I received this update on Charlie Newsome, past Florida Federation President: "Charlie had his injection into the L5/S1 area of the spine last Thursday. He was in a great deal of pain the rest of the day, but since Saturday his pain has decreased from a steady 10 to about a 3. He was told they could not get all the way to the nerve root due to the amount of inflammation in the area, and probably will do a second injection soon. The good news is that he is so much better and we hope to see you all Thursday night (maybe not to dance, but at least to be there)." (Reprint from Northeast Association's Joys & Concerns – 11/11/12)

Note from Joanie Hogan regarding caller RJ Hogan: Great news everyone. Joanie Hogan called this evening and told us that RJ is home. He is doing very well and feels pretty well. He is so glad to be home. She said please tell everyone how thankful they are for all the prayers good wishes and cards he has received. They are so much appreciated.
