Well most of the shelter at home rulings are about to expire. Hopefully things can get back to normal. At least as close as we can. It will be good to be able to get out and see all of our friends again. Hope all of you are well and doing well will home isolation.

I heard about a group in Colorado that was dancing on line. So I have added an article about how they are doing it. Since then I have heard of several other groups forming. Fantastic. Again we hope everyone is doing well and hope to see you all real soon

Central Florida Square & Round Dance Association

NORTHWEST SQUARE & ROUND DANCE ASSOCIATION

First of all we would like to thanks the Federation for sending a Sympathy card in the death of Brian's mother in March. She supported us whenever we went to local, state, or national dances by praying for safe travels. We have received cards from local clubs and we appreciate their prayers and thoughts.

We pray you are all safe and healthy, staying away from the Covid virus. We pray for those who lost their jobs. We also pray that we can start square dancing again by May, June or July and if we don't forget how. If we are able to dance in I am sure the Seaside Squares and TNT Rounds will be having their Sunday Gospel dance to benefit Ragon Hall on June 14th from 3pm to 6 pm. In June the Billy Bow legs dance is scheduled the 5th and 6th

July will be our Northwest Annual Roundup the 10th and 11th

WEST COAST SQUARE & ROUND DANCE ASSN

All is well on the west coast of Florida at present. Except for one club, all clubs, dances, and classes have shut down for an indefinite period. The majority of our seasonal clubs and dances are in southwest Florida. They all ended their season early. Our annual Freshman Frolic, sponsored by the Suncoast Callers and Cuers Association, scheduled for March 15th, was canceled too. A lot of our snowbirds left early this year to head home to their families.

We have received word that the Palace Dance Hall in Arcadia (home of the Palace Promenaders) is sold. They thought they would have until the end of March to leave, but their last dance at that location was on March 14th. Mary Dow is busy trying to identify a new location.

Hopefully, by the time you read this article, we will be through this dark time. Please make safe choices, practice social distancing, and follow the directives from our leaders. Everyone is in my prayers.

Along with everyone else in Florida, I have been a prisoner in my home and the one thing (among many, many others) I miss is square dancing to the great calling of Whit Brown and the cueing of Earl Collins and his lovely wife Carole. Hopefully this will come to an end soon and we can all get back to our normal activities.

Hope everyone is keeping safe and happy, Yellow Rocks, Virginia

LIGHTHOUSE #3 ALLIGATOR REEF LIGHTHOUSE

Interesting facts I will share as we travel around the State of Florida about our Fabulous Lighthouses will be distances between, where they are located, historical information and just curious things to know. For instance: our last stop was Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse, there is only one other lighthouse between Jupiter and Miami - Hillsboro Inlet Lighthouse. The next lighthouse is not until we reach Miami, the Cape Florida Lighthouse but from there to Key West there are 17 structures. Not all are on land, some were built on reefs, some on sand bars and some on piles of rocks.

Traveling south on US #1 from Miami to my next write-up, Alligator Reef Lighthouse, there are 7 lighthouses - most of which are built on reefs, (Alligator being one), 2 on land and 1 on rocks. There are names like Fowey Rocks, Bobo Chila, Molasses Reef, Hen and Chickens. But Alligator Reef sounded interesting to me. There are no alligators there and the reef is not shaped like one either. It was named for a ship, the USS ALLIGATOR. This ship successfully conducted missions against pirates in the early 1800s but, sadly, was lost when it ran on the reef in 1822. However, the crew was so dedicated to keep the ship from falling into pirates' hands, they actually destroyed it. It is said the ship still lies on the shallow bottom near the reef.

This lighthouse is 150 feet, top to bottom, with a focal plane of 136 feet of light, per official Coast Guard viewings. Built in 1873 at a cost of $135,000, an almost unheard of amount of money in those days, it is extremely structurally sound as it weathered the infamous Labor Day Hurricane of 1935 with winds gusting from 200 to 250 miles per hour and with seas surging 30 or more feet above normal. It has been reported that over the years some brave lighthouse keepers even lashed themselves to the structure to avoid being washed away by hurricanes. Now that's dedication.

And it is with this same dedication that Carol and Richard Douget are going ahead with their plans for the 2021 State Convention, Lighting the Way to Friendship & Fun. It will still take place in Dayton Beach at the Daytona Ocean Center, same place as last year, on February 19 & 20, 2021. We all pray and hope this nasty virus will be gone long before then and that square and round dancing will once again be the high-light of our fun. There will be more news about the activities being planned as well as the "how-to's" in the upcoming months. In the meantime-----please bump elbows, keep social distancing and smile behind your masks!

INTERNET DANCING WITH THE LEMONADERS

Sheree Angus, from Greeley, Colorado.

We are having a blast! I'd never heard of Zoom a month ago. When I saw my grandson having his karate class via Zoom, I thought we should try square dancing via Zoom. I checked with a few friends. They thought it would work and suddenly I had a team! A very awesome team! Two of them are callers, Bill Callaway and Mike Olivieri. The other two ladies serve with me on our Merry Mixers club board, Lori Stevens and Renate Campbell.

One of the most rewarding parts of all of this has been seeing how anxious, excited, and relieved that the square dancers have been to see one another, and to have live interaction. They needed to know that at least this part of their world is still good.

I knew this would be an important component of our dance because of the challenging time that our country is currently experiencing. I was particularly concerned about our single dancers - being in a "stay at home" situation - they may not have family nearby. Being alone for long periods of time can be a bit traumatic for some people. It's not only children who need some routine and familiarity. Adults need it also. It has been therapeutic for all of us. I made sure to integrate time for socializing into the dance time format.

We visit a bit, square dance, do a line dance, or a circle dance, etc, square dance, and then end our time with a few minutes of visiting as we say our goodbyes. It can get a bit chaotic during that hour or so, but it's all good. We're getting that part figured out as well. We are all just so excited to be together!

As I told a square dance group a week ago, "Life has given us lemons - Let's make Lemonade!"

To get to the Zoom links, just scroll down below my main letter, which is also below.

I look forward to seeing you at one of our dances!

Sheree Angus 970-590-1851

Our online virtual (Zoom) Square Dances have been a smashing success so far! Several have commented how much they enjoy being able to see everyone and interact - to hear their voices, see their faces and body language, and to hear us laugh together! I'm very glad we are making a positive difference!

Also, we have a Chat option we can use during our dance time! If you are new, please type in your first and last names and where you are from. We have a Facebook page The Square Dance Lemonaders! Please feel free to share comments or quotes or pictures, etc. I welcome anything positive on our page - nothing political, no rudeness, etc. One last thing. I learned that I can set up the online dances so that we use the same Zoom link for every Monday at 2:00 pm, and a separate link for every Thursday at 7:00 pm. Two separate links to be used each week on their respective nights. I'll post these below and designate which is which. Feel free to save this email for future use for each dance.

MONDAY DANCES @ 2:00 PM
