... [Phyllis Kent] still in one of the intensive care units at the Delray Medical Center and hopes to have her last surgery tomorrow. We don't know if it has actually been scheduled or not. She was in good spirits and showed us a couple of the "toys" she was given to help her heal. She has to blow into them with some force - and one makes a rather rude noise! Sometime after her surgery, she will be transferred to a rehabilitation facility in Fort Lauderdale.

She told us just how much she appreciates receiving all those cards. So please keep those cards flowing along with your prayers for her recovery. We'll send you her address in Fort Lauderdale once she has been transferred to the facility there.

Thanks again for your care and concern - and for sending her cards. She knows that everyone in her square dance world is "in her corner".

What a day for my dad! The veterans all walked in go the assembly together as the students all clapped. The program was really nice and a each veteran's name was called a student brought a card and stocking over. When they announced dad and another gentleman as WWII veterans alt of the other veterans stood and clapped

After the assembly a lot of people came over to talk to him. I mentioned he was 103 to one of he teachers and she made the students be quiet and announced it. They all stood screaming and clapping. Pictures were taken in the hallway and some of the students lined up on either side of the hallway as we were leaving shaking his hand and thanking him. He also got hugs! He was also happy.

From “Bear” Miller

How Does “Bear” Make It Fun?

It begins with an attitude. These people, who have come to learn, are potential dancers who I will enjoy seeing at dances for years to come. They are new friends, not only for each other, but also for me! It is because I care! Next, I immediately teach them how it feels to be successfully dancing. I teach a couple of bigger moves on the very first night, like the Texas Star and Grand Square. That feeling of dancing is addictive and people want more! As I teach the smaller calls, I work on using good flow and up-tempo music so they continue to dance. I am continually using little helping words to contribute to the flow and to being successful.

Learning Styles

Try to remember that people learn differently, but most fall into one of the following categories. Attempt to touch all styles in some way.

- Auditory Learning – occurs through hearing the spoken word.
- Kinesthetic Learning – occurs through doing and interacting.
- Visual Learning – occurs through looking at images, mind maps, demonstrations, and body language
- Tactile Learning – occurs through writing notes and drawing diagrams.

I try to teach the concept of a call. Not only the definition, but also what the call accomplishes. Not just the boy’s part or girl’s part. I keep it light with funny ways to do things (boys put your hands behind your back, face your corner and Yellow Rock; make a right hand start with your thumbs; a Rat and Left Thru, etc.). I do end up picking on some individuals, but only after finding one who enjoys or asks for it!

Some Comments From My Current Students

- “You make square dance classes fun by your enthusiasm and your fun spirit. I like at the end of classes when you say, ‘Goodnight’ and offer some words of encouragement to each person. I really liked you emphasizing which calls were most important in all square dancing.”
- “I like the sound effects you teach with certain calls – Whoosh, Dude, and handclaps. I like the little extra words thrown in for comic relief, e.g., ‘Right and Left Thru, and turn Boo Boo, Lead Right, Dosado with Dynamite, etc.”
- “I like the camaraderie and friends, but mostly the hugs.”
- “The word of the week.”
- “Pics of your grandson, Jiggle Up to the Middle and Back.”
- “Picks on me unmercifully and I love it!”

- “Patient, non-threatening, assists and questions dancers having difficulties, lots of hugs.”
- “The caller is a great teacher and notices everything and everybody. He repeats the calls to try and make sure you are at least on the right track.”
- “Bear always makes class fun by keeping it light – jokes, compliments, etc. The frustration level is low because he keeps the experience so positive.”
- “The extra comments. Moving class along and keeping it challenging. Humor.”
- “Great exercise. Great caller. Makes sure we know what we are doing before going on to another call. Makes things easy to learn.”
- “Learning the concept of a call, not just the boy’s part or girl’s part. Don’t take it too seriously – laugh at ourselves when necessary. Teaching the very “technical’ aspects of a call – handholds in particular – makes us better dancers.”
- “Lessons are great, instruction plan and easy to understand.”
- “Bear makes this class fun and easy for the students. The goodnight circle is also fun and the students love it”

Little sayings can be found in Jon Jones’ book (Square Dance Calling: Fill-in Patterns or on Vic Ceder’s website (www.ceder.net)). Find something that works for you. Be innovative, poke fun at yourself, and find humor in daily life or something that happens during the lesson. Don’t miss the chance for a smile!

So let’s put some magic back into teaching.

To conclude as we began:

Fun is too important to not take seriously!

Thanks to Bruce Hammonds, from New Zealand for many of his thoughts on teaching philosophy in the school systems.

CAMPERS

January 1, 2018, is Quickly Approaching!

The 67th NSDC has an early deadline for camping reservations and profiles. We understand this is not normal, however, it is what it is! The Clay County Park Officials, owners of the campgrounds, have granted us exclusive use of reserving a campsite in Area C, E, and F for registered guests of the 67th NSDC until January 1, 2018. After January 1, we cannot guarantee you a camp site. Camping Profiles are due no later than January 5, 2018. On January 8, 2018, all unreserved sites will be returned to Clay County as per our agreement. So please make your reservations before this deadline. Thank you in advance for your understanding and cooperation.

We are so excited to be a part of the 67th NSDC and welcome you to Kansas City, MO in June 2018.

Jim and Edythe Weber, registration@67NDC.com.

REGISTRATIONS

- Please Read

Have you converted your short form to the long form? For some of us, this is confusing, as we have registered, however, the “short” form did not contain all of the pertinent information regarding the 67th National Square Dance Convention®.

You DO NOT pay the registration fee again. The long form provides the opportunity to purchase additional amenities that were not available on the “short” form. You may find the long form at www.67nsdc.com. Please complete the long registration form even if you are not adding any additional amenities.

If you don't remember or are not sure if you have completed the process, please contact Jim and Edythe Weber, Registration and Housing Chairman. They may be reached via email at registration@67nsdc.com.

Thank you for converting.

OPENING CEREMONIES

Wednesday, June 27, 2018

COME EARLY, BE ENTERTAINED, AND DANCE!

The 5 Star Jazz Band is a non-profit community youth band dedicated to providing Kansas City's top young musicians, ages 12-21, the unique opportunity to rehearse and perform in a professional caliber jazz ensemble. They perform an average of 35-45 gigs a year, along with meeting all their music and band obligations at their local middle and high schools. The band performs year-round throughout the metropolitan area, from local community, charity, and holiday events to professional/corporate venues. They have performed for the Missouri Governor in the Capital Rotunda, at Branson at Dick Clark's Legends Theater, the Branson Belle Showboat, and Silver Dollar City, as well as for the U.S. Men's Olympic Swimming Association with Tony Orlando at the Muehlebach Hotel.

This same group performed for the Friday night entertainment at Pre-Convention in March 2017 and obtained overwhelming reviews from all who attended.

They are excited to be returning to entertain square dancers on Wednesday during the 67th National Square Dance Convention®. Their high-energy repertoire of over 100+ charts from Big Band, Swing, Jazz, Blues, Funk and Latin styles will surprise and entertain you.

Come early! There will be space and time to dance to this group on the floor before the Opening Ceremonies begin... Their high-energy repertoire of over 100+ charts from Big Band, Swing, Jazz, Blues, Funk and Latin styles will surprise and entertain you.

Come early! There will be space and time to dance to this group on the floor before the Opening Ceremonies begin.

SHOW ME EDUCATION

The 67th National Square Dance Convention is fast approaching. Yes, you will want to dance! BUT...Have you considered the Education classes that are offered during the Convention? Classes are from 10:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M. SO...you do have time to dance, as most classes are only one hour long.

We will be offering the Leadership Certification Program (LCP) in Kansas City. The Leadership Certification Program is designed to help dancers become better leaders. It is intended to: 1) Enrich a Dancer's knowledge of relevant issues facing our pastime, 2) Provide information and tools to assist in promoting an interest in dancing, and 3) Suggest ideas and strategies to help deal with local club challenges.

To complete the Leadership Certification Program (LCP): 1) Pick up a LCP Worksheet at the Education Office in Room 2206. 2) Decide which sessions to attend. MANDATORY: BID SESSION AND KEYNOTE SPEAKER on FRIDAY MORNING plus Four Core Sessions and Two Elective Sessions. 3) Obtain signature from the room host to verify attendance. 4) Return worksheet to Room 2206. 5) Pick up your certificate form Room 2206 after 3:00 p.m. on Saturday. NOTE: The LCP may be completed in two consecutive years. If you choose this option, partially completed LCP worksheets must be returned to Room 2206.

If you invest two or three hours a day for three days, your dividends will include: a Certificate of Complete (suitable for framing) and Best of All...knowledge and materials useful for promoting, improving, supporting, sustaining, expanding, and perhaps saving your club!

CALLERS and CUERS

We are requesting that you register no later than January 15, 2018 if you wish to be slotted to call or cue during the 67th NSDC. Programming needs to begin the slot assignment process immediately so that the schedule can be printed in the Program Book. Due to the printer's lead-time requirements, the assignment process must be completed several months in advance of our actual Convention that takes place in June 2018. Thank you for registering early.

Please not the following information regarding the online registration link found on the Caller/Cuer Profile Page.

If you used the online registration form link that was attached to the Caller/Cuer Profile Page, continue adding if you did, then fortunately we discovered that it did not reach you. Yes, we were surprised too! This link has now been removed. However, the downside is that you consider yourself as registered and actually you are not. We believe the time period this would have covered was from July 1, 2017 through September 2, 2017. If you are an individual who used this link, please contact Jim and Edythe Weber immediately to verify your registration and any other amenities you have purchased. Please accept our sincere apology for any inconvenience or issue this may have caused you!

You may reach us at: registration@67nsdc.com.

A square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity publishes this E-Newsletter. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. Publication is weekly with addendums as needed. All yellow highlighted information is new. Please forward this newsletter to your membership or other interested parties, or provide printed copies to your members and visitors. The newsletter is also available at www.dancergram.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdncfan@gmail.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, which is published bimonthly and is provided free of charge for all dancers.
