From the Editor

I mentioned the January 11th West Coast Dance in last week's issue of the DANCERgram but I didn't receive the pictures from our West Coast photographer until later in the week. We truly appreciate John's work with the camera.

This newsletter is published weekly and distributed electronically as a free service to the dancers on the West Coast of Florida (and a few miscellaneous others). If you would like your own personal copy emailed to you, please notify the Editor either by email or in person.

I don't know about your areas, but we are definitely seeing an increase in dancers in the Tampa Bay area. There were 14-1/2 squares dancing to Lee Kopman at Strawberry Square Saturday night. What a sight! It's been a long time since we saw a crowd like that on a Saturday night!

The flyers for the Strawberry Square New Year's Eve Party are available now. Sam Dunn will be calling and Charlie Lovelace will be cueing. The theme this year will be Mardi Gras. Dinner will be at 7:30 p.m. with plus squares and rounds following that. There will also be an A-2 tip during the evening. Tickets are $25 per person until April 30th, and then they increase to $30. If you have any questions, you can email strawberrydance@aol.com or go to their website at floridanceweb.com/strawberry.

The big weekend is upon us! The Florida Winter Festival starts this Thursday at 7:30 p.m. I will be selling ribbons at Hampton Promenaders in Auburndale on Monday night if you still don't have yours yet. The dance levels are Plus, Plus DBD, Advanced, C-1 and Phase 2 – 4 Rounds. If dancing the entire weekend is too much for you or you have conflicts for part of the weekend, partial prices are available; Thursday: $12.50 per person; Friday: $22.50 per person; Saturday: $22.50 per person. Caller Tom Miller has now been added to the program since it looks like Tim Crawford won't make it and John Saunders will probably not make it either due to his open heart surgery. The after party will be held Friday night at the Lakeland Center immediately following the dancing. Solos/Singles: There will be Solo Sections for those of us without partners. Please don't stay away because you don't have a partner, and please utilize these sections that have been set aside for us. The only way we will be able to get to dance is if we help each other out. If you don't go, you'll miss a great weekend of dancing, shopping, renewing friendships and making new friends!

Health & Sympathy Updates

John Wall – caller in Jacksonville – lost his sister and he and Lisa had to make a quick trip to New York on New Year's Day for the funeral but returned home on Saturday, the 3rd. Cards may be sent to 6 Oaks Drive, Jacksonville Beach, FL 32250.

Ann Millan, wife of retired caller Eddie Millan, had a cancerous tumor in the colon, in addition to numerous other health problems. She had surgery on Thursday, January 8th and remains in Baptist Hospital. Cards may be sent to her at Baptist Medical Center, Room 431, ICU, 800 Prudential Drive, Jacksonville, FL 32207. She remains quite ill and NO visitors are permitted.

John Saunders had open heart surgery on Tuesday, January 13th and is doing great. In an email from Linda on the 14th, she said that he should be out of ICU on the 15th and if he continued to do well he would go home on the 17th. UPDATE FROM LINDA ON SUNDAY, JANUARY 18TH: John was not discharged from the hospital on Saturday as planned. He still has a chest tube that is draining and until that clears up he will remain in the hospital. They are hoping for Monday but they want him to be well enough to leave. He is feeling stronger and was up walking on Sunday, so that's a big step.

Art Miller – caller in Hardee County - had his surgery on Friday, January 9th and was moved to his own room on Tuesday, the 13th but is quarantined so he can't have visitors at this time.

Toni Blanchette – cuer in Lakeland and wife of caller Roland Blanchette – had five-way by-pass surgery and is still in intensive care (as of Friday, the 16th) at Lakeland Regional Medical Center. Their daughter, Jace, who had cancer previously, now has pancreatic cancer and is undergoing treatment. If you would like to send cards, their address is 1556 King Arthur's Court, Lakeland, FL 33810

MAY I HAVE THIS DANCE?

It's always exciting, and maybe a little scary for some, to go to your first dance when you're learning to square or round dance.

There are three Beginner Square Dance Balls and one Round Dance Ball scheduled at Strawberry Square in Plant City this season that you need to put on your calendars so you can encourage your class members to attend. Callers: if you are currently conducting a class, please start preparing your new dancers to attend these Beginner Balls and plan to attend with them so you can let the caller(s) know what calls your dancers have learned. Angels: We need you at the Beginner Balls as much as we need you at the classes and workshops! So please plan to attend these dances too even if your club doesn't have a class this year. You also don't have to belong to a club in this area to help out.

The Beginner Balls that are currently scheduled are:

SQUARES & ROUNDS: Sunday, March 1st – 2:00 – 4:30 p.m. – this will be called and cued by members of the Suncoast Callers and Cuers Association. There is a meeting of the Association immediately preceding the dance, so there will be several callers and cuers at the dance.

SQUARES - Sunday, March 8th – 12:00 – 2:00 p.m. – caller: Chris Phillips from Ft

Lauderdale. I believe this will be the first weekend that Chris has called at Strawberry Square, but I have danced to Chris and he is very good.

ROUNDS: Sunday, March 15th – 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. – cuer: Charlie Lovelace.

SQUARES: Sunday, April 5th – 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. – caller: Jimmy Lee from Canada.

Please show your support of the Beginner Balls. We need to give the new dancers as many good experiences as possible so they will continue dancing.

TAKE A RIDE IN MY PINK CADILLAC...

A pink Cadillac from the Cadillac Square and Round Dance Club in Cadillac, Michigan, has found its way to central Florida and arrived at the West Coast Dance in Zephyrhills on Sunday, January 11th.

This “pink Caddie” is making a road trip visiting every square dance club in the country. At each stop a picture is taken and emailed, along with the picture, to the sponsoring club in Cadillac. I assume they are keeping some type of travel journal. We always have two dancers from this club at our West Coast dance in Venice so I will have to get more details when I see them!

Larry Tate, Hillsborough County Rep, now has possession of the Caddie and will be taking it to the clubs in his area. It will then be passed to another county rep and so forth until it makes a visit to all the clubs in the West Coast area. So.... watch for it to make a visit to your club!

DANCE TIP

Courtesy

Courtesy is something we should have learned as a child and carry it throughout our lives – please, thank you, welcome, etc.

When you enter a square, say hello to everyone and introduce yourself.

Once you have joined a square, don't leave it to join another square.

At the end of the tip, clap to thank the caller, and then join hands with everyone in the square, bow down and say "thank you". Then shake hands with everyone individually and say thank you. This includes the women. So many times I have seen women just turn and walk away from the square like it's just the men's responsibility to thank everyone; not so, it's everyone's responsibility.

After each round, clap to say thank you to the cuer.

At the end of the evening, everyone forms a horseshoe – NOT A CIRCLE – facing the stage (or front of the room) – bow down and back up saying "thank you". Forming a horseshoe instead of a circle allows you to include the caller and cuer who are on the stage. If you form a circle, you exclude them.

DANCE TIP

Forming Your Square

Form your squares quickly. As soon as the round dancers have completed their rounds, squares should start forming.

Don't enter a square without having a partner lined up.

Attempt to dance with different people each tip. It is discourteous to dance with the same people all the time and makes you appear to be a snob.

Always fill the empty spot in the first square you come to. Don't walk by a square that has an empty spot.

If your square needs dancers, hold up the number of fingers for the number of couples you need so that the caller can announce what is needed.

If all the other squares are filled and you still need dancers, start a simultaneous clap routine until dancers fill the vacancies. This is a universal notification of square openings. Dancers who are sitting out should immediately rise and fill the openings when they hear this clapping.

By quickly forming your squares, you will be able to start dancing as soon as the caller starts the music, and you will be probably be able to dance more during the evening because you aren't wasting time putting a square together.

WHY DO WE ...

Some things are worth repeating (many times) because we need to be reminded and new people join our activity.

Why do we ...

Not drink alcoholic beverages at dances?

Alcohol inhibits our ability to listen and perform. Alcohol reduces our reaction time making us a poorer dancer. In addition, dancing is a wholesome, family-oriented activity.

Belong to a club?

Clubs are needed to organize dances and establish a means to enjoy the fellowship of square dancing. To survive they need an active membership where everyone helps. Volunteer, don't wait to be asked! (EDITOR'S NOTE: I have been asked several times if you can belong to more than one club. YES! By all means; you can belong to as many clubs as you like. But I don't recommend belonging to so many clubs that you can't support them with your attendance at the dances and on banner raids and retrievals. I personally belong to a club that dances twice a month and a club that dances once a week. I feel that is sufficient for me; it may be different for you.)

Stay non-competitive?

In square dancing we want everyone to have fun, so without winners and losers, this can be accomplished.

Overlook mistakes by others?

We all make mistakes. Everyone is trying to do it right. Encourage them!

Wear name badges?

Badges enable us to be on a first name basis which furthers friendly fellowship.

Welcome new dancers?

New dancers are the lifeblood of our activity! Only with their enthusiasm and ideas can dancing continue to flourish!

SQUARE DANCE AND CLASS DOS AND DON'TS

- DO be aware at all times that square dancing is a "courtesy" recreation rather than one of competition.
- DO keep smiling even if you are angry with yourself for "goofing". The other seven people in the square might think that you are frowning at them.
- DO recognize your corner and remember who he or she is. Next to your partner, this is the most important person in the square.
- DO be quiet and attentive to the caller during instructions even though you know what he is explaining. Perhaps someone else in your square needs to be briefed.

- DO leave sharp jewelry at home. It can cut fingers or catch on clothes and inflict injury.
- DO remember to treat all dancers as you would like to be treated.
- DO wear name badges at all times. It might surprise some of the oldsters to learn that they are not as well known as they thought. Many dancers are now aware of the origin of the name badge. When western style square dancing began to flourish, someone suggested that everyone should be identified by means of a name badge so that dancers would be on a first name basis to further friendly fellowship and recreation. Some clubs decided to add their club name and city or area where it was located. They also created original designs for their badges. THE RUDE SQUARE DANCER IS THE ONE WITHOUT A BADGE, because this places other dancers in the embarrassing position of not being able to call a name. DON'T BE CAUGHT BEING RUDE.
- DO admit it when you “goof”. Next time it could be someone else’s turn, so you needn’t feel bad about it. When you “goof”, do it gracefully and recover as best you can in order to keep your square from breaking down.
- DO remember your position when you square up – heads, sides, what couple number, and in some instances whether you are in a boy or girl position.
- DO end each dance with a flourish, applause, and sincere THANKS to all in your square.
- DON'T be a “competitive” dancer. Instead cooperate with the other seven people in your set to make it a good square.
- DON'T be over-exuberant. Your yell might drown out the next call for everyone around you. Learn to be “noisy”, if you must, at the right time – during a right or left grand or allemande.
- DON'T be a “know-it-all”. Let the caller be the instructor unless someone asks you for help at the close of a tip.
- DON'T cut in or out of a square unless you know how. And if you are cut out, leave gracefully.
- DON'T be guilty of “horseplay” unless you are positive your square and the club will not be offended.
- DON'T take that extra swing with your partner. It might make them late for the left allemande with the waiting corner.
- DON'T forget. It is the “female” who determines whether or not they wish to twirl. If their hand is held high, they would like to twirl. If it is low, then they do not wish to twirl.
- DON'T forget to trade a dance, especially with the guests and solos. And don’t overlook the caller’s spouse. He/she might like to dance. ASK THEM!

DON'T sit like a “bump on a log” when another couple is needed to complete a square. If you want to sit out a tip, leave the floor – go to the rest room or where you can not be seen. This prevents embarrassment to you and to the three couples wishing to square up.

DON'T complain about the caller, the hall, the sound, the tacky floor. Seek to find the good things about the dance and express them. Your attitude will contribute to your enjoyment as well as to the enjoyment of others around you.

DON'T pre-arrange sets of four couples before squaring up. You insult the ability of other dancers and reflect a snobbish image contrary to the democratic ideals square dancers wish to exemplify. If you wish to dance with friends, you and another couple could stand in opposite positions in the set and allow two other couples to join you.

DON'T insist on dancing your way when visiting other areas. If these people dance palms up on the Alamo, go along with it. If they do or do not stir the bucket, DO AS THE ROMANS DO – EAT ROMAN CANDLES – but keep your opinions to yourself.

DON'T try to help the caller when filling in with a new class by explaining or pushing or pulling. Dance as though it is your first night too.

DON'T PARTAKE OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES BEFORE OR DURING THE DANCE! Some people object; others may not wish to be close to one with alcohol on his breath. Children are often present, and many clubs dance in churches or schools. Drinking may even adversely affect your dancing ability. This is a cardinal rule of square dancing.

DON'T be “breath offensive”! Ask a friend for gum or mints if you forget yours.

DON'T forget to use a deodorant after your pre-dance bath or shower. You may become quite warm when you are dancing.

DON'T be a ROUGH HANDLER. Use light, easy handholds; that is, don't grab or squeeze tight on box-the-gnats, grand right and lefts, circling, etc.

The Party DVD is Ready!

You may recall that prior to Paul Place's passing last summer, he made one last trip to Orlando to tape his last DVD with the Traveling Hoedowners.

The Traveling Hoedowners are a group of square dancers who are not affiliated with a square dance group. They, along with Paul and Gene McCullough created instructional DVD's and CD's of all the Mainstream and Plus moves. Paul's final taping was a Party DVD which can be used for demos and parties when you do not have a caller.

The two-DVD/two-CD pack is now available for $30 plus tax and shipping.

Some of the songs on the DVD are

- ✓ God Bless the USA
- ✓ On the Road Again
- ✓ Baby Likes to Rock It
- ✓ Long Black Train
- ✓ It's Only Make Believe
- ✓ Rigga Digga Hoedown
- ✓ When the Sun Goes Down
- ✓ Square Wacka Do
- ✓ Folsom Prison
- ✓ Who's Your Daddy
- ✓ Shift Work
- ✓ Save the Last Dance for Me
- ✓ It's a Good Day
- ✓ I Saw the Light
- ✓ No Shirt, No Shoes, No Problem
- ✓ Boogie Beat
- ✓ Thank you dance/Devil's Delight

Orders are being taken now; if you would like your own copy, you can go to this link to learn more about this set and the instructional DVDS and place your order(s) http://www.travelinghoedowners.com/index_details.htm.
