August 25, 2018 - Deadline for Submission to the Northeast Association's *The Grapevine. For info: squaredancejax@gmail.com.

EXCERPT FROM AN EMAIL RECEIVED BY THE EDITOR: "Ever vigilant in our efforts to recruit new square dancers, four of us are traveling to Columbia (yes, the country) this week to look for prospects, and two of us are traveling to the Bahamas to look for prospects. We'll bring home any potential dancers we can persuade. In our absence, _____ and _____ are in charge, with the assistance of _____ and _____. We will be thinking about you on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and will undoubtedly be consuming some alcoholic beverages in your honor."

Health and Sympathy

The entries listed below are for callers, cuers, West Coast Association officers and representatives and other Florida associations, Federation officers and any others well known to the Florida square and round dance community. Listings for others are at www.dancergram.com – Health and Sympathy. The WC Joys and Concerns are sent, as needed, to everyone on the DANCERgram distribution list.

Promotion/Communication by Tim Marriner

Communication within the world of square dancing is multifaceted. The two forms of communication are verbal and non-verbal. We communicate to dancers directly from behind the microphone and also off stage. For this discussion let's focus our attention to verbal communication off stage. To effectively communicate you must have a sender, a receiver, and a response from the receiver showing that the message was understood. We communicate to dancers off stage by talking to them between tips. A caller must make themselves approachable at all times. Going out the back door and smoking between tips is not making oneself accessible. Dancers might have a great time but think the caller was standoffish or stuck up to talk with if they never meet you. Being out amongst the crowd is the biggest difference with our form of entertainment than that of a super star. We are just a part of the group. We are asked to sign Century Books, listen to old jokes, invited to eat with the dancers and many other important things. Being visible out on the dance floor during round tells the dancers you are a part of them. A smiling face spreads like wild fire in a crowd. Make it a point to walk around the entire room at least once and ask how everyone is doing. You will be surprised how fast the faces light up and conversations spark up. You are marketing yourself! You are the product at this point. You want a return engagement or get recommended elsewhere. What a great promotional tool; YOU! If the dancers had a great time you will see them again at another dance and more than likely they will bring along some friends.

Other forms of promotion of course are advertisements. Flyers are the first to come to mind. I like to keep my flyers up front by the stage. Why? I want the dancers to connect that these are flyers I am a part of. I also want them to come up front so that I might be able to interact with them. They pick up a flyer; you tell them what a good time they will have! Reinforce the event. Also, the flyers don't just get lost in a sea of papers out back and I can be sure to collect them at the end of the dance. Many times dancers take the opportunity to thank you after the dance and will come up front to shake your hand. Guess what? The flyers are right in front of them! They pick them up on their way out.

Today, promotion is available in many forms. 1. Business cards 2. CD's or tapes 3. Flyers 4. Advertisements in publications 5. PowerPoint presentations on laptops 6. Infomercials through singing calls 7. Internet 8. Referrals 9. Special demonstrations or events 10. Festivals and Conventions 11. Newsletters ...And the list can go on and on.

Leadership Communication

A caller must provide leadership and guidance. To do this they must be listeners. Really listen. Empathize with the speaker. Show a response that you understand. Use good judgment for a response and be ready for more feedback. Encourage, defuse, and direct with confidence. Problem solving is also an acquired art. When misunderstandings occur usually it is due to a break down in the communication process. Don't let it go. Problems don't just go away; usually they just fester and pop up again stronger later. Club politics can put a caller in sticky situations. It is hard to balance on the fence. Emotions can cloud judgment. After all the facts are verbalized a democratic decision needs to be made and carried out to the best of the leaders' ability. Experience is our best ally.

Business Communication

Telephone calls and postal mail were once the predominant forms of business communication. However, today with the advent of the Internet we now add Email to the stack of work. It can be overwhelming at times. Good bookkeeping and management techniques are needed to handle all of this work. Prompt replies get the most rewards. Remember that a written agreement can avoid misunderstandings by providing both parties a record of the important information. Mistakes do happen and prompt communication might make the difference. A caller who must cancel out of an agreement must fully explain the situation and ask to be released from the obligation and offer assistance to the group finding a replacement they deem as satisfactory. The caller should then offer to confirm the changed agreement with all parties.

2018 SSDUSA Dance-A-Rama

Good news! Even if you cannot make it to the SSDUSA Dance-A-Rama festival, you still can enjoy a great dance by attending the DAR Trail In dance on Thursday, August 30th. Wes Dyer (Big Enis) is calling the dance and Phyllis Burdette, Cathy Fisher & Pauline Angress will each do a set of rounds. The dance is from 7:30 to 10:30 PM at the Westin Indianapolis Hotel, 241 W. Washington St, Indianapolis, IN 46204. Mainstream with Rounds and Announced Plus. (You pay $10.00 per person at the door.) ALL dancers, whether couples or solos, are welcome!

If you want to have even more fun, it's not too late to join us for the Dance-A-Rama itself from August 31 to September 2 at the Weston Indianapolis. Just look at what we have to offer! We have a great line up of callers (Tom Miller, Mike Hogan, Tim Tyl, Tom Davis & Travis Cook and cuers (Phyllis Burdette, Cathy Fisher & Pauline Angress). There will be five different halls and none of the dancing will be on carpet. There will be square dancing programmed for you whether you dance Mainstream, Plus, DBD, A1 or A2. There will be rounds from levels II through V or VI. Also, there will be line dancing and after parties led by Doug & Donna Riley. All of the halls are on the same level; and if you stay at the host hotel, you will be close to the action. We are offering five terrific tours, and we will have a clothing vendor and badge vendor. Whether you are solo or a couple, we would love to have you and your dancer friends join us for this FUN weekend.

A square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity publishes this E-Newsletter. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. Publication is weekly with addendums as needed. The editor reserves the right to edit, condense or rewrite any submission. Opinions expressed are not necessarily that of the Editor. All yellow highlighted information is new. Please forward this newsletter to your membership or other interested parties, or provide printed copies to your members and visitors. The newsletter is also available at www.dancergram.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdncfan@gmail.com.
