TWAS THE MONTH AFTER CHRISTMAS

By Shirley Nihart
 Reprinted from The GrapeVine
 Jan-Feb, 2000

Twas the month after Christmas,
 And all through the house
 Nothing would fit me, not even a blouse.
 The cookies I'd nibbled, the eggnog I'd taste
 At the holiday parties had gone to my waist.
 When I got on the scales there arose such a number,
 When I walked to the store (less a walk than a lumber).
 I'd remember the marvelous meals I'd prepared,
 The gravies and sauces and beef nicely rared.
 The wines and the rum balls, the bread and the cheese,
 And the way I'd never say "No thank you, Please".
 As I dressed myself in my husband's old shirt
 And prepared once again to do battle with dirt,
 I said to myself, as only I can, "You can't
 Spend the winter disguised as a man".
 So away with the last of the sour cream dip,
 Get rid of the fruitcake, every cracker and chip.
 Every last bit of food that I like must be banished
 Till all the additional ounces have vanished.
 I won't have a cookie - not even a lick.
 I'll only want to chew on a long celery stick.
 I won't have hot biscuits, or corn bread, or pie,
 I'll munch on a carrot and quietly cry.
 I'm hungry, I'm lonesome, and life is a bore -
 But isn't that what January is for?
 Unable to giggle, no longer a riot,
 Happy New Year to all and to all a good diet!
