Joys, Concerns & Sympathies

Joys

On January 9, 1981, Penny Green's brother-in-law, deputy Sheriff Theron A. Burnham, was shot and killed in the line of duty in Lakeland during a killing spree that resulted in three deaths. The shooter, Paul Beasley Johnson, has been on death row since (49 years in January).

This morning, her sister was notified by the State Attorney's office that John died in prison on Saturday of a heart attack. It's finally over. Please pray for her. They had only been married six months when this tragedy happened.

Johnson was married and had a toddler son when he was arrested? What happened to them? Did the son end up an upstanding citizen or did he take the same path as his father?

Please pray for all of the people involved in this tragedy – my sister, Amy Reid the wife of one of the men killed, and the family of Mr. Evans, a taxi cab driver, who was killed in Winter Haven during this awful event.

The past 49 years have been awful for all of us with the re-trials and appeals.
