From the Editor...

Please make plans to attend the West Coast Association Dance on Sunday at 11:30 a.m. This meeting will be held at the Strawberry Square Dance Center preceding our annual VIP Dance. This is a very important meeting so we would appreciate your support of our association. We will be holding our annual elections, and as far as I know, we still don't have candidates for president or secretary. So, in addition to elections I am sure there will be some discussion about the future of our association.

We didn't have a quorum at our last meeting in February so we were unable to vote on anything and if we don't have a quorum at the meeting Sunday, we won't be able to vote for officers. If we don't have candidates for these two offices, we will not be able to continue as an association. This will mean that we lose our seat on the Florida Federation Board, we will no longer have a West Coast Dancer, the lines of communication between the clubs will be broken, it may affect our square dance insurance coverage, and the clubs in our area will be left to fend for themselves.

Is this what you want? We have lost about six clubs in the past six to eight months and without an Association to keep us together, we will probably start losing any more.

The VIP Dance is FREE to everyone. This is the dance where we will be recognizing our volunteers who have been working diligently to keep our activity alive and it is also the kick off for our annual Fall Fun Fest in November.
