2016 Fall Fun Fest

Hey all you square and round dancers! Be sure to save November 11 and 12 for the 42nd Annual Fall Fun Fest at the Bartow Civic Center in Bartow, Florida!

We promise you a great time dancing to renowned callers, Tom Miller and Jack Lewis, and Cuer, Susan Snider. Ask anyone who has danced to them and they'll tell you not to miss it!

Friday and Saturday evenings we have two halls for your dancing pleasure. One hall will be Mainstream / Plus alternating with Rounds. The other hall will be A2. Saturday during the day there will be morning and afternoon workshops in both Squares and Rounds.

Lodging is available at the Hampton Inn (863) 535-5007, Holiday Inn (863) 533-8070, and Stay Inn & Suites (863) 533-0711. Be sure to ask for the Square Dance Rate.

We look forward to seeing you in a square!

We Were Wrong

When DSL Promotions took over the publication of the Zip Coder in January of 2013, we thought the most difficult aspects of the task were improving the looks of the product, keeping track of subscriptions and maintaining a consistent publication schedule. We were wrong!

Utilizing the expertise of Express Press, improving the appearance of Zip Coder proved to be relatively easy – we just did our normal, day-to-day “thing.” With the dedication and accounting skills that Rick and Sue Sylvester brought to the table, subscriptions, while not a piece of cake, was an orderly and highly regimented process which has worked perfectly. Maintaining a consistent production schedule was just a matter of discipline on the part of all four of us – something we were used to when running weekends and other special events in the square dance world.

So, what is the most difficult facet of publishing the Zip Coder? Believe it or not, it is getting articles to publish – any articles.

Typically, we have to scrape, beg and search for something which is worthy of publishing. In our opinion, this just should not be, given all the talent which exists in our square dance world. We have people in our hobby who have experience, ability, knowledge, ideas, involvement, understanding, etc. – plenty enough to produce an article – at least once a year.

Well, what does it take to write an article? Not much really – just think of a topic you are comfortable discussing and write about it. Don’t be concerned with grammar, sentence structure, spelling, etc. – we will take care of that for you if needed. Your part is to decide on something you have some knowledge about and which may be of interest to the Advanced/Challenge Square Dance Community – then hop on your computer and bang out two, three or four pages (more if the subject warrants it). Send us the digital file and we will do the rest.

Okay, you ask, what kinds of subject matter is appropriate? It can be anything relevant to Zip Coder readers – for instance:

- Analyze a particular definition
- Tell a story about an event you attended
- Write about your favorite Advanced/Challenge Caller
- Promote a weekend which you think others would enjoy
- Explain how you decided to get into our activity
- Why do you stay in the activity
- Write some different choreography which others may enjoy
- How do you run your tape/computer group or workshop
- How have you handled a sensitive problem which arose
- Something humorous

- How you got someone interested in square dancing
- A square dance trip (cruise, auto, motorcycle, etc.) you took
- An interesting after-party
- Ways to improve our activity
- Anything which may be of interest to dancers – or even non-dancers – just interesting

We have thousands of dancers who enjoy and benefit from our activity – and every one of you is capable of creating an article of interest – why not sit down right now and write that article.

The value and the future of the Zip Coder depends on you!

This E-Newsletter is published by a square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. It is published weekly with addendums as needed. New information each week is highlighted. Permission is given to forward this newsletter to your membership or others interested in receiving a copy or to provide printed copies to your members and visitors to your club. It is also available on the West Coast page of the Federation Website at www.floridasquaredance.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdncfan@gmail.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, which is published bimonthly and is provided free of charge for all dancers. For circulation, listings, club news, ads and articles, contact Ed Henning at 813-659-4787 or evhenning99@gmail.com.
