Fay Barker, co-editor of the Central Association's Keepin' Posted, had a medical emergency while out of state and had to be rushed home. Details are unavailable at this time.

The following message was received from the wife of Bob Bourassa, caller in the Brooksville area, regarding his condition: "Bob is not doing well. He is in the Dove Hospice program at the Brooksville Healthcare Center. I'm sorry I have not kept you up to date. But it seems like I'm very busy most of the time. I have had a lot of support from everyone! Please thank everyone for asking about him. I know there is a lot of love out there for him. We have heard from dancers that he taught years ago as well as in the last few years. Sharon" (9/9/13)

This E-Newsletter is published by a square and round dancer concerned about the preservation of our dance activity. This is not a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, Inc. The target audience is the dancers in the West Coast area of the state of Florida and contains dance information for the upcoming week in this area as well as major dances around the state and nation, and any other information of interest to the dancers. It is published weekly with addendums as needed. New information each week is highlighted. Permission is given to forward this newsletter to your membership or others interested in receiving a copy or to provide printed copies to your members and visitors to your club. It is also available on the West Coast page of the Federation Website at www.floridasquaredance.com. If you would like a copy emailed to you or would like your club information added, please contact the editor at sgdncfan@aol.com. Please continue to support the West Coast Dancer, a publication of the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association, which is published bimonthly and is provided free of charge for all dancers. For circulation, listings, club news, ads and articles, contact Ed Henning at 813-659-4787 or evhenning@peoplepc.com.
