Keeping Those New Dancers

When new dancers walk into the door of your hall to join you for the first time, what do you think is running through their minds? Think back, if possible, to the first time you walked into a hall to learn to square dance. If a friend, relative, coworker, or neighbor brought you and introduced you to others in attendance, you were lucky. If you were courageous enough to walk in by yourself, how you were treated and received probably made a big difference in your decision to stay or leave and never come back.

They say that we only get one chance to make a first impression, so let's take a good look at not only what it takes to make that first impression a positive one, but what it takes to keep our new dancers coming back week after week and becoming new friends and members of our club.

There are a few things that already need to be in place when you open the doors for the first time to your new dancer program. When there are more than a few members of your club helping and attending your new dancer dances, it's extremely important to make assignments ahead of time. If no one is asked specifically to do a job, it probably won't get done so make sure to have a written list of those members helping out.

Surely a person or couple will be taking names, money, and personal information of those attending as they come in the door, but what about the other important things going on? At least a couple of people (ideally as many as four to six members) need to be assigned to act as host and hostess positioned around the entrance and inside after your new dancers sign in. These folks are not only verbally welcoming everyone coming in the door, they are introducing themselves, exchanging and learning names, and introducing people to one another.

Get to know your new dancers a little as individuals. Knowing some personal information about new acquaintances helps you remember their names, because you can associate a visual or mental image about them. It also gives you the opportunity to share some of that personal information with others as you introduce them, and it will in turn help those folks who have like experiences or hobbies to more easily converse with each other. This "social tuning" can really get a good verbal buzz going before people even start to dance and it can make the evening even more fun. Successful clubs have done this at their regular dances for years as a way of welcoming and getting to know their guests while getting their dance nights started.

Try to make each "new dancer dance" or "new dancer evening" a party. It may sound like more work, but everyone likes going to a party and it will give your new dancers another reason to come back week after week. Celebrate Square Dance Month in September, celebrate the first day of fall, celebrate Columbus Day, Halloween and on and on. Put up some simple decorations and you'll find it really makes it seem like a party is going on. These are simple things that can be delegated to members of your club. Be sure to involve your new dancers later on down the line.

Always have food available and when possible have the food you serve go along with the theme of the party for the evening. Food and square dancing go together and it always seems like more of a party when there is food. You can also use the food you serve for your theme. Have a Fruit Night, Pie Night, Men's Cake Bake and so on. Use your imagination, have fun with the food and themes you choose, but keep it simple so that no one feels burdened or inconvenienced.

Bob Osgood (the long time editor of Sets In Order square dance magazine and the caller leader that started CALLERLAB) said long ago that, "The dance is the bricks that our club and our dance nights are built with, but the social fun is the mortar that holds all the bricks together. Pay some real attention to the detail that makes up the social part of your club and dance events and the extra effort will really pay off in the long run.

Many leaders in our activity have been very careful in the last 10 to 20 years to eliminate certain words from our vocabulary that might be offensive or have a negative effect on your members and new dancers. Used to think we were just being too picky, but I have seen this change really have an impact on my own new dancers, and I know believe that it really does make a difference.

The first one is calling a new dancer a “class member”, “Student”, “greenie”, or something like that. They are “New dancers”, because they’re dancing the first time the music starts and should be recognized for that. Although this may sound like a small thing, it subconsciously recognizes their accomplishments and unlike some of the other terms above, it much more positive.

I also found that by welcoming new dancers the first night to the “(Your Club’s Name) New Dancer Dance”, that I had a much more positive impact than when I previously welcomed them to the “(Your Club’s Name) New Dancer Class”. It’s much more motivating to your new dancers to come back week after week to a dance than (yawn) another class. Think about it, would you rather go to a party every week to dance or go to the class?

What’s Happening This Week?

This E-Newsletter is published by a square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. It is published weekly with addendums as needed. New information each week is highlighted. Permission is given to forward this newsletter to your membership or others interested in receiving a copy or to provide printed copies to your members and visitors to your club. It is also available on the West Coast page of the Federation Website at www.floridasquaredance.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdncfan@aol.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, which is published bimonthly and is provided free of charge for all dancers. For circulation, listings, club news, ads and articles, contact Ed Henning at 813-659-4787 or evhenning@peoplepc.com.
