From the Editor...

We're starting to move into the new dance season. YEAH!

Our next West Coast membership dance is the VIP Dance on Sunday, August 21 at the Strawberry Square Dance Center. This dance is FREE to everyone. It is the kick-off of the 37th Annual Fall Fun Fest and we will also be recognizing all the volunteers who keep our favorite activity going. Sam Dunn will be calling and Charlie Lovelace will be cueing. They are both booked for the Fall Fun Fest along with Jack Pladdys of Ohio. Early Rounds are 1:30 – 2:00 p.m. and squares (alternating Mainstream and Plus) will be from 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. At this dance you will also be able to purchase ribbons for Single-Rama, the MacDonald Dance, Fall Fun Fest, Northwest Association's Fall Festival, Winter Festival Ball, Central Association's Shamrock Swing, and the Florida State Convention. There's lots of dancing coming up! You won't want to miss out!

In September we will have our President's Ball where we will install our new association officers. It will also be held at the Strawberry Square Dance Center. The 2012 renewal bars will be available at that dance so you will be able to renew your memberships or join the West Coast Association.

Don't forget that your submissions to the West Coast Dancer are due this Wednesday, August 17!

Northwest Association recently received some great publicity in their local paper. Just click on this link to read the article: <http://www.nwfdailynews.com/articles/dance-42495-news-florida.html>.

Protect Your E-Mail

In the past month a number of our dancers have had their email accounts "hacked".

In many of these incidents their email account was used to send messages saying "I lost my passport / lost my wallet...please send money..." Some also lost their entire address book and all of their emails; in some cases the email provider - like Yahoo - has been able to recover some of the lost information.

Finally, we have also had instances where the "Reply To" address in the email account has been changed in a subtle way; because this Reply To address is sent with the email anyone clicking on "Reply To" in the email is actually sending their reply to another email account that the hacker has opened; again email providers like Yahoo will take action if you advise them that someone is trying to impersonate you and you provide proof of your identity.

For your own protection you should always use a password that cannot be easily guessed - it should be a minimum of 8 or 9 characters (11 or more is recommended) and contain a combination of Numbers and Upper and Lower Case Letters, not contain any actual words or names, and include substitutions like using the number "0" for the letter "O", "1" for "l", to make the password even more secure.

There are several sites that will check the strength of your password - two of these sites are:

Microsoft's Password Checker (their site suggests long passwords - at least 11 characters long https://www.microsoft.com/security/pc-security/password-checker.aspx?WT.mc_id=Site_Link.)

Ask The Geek Password Meter http://askthegeek.us/pwd_meter/index.htm

You should not be concerned about using your actual password when checking - but you can always substitute some letters and numbers just to be safe.

Finally - always remember to NEVER click on a link in an email if you are the least bit suspicious that the email is not legitimate; even if the email appears to be from a friend. Hackers can send emails with fake "From" addresses. If an email seems out of character for the sender, or is addressed to a long list of people with similar addresses, it is better to be safe than sorry - check with the friend first before clicking on a link - and - of course remember to always go to a company's web site when logging in. NEVER NEVER NEVER click on a link in an email from your bank, credit card company, or any government or business entity (IRS, FBI, UPS, Fedex,the list goes on and on).

This E-Newsletter is published by a square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. It is published weekly with addendums as needed. New information each week is highlighted. Permission is given to forward this newsletter to your membership or others interested in receiving a copy or to provide printed copies to your members and visitors to your club. It is also available on the West Coast page of the Federation Website at www.floridasquaredance.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sqdnfan@aol.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, which is published bimonthly and is provided free of charge for all dancers. For circulation, listings, club news, ads and articles, contact Ed Henning at 813-659-4787 or evhenning@peoplepc.com.
