Many of the seasonal clubs have had elections; if you have a new president, please forward me the name, phone number and email address so I can change the contact information for your dance listing.

And don't forget; when you have your schedule ready for the new year, forward a copy to me so I can add the dances to my master calendar. If you have theme dances, please include those too.

Vanwart to Call For Castoffs

MARTY VANWART of Hampden Highlands, Maine, will be guest caller for the Castoffs, Boynton Beach, January 12, at Boynton Beach Civic Center.

Marty, who had polio when he was 11, is partially handicapped by a paralyzed left arm. His handicap was overcome when he started calling at the age of 15. "With his fine singing voice, he makes singing calls like Walking in the Sunshine a real pleasure" reporter Eleanor Newman said.

At the ripe old age of 24, Marty, who has Maine clubs and classes which include Lobster Reelers of Milbridge, one in Winterport and an advanced workshop in Ellsworth, has been guest caller frequently around the New England states. This is his first trip to Florida.

This E-Newsletter is published by a square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. It is published weekly with addendums as needed. New information each week is highlighted. Permission is given to forward this newsletter to your membership or others interested in receiving a copy or to provide printed copies to your members and visitors to your club. It is also available on the West Coast page of the Florida Dance Web at www.floridadanceweb.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdnfan@aol.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, which is published bimonthly and is provided free of charge for all dancers.
