Bob Keefe, caller in northeast Florida: OK - latest update from the House of Recovery. We went to see Bobby's pulmonologist yesterday. The scheduling for the next (lung) surgery rests on his clearance and he wants to give Bobby another 6 weeks to build up his strength and endurance. Thank God!! Bobby is going to cardiovascular physical therapy 3 times weekly in Orange Park at 1 1/2 hours per session. Today marks two weeks down and the therapists are really putting him through his paces. He is much stronger but I'd like to see him even stronger and I'm glad that was Dr. Millstone's decision too. Please keep up your prayers and well wishes - encouragement is a great tool - it's easy to get down when things aren't moving along as you think they should. June Keefe

Val and Charlie Newsome, past Federation Presidents and Northeast Association Presidents: Charlie had his third eye surgery yesterday (the right eye had to be redone), and it appears that all went well. We are, of course, in the midst of the eye drops every 2 hours, meds 4 times and the "wait & see" if this was successful, but at this time it is looking better. Praise God! We have been struggling with his bad vision and surgeries since mid-February. We sincerely hope that after this healing we will be able to get out at night and back to dancing some at least. I received my clearance from the broken vertebrae about 10 days ago and though I still am healing for another 3 months at least I have not had to have surgery. Now, I am into walking and building up strength so that I will be able to function normally. Thanks for all your calls, thoughts and prayers. Val Newsome

Phyllis Williams

Phyllis Edwards Williams

Titusville, FL

Phyllis Edwards Williams was born April 18, 1924 in Grand Forks, North Dakota. She was a homemaker and worked as Administrative Officer, Intelligence and security at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, AL, transferring to NASA at Kennedy Space Center in aerospace technology field. She was a sustaining member of Parish Medical Center Auxiliary, lifetime member Friends of Mims/Scottsmoor Library, member 1st Baptist Church in Titusville, teacher of Round Dancing, caller for three square clubs: Pirates of Apopka, Orlando Singles and Happy Squares of Titusville. Published in FLORIDA TODAY on Apr. 1, 2014

Harry Packer, husband of Caller SusanElaine Packer, is doing better. They say he is progressing faster than most people do. He walks on a cane, but should give that up in a few weeks. He has memory loss, that's both good and bad. He is much happier, not worrying about things anymore. I had to cancel everything up to May. I have a calling date and 3 conventions. Harry will be going with me. We'll see how that goes. They say Harry should be able to take care of himself by later this year. All we can do is wait and see. His left arm is weak which we are working on and he needs to learn to drive again, but he's in no hurry to try. He is helping with more things around the house. All and all things are slowly getting back to normal.

We received the following information from Dana Schirmer, Executive Secretary for the CALLERLAB Foundation. The information describes a video project being created by Shareen Anderson. Shareen is the granddaughter of Varene Anderson who, along with her husband was instrumental in the first National Squarer Dance Convention.

Please take a look at the video at the URL below. If you feel like making a donation to this project, there is a link to Kickstarter.

Here is the information from the CALLERLAB Foundation:

The Foundation Executive Directors received the following from Shareen Anderson who is requesting funds to help produce a documentary film on square dancing. The CALLERLAB Foundation has donated $250 to the project. The following is presented for your information.

From Shareen Anderson:

I'm a documentary filmmaker based in New York City and back in 2001, I started to work on a film about my grandmother, Varene Anderson, and her passion for square dancing. She started the first national square dancing convention in Riverside, California together with my grandfather and two other couples. While filming her story, I began to discover the fascinating world of square dancing, and the wonderful people who are involved. My film came to a standstill when my grandmother died, but I'm now back on the project and plan to finish it at the end of the year. My goal is to put it on YouTube, Vimeo, and other video websites (free of charge). As I don't plan to make any money from selling it, I'm trying to raise funds for editing. I've cut a fundraising trailer and have created a funding page on Kickerstarter.com. It's an easy way for individuals to donate to a project. They can donate as little as $1, so there's no pressure to donate a lot of money. What I need is help getting the word out to square dancers and callers so they can take a look and decide if it's something they would like to support.

If you click here, you'll find my fundraising video:
<https://www.kickstarter.com/projects/shareenanderson/squares-a-documentary-film>

Here, you'll find the project on my website:
http://www.fortgreenefilmworks.com/projects_squares.html

You'll be able to read about me and my past films on my website:
http://www.fortgreenefilmworks.com/whos_who_shareen_anderson.html

Please feel free to share these links with others. It would be very helpful if you're able to send an email about my film to the community. Even if people are not able to donate, making them aware of the project would mean a lot to me.

Thanks again, and kind regards,

Shareen Anderson
