We had approximately ten squares at the West Coast Membership Dance in Sun City on Sunday afternoon dancing to Van Coble, George Varney, Dan Wilkinson, Burl Lally and Phil Harris in the main hall, and Art Springer and Bob Barnes in the Advanced Hall. Mary Wiewiora and Pat Hagen did the cueing for the afternoon. The Sun City Swingers provided wonderful spread of finger foods for the dancers. Phil Harris has recently moved to the Sarasota area and he joined us for the afternoon so he was asked to call.

Elvin & Dolores Mahan, Fall Fun Fest Registration Chairman, selling ribbons at the West Coast Dance.

Florida Callers' Clinic

If you weren't at Strawberry Square Saturday night, you missed an opportunity to dance to a showcase of five callers for the price of one! Yes, we danced to Ells Lindsey (FCA Vice President), Whit Brown (FCA Secretary) Gary Murphy (FCA Treasurer), Bill Chesnut (FCA Past President), and Skip Cleland (FCA Past President) and our own Bob Barnes cued. The attendance was low but we had a great dance any way.

Next year's dance will be on October 17, 2009, and Tom Miller from Pennsylvania has been booked to teach the Florida Caller's Association Clinic and to call the dance that night.

Ann Slocum dancing her first tip since knee replacement surgery!

Caller Skip Cleland came all the way from Virginia for the Clinic and dance!

Tim Crawford Saga

Some of you missed the article in the September 29th issue regarding Tim Crawford's problems with the Border Patrol. Below is a reprint of that article.

"The Fall Fun Fest Committee received the unfortunate news this past week that Tim Crawford will be unable to fulfill his contract to call for us this year due to some problems with the Border Patrol. Below is his email explaining the situation:

"As ridiculous as I believe this is, I will be unable to fulfill my commitment to you as a result of a ruling by a singular Border guard, who took it upon himself to charge me under the US immigration act as an "illegal immigrant"! Until today, it seemed that I would have this turned around in 30 days or less, as it was in 2005 when this happened for the first time. Today at the hearings, all agreed that this is a complete farce and that it will most definitely be fixed, but because of the nature of this one mans charge, it'll take more time. The guess is "as short as 60 days or as long as 6 months"! They offer absolutely no help with expeditious processing of the necessary paperwork! Incredibly maddening!

First I'd like to apologize for delay in getting back to you, but I have been in contact meetings with Lawyers and US consulate people in advance of today's hearing. Today I got good news that it is easily fixed, but I also got the bad news regarding the timing of that fix. I feel pretty pessimistic that this can be fixed before December.

I will call you all shortly to help you, if I can, find a replacement for the event. It is with incredible regret that I am forced to send this email to you. I cannot tell you how helpless and victimized I feel by all this.

*Tim Crawford.***

If you would, the full true story is below, and I would appreciate you passing the "true" story on to as many people as possible. When this happened in 2005, all the notes of support, the petitions, and the letters went a very long way in getting the result that was just, and I would also be appreciative of those again!

Here's how this occurred.....

In 2005 I was calling in Rochester NY, and while crossing the border I was searched and asked specific questions about my calling in the States. I was not about to mislead so I told them the truth about my calling and that I was the only caller. The border guard then, seized my passport, my possessions and threatened me with arrest because I was "illegally entering the USA and working illegally". They denied me entry to the US and advised me to get a legal opinion on that action, which I did. After $7000 to an immigration lawyer, a US consulate adjudicator, and a US lawyer for opinion, my reentry, and approval to enter the US and call was granted. They issued me a border crossing package that has been consistently accepted by Border guards literally everywhere. In mid 2005, I resumed crossing the border without delay. Since 2007, it has been getting more and more difficult to cross the border. More questions, more searches, more delay's. In August this year, I was crossing the border to fly from Buffalo to Nashville to call for the Singles Convention. I arrived at the Border at 3pm for an 8pm flight and was detained at the border for secondary inspection. I was escorted to a room where I sat for 9 hours, was not allowed to make a phone call, offered not even a drink of water and was not allowed to leave.

Occasionally they would ask me questions about calling, and told me that I would need to get a Visa. Each time, I explained to them that I had been through this in 2005, and I had the "Border Crossing Package", which they refused to review. Near midnight, a singular Border Guard told me that I was being refused entry to the US, and that "this time it would be for 5 years" as he was taking action under the "Immigration act". When I asked why he would not consider my package, he replied that "at this border he was Judge and he was Jury". I was escorted back to my car, then escorted back to Canada across the bridge.

This situation has forced me to repeat my $7000 legal episode from 2007, except this time the immigration action is different, and the cost will be near $10,000 and could take up to 6 months. It makes me incredibly sad that I am being treated like this, and that they would not even consider the action from a mere 3 years ago.

I am in the process of fighting this action, and I am assured that I will get it overturned, not so much that I want to come back and call, but because I believe that they made a mistake, and have charged me with something that I did not do...I had it all approved!

I am truly sorry that this has occurred and I will surely miss everyone in the meantime. I call because I L O V E to call, not because it's a job or a career or because I make money from it. I call because I love to do it, and I love the people, and that is motivation enough for my fight! Again, I am sorry for all this trouble and I certainly appreciate your support and understanding.
