From the Editor...

The final numbers are in for the state fair square dancing – 236 dancers, 10 callers and three cuers; three clubs didn't show up.

Next weekend will be a busy time for square dancing. Saturday night, February 28th, there will be a benefit dance for the 61st Florida State Convention. It will be held at Whirl & Twirl in Orlando (details below). Two great callers and a great cuers are scheduled for the evening so come join us. This dance is being held in conjunction with the Florida Federation's Work Day.

Also on Saturday night is the Wilkeson Family benefit dance at Bay Area Twirlers (BATS) in Brandon. Allen Snell will be calling and Charlie Lovelace will be cueing. The Wilkersons just lost their husband, father, and grandfather, Dan Wilkerson. Show them how square dancers are family and we take care of our own.

Sunday, March 1st is the annual Suncoast Callers & Cuers Association Beginners Ball at Strawberry Square Dance Center. If your club is sponsoring a class, please bring them to this fun class level (rounds and squares) dance. You notice I said "bring them". They probably won't come on their own so you need to bring them and stay and dance with them. By this time your class should have learned all the mainstream calls and now they need some floortime.

Monday, March 2nd is the Polk Senior Games at the Lake Ashton Clubhouse in Lake Wales. The competition is at 1:30 and the free dance is from 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. Keith Stevens will be calling and Carl Rod will be cueing.

Dancers flock to Strawberry Square for fun, fitness, friends

Flo Byington of Tampa cuts a rug with Phil Harris of Plant City at Strawberry Square, a community that regularly hosts square dances and classes.

By D'ANN LAWRENCE WHITE
 Special Correspondent

PLANT CITY As the clock strikes 7 on Saturday night, a steady stream of men sporting bolo ties and women dressed in petticoats topped by brightly colored circle skirts pour into Strawberry Square.

Although the dance hall is tucked off a remote country road west of Plant City, the secluded location hasn't prevented nearly 70 senior citizens from making their way to Strawberry Square, some traveling from as far away as Sebring and Davenport.

"We're Plant City's best-kept secret," said Cherylene Sorrells of Plant City, who co-chairs the Strawberry Square Dance Committee with her husband, Wayne. "People come from all over the area to dance here."

The main attraction is the dance hall's floating hardwood floor, Wayne Sorrells said.

"It's one of just a few in the state," said Sorrells, noting that floating floors absorb shock better and, therefore, are more comfortable for dancing.

But that's only part of the draw, said Barbara Huff of Plant City, who formerly co-chaired the dance committee with her husband, Don.

"It's good, clean fun, great exercise and an inexpensive night out," said Huff, noting that the hall's alcohol-free and smoke-free environment is appreciated by the avid dancers who flock to Strawberry Square.

However, for many of the seniors who frequent the dance hall, it's the social aspect of dancing that holds the greatest allure.

The Huffs met 54 years ago at a square dance in Dayton, Ohio. That meeting led to their wedding with a square dance reception. They've continued dancing throughout their marriage.

"We're here at least two nights a week," Don Huff said.

Like the Sorrells and the Huffs, Ed House lives in Strawberry Square mobile home park, which owns and maintains the dance hall within the park's boundaries. A dancer for 23 years, House now teaches the highest level of square dance classes, called Challenge dancing, at Strawberry Square.

"We've traveled all over the country to dance and, wherever we go, we always have an immediate collection of friends," House said.

Soon to be married, Bob Ormsbee and Flo Byington of Tampa also met on the dance floor.

"A friend in the military service took me to my first dance years ago and I loved it," Ormsbee said. "Later, I started calling. It's a great way to meet people. I've never met a person on the dance floor who wasn't nice."

Now 94 years old, Wayne Lewis of Sebring met his partner on and off the dance floor, C.J. Wiggin, while dancing as well.

But beyond finding romance and friends while performing a do-si-do, Lewis is convinced that square dancing is responsible for keeping him active at an age when others have succumbed to arthritis pains and memory loss.

“Square dancing not only keeps you physically fit, but it keeps your brain sharp and active,” said Lewis, who dances three nights a week. “You have to concentrate on what the caller is saying and then respond correctly. “

House agreed.

“I think every senior citizen should be square dancing,” he said. “It’s good for the mind and body.”

“The type of square dancing we do here is a lot different than the barn-style hoe-downs you normally associate with square dancing,” caller Mike Cox of Ruskin said. “We perform Modern Western square dancing, which is a more contemporary style.”

Although Modern Western square dancing is still performed in groups of four couples, the callers entertain the dancers with impromptu commands they either call out (pitter calls) or sing.

And it’s not unusual for Modern Western callers to substitute the traditional fiddle music with disco music or show tunes.

As a result, said Cox, Modern Western square dancing has a wider appeal.

Strawberry Square has attracted as many as 140 dancers on a single night, said Wayne Sorrells.

The dance hall also offers round dancing.

Although the types of round dances are the same as ballroom dances (rumbas, waltzes, foxtrots and cha-chas), round dancing is led by a cuer who directs the dancers through a choreographed sequence of steps that the dancer must memorize.

“Between our Plus Dances, special-occasion dances and our classes, we have something going on here seven days a week,” said Wayne Sorrells.

Strawberry Square, 4401 Promenade Blvd., was founded in 1979 by and for people who like to square dance. The community offers beginning to Challenge classes and workshops in addition to dances open to the public. The cost ranges from $5 to $7 per person and includes refreshments.

Although traditional square dance attire is not a requirement, Strawberry Square also has an apparel store and consignment shop open Monday through Friday from 9:30 a.m. to noon and during all dances.

Strawberry Square is currently accepting registrations for summer dance classes. Call Bob Switzer at (813) 719-3803 or (413) 454-4482 or Lee Hall at (231) 349-0907 for information.

CASTING CALL # 8

Judy Anderson
Director of Publicity

While trying to conjure up something interesting to write about this month I was given an article entitled:

FLORIDA STATE CONVENTION HAPPENINGS Sub-titled: "A NOTE TO NEW DANCERS"

Quote: "You can dance your feet off at a State Convention. By Memorial Day Weekend, Convention time, you will be able to dance in the Basic Hall or the Mainstream Hall. A few of you may be ready for the Plus Hall; it's which ever you feel comfortable in."

Here is a synopsis of each evening's activities:

"Friday Night is the time that most Florida State Dresses are worn but if you are not a member of the Florida Federation, not to worry or fret, just wear whatever outfit you want to show off.

Saturday Night is the "Grand March" and is considered to be Club Dress night. Wear your Club Outfit, if you have one, otherwise again wear another of your own choosing. Each club is represented by one square of dancers who will carry your club's banner in the Grand March and then they will dance the first tip of the evening.

Sunday Night is the night when the next years Convention Organizers will put on a little show (Or as we call it – a Kick-Off) for their Convention. Dress for this night is of your own choosing.

You will not feel uneasy after your first tip or two because you will find you are as good as anyone there – just ask anyone who has been there about their first time experience. We have all been “new dancers” and attended our “first” convention. You can dance your feet off and visit with friends but you will also make some really nice new friends from all over the State.

Come see what we are talking about. We are convinced you will enjoy yourself and feel you have gotten your money’s worth for a full weekend of dancing, fun and entertainment. You will have a good time – we promise”. Unquote. So get your Registration Form sent in now before the price goes up on May 1st. Check your clubs flyer table or go to <http://www.floridasquaredance.com/convention/> to find everything you need about the convention.

Here is a little reminder for those of you attending the Trail-In Dance on Thursday evening--- have all of you Clark Gables and Elizabeth Taylors got your costumes ready for the “Parade of Starts”? Let’s see just how creative your imagination is for dreaming up the best outfits. There will be several prizes awarded.

And don’t forget to purchase your “Name Star” for our Wall of Fame at the Convention center. To purchase one contact Jack or Barbara Hoffman, jackbarb@juno.com for the needed information. Only $5.00 each and you get to take the Star home with you at the end of the convention. So will we see you there????
