President's

Florida Callers Association

Bill Chesnut President FCA

Greetings from beautiful downtown Melrose and our annual gathering of yellow flies

July is arriving way to quick. Summer in is Florida now in full swing as the halls that have opened for square and round dancing are finding out if their air conditioners are up to the task of keeping us cool. Good news is more clubs are back dancing every week. Most are returning between now and September so dancing appears to have survived the pandemic. We have lost too many callers and dancers, both to the eternal rest and to retiring from our activity.

We will all need to work a little harder this fall to try and get some new folks in to the activity to keep us going. If it is right for you and your area check out the new social square dancing program on Callerlab's site, callerlab.org. If you like the idea, try it. If not try something you like to find and keep dancers. New dancers are the future for us and that means any idea that works is good. Let us know your successes. I learned a short time back that long time FCA member Burt Summers passed away. Burt and his wife Carol were very active in the S.E. for many years. Our prayers and sympathy go out to Carol and family. I also received a call last month that former member Ron Libby had passed away. Ron was another caller I have known for a long time and who will be missed by our activity. Our condolences and prayers to the Libby family.

Callers have you signed up to attend the October Clinic and dance with Bill Harrison? A few rooms are left at our special rate of $82 but not for much longer. Duane Rodgers has worked hard to get the weekend all put together and we don't want you to miss it. The Clinic will start Friday afternoon, October 15 at the the Comfort Suites The Villages, 1202 Avenida Central, The Villages, FL, 32159, Phone: 352-259-6578. Bill has a program that should be helpful to all callers regardless of experience level. Clinic continues on Saturday the 16th and wraps up with Bill calling a dance Saturday evening with Loretta Hanhurst doing the rounds. Sunday morning at 9 AM will be the FCA Annual meeting at the hotel. The meeting will include election of officers for the coming year. If you have any business for the meeting, please let me know ahead of time. The weekend will conclude with programming of the 2022 State Convention. We need one representative from each area association to plan to be there. The 2021 / 2022 Florida State Square and Round Dance Convention dates are finally set. We are looking forward to seeing all your smiling faces in Daytona at the Ocean Center March 18 and 19, 2022. There will be a trail in dance on Thursday so make your plans. You should have received your notice to register from Sec. Mark Fetzer for the caller chair. The website is open and ready for you to sign in and tell us what times and what levels you are available and proficient calling. We do not have a hotel for callers at the current time but we are working on it. The Hilton so far has been unwilling to make a commitment and deal on rates. Look for an announcement shortly on where to stay. Enjoy your summer and make plans for the fall.

I look forward to seeing you in person at the fall clinic and annual meeting. We want you there if you feel comfortable being out. If you aren't ready, stay home. And if you feel bad STAY HOME.

It is an honor to be President of the FCA and thanks for all you do for square and round dancing.

Association News

Greetings from the West Coast of Florida!

We are excited! More and more dances and classes are starting. Plans are also underway for the 46th Annual Fall Fun Fest in Bartow November 12-13 with Tom Miller (Pennsylvania) and Keith Stevens (Lake Wales, Florida) and Jimmy and Carol Griffin (St. Pete, Florida). I will be visiting our clubs shortly to sell ribbons for this event. I'll give you advanced notice of my visit, so you remember to bring your checkbook!

We are so ready for the state convention to start! The convention will be in Daytona Beach on March 18 - 19, 2022. We will have the same theme and raffles that were planned for the 2021 convention that we had to cancel due to COVID. I will be selling ribbons to the convention as I visit clubs in our area. You can also find a registration form at www.floridasquaredancing.com that you can complete and mail to the registration chairman.

Promenade Squares in Pinellas Park will be starting on July 11th with Scotty Sharrer calling and Jimmy Griffin cueing. They have to change their dance night from Thursday to Friday. They also went from a weekly club to an every other week club.

Buttons and Bows of Lakeland will start on Tuesday, September 14th, with David Muller calling and Charlie Lovelace cueing.

Temple Twirlers will be dancing the second and fourth Mondays until the end of the year and will re-evaluate whether they will only dance two nights a month or return to their every Monday night schedule.

Strawberry Square is still dancing Mainstream/Easy Plus with no Rounds on Wednesday nights, Friday afternoon Fun Plus, and an Advanced Dance/Workshop on Friday nights (as long as there are enough dancers for two squares). Marty Vanwart is calling for the Wednesday and Friday afternoon dances, and Keith Stevens is calling for the Friday afternoon Advanced dance/workshop. There is also a new dancer class that had four and a half couples the first night and enough angels to make two squares. Marty Vanwart is the caller.

Judy Barnhill continues to cue for two different virtual sessions; Phases 3 - 4 on Sundays and Phases 2 - 3 on Tuesdays.

Be sure to check the DANCERgram Planner for more details on the above-listed dances and classes and any new dances that are scheduled!

If you're in our area on the west coast of Florida, be sure to visit www.dancergram.com for information on scheduled classes and dances, or, you can call me at 863-224-3393.

Penny Green President

CORRECTION: Last month I stated that Earle Collins will be cueing at the 2021 West Coast Association 46th Annual Fall Fun Fest. This was an error. He will be cueing in 2022. Jimmy and Carol Griffin will be cueing in 2021.

Promenade Squares

Now open for dancing this summer! We have a new dance night, a new location, and a new caller!!!

The location: Forbes Recreation Center: 6401 94th Ave, Pinellas Park, FL

Date: Every other Friday through the end of August. STARTING FRIDAY, JUNE 11TH Time: 6:30 pm-7:00 pm

Rounds with Jimmy Griffin, Cuer
7:00 pm-9:00 pm Alternating Plus/
Mainstream/Rounds with Scotty Sharrer, Caller

Jimmy & Carol Griffin have been cueing for Promenade Squares for many years! We sincerely appreciate their dedication to our club!

Scotty Sharrer has excellent recommendations from several of our dancers! Scotty and his wife, Marlene, have recently moved to Pinellas County from Delray Beach, Florida.

Scotty's experience includes all dance levels from basics to advanced. He has also sponsored square dance cruises and other square dance vacations.

Promenade Squares will continue to follow guidelines to keep participants safe. The club will supply drinking water, cups, napkins, and hand sanitizers. Participants may bring their own snacks, and beverages. Wearing a mask is optional. Out of consideration of others, please do not attend if you feel ill. For more information, call or text: 727-798-3839 email: friendly@verizon.net

Temple Twirlers

Temple Twirlers will continue dancing every 2nd and 4th Monday through the end of 2021 at Oak Grove United Methodist Church, 2707 West Waters Ave, Tampa, FL 33614. We will consider a return to weekly dancing in the fall depending on the COVID situation and attendance numbers. As always, dances will begin with early rounds at 7pm, then squares and rounds from 7:30pm-9:30pm.

We will continue following safety protocols consistent with CDC guidelines. If you have any symptoms of COVID-19 please do not come. You must have a signed COVID waiver on file; our dancers' insurance covers accidents, but does not cover you if you get COVID-19. Hand sanitizer will continue to be provided and we recommend sanitizing after each tip. Masks should be worn when dancing squares, but are optional for fully vaccinated dancers. We look forward to seeing you for the summer dance season!

Star Moran, Club Asst. Secretary.

LIGHTHOUSES #33 thru #37

Port Boca Grande Lighthouse, Egmont Key Lighthouse, Mullet Key Lighthouse, Tierra Verde Lighthouse, Anclote Keys Lighthouse

#33 Port Boca Grande Lighthouse: The construction of this lighthouse, in 1890, was so "house-like" it was once used as a home with a keeper. The square building is only 44 feet high. In the center of this structure is a staircase leading up to the light with living quarters circling around the staircase on the first floor. The lighthouse went out of service in 1966 but was re-commissioned in 1986 and is still in service today.

#34 Egmont Key Lighthouse: This Lighthouse is the next in line traveling north up the west coast of Florida. This was Lighthouse #6 already written about and published in last August or September issues of your Square Dance Magazines.

As a refresher: it was built and lit in May of 1848 but damaged by a hurricane in September of that same year. It was rebuilt in 1858. In 1861 Union Troops occupied Egmont Key but destroyed the light when they were forced to leave. It was relit after the Civil War in 1866. As of 1990 it has been automated.

#35 Mullet Key Lighthouse: This lighthouse was a 38 foot high structure built on piles. Little is known about this light but it was active in 1912 with a single light and, per records, was still active in 1959, however it is non-existent today.

#36 Tierra Verde Lighthouse: This is a very new lighthouse and can be seen across the channel from Egmont Key. An official aid to navigation, it assists the Egmont Key Lighthouse in guiding ships into Tampa Bay.

#37 Anclote Keys Lighthouse: This lighthouse was lit on September 10, 1887, just a year after Tarpon Springs was settled. The lighthouse went dark in the early 1900's. In 1953 it was automated then electrified in 1963. Again, deactivated in 1985 it was relit in 2003 and it is still working to this day.

By now all of you have heard that the Florida State Convention is really a "sure thing". We will be dancing next year, 2022, on Friday (all day) March 18th and Saturday (all day) March 19th. Although hotel and camping facilities and prices have not been completed they soon will be available so keep checking your local newsletter/magazine they will be the first to know.

Carol and Richard Douget, General Chairmen, have been working diligently trying to get their roster completed with workers that but still need a few more friends with yellow rocks to help in these committees: After Party Chairperson and someone to plan the After Party Entertainment. In search for a Dangle Dance Chairperson, and Ways & Means Chairperson for these areas: Northwest Area and Northeast Area and the West Coast Area. These are all fun and easy committees so if you want to receive and share lots of yellow rocks contact Carol at 410-952-7408 or email her at cldcpa@yahoo.com.

CUE TIPS

Selected by Judy Barnhill

July is upon us and we relate this month to Patriotism. Everyone in America celebrates our freedom with the 4th of July. I thought I suggest some patriotic songs and share one I wrote this year. All the songs but the one I choreographed are on ROUNDALAB and I'm sharing mine with you in BOW & SWING.

Song Suggestions :

Boogie, Woogie Bugle Boy by Russ & Judy Francis, Phase II Two Step

My Name is America by Richard & Frances Matthews, Phase IV Rumba

Navy Blue by David & Teri Meyer

Seventy-Six Trombones Tim Eum & Cindy Hadley, Phase II OneStep/Square Dance

(All Square Dancers can round dance this)

The Battle of New Orleans by Jerry Buckmaster & Zodie Reigel, Phase II

Two Step

"I'll never forget my first time calling a square dance. I was 13 years old and about 30 seconds into the dance all the dancers stopped and were watching me perform on stage. I thought they were in awe, but I found out they couldn't dance to me because my record was too darn fast."
