CASTING CALL # 9

Judy Anderson
 Director of Publicity

Do you like to earn danglers? Those little round thingies to hang on your clubs badge? Would you like to earn some “special”, really “special” danglers? Ones that no one else will have? If so come into the Mainstream Hall both Saturday and Sunday afternoons as Sheila Reid has some really interesting and clever ways of earning these “special danglers”. It wouldn’t be fair to tell you what she is planning, couldn’t anyway as I’m not all that sure of all of the shenanigans she is planning. Whatever paces she wants to put you through you will be guaranteed a fun and hilarious time. And the caller line up is pretty terrific too. These callers have all called for our danglers dances before and all did request to do it again as they had as much fun as the dancers. This year we again have Rod Barngrover, Bill Boyd, Ellis Lindsey, and Dave Muller who will try to help (or confuse) you but all making sure you have a side splitting great time.

Let me tell you a little about Sheila. She is a relatively new dancer, having completed her instructions just about 3 years ago. She is so effervescent and enthusiastic about square dancing that she has jumped in with both feet running and almost can't be stopped. She helped me last year doing dangles and is so thrilled to be heading up the fun and games time this year. If you dangle danced last year you will remember her. She was the one who was running around cheering and giggling and smiling from ear to ear. She had as much fun as the dancers did! Make plans to try this fun time activity especially if you are a "new-bee" to square dancing conventions.

Are you a "Single" dancer? Well, please do come to the Convention as there will be a "Special Singles Hall" on Friday evening geared for all single dancers. Come meet Shirley White, our Singles Director. She will be delighted to help you to meet other single dancers who will be looking for a partner just like you. There are good callers and good cuers scheduled to make this a fun beginning for your dancing weekend activities. There also is an area in each of the main dance halls set aside for single/solo dancers to congregate the rest of the week-end and, hopefully, dance a tip or two with someone new.

It is getting closer to the Convention so here are a couple of reminders for you procrastinators: There are still a few (very few) rooms left at the Host Hotel, the Ramada Lakeland Hotel. Phone: 863-688-8080, ask for the "Square Dancers Rate of $65.00". If you are a camper: The "Carefree Lakeland RV Resort" is only $20.00 per night. Phone: 863-687-6146 or you can call Vinnie and Lorraine Piccora, Camper Directors, at 386-427-0174. They are a wealth of information. For the Program Book: Personal Messages are still being accepted for only $10.00 each for a 1/6 page comment, that's a business card size. Mail check to Ailene Picheco, 345 Hula Circle, Merritt Island, FL 32952 and be sure to tell her your favorite movie star. Registration forms for this event are within the confines of this magazine. Just fill it out and mail in your money to Randy & Carol Poole. Phone: 386-734-5295 if you would like more information.

Well, TTFN until the last "Casting Call" in May
