDE HAVING A GREEAAAT TIME YOU ALSO HELP US THE WEST COAST ASSOCIATION PUBLISH THE WEST COAST DANCER. COME ON YOU WILL HAVE A GREAT TIME. JACK PIERSON

PS FOR THE ROUNDS WE HAVE MARTY MARTIN AND AL BRAUER

NOV 11 & 12 FALL FUN FEST

Where did all the dancers go this summer. ?. Everyone seemed to be on the road and this was our year to travel. Right after the State Convention in Orlando we went a wandering. Trudie and I went to the Convention for one day, that is all we could squeeze in. It was again a success. The sound was perfect, all levels of dancing and plenty of the good A.C. Glad to not that most of Floridas finest Callers and Cuers were there. In 1989 the Northeast Association will be doing all the work and it will be at the same location. Strange to say there were some dancers who did not know where the Expo Center was and even some of the local natives were not sure. Best kept secret of all. The address is 500 West Livingston St. Of course it is getting a little easier to locate now as they are building the Arena and the Omni Hotel is very visible. Many dancers did go out West to the National Convention in Anaheim California. We went up to Ohio for the National Square Dance Campers Convention. It was "Hot". There were 500 R.V.'s and nearly 70 from Florida. The next time, that one of our Northern Visitors mention "Do we live in Florida in the summer time and how can we stand the heat", I'll just say, were you in Ohio in 88 ?. I'm glad that we are back home although it takes me about a month to get back to normal. We will see you around and hope that you all had a lovely, safe summer.

EDITORIAL

The old phrase "How time flies!" sure is true. This summer flew by for those of us involved with the publication of your West Coast Dancer!

We hope you all had a happy, healthy, safe summer.

Our summer was great, but one event really stands out!

This past Fourth of July, Winnie and I were priveleged to be a part of the Walt Disney World Fourth of July show.

What a grand and glorious day that was for us! Each year, Disney puts on their Fourth of July spectacular salute to America, with three performances in front of the castle. At each show, approximately 200 square dancers bring out American flags down the ramps and stand there holding them during the finale of the show. What a thrill for those of us involved! Winnie and I both had a lump in our throats!

There is, of course, a lot of work involved in being a part of the show. The rehearsals... the costume fittings... then "hurry up and wait" time... then GO!... the cry "You have 45 seconds to get out on the ramps to your positions!"

But believe us... it is worth it. A side benefit is the fact you get to see a small part of what it takes for Disney to put on a show and you do get to see a part of Disney World that most people do not; the "backstage" area of the Magic Kingdom where all the preparations take place., What a grand way to spend our Fourth of July!

ATTEND FALL FUN FEST

There will be no dance on the 1st Friday this month, September 2nd, as that is the date of the Knothead Convention in Tampa! Beginning Friday, 9 September, we will return to our regular schedule of 7:30 to 8:00 early rounds and 8:00 to 10:00 squares and rounds as the plus workshop for the new students was completed in August.

The Club plans to hold it's 22nd anniversary dinner on 24 September at the Brown Derby restaurant, Madiera. The new club officers will be installed at this dinner. Plans are now being made for the Anniversary Dance to be held in October. Time and date will be announced in the October club news.

Several new members of Ron Schneider's graduation class will be inducted into the club this month.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY - "THE LITTLE E"

Any printer who has hand-pegged type knows the biggest compartment in the case was reserved for the letter E because it is used more often than any other letter in the alphabet. Its frequency of use is not its only claim to fame. Someone compiled a set of E facts - The letter E is the most unfortunate letter because it is always in danger, in torment, misery and distress, and ends up in hate. Still it is never in war, always in peace. It is the beginning of ease and the end of trouble. -- May issue of Sunshine Magazine.

Square & Round Dance Convention

MAY 26, 27, 28, 1989

NOW THAT THE '88 CONVENTION IS A FOND MEMORY WE ARE WELL UNDERWAY ON THE 1989 PROGRAM. COMMITTEE MEMBERS ARE STUDYING ALL ASPECTS OF THIS PAST CONVENTION TO DETERMINE WHAT WE MAY DO TO IMPROVE UPON IT.

WE ARE AWARE OF SOME OF THE THINGS THAT MANY DANCERS WERE NOT HAPPY WITH AND HAVE ALREADY STARTED MAKING ADJUSTMENTS IN ORDER TO GIVE YOU, THE DANCER, THE BEST POSSIBLE CONVENTION IN 1989. THIS IS OUR GOAL AND WE HAVE DEDICATED OURSELVES TO ACCOMPLISHING IT. BUT WHAT IS NEEDED THOUGH IS YOUR INPUT. WE FEEL THAT IN ORDER FOR US TO ACCOMPLISH OUR GOAL WE NEED MORE FEEDBACK ON WHAT EVERYONE WANTS IN A STATE CONVENTION. YOUR COMMENTS ON, "WHAT YOU WOULD LIKE AT THE CONVENTION IN 1989," WOULD BE GREATLY APPRECIATED.

GRANTED WE PROBABLY WON'T BE ABLE TO FILL EVERYONES REQUEST, BUT WE CAN PROMISE THAT IF ITS POSSIBLE TO DO AND IT WILL BENEFIT THE MAJORITY OF THE DANCERS THEN WE WILL DO IT!

PLEASE SENT ANY SUGGESTIONS /COMMENTS TO:

THE RIDGE ROLLAWAYS SQUARE & ROUND DANCE CLUB

We had a good time at our club picnic this summer with lots of good food and watermelon galore! There was dancing and as usual lots of laughing. Now summer is almost over and we are swinging into our fall season. Our winter friends are returning already; talking of the "hot" time they had up North this summer. Welcome back to all and let's dance. Harold & Jo

FOXWOOD SQUARES-LAKELAND: Just facts this time. Foxwood Squares will be back to full schedule on Sept 13th, 1988. Rounds at 7 PM. Squares at 7:30. Bob and Dee have been busy people this summer. They received a Trophy from Roundalab for 25 years of activity with the Round Dance World. Hence they had to go out to The National in Anaheim. Bob did some calling then to Michigan and will be in Tennessee. At your first dance at Foxwood be sure and pick up Flyers. Tells all. Bob, by demand, will this season have a Beginners class. See you there and bring your friends. Cris and Trudie.

KARL CUREWITZ is home, back at work at his same job working part time until he gains his strength back. He is visiting dances to see all of his friends. Look for him. He looks great and we hope he'll get better and better each day.

JOYCE STEWART is coming along fine, slow but sure. She went to URDC with her partner, FRANK DU BOIS and danced every day. She had very little problem following Frank as he lead her through some intermediate and high level dances that she knew. Good luck Joyce. Keep progressing.

"THE NATIONAL MAGAZINE WITH THE SWINGING LINES"

ASD MAGAZINE FACTS & FIGURES

Editors of "American Squaredance," the only national/international magazine printed monthly for the square dance activity, are pleased to announce that they will be celebrating twenty years of the magazine having been printed in Ohio this fall.

When the September issues are sent out it will mean that 240 different issues have been produced in Huron/Sandusky, Ohio. The magazine is actually 43 years old, having been published in New Jersey, Illinois, and Ohio.

Presently, the copies go out by bulk mail from the Huron, Ohio post office in quantities of 22,000 to 24,000 every month. Subscribers reside in every USA state, every Canadian province, and in 30 countries of the world where square dancing takes place.

Full coverage of events, people, places, trends, and dancing/leadership tips is given. Advertisers number well over 100. Covers are in full color; about 112 pages is the average per issue. The magazine's address is PO Box 488 Huron, OH 44839. Stan and Cathie Burdick are editors.

"ASD Services" is a department of the magazine, catering to informational needs. For instance, a series of various reprints on subjects from graduation parties to clogging are available, called IN-forms. Quantities of sample magazines are free for club distribution. Questions on points of interest are answered or referred promptly. Thirty-five books for callers and leaders are sold by the editors/publishers. Another department is "ASD Tours," which have listed two square dance tours to far-flung areas annually. Caller school scholarships are also given out to worthy new callers by "ASD," called "Scholar-Shares."
