Concerns

We are in our 4th cycle of 6 chemotherapy treatments. She had a stem cell transplant yesterday and all went well. I'm going to Nashville tomorrow and stay with Sylvia and her mom so Adam (my son) can come back to Johnson City TN and work. She is quite a trooper and we are living one day at a time. It seems every chemotherapy takes a little more out of her and takes much longer to recover. God is very good to us and we see His grace and strength everyday. Please continue to remember to lift her up to Him in prayer for healing and strength.

I continue to self isolate to help them care for her as she has no immune system right now. I miss my friends but the Zoom dances have helped more than I can say. The Round/Square dance community has been there to support and pray for Baby Sylvia through all this. I'll never forget their support.

It's with a sad heart that I tell all of you that Jimmy [Griffin] has stage 4 pancreatic cancer that has metastasized. The doctor at Moffit said 6-12 months with treatment.

Right now, he wants to spend time with our family, cards of encouragement are welcome!

We miss you all so very much!

UPDATE ON DON SLOCUM

We are doing as well as can be expected. I had #6 of 6 Neuc-med shots yesterday. I will have another bone scan on July 6th to see where the cancer is now. Don

Ann asked that I send their thanks for prayers and the cards. They place trust in Jesus.
