Joys, Concerns, & Sympathies

Charles Leroy Bridges (67)

29 Jan 1956 - 08 Nov 2023

Charles started square dancing at age 12 and attended his first regional festival, Harvest Hoedown in 1969. He joined the Silhouettes exhibition round dance group at age 15, performing at local and national square dance conventions. He first called a square dance for the Lone Twirlers in 1972 at age 16. Charles has taught line dancing and ballroom dance, he has choreographed country western dancing, and has even participated in national ballroom competitions. Charles says that his greatest passion is to teach dancing at any level. His spouse is Terri Rosnow-Bridges.

Charles and his wife moved to Solavita in Poinciana less than five years ago. He cued for one of the West Coast Membership Dances that was held at Lake Ashton in Lake Wales. I am unable to locate a mailing address for Terri, but if you would like to leave her a message, please go to this site <https://www.echovita.com/us/obituaries/fl/kissimmee/charles-leroy-bridges-17188242>.
