Word has been received that national caller Johnny Jones has passed away. Below is his picture and profile.

Johnny began calling in 1970 and in 1979 went fulltime as a caller. He has called in 47 of the 50 states including the Alaska State convention in Fairbanks. He has been featured on many large weekend festivals such as the Delaware Valley Festival in Philadelphia and the Baltimore festival where the attendance exceeded 200 squares. In 1981, Johnny was instrumental in forming a callers quartet called "The Red Boot Boys." The boys were together for 23 years doing more than 150 dance/concerts per year. One of their more memorable weekends was the Greater Atlanta Extravaganza in the mid 80's where more than 1600 dancers were in attendance and they brought in The Red Boot Band for the Saturday night concert. Johnny recorded for Red Boot Records with many hits to his credit and recorded 14 albums with the "Boys." Johnny & his wife Penny reside in Dacula, GA.

Alfred G. Brundage, 96, a nationally recognized square dance caller of Miami and formerly of Port St. Lucie, Fla., and Connecticut, died Aug. 30, 2016 in Miami of natural causes.

Brundage, the partner of Norma Peak of Miami since 1997, was predeceased by Beatrice Miles Brundage, his wife of 31 years, and his grandson, Frederick Griswold Schalich. .

He is survived by two children, Barry Wolcott Brundage of London, and Mary Lou Brundage Schalich of Monroe, Conn.; three stepchildren, William F. Miles of Annapolis, Md., Barbara Brooks of Rockport, Maine, and Patricia Silvia of Milford, Conn.; a brother, Robert M. Brundage of Albuquerque, N.M.; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Born Nov. 4, 1919 in Hartford, Conn., Brundage was the son of the late Harold A. and Mable Gene Griswold Brundage. He grew up in Danbury, Conn., and graduated from Danbury High School and the University of Maine, where he studied agriculture. However, it was Brundage's boyhood fascination with square dancing, discovered peeking into the windows at Danbury's now-defunct Hawthorne's Tavern, which would direct his career path.

Brundage, his mother, brother and several neighbors formed the 4H Club's first-ever music club, the King Street Pioneers, that helped introduce square dance music to the region. Brundage initially played trumpet for the band before filling in for the group's outgoing square dance caller and discovering his life's passion.

As square dancing grew in popularity, Brundage and the King Street Pioneers went from passing the hat after dances in a former chicken coop to becoming a sought-after attraction for local community groups and churches.

In the 1930s, Brundage began teaching square dancing at state 4H conferences in Storrs College, Conn., now the University of Connecticut. He opened his first dance barn in 1948 in Stepney, Conn., where he taught his first caller school, also one of the first in the Northeastern United States.

Brundage received broad recognition for his contributions to square dancing. He was a sought-after attraction among community groups and churches, and a regular featured performer at the Danbury State Fair. He was admitted to the National Square Dance Hall of Fame in 1975 and in 1993, to the New England Square Dancing Hall of Fame. In addition, the Square Dance Foundation of New England presented him its highest award for distinguished service, the Yankee Clipper Award, in 2003.

In addition to calling square dances and teaching callers in Connecticut, and after 1978, in Florida, Brundage established a strong dance tourism program. Over the course of 50 years, he and his late wife led thousands of dancers to sightseeing and dance exchanges in 35 countries. Among Brundage's career highlights were the opportunities to call square dances on the Great Wall of China, at the Taj Mahal in India, and on the grounds of the Parthenon in Greece, the Pyramids in Egypt and at Nairobi National Park in Kenya.

As he shared his love of square dancing and travel, Brundage developed deep, lasting friendships around the world. He lived his life based on a creed he called the "3 Cs," striving never to complain, criticize or condemn.

Funeral services will be private. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations in Al's memory be made to the Square Dance Foundation of New England, c/o Sheila Moody, 72 Beachwood Terrace, Wells, ME, 04090-4003 Caller John Saunders has a reoccurrence of cancer and is undergoing ten weeks of radiation therapy. If you would like to send a card, his address is 3303 Travelers Palm Drive, Edgewater, FL 32141.

Facebook posting regarding Joy Taylor: She isn't bouncing back as quickly as she did after the surgery. Right after the surgery, it amazed me how quickly she was up and walking around, and doing things for herself...and that led to SKY Rehab saying she was doing too well to need their services. Now however, she gets so out of breath just sitting up, or going to the bathroom.

Joy and her husband, Kibby, were presidents of Spinning Wheels.

63rd FLORIDA STATE CONVENTION

PEN & GWEN'S TRAVELS

Chapter 5

Poor Gwen, always the worrier, was really beginning to fret when she realized that so, so many friends did not know the State Convention dates had been changed to March 24th and 25th, that these dates are for all day Friday starting with "needle down" at 10 AM and also the same time on Saturday the 25th. But she did have to smile too just thinking that now the customary Snow Birds would still be in Florida and now would be available to attend – hooray - no more excuses!!!

Then Gwen became concerned about the Trail-In Dance held every year on Thursday night prior to the State Convention but her worry was soon unfounded as there are no exceptions in this department either. It is still being held the Thursday night before the convention, the 23rd. And it's still being held at the Strawberry Squares Dance Hall in Plant City. She also found out the callers this year will be the co-caller chairmen Jack Lewis and Bill Chesnut, with early rounds, starting at 7:00 PM, cued by co-chairmen Joanne & Ken Helton with Chuck & Mary Ryall's. Gwen got out her social calendar to make all these changes in ink-----she does not want to miss out on a single chance to square dance and round dance too. Especially since she and Pen are traveling so far to attend.

It was mid-afternoon when Pen finally caught up with Gwen. Seems he and "the boys", (Rico, Kowalski, Skipper and Private) had gone out to sea to find the big pink octopus that had been plaguing them ever since the movie. He found Gwen with the ladies all sitting around giggling and laughing and looking at the "What Should I Bring To The Dance" cook book which also was Gwen's photo album. Seems each page has a picture of someone from either their home Colony in Antarctica or pictures of their new friends in Madagascar.

"Oh look, Pen – here is a picture of you playing a pirate with a parrot on your shoulder and everything. And one of you caught napping in a sombrero and of you shoveling snow, wow remember that stuff? Now here's a cute one of me with a little bow on my head just learning to waddle. And one of "the boys" too. Isn't Private just the cutest?", Gwen commented with gales of laughter from all the gals. Several of the gals wanted a cook book/photo album of their own but since Gwen does not carry them, she suggested they could order them from Empress Elsa Penguin (Huddleston) for only $10.00. Phone 954-484-4553 or if they should see her and the Emperor at the different dances they'll have some with them.

Always hungry, Pen got to thinking about the sombrero picture and suggested having a Mexican Fiesta night. Gwen checked her trusty cook book and found a Burrito Casserole*, a Mexican Salad* and Black Bean & Salsa Dip*. "Can't get too much more than those for Mexican." she thought. And since pecans grow in Madagascar she decided to make some Sugar & Cinnamon Spiced Pecans* to munch on later. Yummy!

Later in the evening as Pen and Gwen were strolling by the ocean before turning in for the evening, they decided they really should be swimming on their way as they still have a long, long way to travel to get to Florida. Pen said he had already planned their next stop and it is to be a surprise for Gwen. He would tell her nothing more even though she teased and nagged, he just smiled. All he did tell her is that they would be swimming up the Yamuna River to the most beautiful place on earth. Now Gwen was really curious and anxious, so much so she had all her gear packed and ready for travel even before she went to bed on her sand dune. No reading the "Fire HD 8 Tablet" tonight!!!

FCA President's Message

I would like to talk about a couple of traditions which make us “first class” as an activity.

I read a while back an article from Ed Foote about square dance attire. He made great anecdotal points about attire for dancing. I concur with Ed in that some sort of dress or informal “uniform” is good for the dancers and the activity. Personally, I am proud to wear my “uniform” when I call or attend a dance. It is true that dance attire is based on old styles from today and were updated in the decades and are now obsolete in today’s world. But there is also a certain level of attire which can be minimum at dances. I suggest that informal workshops on a weekend event are totally different. Many times when dancers dress for the event, they feel special and have more self confidence when dancing when they feel good about their appearance. No matter the specific clothing, the idea is to feel good about what is being worn for him/herself and the others dancing, but show respect for the event.

A few years ago I subscribed to a square dance caller’s forum. One well known caller said that he saw no reason for any dress code for anything. I have never met this caller and if I knew him, I may think differently. I think weddings, funerals, court, proms, sports events, fox hunting, Halloween parties, etc. have a certain minimum dress code to honor the event and make everyone feel special or as part of the event! I admit that today I dress differently from 20 years ago, but I still dress to a degree to honor the activity. When I moved to Alabama, I was told that I was too 1970s “Rhinestone Cowboy” looking. Maybe. However, I always wear long-sleeved shirts, dress pants, bolo tie and some sort of western jewelry to honor our activity/event. I think there is a minimum dress code to honor ourselves and activity.

I also believe that certain square dance activities have different dress standards, informal dances should be more relaxed along with workshops. Many callers wear worn out jeans and tee shirts to dance events, the same attire as country western music stars. I wish those callers would not honor that breakdown in society nor consider themselves in the same light as those stars. Let’s continue honoring the activity by certain minimums in attire for formal dance events. By the way, I hope the well known caller I mentioned previously does not wear his “birthday suit” to a birthday party.

On a HIGHER NOTE...We love what we do and enjoy those around us. I am saddened when dancer/caller/cuer/friends pass away. I appreciate the communication forms in today’s electronic world, as communication is almost instant with email, phone calls, etc. I am not savvy on other modern forms of communication of Twitter, Instagram, Facebook or other forms of communication. But there is the “tried and true” method...call, write and let someone know if there is news to be spread to support an ill dancer/caller/cuer. In 2011 I was flattered that Bob Stern called me on behalf of the FCA to ask how I was after a major medical event. He brought tears to my eyes because I felt cared about. It is always a cherished memory when someone shows concern. The FCA wants to honor all ailing members. If callers and dancers have any information about FCA members, please share that information with me or the current President so the association can show its support to them or loved ones. There is no formal notification system, just caring and accurate “spreading of the word”.

Ed and Fran Gargiula are a match made in heaven.

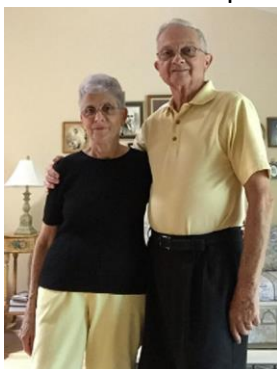

The grandparents – married for 52 years – have sported coordinating outfits every day for the past two decades. And they don't plan on stopping any time soon.

"It started out because we took country dancing and all of the couples coordinated," Ed, 76, tells PEOPLE. "And then it just became a habit!"

"Matching just works for us, now it would bother us if we didn't match!"

adds Fran, 74.

Their 17-year-old grandson, Anthony Gargiula, decided to document their matching style in a series of Twitter photos that have since garnered over 83,000 likes.

"People say, 'Oh, what are they going to wear tomorrow!' We have fans!" Ed says with a laugh. "If we didn't match people would say 'Oh my God!'"

The couple, both retired Long Island elementary schoolteachers, met at a teachers' conference during their 20s – and have been inseparable ever since.

"We do everything together, because we enjoy it," says Ed.

"The clothing thing, that's for everyone to say 'Oh, that's cute!' but we match deep down too," says Ed.

Ed and Fran square dance five times a week in their retirement community in The Villages, Florida.

SOURCE: @ANTHONYGARGIULA / TWITTER

"One of my favorite things about him is his ability to reach out to me when he knows I'm upset about something," says Fran. "He can read me very well."

"I cook for him every single night!" Fran says of Ed.

SOURCE: @ANTHONYGARGIULA / TWITTER

"Our love is built on being aware of each other and caring for one another every single day," explains Ed.

"We match, but the clothes don't make the relationship! We have always been close, best friends, and we just love each other."
