From the Editor....

Five more days! So much to do and so little time!

I hope you've made your plans to be in Lakeland this weekend for the 58th Florida State Square and Round Dance Convention. You won't want to miss this great time of dancing, renewing friendships, and making new friends.

Many of us will be in meetings throughout the weekend making plans for future conventions and conducting the business of the Florida Federation. I personally have back-to-back meetings all day Saturday and another meeting on Sunday morning and one on Monday morning.

Don't forget, you'll want to dress in the Mardi Gras theme of the convention. You can wear costumes or just square dance outfits made from Mardi Gras themed fabric.

Saturday night you will want to wear your club colors and cheer on your club representatives in the Grand March.

And Friday night you will want to see the kick-off for the 2013 convention. There will be early-bird ribbon sales for the 2013 convention on Sunday after the kick-off. You might want to take advantage of the discount prices.

Hope to see you somewhere this weekend!

Val Newsome shared this update to Charlie's diagnosis of 1 1/2 years ago (cognitive disease due to head injury) has month by month worsened. Tests have ruled out Alzheimer's, but some dementia due to the injury continues. Our latest trip to the doctor in April affected many lifestyle changes for us. There is no time limit that can be given, but brain cells continue to die off and he continues to be bothered by memory lapses, confusion, etc. We need prayers for slow progression if it be God's will, strength to cope for me, and peace for both of us. We will continue to dance as much as possible (on good days), but will be beginning to unload our responsibilities in all areas. (Reprint from Northeast Association's Joys & Concerns dated 5/19/12)
