From the Editor...

Five squares of dancers enjoyed the calling of Bob Stern, Dick DeMerritt, Dave Buys, Doug Waldren, and Marty Van Wart and the cueing of Judy and Jake Doane at our West Coast membership dance in Brooksville on Sunday afternoon. There were two squares from Polk County, which really helped the attendance. Thank you to Cloverleaf Leprechauns for hosting the dance and providing refreshments.

The next membership dance will be on Sunday, February 9th at Lake Ashton in Lake Wales. There will also be a West Coast Association meeting immediately preceding the dance and everyone is encouraged and welcome to attend.

Don't forget to go to www.dancergram.com for additional information on West Coast dancers and former dancers!

Val Newsom emailed me that the orthopedic doctor detected that L2 was cracked (broken he said), but looking at the pictures it was not a complete break; just painful. She was told to keep her back straight, no bending, no lifting; that it should heal in six to eight weeks. She has some powerful pain pills which certainly help. She won't be out and about until mid-February if then; according to the doctor anyway. Val and her husband, Charlie, are past presidents of the Florida Federation. (1/6/14)

Joe Augenblick: Retired Air Force captain spent life dancing

By Jon Busdeker, Orlando Sentinel

December 27, 2013

No one ever called Joe Augenblick a wallflower.

Whether traveling across the country for dancing conferences or instructing others, Augenblick was an avid round dancer — a form of ballroom dancing — for more than 30 years. And most of that time he spent dancing with his favorite partner: his wife, Madeline Augenblick.

"They were a striking couple on the floor," said Richard Lamberty, a family friend who learned how to dance from the Augenblicks. "They had a love of dancing their whole lives."

Augenblick, a longtime Orlando resident who moved to Lakeland in recent years, died Dec. 15. He was 93.

Born in San Francisco, Augenblick grew up in Vancouver, Wash. The son of a U.S. Army Air Corps musician, Augenblick enlisted in the Air Corps — a precursor to the U.S. Air Force — in 1940. Working in various roles, including drill instructor, Augenblick came to Orlando Army Air Base in 1943.

On his first night in Central Florida, Augenblick attended a USO dance, where he met Madeline Bogard. In an autobiography meant for his family, Augenblick wrote that he asked the "nice looking blonde girl" to dance. "We have been dancing together ever since," Augenblick wrote. But it would be two more years before the couple would marry. Later in 1943, Augenblick was transferred to India and didn't return to Orlando until 1945. The couple kept up through letters, said his daughter-in-law Elsie Augenblick. Once married, the Augenblicks had two sons. The couple settled in Orlando's Coytown neighborhood in the 1950s, staying there for more than a half-century. Son John Augenblick, 63, of Lakeland said his dad was a member of the Elks, the Masons and Emmanuel Episcopal Church. He also enjoyed tennis.

After 25 years in the Air Force, Augenblick, who spent much of his career in family services, retired as a captain. He continued working as a civil servant into the 1970s. But it was dancing that kept Augenblick and his wife busy. The couple were known internationally for round dancing. Much like square dancing, round dancing has someone calling the steps. The dances are done in unison and are often complex.

For decades, the couple taught round dancing to thousands of beginners and intermediates at several venues in Orlando, including a facility at Trotters Park and the Beardall Senior Center. The couple even put an addition — with hardwood floors — on their house in order to practice dancing.

Lamberty, their friend, said he spent so much time with the couple that they often referred to him as their third son. Lamberty, 54, of Orlando now teaches round dance. "I could never repay all that they have given me," he said.

On Valentine's Day 2007, Augenblick and his wife moved into a retirement home in Miami, where they continued dancing for as long as they could. Augenblick's wife died in 2012. A little more than year later, Augenblick, after suffering advanced dementia, died a day shy of his 94th birthday. Elsie Augenblick said the couple are "dancing up there now."

In addition to son John, Augenblick is survived by four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home, Ivanhoe Chapel, Orlando, is handling arrangements.

Donna Hendricks was hospitalized with congestive heart failure. She expects to be sent home in the next day or two. If you would like to send a card, her address is 5150 Mt. Plymouth Road, Apopka, FL 32712. Donna and her husband, Dewey, are past presidents of the Florida Federation, and Donna is chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee. (1/3/14)

60th Florida State Square and Round Dance Convention

Our convention Chairmen, the mother-daughter team of Penny and Jenny Green have advised the following. There will be dangle dances at the convention this year. Since these dances are quite popular, we want you to be sure and look at the program when you arrive at the convention so you won't miss these events. The caller scheduling meeting was a success and we believe everyone will enjoy the new programming layout. Along with this, we can report we have at least five vendors so far.

Now to registration: If you have not registered yet send in your $27.00 per person now to Mary Lee Van Valkenburg, 4237 Promenade Blvd., Plant City, FL 33563. And, don't forget to make those reservations for your hotel room. Host hotel is the Ramada Lakeland Center (863-688-8080). For you campers, the host campground is Lakeland RV at $18.50 per night with after parties every night. They are asking that reservations be made no later than 15 days prior to the convention.

The winner of the Jared's Galleria Raffle was Shirley Bonvisuto. Congratulations! Now in the works is a new raffle for a $500 prepaid Visa Gift Card to be given away at the Convention.

Here is some information for the Honor Guard for the State Convention. On Saturday night an Honor Guard posts the colors to start the ceremonies. This Honor Guard is chosen from dancers who have served in the U.S. Armed Forces. They are not required to wear a uniform – red, white and/or blue square dance attire is okay. One veteran from each branch of the service will be selected to carry their service flag. And another veteran will be chosen to carry the U.S. Flag. The Convention Chairmen selects from a master list each year. If you are interested in participating, please contact Ailene Picheco by email apicheco@att.net or call 321-652-0680. She will need your name, address, phone number, email address, and branch of service.

The Committee continues to work hard to make this a real Diamond Delight for the whole weekend. You don't want to miss it. PLEASE get registered now.

Charlie and Val Newsome, Publicity Chairman
