EDITOR'S DESK

Although it is many months away, or so it seems, scores of volunteers are working to insure our Florida State Square & Round Dance convention will be fun. We know from the caliber of volunteers that it will be well organized. We know that hotels and motels will be available for a reasonable price. We know that many will be commuting to Daytona Beach for this grand occasion. We also know that some of you are not registered yet. It is time, February is approaching more rapidly than you think. The Callers and the Cuers are encouraging their dancers to attend. They are planing their programs to assure fun dancing. This is a great opportunity to invite all “snow birds” and introduce them to Florida dance fun in the sun.

“The Power To See The Future” is the theme. Look to the future, register and attend! We will see you in Daytona Beach.

President's Message

Florida Callers Association

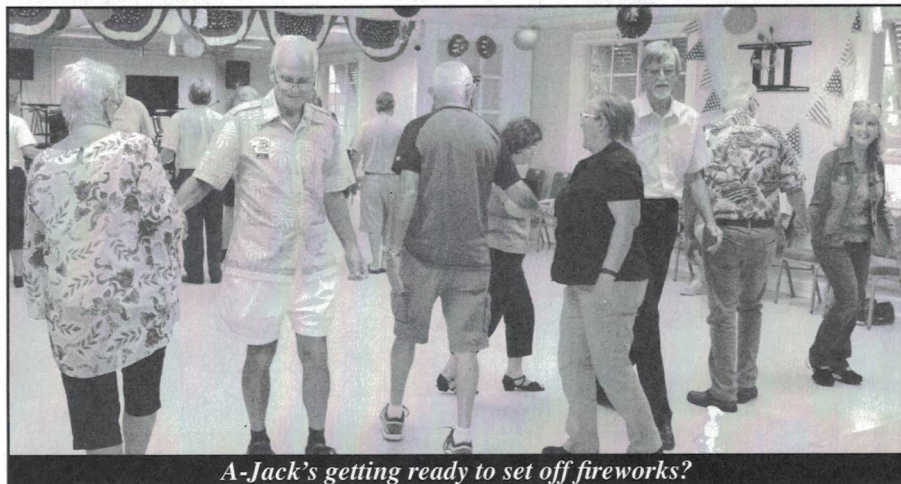

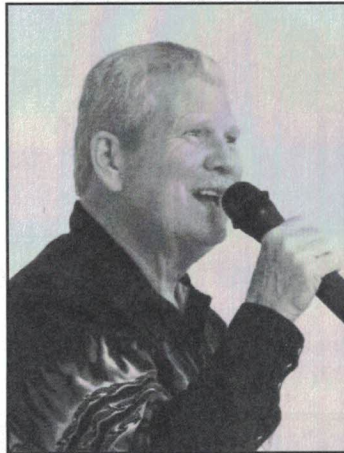

By now, Callers have completed their Profiles for our Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention. I have spoken with a few Callers who chose not to participate. When I ask why, some said, They just wanted to dance with their clubs AT THE CONVENTION, not keep their local clubs open. They encourage their dancers to attend and dance with them.

Callers and Cuers even though months away have started planning. Hotel and motel reservation already made.

It would be really nice to see all the Callers in Florida, along with their clubs in attendance, probably not feasible, but it would be nice.

Are we actively inviting our snow bird friends to attend? Many were in attendance the last times we were in Daytona Beach. A side note, at the National Convention in Atlanta, a Georgia dancer I was speaking with commented on our dance on the beach. As Callers and Cuers we create the enthusiasm and fun for the dancers as planned out, but all the great volunteers put our conventions together. Kudos to them! Without their planning, coordination and work, we would have no venue. Kudos to the Callers and Cuers, for without them there wouldn't be a dance. Kudos to the dancers, without them all the other work would go for naught. As we all work together our conventions will continue to be successful!!!

Bill Boyd, President

ASSOCIATION NEWS

SOUTHEAST FLORIDA SQUARE & ROUND DANCE ASSOCIATION

The long, hot summer is finally coming to an end, and now the square dance season is heating up in South Florida.

Big news! It will cost you less to be a member of SEA for the 2019-2020 season! For the low, low price of $9.00 you get free admission to all four of the SEA dances, except for the Snowflake Frolic, which is a fundraiser for the Southeast and the state convention. In addition, it includes the supplemental accident insurance, that is active when you attend any square dance from the time you get out of your vehicle to when you get back in. It's secondary insurance that kicks in after other coverage that one has. What a bargain! New members pay $12.00, which also includes the SEA badge.

We invite all square dancers to the Southeast Membership Dance and Ice Cream Social to be held Sunday afternoon, September 22, at the Briny Breezes Auditorium. Scotty Sharrer will be the host caller, and Jack Lewis will be the host cuer. Early Rounds begin at 1:30pm, Squares at 2:00pm. Squares will alternate Mainstream and Plus; new graduates are welcome! The best way to improve one's dancing is to dance, dance, dance!

Come join us and dance to your heart's content!

An Afternoon of Wine Tasting

Visit Latah Creek Wine Cellars and Gift Shop. Heralded by Wine Spectator as one of the "Top Merlot's in Washington State", taste their merlot, huckleberry wine, and other award winning wines. Tour the production area and learn the process of making wine. This family owned winery also boasts a great gift shop, with something for every wine lover and great local products to take home. Next to Arbor Crest Wine Cellars, perched 450 feet above the Spokane River. Built by inventor Royal Riblet in 1924, the grounds have some of Riblet's unique inventions, a 16x16 foot checkerboard a small vineyard and the mansion. Time: 1:00-4:00pm; $48.00 per person, includes bus transportation, guide and two wine tastings

3 Hour Wine Tasting Tour – Wine Tasting at Latah Creek and add a picnic lunch at Arbor Crest Wine Cellars

Latah Creek, established in 1982 by Mike and Ellena Conway, is heralded by Wine Spectator Magazine as one of the top producers of Merlot in the State of Washington. A very picturesque setting for this small Spokane winery beckons an exploration as well as a tasting of award winning vintages. Tile walkways lead you through an arched entrance into a large courtyard suitable for picnics or just relaxing. Inside you will find a one-of-a-kind gift shop and a room-wide wine tasting bar. Latah Creek's award winning wines can be sampled at your leisure while you tour the adjoining wine making facilities.

Mike Conway, with over 32 years of winery experience, and his wife Ellena work together to run this successful small winery in the relatively new viticultural region of central and eastern Washington. While Mike assumes the management, wine making and vineyard tasks, Ellena takes on all the accounting, special events and the running of the extensive gift shop located at the winery. Daughter, Natalie Conway-Barnes, is currently learning winemaking from dad and plans to be the future of Latah Creek Wine Cellars Latah Creek produces wines with natural balance and complexity, which provide a perfect compliment to food and absolute enjoyment by themselves.

Picnic at Arbor Crest Winery: Arbor Crest is one of the state's oldest wineries producing award-winning Washington wines and has been named one of "50 Great Producers Every Wine Lover Should Know" by Wine Spectator. The Cliff House Tasting Room, located on a National Historic Site perched atop a cliff offering spectacular views of the Spokane Valley

Ormond Beach...Labor Day was declared to be a federal holiday in 1894. Labor during the Industrial Revolution was long, difficult, and dangerous. We remember the history, and we honor the contributions of American labor to our nation's success story. On September 3, our club dance celebrates Labor Day with red, white, and blue.

We're looking forward to September 17 which we've designated "Mismatch Day." You need not wear "square dance" clothes. Dance clothing on Mismatch Day should be as garish and uncoordinated as possible.

Classes for new square dancers started on July 16. Classes and Mainstream Workshops will continue through November. Mainstream workshops are from 6:00 to 7:00. We have about ten in the class. Call 396-671-6223 for additional information.

Grenada Square Denim and Lace meets on Tuesdays (except holidays) at the Ormond Beach Senior Center in Ormond Beach. Dance tips alternate with line dancing and rounds. Our caller is Rod Barngrover.

HOEDOWNERS "PAIRS & SPARES"

Casselberry...A big "thank you" to our fabulous callers, Gene McCullough and Rod Barngrover, for keeping us entertained at our Sunday afternoon dances! Rounding out our wonderful dance program is Jerry Baron (lines), and Earle Collins (rounds). The dedication and talent of these special leaders is really appreciated by all.

Guests for July: Carol Forten, Les and Carol Lozull (Space Trackers), Harold Siebel and Fran, Jim and Connie Moore, Virginia Barnes (Whirl & Twirl), Brock and Carolyn Bucher (Garden Patch), Robyn Wiltcher (Snell's Bo's & Bell's), Leo and Bev Murray, Marvin and Jo Beehler, Linda Saunders.

Our annual "Pie Day" was a huge success thanks to all the fabulous cooks in our club! The refreshment table was full and had a great big "possum pie" right in the center of it! On August 11th, Hoedowners will host our annual "Beach Theme (Pizza and Crazy Tee-Shirt or Crazy Hat Day) Dance"!

The last dance of July went off without a hitch as we danced to Gene's fabulous calling on Sunday. Jean and Carolyn Gray stepped in to lead the line dance in Jerry's absence and did a great job. Thanks ladies! Earle's round dance students are learning more and more each week. They really look good on the dance floor!

As our faithful vice president, Ronnie made the announcements and kept us entertained. He gave special recognition to Tim Parker for coming to the hall early each week to set up tables. We also applauded Marty McCullough and Annette Rolfes for consistently setting up the refreshment table.

View pictures of our dances by Michael Craft at www.hoedowners.net. See you Sunday!

Promotion of Square Dancing*

The Foundation's purpose is to support the funding of projects that will preserve and promote square dancing.

To be considered for the funding, projects must first protect the heritage of the activity and contribute to it's growth. The Foundation is registered with the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(C)(3) corporation and depends on private contributions, public grants and endowments for its operating capital.

In order to ensure that the American folk art of square dancing will continue to flourish, the Foundation solicits your support through your tax-deductible contributions.

interests. We've been lucky to have two to three squares each week and have enjoyed visits from "foreign" dancers with visits from state and international groups. We enjoyed drop-ins from Fruitland Park and Canada. We welcomed Lenny and Margaret Newberry, and Anna Mae and Wayne Keer. Lenny is a caller and Margaret is a cuer from The Villages and The Keers hail from Canada. Scotty probably appreciates a break and/or assistance from calling and we all enjoyed the introduction of a new cuer, especially since we don't ordinarily have round dancing during the summer months.

Many of our regulars have taken to the road. Matt and Carrie Ellis visited France and were there for the spectacle of the D-Day celebration including side trips to many Atlantic cities along the coast of France. Shortly after their return, they took a trip to Savannah to visit their son before his return to active duty in the military. After arriving home, they were "forced" to purchase a new car and a new refrigerator, which were not on their schedule. As the saying goes, it never rains..." Breakdowns don't happen at convenient times. Arlene McDace took a trip to Indiana to visit family and Kathy Shorr went to New York to catch up on grandchildren's activities. Sally Galik

Mary Brennan survived surgery on her face and yours truly underwent carpal tunnel surgery for the second time.

Helen Morris continues dancing with the Broadway Ziegfeld Entertainers, performing at the Seminole Casino and the John Knox Retirement Community. The group also puts on shows for veterans during the Christmas holidays. Bob Dodes and the seven members of his Boca Pointe clown group entertain at neighborhood rehabilitation centers and schools, including the upcoming National Clown Week.

Steve Weissman continues to entertain and teach us with his wealth of Israeli and American line dances. It affords a nice break between the square dances. Kathy Shorr has led us through some of her favorite line dances, also.

The beginner classes held at the Floral Lakes Clubhouse is progressing nicely and working toward graduation.

We hope all enjoyed a happy Labor Day as we look forward to summer's end.

SPACE TRACKERS

Merritt Island...Since the 4th of July fell on our regular Thursday dance night this year, the Space Trackers went "dark", no dancing, which gave Whit Brown a well-deserved rest from the shenanigans he has to put up with from some of our members.

But even though we did not dance on the 4th we still had our annual "4th of July Picnic Friendship Dinner" only we held on the 11th. It was a great picnic too!

With the ever-popular hot dogs in buns, yummy potato salad, delicious baked beans, and all the condiments to create a good hot dog like Chili for Chili dogs or shredded cheese for cheese dogs or just a plain ole mustard-catsup-relish-onion dog. Our workshop that evening went a little sluggish to say the least, but with Whit at the helm we recovered quickly.

We do have a workshop before each dance starting at 6:45 and usually winds down just before our regular dance start time. Whit is now showing us APD and DBD dancing. It can be challenging times and frustrating, but always great gangs of fun. Sometimes we dance what he is calling and sometimes he has to call what we are dancing!?!? Keeps everyone on their toes and always a fun way to start an evening of friendship and laughter.

The Space Trackers is a Mainstream/Plus Club and every so often our caller will do a requested Hot Hash Tip. Tiring, but ever so much fun. Whit is really good about calling to the floor, so to speak. And I would be remiss if I did not mention the we have a great, great
