From the Editor

This week's issue is going to be short and sweet. I've been moving for the past four days and I'm just now (10:07 p.m. on Sunday night) getting to sit down and work on it, but I can't stay awake to finish it!

I'm back to it on Monday at 11:20 p.m. I think I'll finish it this time!

Health & Sympathy Updates

Please be sure to also check the website for updates on dancers!

Update on Marie Bigelow, wife of caller Stephen Bigelow. Stephen reports that their recent trips went well and were surely a boost to Marie's spirit, but in recent weeks she has been experiencing more difficulties. Her doctors report that the cancer is attacking her kidneys, liver and the bones in the abdominal area. She had a blood transfusion in early July and her pain meds have been increased. This causes her to sleep a great deal. She is always brightened by visits of her friends and they certainly appreciate the gifts of love, care, and prayers of the dance community. They took the decision to call Haven Hospice and set up the necessary arrangements for the future. Stephen has created a personal webpage and included many lovely pictures of he and Marie along with snapshot of their recent adventures. Visit his site at <http://www.sfbigelow.com>. Please continue to keep Marie and Stephen in your prayers for comfort during these difficult days. (Reprint from Northeast Association's Joys & Concerns)

Hello Dancers:

Thanks to Jean Green for making contact with WBTV Television and arranging for them to visit the Belles & Beaus dance on Friday, July 9th. While this was a short notice there were 12-13 squares that enjoyed our Theme of Patriotic Dance. There was red, white, and blue all over and it was a great fun time. Here are some of the details of what will happen.

WBTV has decided to "bring back" the one hour show "CAROLINA CAMERA." The Veteran reporter, John Carter will be the host of this show. The Producer (Jen) and Cameraman (Kevin) spent most of the night with our club filming and interviewing several dancers.

On August 23rd at 8:00PM the CAROLINA CAMERA will have a one hour show featuring 8-10 Carolina events or locations from around the state. While the square dance segment will only last a few minutes, the big advantage will be that WBTV will place the show on its web site for viewing at any time AND will also provide links for interested people to view. The CAROLINA CAMERA will be a monthly show.

Of course we will list www.MetrolinaDancers.org (click on Learning 2 dance) and will also asks that the NC Federation web site be listed (www.ncFederation.org) (click on Learn To Square Dance) as well.
