How To Look Good When You Are Dancing

By Ed Foote

Many people watch you while you dance: others in the set, dancers and visitors on the sidelines, and the caller. Do you impress them with good styling and appearance? We all want to look good to others when we dance – here is how to do it.

1. GOOD DANCE HABITS

- A. Keep your head raised. Do not look at the floor. In addition to giving you a good appearance, it also lets you see what is going on in the entire set, and this will result in fewer breakdowns. Also, stand erect – do not slouch.
- B. Take hands immediately after every call. This allows everyone in the square to be aware of the formation, and aids in proper execution of the next call, thereby averting a possible breakdown of the set.
- C. Eliminate rough dancing. Such techniques as hip-bumping, jumping, extra swinging and twirling, kicking, etc., are seen as great fun by some dancers. They tend to do these actions when other dances are not doing them, often disrupting the timing of the dancers who wish to dance smoothly. Rule: All eight dancers should work together as a group, using the same styling as the majority of the square.

- D. Dance 1 time to the music. Some people, concerned about doing a figure correctly, have a tendency to rush through the steps. If you do your part of a call too quickly, others may not see their position and cause your set to breakdown. It is better to relax and move to the beat of the music. Rule: Dance 2-4 beats behind the caller.
- E. Counterdance. This means moving your body so the transition from one call to another is made smoothly. It also means adjusting slightly to allow others room to do a call. (Example: heads move forward and back when the sides are told to Promenade Halfway.) Think of flowing smoothly through the calls.

2. STYLING AND DRESS

- B. GIRLS: Use skirt work. It really makes you look distinctive.
  - 1. How to hold skirt: Let your free hand hang at the side of your skirt. Grasp your skirt where your hand is, bend your elbow, lift your hand slightly above your waist, roll your hand backward 90° so that your palm is facing up with your skirt on top of your palm (you should not be able to see your hand).
  - 2. When to use skirt work:
    - a. On Weave the Ring. It looks beautiful and is outstanding. Do the skirt work very slowly. Alternately raise and lower the skirt on the side nearest the man you are passing. Do not swish the skirt swiftly from side-to-side – skirt work should be elegant.
    - b. On Promenade. Consider only holding the man's right hand with your left hand and using your right hand to raise your skirt. It looks great.
    - c. If you are the end of a line. Use skirt work with your free hand when the caller says "up to the middle and back."
    - d. On Right and Left Thru and Ladies Chain. On the pull by, use left skirt work; on the Courtesy Turn, use right skirt work.
    - e. On selected calls, when you are on the outside of the set. For example: Circulate, Load the Boat, Allemande Thar and Wrong-way Thar, Pass Thru, Wheel and Deal.
    - f. On Teacup Chain. Use skirt work with your free hand.
- C. GIRLS: Wear a full or semi-full petticoat. It gives your dress a crisper look than a limp one would, and presents an overall better appearance.

- D. BOYS: Remove western hat while dancing. Wearing a western hat indoors is improper etiquette, and conveys the old-fashioned image of square dancing that modern western dancing is trying to eliminate.
3. POOR DANCE HABITS
- A. Not taking hands immediately after every call.
- B. Rushing through a Grand Square, using only 12-14 beats for each half of the call instead of 16 beats. Thus, dancers finish in 26-28 beats when they should not finish until the 32nd beat. If dancers have time to Swing their partner halfway through or at the end of the call, then call is not being danced in time to the music. Solution: Allow 4 beats for each 4 steps of the Grand Square.
- C. Ignoring the music. Dancers will lose the rhythm by:\
1. Hip-bumping or high-kicking on a right and Left Grand.
  2. Side-jumping or hopping on a Grand Square.
  3. Walking the calls rather than dancing them. The difference between walking and dancing: Walking – the heel of your foot touches the ground first. Dancing – the front of your foot touches the grounds first. (Glide on the balls of your feet.)
- D. Being sloppy on position. Instead of occupying a position firmly, dancers are hesitant and either over-turn or under-turn the move.
- E. Moving up to the middle and back (from facing lines) when the caller has not said to do so. The fact that the caller says to “make a line” or “you have lines,” does not mean that dancers should move up and back. This throws the timing off for everyone in the set, because the caller has usually timed the next command to flow smoothly from the previous command. Dancers should only move “up and back” if this is called by the caller. Rule: Do exactly what the caller says; do not add anything or leave anything out.
- F. Centers of facing lines slapping hands. When the caller says “up to the middle and back,” hands should always be joined with adjacent dancers to maintain formation awareness. If the centers patticake hands, they probably won’t hold hands with the adjacent center on other calls either.
- G. Doing an improper Do Sa Do by swinging the person in front instead of going back-to-back with them. This action demonstrates a disregard of, and lack of concern for, the correct definition of the call. Also, most people who do a “swinging Do Sa Do” will automatically form a wave, but this is not the correct ending position – the correct ending position is two people facing. So if people automatically form a wave, they could be out of position for the next call, thus causing the set to breakdown.

Healing from PTSD one do-si-do at a time

Square-dancing is helping some local military veterans heal one do-si-do at a time. (Source: Miles Jackson/WAVE 3 News)

LOUISVILLE, KY (WAVE) - You could say it's the music, or the fancy footwork, that draws them in.

"The Serenade," Kenneth Frye lists. "Swing your partner."

"I never thought I'd learn to do-si-do," Ted Spencer laughed.

But Spencer and others have learned the square-dance move thanks to a local initiative called "Dancing Well: The Soldier Project." The goal of the program is to restore the well-being of veterans and families affected by Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and brain injury through community dance. Basically, they can tune out their battles by tuning into the beat.

Dancing Well's organizer, Deborah Denenfeld, said the idea started as a way to help improve soldiers' memories. She quickly realized it also lowered pain, reduced anxiety, reconnected bonds and got veterans active in the community.

"When I first came out here, I'd been isolated for quite a while," Spencer said.

Spencer, an Army Veteran with PTSD is working towards recovery one step at a time.

"I had a couple traumatic events happen while I was in the service and never really dealt with them," he said.

Spencer isn't alone.

"Sometimes I have nightmares, and then I have some medications (that) can trigger it too," Frye, a retired Army medic said.

Frye is battling a long list of ailments, from PTSD to cancer. But looking at him dance, you would never know.

"I usually don't go square dance, but then I said, 'You know, this is fun,'" he said.

Added Spencer: "I was here dancing three minutes and I had a great grin on my face and I looked around and the other vets were grinning, the volunteers were grinning."

It's even inspired one veteran to sign up as a volunteer.

"I know some of the things that help them and I hope I can incorporate it and help these people in that way too," Nathan Weston said.

After this go-around, Denenfeld hopes to turn things up again soon, as long as the veterans are willing to give it a chance.

"If the vets would do that, they would fall in love with it, just like I did," Spencer said.

The dancing is free for veterans and their families. The location is disclosed after speaking with an organizer.

Denenfeld is in need of donations to keep the program going. It costs about $5,000 to run each series, which includes 10 sessions.

This E-Newsletter is published by a square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. It is published weekly with addendums as needed. New information each week is highlighted. Permission is given to forward this newsletter to your membership or others interested in receiving a copy or to provide printed copies to your members and visitors to your club. It is also available on the West Coast page of the Federation Website at www.floridasquaredance.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdncfan@gmail.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, which is published bimonthly and is provided free of charge for all dancers. For circulation, listings, club news, ads and articles, contact Ed Henning at 813-659-4787 or evhenning99@gmail.com.
