From the Editor...

Are you aware that the Federation and several dancers in Florida have been working very hard to document the history of square and round dancing in Florida? With all the clubs folding and clubs not scheduling classes, it becomes more important to save this information. We are digitizing everything so that it can be kept at www.floridasquaredancing.org and anyone can access it.

When you log onto this site, click on the button for Photo Gallery. You will find photos from all the state conventions (back to 2002), photos from different associations and classes and clubs, as well lists of all the Extra Mile Award recipients (with pictures) and the Hall of Fame inductees (with pictures). You can also click on Florida Federation History and you will find a list of all the past Federation presidents and back copies of the every association newsletter that has been written or is being written in the state of Florida.

Does your club have a written history? If you have a charter member in your club, that's probably a pretty good place to start. We don't want to loose our history. In many cases, the people that started our clubs are probably no longer dancing or even living. I am working on the Buttons & Bows of Lakeland history and I am fortunate that the couple in our club that had the longest membership joined in 1958 (our club was formed in 1952), and they kept everything; every copy of the Bow & Swing, every copy of the West Coast Association Dancer, every set of Minutes from B&B club and Board meetings, membership lists/directories, very badge and dangle they received, just about every Knothead ribbon, and few National Square Dance Convention ribbons. When Art and Martha Springer retired from coordinating the Knothead Konvention, this couple had the most years of attendance. With that Konvention, they kept track of every one you attended and a list was displayed every year showing your standing. You also received a new dangle or bar indicating how many you attended. I have been slowly going through everything and digitizing it. Some of the files have been forwarded to the Federation webmaster to add to the site.

They (Larry and Dorry Clevenger) have passed on, but their son brought me all of their square dance stuff when he cleaned out their house. I've been working on this since July 2017 and I still have a lot to review.

The Buttons & Bows history is written and I keep it updated. The history is a part of our membership directory, which also includes our Bylaws, a list of our past presidents and the year each current member joined Buttons & Bows. Our membership directory is also pictorial and has everyone's birthdate and anniversary date listed. We include our snowbirds' summer and winter address, along with phone numbers, and addresses. Pictures of the members are included so everyone can put a face to a name. There is also a list of all the officers and committee chairmen with their contact information, and the dance schedule for the entire year. The directory is updated annually and a copy is given to each new member.

We have already had several clubs in our area fold, and unfortunately, as far as I know they didn't have a written history so all of that information is lost. I suggest that all of the clubs start attempting to write their history and include pictures if you can, and we can post it on the Florida site. Many of the clubs that have folded were between 45 and 50 years old.

Does anyone have a good clear picture of Caller Al Guthrie?

Al is a past recipient of the Extra Mile Award and we are looking for his picture to add to the website. If you have one, please either email it to me (sgdncfan@gmail.com), give it to me to scan, or mail the picture to 530 S. Florida Avenue, Apt. 1005, Lakeland, FL 33801-5249. I will scan it and return the original to you.

Health and Sympathy

The entries listed below are for callers, cuers, West Coast Association officers and representatives and other Florida associations, Federation officers and any others well known to the Florida square and round dance community. Listings for others are at www.dancergram.com – Health and Sympathy. The WC Joys and Concerns are sent, as needed, to everyone on the DANCERgram distribution list.

SSDUSA 48th Dance-A-Rama

Good news! If you have not yet registered to attend the 48th Dance-A-Rama festival on Labor Day weekend in Indianapolis, IN, you now have the opportunity to do so on line using your credit card. A new feature, Weave The Ring, has been added to the SSDUSA website: <http://dar2018.ssdusa.org/>. Now you can register for the festival, sign up for tours and purchase souvenir shirts without having to download a form or write a check. (Of course, you can still view and print a registration form, fill it out and mail it in with your check.)

Three deadlines are coming up quickly: August 1 is the last date to register for the Dance-A-Rama before the price increases by $5.00 per person. To get a room at the Westin Indianapolis Hotel you need to book your room by August 8 to make sure of receiving the discounted price. (After that, the Westin does not have to honor our special price.) If you want to book any tours, the deadline is August 26. (The tour sign-up deadline given on the Registration Form/Flyer, July 14, was incorrect.)

We hope you are planning attend the DAR and have your dancer friends join you there. ALL dancers, whether couples or solos, are welcome! Just look at what we have to offer! We have a great line up of callers (Tom Miller, Mike Hogan, Tim Tyl, Tom Davis & Travis Cook and cuers (Phyllis Burdette, Cathy Fisher & Pauline Angress). There will be five different halls and none of the dancing will be on carpet. There will be square dancing programmed for you whether you dance Mainstream, Plus, DBD, A1 or A2. There will be rounds from levels II through V or VI. Also, there will be line dancing and after parties led by Doug & Donna Riley. All of the halls are on the same level; and if you stay at the host hotel, you will be close to the action. We are offering five terrific tours, and we will have a clothing vendor and badge vendor. If you haven't sent in your registration, signed up for tours, or made reservations at the Westin Indianapolis, NOW is the time to act so you will not miss out on the fun.

Tips for an Effective Flyer

Do you have effective flyers for your dances and/or classes or are they just getting lost on the flyer table? Following are some tips:

Proofread

✓ Check for spelling

- Do you have the correct names of the callers and cuers? Some people do not like errors with their names.
 - Examples:
 - Robert Arias is Robert, not Bob and his last name is Arias, not Aries.
 - Bob Ormsbee is spelled with two 'e's' at the end of his name, not a 'y'.
 - Dave Muller's last name isn't spelled Mueller.
 - Scotty Sharrer has three r's in his last name.
 - Bill Chesnut is not Chestnut.
 - Mike Gormley is not Gromley.
 - Penny Green is not 'Penney' and Green is not 'Greene'.
- The prompter for Rounds is a cuer not a quer (no 'q').
- The dance facility in Plant City is Strawberry Square, Strawberry Squares is their club dance that is held on Wednesday night.
- This newsletter is DANCERgram, not dancergam, dance-o-gram, or Dancergram.

- ✓ Is punctuation correct?
 - Apostrophes
 - Susan's is possessive as in Susan owns something. If there is more than one girl named Susan, it is Susans.
 - Books does not have an apostrophe. Howdowners does not have an apostrophe.
- ✓ Verify phone numbers and email addresses.
 - Did you include the area code? With everyone using cell phones, there is every possibility that their area code isn't the same as yours.
- ✓ The name and location of the facility.
 - Is the address complete and correct? Be sure to include the city and state. Always ask, "Will they find this location with GPS?" With everyone traveling, flyers are picked up and left at other dances. Many flyers are now posted on the Internet. Dancers from outside your area will have no idea where your dance is held.
- ✓ Is there contact information?
 - Did you include contact information of someone that can give directions and answer questions? It is recommended that this contact person has email and a cell phone number that is checked on a regular basis. Dancers may need to call you at the dance facility if they are lost; someone that always uses their cell phone and has it with them all the time should be considered a contact person.
- ✓ Dance program.
 - Dance levels for squares and rounds.
 - Preferred attire.
 - Are singles welcome?
 - Dance fees.
 - Is there a theme?
 - Are refreshments served?
- ✓ New dance flyers.
 - Are acronyms used that a new dancer wouldn't understand i.e. WCSRDA (West Coast Square & Round Dance Association), FCA (Florida Callers Association), RDCF (Round Dance Council of Florida), etc. ?
 - Don't use 'students'; refer to them as new dancers.
 - Don't use the terminology 'lessons' or 'classes'. Let them know they will be dancing the first night. New dancers have no idea what 'Mainstream' and 'Plus' are so don't mention them.
 - Reference about attire and to wear comfortable closed-toe and closed-heel shoes for safety reasons.
 - Refer to the caller as an 'instructor'. Many new dancers don't have any idea what a caller is.
 - Include that the caller is BMI/ASCAP licensed. This will let new dancers know that a professional caller/instructor will be teaching them.
 - Are street names spelled correctly?
 - If it is a series of classes, it is appropriate to include the starting and ending dates of the class(es).

✓ Flyer appearance

- Does it look professional? Everything should be typed and positioned correctly on the page. It should look like you had a graphic artist design it and a printing company printed it for you.
- If you copy the flyer on colored paper, they won't get lost on the flyer table with all the other white sheets of paper.
- Keep it succinct; no long flowing sentences; use bullet points. This makes the flyer easy and quick to read.
- If you taped or glued clip art on the flyer, can you see the outline when you make copies? It is better to add clip art or photos on the computer.
- We are trying to improve the image of square dancing; that it's not a bunch of hillbillies dancing to Grand Ole Opry music so why does everyone use clip art of cartoons of hillbillies jumping around? It is better to use photos and clip art showing the different types of attire, different age groups, etc. You want to appeal to new dancers, not turn them away.
- Try to include pictures of the caller or cuer. Many dancers dance to different callers and cuers at conventions and festivals, but they never remember the names. Adding a picture might trigger a memory that they know or have danced to the caller or cuer before.

Hope these tips and thoughts help!

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR: In my role as editor of the DANCERgram, I see a lot of flyers, programs, and dance schedules and these tips are the types of things I come across. Sometimes, it's very hard to decipher what you are trying to explain.

One other quick thought; it is always good if someone reviews the flyer table to dispose of outdated flyers, ensure that there is a good supply of your state's convention and/or regional festivals, and ensure that there aren't three or four different flyers stacked together. They need to be separated and laying on the table as individual stacks.

Robert, Bob, Dave, Scotty, Bill, and Mike: I hope it isn't a problem that I used your names as examples, but your names are the ones I see misspelled all the time!

A square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity publishes this E-Newsletter. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. Publication is weekly with addendums as needed. The editor reserves the right to edit, condense or rewrite any submission. Opinions expressed are not necessarily that of the Editor. All yellow highlighted information is new. Please forward this newsletter to your membership or other interested parties, or provide printed copies to your members and visitors. The newsletter is also available at www.dancergram.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdncfan@gmail.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association published bimonthly and found at <http://floridasquaredance.com/westcoast/dancer/dancer.html>. For listings, club news, ads and articles, contact Ed Henning at 813-659-4787 or evhenning99@gmail.com.
