From the Editor

It was wall to wall dancers Sunday afternoon at the West Coast Membership Dance in Sebring! Fifteen or 16 squares danced to Sam Dunn, Robert Arias, Keith Stevens, Nelson Wakeman, Carl Brewer, Gib Mattson, Jennie Martin and Phyllis Hathaway. Talk about keeping your squares tight! And the round dancers; you couldn't even tell how many circles there were! The Highlands County Dancers and some of the Hardee County dancers brought some delicious home-baked cookies (and some home-made peanut brittle) for the refreshments.

Sunday was a special occasion too; it was Sam and Sue Dunn's 40th wedding anniversary. Sue had a beautiful corsage on; she had received a beautiful arrangement of white roses with a single red rose and Sam took her to the Red Rose Inn & Suites in Plant City for dinner and a floor show Saturday night and they returned to Sebring Sunday morning. Sam really knows how to do it right!

This weekend is going to be another busy one. Please try to support as much as you can.

On Friday night and all day Saturday and Saturday night, March 20 – 21, the Shamrock Swing will be held at The Villages with Tony Oxendine and Bob Stern doing the calling and Joanne Helton cueing.

Saturday there are two dances to choose from – the Spring Weekend of Rounds (all weekend at Stardust Center) and the Strawberry Square Dance Center 30th Anniversary Dance.

So, there's plenty of dancing for everyone. Enjoy!

Strawberry Square Hall

Due to some technical difficulties the entire history did not get copied and pasted into last week's issue. Below is the entire article.

By Doris Kelly

Square and Round Dancer and resident of Strawberry Square

Strawberry Square! The very name brings pleasure to glad hearts that pass through its gates for a day or evening's dancing entertainment. And whether one is an occasional visitor, seasonal resident or year-round occupant, the place retains a magical quality for all who come here.

Strawberry Square Dance Center's 30th Anniversary Dance will be held Saturday, March 21st. Early rounds at 7:00 p.m. Plus squares with rounds from 7:30 – 9:30 p.m.

Squares will be called by Art Springer and Bob Barnes. Rounds will also be cued by Bob.

Anniversary cake will be served.

Come help recognize this significant achievement and enjoy a wonderful evening of dancing to Art and Bob.

This "Square Dance Capital of the South" whose dance hall walls sport a hall of fame of past regional presidents, has been host to some of the greatest callers and cuers who have ever stepped up to a microphone.

So how did this dancing institution get its start? Well, once upon a time there was a round dance cuer who had a vision. While traveling from booking to booking, an idea came to him. Why not establish a permanent dance location and, better still, why not provide housing for part time and permanent residents who, along with visitors, would help to fill its dance hall?

This would require the purchase of a large tract of land. Such a site was found amidst an orange grove in Plant City. For the rest of the story we must consult Strawberry Square's own historian, Mori Sogolow.

Strawberry Square was a dream of Marty and Byrdie Martin. Byrdie's family owned 16 acres on this site, and an additional 17 were purchased for a total of 33 acres. Marty's son Sonny was the engineer of the park. He scalped and burned the orange trees and in 1977 the park roads and water were put in.

The concept of living here was popular from the beginning, and the original eight to ten RVs and 5th wheels, which were parked in the compound, quickly grew and spread to 166 units. At that time there were no shares. A camper lot sold for $1540; a single-wide for $3250 and a double-wide lot cost $4500. With few exceptions, only new units were all that were allowed into the park. Some of the original owners include Bob Morris, Mori Sogolow, Marge Hoople, Bill Fiebiger and George Haussmann. It took just two years for the park to be full of dancers. And because Marty and Byrdie cued in a specific part of Canada, many Canadians also came to live here. Virtually all the original residents were dancers.

Two crews of park volunteers worked daily from 9:00 a.m. to noon putting in carports, roofs, utility rooms, and Florida rooms. Max Penn and Chet Vetter headed up these crews. One day, according to Mori, Max and Chet were arguing over how many nails should be used in a piece of wood for a particular project. George Haussmann, wearing an apron and carrying a hammer, came to help. But after hearing the ongoing dispute turned around and left. To this day some residents swear that while out walking in the evening's twilight they can still hear the two men arguing over nails.

Originally, Marty was a salesman for a neon sign company and Byrdie was a homemaker. But with the help of Ed and Katie Mack and Charlie Lovelace, they started teaching round dancing in Marty's home, which is known today as the Martin House. Marty held his first round dances in his home and Byrdie would make strawberry shortcakes for everyone. When the group became too large, they moved to a rec center in Plant City.

The dance hall was built in early 1979 and included the dance floor, kitchen, office and square dance shop. Byrdie created and sold square dance clothes in the shop. The mortgage was $135,000. The first dance was held in April of 1979. There was a caller from Ohio and Marty was cuing. Just one-half hour into the dance the lights went out. Several of the dancers were electricians by trade. So they went outside and jerry-rigged the wiring so the dance could continue. There were 25 squares that day.

Lined on our dance hall walls are names and photographs of current and former regional presidents. This Hall of Fame was established in 1985 by Mori Sogolow and Chet Vetter. These presidents, callers and cuers, along with a federation of five associations in Florida meet three times each year.

In 1980 the Resident's Club, now called the Social Club, was instituted. It was created by Frank and Roma Hallock (parents to Cynthia Lombard, Mary Smith and Julie Ciuk). Mori was one of the earlier presidents and was responsible, along with many other actions, for the installation of both flagpoles at the park entrance.

A tornado came through the park in 1981 and tore up half of the carports and sheds. While the dance hall was left largely intact, some residents claim to have found petticoats in nearby trees. Fortunately all residents had insurance and were paid within three days. Mori remembers he bought up all of the damaged aluminum and resold it for $800. This money was used to purchase the shrubbery at the front of the park.

In 1995 Marty decided to retire and sold the park to the residents. A Board of Directors was formed with Phil Thomas as president of the 250 residents. Byrdie passed on in the early 1990s and Marty in 1998.

Well, there you have a bare bones description of our park's beginning. But it doesn't begin to describe the incredible effort it took to create this magical park we have come to love and enjoy. It took guts, courage, and risk on the part of Marty and the other original founders. How many of us today would be willing to take on such an awesome project?

There aren't many of those original visionaries left. But for those still with us and for those who have gone to their reward, let's all feel everlasting gratitude. Thanks to Marty's vision, this truly is a community of friends.

Historical Information Needed

The European Callers and Teachers Association is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year and they are planning a big weekend celebration. They have found that they have almost no information on the history of their organization.

They are asking if any callers who spent time in Europe during the past 50 years have any old pictures or newspapers or old address lists would be willing to share them or send copies to the ECTA. They are also asking for old stories from this era.

If anyone has any information to share, please contact Edeltraud and Guido Haas, Barkholt Ba, 22927 Grosshansdorf, Germany; edeltraud.haas@gmx.net.

Polk Senior Games

Another Polk Senior Games square dance event has come and gone and this year we had more new participants. Every year we have more and more people who participate.

The gold medal winners of the Advanced event were The Happy Dancers from Polk County. The team members were: Jan Lickly, Kenneth Lickly, Jim Pier, Sue Ann Pier, Ann Slocum, Don Slocum, Agnes Thomson and Millard Thomson.

The gold medal winners for the Plus event were the B&W Squares from The Villages in Lady Lake. Their members were Don Curtis, Kathy Curtis, Doris Mason, Sam Mason, Sandra Yakel, William Yakel, Robert Young and Sharon Young.

The gold medal winners for the Mainstream event were the Space Coast Chicks from Orlando and the Titusville area; I love this – an all girl square! Guys can you top this next year? Their team members were Virginia Barnes, Helen Bell, Judy Frye, Lynn Lenoci, Angie Olds, Ailene Picheco, Adella Reed and Rosalie Turner.

Congratulations to all of the “winners” in the square dance event.

Paul and Connie Fuller of Canada who dance and live in Polk County during the winter months competed in the ballroom dancing event and won a medal. Congratulations to them too!

Message from Tim Crawford

I emailed Tim Crawford before the Winter Festival to get an update on his situation and I just received a response this past week.

Hi Penny!!!

soooooooooooooooooo sorry for the delay in getting to you! no email for about a month!

today I saw the adjudicator again, and he pretty much informed me that it could literally be another 6 months before they approve my paperwork. The new HLS is bogging everything down, and I am caught the tide of paperwork.

The CBP had everything done in January, and then for the VISA, the IRS had to be involved. No problem, because I filed tax here in Canada and declare all foreign income, but they want me to back file for the last three years in the USA. So we went to get that done, and they inform me that I need an IRS number. So I applied, and they turned me down because I'm not a US citizen so I can even get an IRS number! frustrating beyond belief.

It's all back at the CBP again, and they "apologize" for the confusion, but won't do anything to fast-track the paperwork, and once again, I am in waiting for an uncertain period of time.

they long and short of it all is that there is no way for me to tell when they'll get to this, and in the meantime, I have to cancel out of another 3-5 months of dances! I'm starting to lose my patience and my understanding of the system!

I am truly sorry for this, but I feel completely caught in the middle!

Tim Crawford
