The On-Going Saga Pen & Gwen's Travels

Chapter 2

Pen and Gwen have started to make their plans for the long journey back to Southern Florida from the South Pole, hoping to arrive in time for the 53rd Florida State Convention in 2017. Things were running pretty smoothly gathering supplies they thought they would need for the trip. They were really smart when they decided to borrow the GPS “thingy” from Shannon Penguin. You remember penguin who volunteered penguins back to the South And she did a great job. did they encounter any weather, so Pen and Gwen borrowing her GPS.

As Pen and Gwen were Madagascar where they Gwen found out from one convention had changed the dates and now would be dancing earlier than anticipated. They found out the dates had been changed to March 24 & 25, 2017. That's two months earlier than they expected, well – what to do? Nothing to do, but get the show on the road or rather “on the ocean” ASAP. Gwen really starts packing what she thought they needed for the long trip. One of the things she packed was her new “What Should I Bring to the Dance” cookbook. When questioned why a cookbook, Gwen's smug reply was, “You just never know when you might need a quick snack to munch on.” This is the cookbook that Terri Little and Elsa Huddleston, one of the Emperor Penguins, planned and sold at this last convention. When Pen protested she just reminded him of the delicious Chocolate chip Shortbread recipe (page 84) that was one of his favorites, also the Carrot Dog recipe (page 170), another yummy favorite.

about ready to leave, by way of had cousins they wanted to visit, of the Penguinette's that the

Finally ready to leave they decided to take one last dip in the Antarctic Ocean with their friends. Penguin George Knapp was there at the time. He thought it just too cute to see Gwen gingerly sticking her toe in the icy cold water so much so (it's Winter down there you know) that he took a picture and painted it. That picture is now the logo for the 2017 Convention. Pen just stood there laughing as he held her hand.

Hoping to catch the early outgoing tide, Pen and Gwen said their hasty good-byes and were off swimming towards Madagascar. Their plans being to spend some time resting and visiting with cousins Rico and Skipper Kowalski and may be little Private if they were around. Then plunging back into the ocean for the long trip to the United States and finally South Florida.

Getting to Know Us – Cincinnati

Majestically regal, Cincinnati sits elegantly resplendent on the north bank of the Ohio River and is fondly known as the Queen City of the Midwest. Founded in December 1778 and incorporated as a city in 1819, Cincinnati’s German heritage is also widely celebrated today as it was 200 years ago. Always a river city, Cincinnati’s early economic development and prime location the Ohio River played a major role as steamboats and barges transported goods south to Louisville or east to Pittsburgh creating a bridge of industrial growth and development.

Historically unique and beautifully created Italianate Architecture located in Over the Rhine and in many aristocratic buildings such as Music Hall and The Cincinnati Hotel bring an old age charm to a new age city bursting at the seams in economic development. A genuine southern hospitality welcomes travelers from across town and across the world to the little, big city in the Midwest that is home to 300,000 people.

The home of the 66th NSDC is the Duke Energy Convention Center and, as the name implies, energy is what this exciting venue is all about. Located downtown in the heart of the Queen City, the beautiful and contemporary Duke Energy Convention Center features over 750,000 square feet and is designated just for the 2017 NSDC. Your Round Dancing experience in the stunning Grand Ballroom will make you feel like you are truly ‘Dancing with the Stars’.

Three main host hotels located within steps of the Duke Energy Convention Center will offer our dancers all the comforts of home in a luxury setting. Five new hotels providing more than 3,000 additional rooms are the planning states and will be open when Ohio welcomes you to the Midwest.

The economy in Cincinnati has exploded in recent years with the development of the Ohio Riverfront including over 2 billion dollars in new infrastructure featuring the new Banks projects, redevelopment of Smale Riverfront Park, the opening of the Horseshoe Casino and, of course, great American Ball Park, home of the Cincinnati Reds and Paul Brown Stadium, home of the Cincinnati Bengals. With over 200 unique and exciting shops and boutiques at your fingertips and your choice of dining pleasure from frugal to fabulous, Cincinnati is a city that rocks...yellow rocks that is.

At the Cincinnati Museum Center you can visit with Cleopatra or indulge your own creativity at the Contemporary Arts Center. The Queen City invites you to experience our big city adventures with small town convenience and affordability. In July 2012 the Queen City proudly hosted the 7th annual Interkultur World Choir Games welcoming 15,000 participants from 64 countries and 362 competing choirs to a two week celebration of music, song and international hospitality.

We as dancers share that same excitement and just like it was 212, Cincinnati will welcome all of our dancing friends to the "City that Dances". The people of Cincinnati are the jewels in the crown of the Queen City, warm and welcoming, fun and friendly, caring and carefree.

Southern Hospitality starts on this side of the Ohio River and every visitor to the Queen city will be treated like a King.

This E-Newsletter is published by a square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. It is published weekly with addendums as needed. New information each week is highlighted. Permission is given to forward this newsletter to your membership or others interested in receiving a copy or to provide printed copies to your members and visitors to your club. It is also available on the West Coast page of the Federation Website at www.floridasquaredance.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdncfan@gmail.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, which is published bimonthly and is provided free of charge for all dancers. For circulation, listings, club news, ads and articles, contact Ed Henning at 813-659-4787 or evhenning99@gmail.com.
