Is Your Door Open?

By Penny Green

In Corporate America, you will hear expressions such as “open door policy”, “my door’s always open”, etc. These expressions are usually used by upper level management to let their employees/associates know they are accessible and can be reached at any time. These expressions are also very appropriate in other areas such as club, association, and Federation level officers, anyone in a customer service capacity, etc. A lot of positions are actually customer service related even if their title doesn’t say anything about it.

In this day and time with all the technology we have, there is no reason you can't respond to messages in a timely manner. Email can be checked on your I-phone, laptop and if you don't have this kind of equipment, there are places where you can use computers to log on, like the library, in hotel business centers, convention centers, etc. There really is no reason to tell people you are going to be on vacation for four weeks and will be inaccessible during that time.

If you are the president, CEO, or COO of a business or organization, there are times that you need to be reached. Even if you are in an area with no internet access, there is somewhere you can drive or walk to where you can log on and check your messages. You can even check your messages on cruise ships and internationally.

You don't have to check your messages every five minutes, but it would be a good idea to form the habit of checking your messages once in the morning and once at the end of the day. Of course, even if you are at home, you should develop the same habit. There is no reason that someone should have to wait two or three days or longer to receive a response. If you were on the receiving end, you wouldn't like it any better than everyone else would.

Are You Working for or Against Us?

By Penny Green

What an odd title! What's that mean, "are we working against each other"? When I hear people promoting only their club or only their lessons, the hair on the back of my neck just stands up and my blood pressure jumps just a few points.

When we are struggling so hard to keep our clubs running, to recruit dancers to our classes, just to recruit more dancers period, why would we be so narrow minded not to promote square dancing as a whole?

When you are talking to anyone (young or old, married or single) about square dancing and the night of your club dance or class doesn't fit their schedule, don't stop talking. Keep talking and let them know there are dances and/or classes on other nights and tell them what they are and when they are. So what if you are putting people in someone else's club or class; you're getting us more dancers!

Don't rush new dancers into club membership before they have "graduated" from a class so that you "get them first" before they join another club. If you are truly practicing what you preach, that you are a friendly club and a fun place to dance, they will want to join without you pressuring them into it.

I know that a lot of you have shirts, jackets and caps that reference square dancing. How many of you wear them to other places other than dances or dance related activities? You have no idea how many times I receive questions when I wear my jacket with the huge square dance logo on the back of it.

When you schedule your classes, are you paying attention to what is going on in your area? Who else is having classes? What day and time of day are they having their classes? Do you make any attempt to schedule your class so that it doesn't conflict with other classes in close proximity to yours? When classes in the same area are on the same night, new dancers are unable to attend more than once class if they want to. I always encourage new dancers to try to attend more than one class; this will help them better. Please be considerate when scheduling your classes so they don't conflict with other classes in your area.

We have to stop with this mentality of “we have to get dancers for our club and not worry about the activity as a whole.”

Do you tell Singles they can't come unless they bring a partner? Do you cancel a class because you have too many single women?

So back to the question, “Are we working against each other?” when we only recruit for our club and/or classes, when we are selective about who we recruit, when we “compete” with another club or class to gain participants, when a select few are out there constantly promoting the activity and the rest of the group is just sitting back complaining about how we are losing dancers, that we have tried everything, that won't participate in banner raids or visit other clubs and festivals/conventions?

It's time for everyone to step up and promote the ACTIVITY! When you are talking to anyone about square and round dancing, be knowledgeable about what is going on in your area and provide them with all the information. Always make visitors and solos welcome when they show up at your dances. Just because you have a greeter at the door doesn't make you a friendly club if all your members sit in their little groups and don't talk to these dancers, don't include them in your squares, etc. Attend the classes in your area and angel these new dancers, even if your club isn't sponsoring the class or you don't belong to a club. They need all the help they can get so they can learn faster and get out on the dance floor sooner.

What are you doing – working against us or with us?

Music Performance Licensing Can Affect Your Club

By Jerry Reed

Many callers, dancers, and club officers are still expressing concerns about the agreements between Broadcast Music, Incorporated (BMI), The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP) and CALLERLAB¹. This Press Release is intended to address many of these concerns and lead to a better understanding of the licensing agreements.

Point One: It's illegal to play copyrighted music in public without the author's permission, which is a “license”. It would be impossible for each author to license songs individually, so BMI & ASCAP were formed to manage the licensing. Anyone who performs or plays copyrighted music needs a license. Normally, the event's organizer is responsible for obtaining the required licenses. For commercial concerts, that's usually the promoter. For commercial trade shows, it's the trade-show organizer or individual booth-holder. For square dances, it's the dance sponsor. Most dances are club-organized, so the clubs are responsible for being licensed.

Point Two: Over the past 50 years, BMI and ASCAP have turned their sights to square dancing several times; however, there was never an easy way for them to track down square dance clubs for licensing and enforcement. At one point they discovered square dance publications, which made it easy to find clubs. They mailed out about 7,000 contracts to individual clubs and callers. This made people realize their exposure, and caused much concern.

BMI & ASCAP offered their standard deal: $22 per dance, payable on an annual basis, in advance. For many clubs, that would have been devastating. It would have been impractical and nearly impossible for clubs to negotiate for better terms. In addition, many new clubs would face an impossible up-front expense.

Point Three: As an alternative, CALLERLAB² & ROUNDALAB approached BMI & ASCAP on behalf of square dancing and round dancing, and arranged to offer licenses to their Members. This was very appealing to both BMI and ASCAP, because they would only need to deal with one customer for square dancing and one customer for round dancing. This arrangement was also good for the activity because of the negotiations undertaken by CALLERLAB and ROUNDALAB. Therefore, the result was a much better price for music performance licensing. This arrangement also meant the clubs would be protected by the caller's and cuer's license. As part of the negotiations BMI & ASCAP insisted that the U.S. Members be licensed.

Please remember, this licensing problem was not initiated by CALLERLAB or ROUNDALAB. BMI and ASCAP are service organizations, similar to CALLERLAB or ROUNDALAB. They provide a service to their Members. Their purpose is to collect royalties on copyrighted music for their Members. They are supported by Federal law in their efforts to collect these royalties.

Point Four: To help protect your club, CALLERLAB recommends that clubs add the following to contracts or agreements with callers: "I CERTIFY THAT I WILL BE LICENSED BY BMI AND ASCAP TO PERFORM COPYRIGHTED MUSIC AT YOUR CLUB DANCE."

Point Five: If a club has a signed contract without this statement, CALLERLAB recommends that the club contact the caller as soon as possible to verify that they will be licensed by the time they call a dance. If the caller indicates that he/she will not be licensed, the club must take steps to protect itself by negotiating a release from the contract and booking a caller who will be licensed or obtain a license directly from BMI and ASCAP to cover the dance. Clubs may contact CALLERLAB to determine if the caller is a CALLERLAB Member and is licensed.³

² [and the American Callers Association]

³ EDITOR'S NOTE: This would also apply to the American Caller's Association.

Point Six: If BMI or ASCAP representatives visit a square dance, they will determine if the club, caller or cuer are licensed. The penalties can be as high as $20,000 per copyrighted song performed and/or up to 10 years in federal prison for each violation. Since club officers are typically considered to be the sponsors of a dance, they might be the ones usually named in the lawsuit. Legally, however, the caller and/or cuer could also be named in the lawsuit.

Point Seven: Clubs are protected by hiring only callers who are licensed. Clubs need to know that all CALLERLAB⁴ Members in the U.S.A. are licensed to perform BMI and ASCAP music.

A square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity publishes this E-Newsletter. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. Publication is weekly with addendums as needed. The editor reserves the right to edit, condense or rewrite any submission. Opinions expressed are not necessarily that of the Editor. All yellow highlighted information is new. Please forward this newsletter to your membership or other interested parties, or provide printed copies to your members and visitors. The newsletter is also available at www.dancergram.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdnxfan@gmail.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association published bimonthly and found at <http://floridasquaredance.com/westcoast/dancer/dancer.html>. For listings, club news, ads and articles, contact Ed Henning at 813-659-4787 or evhenning99@gmail.com.
