From the Editor

Spinning Wheels had their final dance at the Barksdale Center on Friday night. They have had an over 25-year relationship with the City of Tampa; first at the North Boulevard Center and then at Barksdale. Due to an exorbitant increase in fees, Spinning Wheels is forced to find a new location for their weekly dances.

Below are pictures from their dance Friday.

Suncoast Squares of Pinellas Park.

What a beautiful hall

The final farewell circle.

Bill, with the City of Tampa, receiving a thank you gift from J.P. Barnes, Spinning Wheels President. He worked at North Boulevard and is now at Barksdale.

Monday night, September 28th, will be the last dance at Barksdale Center for Temple Twirlers.

Please bring a flashlight to the dance. After the very last tip and after we make the circle to thank Charlie and George, when everyone gets ready to leave the center, I will turn off the light in the dance hall and we can all walk out with our flashlights on.....

The City may "may have to make necessary budget cuts as they see fit " but the Temple Twirlers and The Spinning Wheels will survive because of their great love of square and round dancing.....This may be God's way of sending us to a better place to dance.... Who knows what kind of new things are in store for our clubs??? The main thing is that we all support each other's clubs year round not just on special occasions.

Friday night at the Spinning Wheels was wonderful. Beautiful....and Monday night at the Twirlers should be another fun night for all of us who love square dancing so much.... hope to see lots of you at both dances....
