From the Editor...

WOW! This is early! I don't know why but yesterday I had a feeling that I needed to work on it and just about had it finished. This morning at 7:30 a.m. I received a call that my mother had fallen at her facility and hit her head. The ambulance had been called and would be there in a few minutes. I dashed out and got to the hospital about the same time as the ambulance. I've been at the hospital all day and am on a break right now to get an overnight bag to spend the night there. She got three stitches in her head and had a CT, x rays, blood work and urinalysis. Everything looked ok, but her heart rhythm keeps dipping so she is having an MRI tomorrow to check for a mini-stroke. She's already had two over the past ten years. She's slightly dehydrated and is very confused. Her speech and short term memory loss is worse. So it's a good thing I got the DANCERgram done yesterday; I won't have time to work on it today or tomorrow.

"Penny, your article on Communication was fantastic! It had to hit the heart of every person reading it. And so true.....I am sure you were never aware, but when I was first learning and would be in your square I would get so nervous and it seemed like my mind would almost go blank. I had watched you glide so easily thru the Rounds and Squares in your full skirts and perfect makeup and hairdo. You never once acted annoyed or aggravated and it really helped me gain confidence. Thanks for all you do!!!"

This email was received after the last issue of the DANCERgram. I appreciate the compliments, but my point in reprinting it in this issue is that you only have one "chance" to make a good impression. If you make a negative first impression, it is almost impossible to overcome the results. If a visitor is slighted or they feel they weren't treated right, you can just about bet they won't consider coming back and they sure won't join your club! And don't be "all over them" the first time and then not pay attention to them after that. If they don't feel wanted, they won't keep coming back. And don't give up on getting them as members just because they said "no". Without being a nag, ask them again every few months; perhaps include them in your special events (if you have any) and ask them to go on your banner raids. When they "witness" what your club is like, they may reconsider membership.

Health & Sympathy

The entries listed below are for callers, cuers, West Coast Association officers and representatives and other Florida associations and Federation officers and any others who are well known to the Florida square and round dance community. Listings for others can be found on the website (www.dancergram.com – Health & Sympathy).

Don't forget to go to www.dancergram.com for additional information on West Coast dancers!

Alliance of Rounds, Traditional, and Squares (ARTS)

GUIDELINES FOR ARTS-DANCE EDUCATION GRANT PROGRAM (Revision B - August 18, 2010)

Description:

A grant program, funded by ARTS-Dance (ARTS), to encourage various dance associations and organizations to conduct Educational Seminars which would inform and educate their members and attendees about various topics related to the activity and help promote ARTS-Dance. In addition to the other topics, the seminars MUST also cover who and what ARTS is, its purposes, goals, and accomplishments

Who would be eligible? Any square, round, contra, clogging, or folk dance organization willing to present a program which includes explaining ARTS and its function in the dance community.

Review Committee:

The officers of ARTS-Dance will review the applications and determine whether they qualify for an education grant.

Terms:

The associations, organizations, or dance promoters can apply for an educational grant for up to $200.00 (or up to 50% of the costs, whichever is less) to cover the costs to present a seminar which includes a session explaining ARTS, its history, accomplishments, and current and future programs. This session can be a method to introduce ARTS to the dancing community who are not aware of ARTS, and further familiarize others with ARTS accomplishments and programs. A sign-in list of attendees must be circulated at the session, and if 10 or more attend, the session would qualify for a grant. If there are less than 10 attendees, the organization would not qualify for funds. Any consideration would be subject to availability of funds.

An organization shall be eligible for this Grant provided it has not received an ARTS Grant for a period of at least three years prior to the date of the proposed qualifying Seminar/Event.

What can the money be used for?

- 1) Convention center or meeting room costs
- 2) Presenter or leader expenses and costs
- 3) Promotion or advertising of session
- 4) General promotion of ARTS

How to apply for the grant:

The leaders must complete the Educational Grant Form, which can be obtained from any ARTS officer or can be printed from the ARTS-Dance web site: www.arts-dance.org. The application must be submitted to the ARTS Executive Director at: 943 Tamarind Circle, Rockledge, FL 32955, or Email: ExecutiveDirector@artsdance.org and must be received at least 60 days prior to the event. An estimate of expenses must be completed on the application. After review, ARTS will notify the applicant if they qualify for the grant.

Payment:

After the Educational Seminar is completed, a final Completion Report must be submitted to the ARTS Executive Director within 60 days showing actual costs associated with the session along with a copy of the list of attendees. A brief outline of the topics covered in the session should be included. Please list the name of the organization to who the payment is to be made along with the appropriate mailing address. Any consideration would be subject to availability of funds.

This E-Newsletter is published by a square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. It is published weekly with addendums as needed. New information each week is highlighted. Permission is given to forward this newsletter to your membership or others interested in receiving a copy or to provide printed copies to your members and visitors to your club. It is also available on the West Coast page of the Federation Website at www.floridasquaredance.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdncfan@aol.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, which is published bimonthly and is provided free of charge for all dancers. For circulation, listings, club news, ads and articles, contact Ed Henning at 813-659-4787 or evhenning@peoplepc.com.
