Bill Chesnut President FCA

President's

Florida Callers Association

Greetings from beautiful downtown Melrose and our hurricane preparedness party,

We have finally gotten what appears to be a pretty good hold on Covid, so why not have a few tropical storms and hurricanes to test our desire to go dancing. With July having started with a bang, partially for the celebration of our independence, and partially caused by our 5th named storm already. Batten down the hatches as needed, be safe and prepare for the dance season ahead.

Many of our clubs are back dancing and enjoying our activity as safely as possible. Attendance appears to be light in many areas but a returning to normal is beginning to happen. Florida has been fortunate that we have returned to dancing while many states in the country have not allowed the dancing to restart.

Most of us in Florida are not sure that fall and cooler days are ahead but they are. Hopefully lots of new classes and bunches of non dancers converted to square dancers very quickly. Most of us did not teach a class last year so be thinking of your lesson plans. Study the definitions and explanations of the calls to be ready to explain them to our new dancers. Jack Lasry said years ago you needed to know at least 3 ways to explain a call, but 4 or 5 ways were even better. Remember to make your classes fun for those who come. For many it is there first exposure to our activity and we need to do whatever it takes to keep them coming back.

A few months back I was listening to a zoom computer presentation from Bill Harrison. It convinced me we have the right person coming to our clinic this fall. If you have not made plans and reservations, I encourage you to do so quickly. The hotel rate is fantastic at $82 per night. Plenty of places to eat very close by and the Saturday night dance is a short stroll from pur hotel. Duane has a great job and there will be plenty of info for callers of all skill levels.

If you want something special covered, tell Duane and he will pass it on.

The Clinic will start Friday afternoon, October 15 at the Comfort Suites The Villages, 1202 Avenida Central, The Villages, FL., 32159, Phone: 352-259-6578. The clinic continues on Saturday the 16th and wraps up with Bill calling a dance Saturday evening with Loretta Hanhurst doing the rounds. Sunday morning at 9 AM will be the FCA Annual meeting at the hotel. The meeting will include election of officers for the coming year. If you have any business for the meeting, please let me know ahead of time. The weekend will conclude with programming of the 2022 State Convention. We need one representative from each area association to plan to be there.

The 2021 / 2022 Florida State Square and Round Dance Convention will be held in Daytona at the Ocean Center March 18 and 19, 2022. There will be a trail in dance on Thursday so make your plans. You should have received your notice to register from Sec. Mark Fetzer for the caller chair. The website is open and ready for you to sign in and tell us what times and what levels you are available and proficient calling. We do not have a hotel for callers at the current time but we are working on it. The Hilton so far has been unwilling to make a commitment and deal on rates. Look for an announcement shortly on where to stay.

Go dancing if you feel good. I look forward to seeing you in person at the fall clinic and annual meeting. We want you there if you feel comfortable being out. If you aren't ready, stay home. And if you feel bad STAY HOME.

It is an honor to be President of the FCA and thanks for all you do for square and round dancing.

NORTHWEST ASSOCIATION

We hope you all had a good start to your summer and be be use to the heat by now. Northwest had a group of 20 go to the National Convention and we all had a great time. We are started classes and are trying to finish them to get our students ready for the Roundup October 22-23ed at Grand Square Hall in Panama City. Our caller for the Roundup is Tom Miller, Bob Poyner is MC and Pauline Angress is the Cuer. We hope you will come visit us. Agape Squares will be starting a class in October.

Seaside Squares had a July Jamboree last month and have a 58th Anniversary dance on August 21st. Come help them celebrate and dance with caller Jet Robers and cuers Cathy & Fred fisher. September 17-18th is a Beach Blast sponsored by Seaside Squares that that ought to be lots of fun. Bubba Mingu and Ted Kennedy are calling and Jack & Christa Gail Pointer are cueing. Grand Square Hall is having a Summer Swing dance August 28th featuring Chris Burchfield, Darryl McMillan, Elmer Sheffield and Tim & Terry Wilaby. That will be great fun so don't miss it.

Capital Twirlers started dancing in May after 13 months but they are off to a good start. They started a class with 26 students! As you can see Northwest is dancing and we hope you are too! Brian and Barbara Presidents

WEST COAST ASSOCIATION

Greetings from the west coast of Florida! Just as the clubs started opening, it was the end of the dance season and several of them closed for their summer break! We have high hopes that all of them will open in the Fall. In the past, all the dancing at Strawberry Square ended in April. This year, the Friday night advanced dance went until early June. The Wednesday night Mainstream and Easy Plus dance went until the end of June. They started a class on June 1st, and it is continuing.

When Suncoast Squares in St. Petersburg was ready to start, they found out they had lost their spot at the facility they have used since their inception.

They started up on June 21st at the Garden Club of St. Petersburg, 500 Sunset Drive South, St. Petersburg. Their caller, J.R. St. Jean, moved from Orlando to St. Petersburg just to call for this group! With the move to the new location, they had to change their Tuesday night Mainstream/Plus dance from Tuesday night to Monday night. Their Plus/Advanced dance is still on Thursday night.

I was pleased to see that Florida had 103 representatives at the Nationals in Jackson, Mississippi. From all the pictures on Facebook, it looked like everyone was having fun. I wish I could have been there!

We were saddened to hear of Cuer Jimmy Griffin's cancer diagnosis. Our prayers go out to Jimmy and his family.

Our annual Fall Fun Fest will be in Bartow on November 12 and 13. Tom Miller and Keith Stevens will be calling Mainstream, Plus, and Advanced. Jimmy and Carol were scheduled to cue, however, they have asked to be replaced. As soon as another cuer is scheduled, we'll let you know. If you have a 2020 ribbon for last year's Festival that was canceled, the ribbon will be accepted at the 2021 event. If you don't have a ribbon, you can order them from Don and Ann Slocum, 2055 S. Floral Avenue, Lot #99, Bartow, Florida 33830.

In addition to looking forward to the Fall Fun Fest, we are all looking forward to the state convention at the Ocean Center in Daytona Beach on March 18-19, 2022. It will be so good to see everyone again!

If you're ever in our area, please join us at a dance. You can check the schedule at www.dancergram.com, look at the Planner. If you don't find what you're looking for there, feel free to contact me at sqdnfcf@gmail.com or 863-224-3393.

This is the ultimate history of Modern Western Square Dancing, as told by the most influential person, Bob Osgood: publishers of Sets in Order (the most popular square dance magazine of all time) and the mover/shaker who created CALLERLAB. Edited and compiled by Paul Moore from Osgood's personal and professional papers. It is available from Amazon in paper, or on Kindle. It is a must read!

CUE TIPS

Selected by Judy Barnhill

This Summer has definitely been dry and hot for most of us. It's grand that we get to go indoors to a cool hall and dance! Most everyone is dancing with others and attending conventions. I'm going to share a song Charlie Lovelace choreographed several years ago. It is not in ROUNDALAB so the long sheet is attached. I hope you enjoy it.
