The message below was received from Rick Ducharm, President of Citrus Squares:

“Sorry to have to pass this on, but Ellis Lindsey passed away on the way to Perry Hospital in the ambulance. He had just called a 20 minute tip at the Salty Bobbers and we were in a break. He got a cup of coffee and was sitting on the sidelines when he just passed out and rolled forward out of his chair falling onto the floor. It was about 8:45 p.m. on January 4th. We gave immediate aid as we could, including CPR, until the ambulance arrived. He was breathing when the ambulance took over. On the way to the hospital he passed. Leila was following with one of our dancers driving so she was on hand. No other info at the moment.” Rick DuCharme, President, Citrus Squares.

Ellis is a caller in north central Florida. He was president of the Florida Callers Association in 2008 – 2009. He called at Citrus Squares and Salty Bobbers.
